

THE ASHLAND TIDINGS.

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 29, 1878.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Merry Christmas! One hundred and seventy-three pupils at the academy. Services will be held regularly in the M. E. Church soon.

The Postoffice at Dardanelles, in this county, has been discontinued. We have received a cordial invitation to attend the Masonic festival on the 27th.

The Jacksonville German social club "Eintracht," will give a ball on New Year's day.

Rev. J. A. Vandiver will preach in the Presbyterian Church on Sunday morning next.

Read the advertisement under "special notices" of the ball at Phoenix on Christmas eve.

A sufficient amount has been subscribed to build a new M. E. Church at Phoenix next year.

There are at least four weddings on the programme for Ashland during the holidays, we are told.

The Baptist Sunday School will meet at Millers Hall Sunday afternoon at half past two o'clock.

The bills audited by the County commissioners for the last two terms amounted to over $4,000.

R. S. Danlap has served as Tyler of Warren Lodge, No. 10, A. F. & A. M., for fifteen consecutive years.

Found—On the street yesterday morning, a lady's brown kid glove. The owner will find it at this office.

The trial of the would-be stage robber, Thos. Jackson, comes off next week, in the Siskiyou county court.

Mr. Dollarhide, of the toll house, went through town with a fine drove of hogs from Phoenix last Wednesday.

Phoenix will have a shooting match on the 24th, and two Christmas trees at the church in the evening, Christmas eve.

W. J. Cleland, a student of the academy, is going over the Siskiyou on horseback to spend the holidays at home.

The telegraph office at Rock Point has been closed since Miss Colvig left. Col. White will open it in the spring.

The Times says the boys of Jacksonville abuse a certain n-w corner among them, having beaten him outrageously more than once.

Mr. A. W. Bush calls this a good country for raising potatoes. He just finished digging several thousand bushels last week.

From a gentleman just over from Scott's valley, we learn that the weather here had been much colder there than here, up to last week.

Al Ferree, who has been attending the academy, left for Linkville last week. He does not expect to resume his studies this winter.

We are indebted to Senator McCall for the Congressional Record, which he kindly offers to send us regularly during the session of Congress.

As the C. & O. stage, driven by Ab Giddings was going over the Siskiyou the other morning, the forward axle broke. No damage was done.

There is a "sliding risk" back of the M. E. Church, where the sun has no chance to melt the ice. We counted about 147 small people in motion on it the other day.

Henry D. Solittle, an old resident of Happy Camp, died at white Horse Prairie, Spokane falls, W. T., on the 20th ult., from the effects of a fall from the roof of a barn.

The flouring mills have about settled down to their usual winter "grind." The roads are too bad for freighting, and the local custom now furnishes them about all their trade.

Two loads of freight were brought to Ashland from Roseburg by Mos and Wood last Saturday. They received two cents per pound. On Monday, L. M. McCall and John Grubb each came in with a team from Reading. Freight from that place is now four cents per pound.

Mr. J. Honck, of the Ashland House, will be a busy landlord during the holidays. Besides his usual duties he will be giving two of those excellent suppers, for which he has a wide reputation—one on Christmas Eve for the ball, and the other on the 27th for the Masons.

Jeremiah McCarthy has been committed to jail at Happy Camp on a charge of murdering A. J. Krowick at that place in September last. McCarthy was arrested at the time of the murder as the guilty party, but owing to a lack of evidence could not be held. Since that time, however, officers have been diligently at work on the case, and now think they have sufficient evidence to warrant his re-arrest.

TREAT FOR THE LUNACY SCHOOL.—A New Year's tree will be prepared in Millers Hall for the free distribution of presents. Ample preparations will be made to furnish all the children who may come, with sweetmeats to begin the new year with. A cordial invitation is extended to all who wish to put presents on the tree—parents, sisters, friends. "Whoever will may come." Programme in next week's issue.

DAILY MAIL.—Mr. Cowell, the contractor on the Ashland and Lake View route, began daily service on Monday last. The time allowed him to make the distance between this place and Lake View is 60 hours, and Mr. Cowell feels confident that his arrangements will enable him to run through on time, with a few hours to spare. We trust he will succeed, and had the increased mail facilities between this valley and Lake county with great satisfaction.

THE WIND STORM.—Reports from various parts of the valley show considerable damage to have been done by the storm on Sunday of last week, especially along the river. Large pine trees were snapped off like pipe stems in some places, and fences were badly used. A large tree crushed through the roof of Raymond & McGrader's store at Rock Point, and damaged the building and stock to the extent of $500. Spire Hay's blacksmith shop damaged to the amount of $100, and other buildings were damaged more or less.

TWO PRISONERS GONE.—On the 8th instant, R. M. Singleton, one of the first settlers of the Unappo valley, died at his home at the age of 63 years. His death was caused by accumulation of fat about the region of his heart. His death was peaceful and uneventful, and he passed away surrounded by his children, grand children and great grand children. On Tuesday, the 10th Dr. S. Palmer, an old citizen of Douglas county, died at his residence, at the age of 64 years. He was buried by the Masonic fraternity on Wednesday.

BALLS IN ASHLAND.—As will be seen by reference to our advertising columns, a ball will be given on Christmas Eve, in McCall & Bann's new hall. Preparations are being made to make this party one of the finest of the season, and no pains will be spared to have everything first class. Good music is secured, and the supper is to be served by Mr. Honck, at the Ashland House. On the evening of the 27th, another ball will be given, and a large attendance is expected. The managers have made extensive preparations, and are determined to have it a success, as they undoubtedly will.

MASONIC FESTIVAL.—The Masonic festival will be held in Honck's Hall, on the 27th inst. Programme—Meeting for business at 4 o'clock, music and general sociality; at six o'clock, supper, after which will come the installation of the officers of Ashland Lodge, No. 23, by Thos. G. Rowan, D. G. M., of the Grand Lodge of Oregon, followed by an address by Rev. J. R. N. Bell, Grand Chaplain of the Grand Lodge of Oregon. A general attendance of the members of the Ashland and Jacksonville lodges is expected. All brothers in good standing are invited. By order of committee.

TOO BAD.—An item making some mention of a skating rink appeared in this paper some time ago, and nearly every paper in the state has announced that Ashland is to have a skating rink, and our devoted town has been made the butt of all the jokes that were ever dreamed of concerning skating rinks. The item is still going round and only yesterday the mail brought us an extract which chuckled over the bird that constituted of set at that stock rinks are in demand. "We don't like to discourage any one, but we have counted that set at stock rinks just 27 times in as many different journals. We pray for a rest."

GOOD WORK.—About a year ago an association of stock raisers of this vicinity was formed for the purpose of promoting the destruction of wolves, panthers, and other animals which prey upon stock. A bounty of fifteen dollars was offered for panther skins, five dollars for coyotes, etc. Since that time, there has been brought to the Pioneer Store, where the bounties are paid, the skulls of 23 coyotes and one panther, all of which were killed within the boundaries of the association. The number of sheep that have been saved in this way will be worth more to the stock men than many times the amount paid out in bounties, and it is certainly to their interest to continue the organization and its work.

BUFFALO HORN'S HEAD-DRESS.—Mr. Colwell informs us that a gentleman who is now in Lake county, has the head-dress of Buffalo Horn, who was killed last summer in the Bannock war, having taken it himself from the head of the chief, whom he found with two other Indians dead in a cave. It is a great curiosity, and must have given the wearer an aspect of much ferocity, judging from the description we have been given of it. Its most prominent features are two large buffalo horns (whence the chief derived his name) fixed at its top. Surrounding the head are rows of wassels feet, and other attractive objects, woven together in such a way as to make a kind of capote or hood which reaches to the shoulders.

NEW DODGE.—The Roseburg Independent has the following: "Among the sharp tricks that are resorted to in order to obtain an occasional 'smile' from our liquor dealers, none are more original than one that has recently been practiced in this city. A man entered a saloon and stated he had some beans on the road from Jacksonville to Roseburg and that he wanted to buy some whiskey for his men. Of course the accommodating bar-keeper invited him to sample the whiskey. He went through the same thing at several houses, but finally while trying to practice his game on a prominent liquor dealer, he was detected. He had had the same thing before with the hotel man, who, like Camborne, used some effusive language suitable to the occasion."

Big Butte Items.—From our regular correspondent under date of Dec. 12: Nights cold, roads muddy and game plentiful. C. A. Cary will commence teaching select school next Monday. The "Yellow Jacket" steam saw mill has shut down for the present. Most of the inhabitants of this place have been or are now down with the epidemic (not the epizootic). Big Butte has a tame "Bear." He came from Webfoot and seems to be an industrious young gentleman. "Dad" Slaughter and family have moved from Phoenix, and settle at the Yellow Jacket mill. We extend them a hearty welcome.

The bow is gone, the fiddle cold and the violin indisposed, so our young folks have not danced for some time, but amuse themselves by playing "smut." Chicks are in demand. While chopping a tree down recently, a limb fell on the head of Willie Snider, a lad of sixteen, and came near sending him to the land of his fathers. He is around now, but has a mutilated scalp, a racked jaw and a fractured tooth.

C. E. Parker, an only brother of Dr. J. P. Parker, has recently arrived from Massachusetts. It must have been a happy meeting to the brothers, since they had not seen one another for 41 years. He is a machinist, is favorably impressed with the country and will probably locate with us. Dr. Parker is down with a bilious attack and with the prevailing distemper.

JOSEY SMOKER.—For most of which we are indebted to the Herald, Deer are numerous on the hill sides. There was a very large attendance at court. Thirty-five scholars attend the Lake View school.

R. A. Jones has been improving the Lake View house. Geo. Strong has gone to Jacksonville to remain till spring.

There is to be a grand ball at Lake View on Christmas eve. "Uncle Joe" has established a new saw mill on Pine creek.

Mr. V. C. Snelling and Miss Susie A. Butler were married on the 28th ult. Messrs. A. F. and V. L. Snelling have opened a carpenter shop in Lake View.

Dr. Byrd and Sam'l Paice, E. q. will move from Linkville to Lake View. J. S. Watts has been appointed a J. P. at Lake View, vice W. H. Liptrap, resigned.

Wm. Harzey was appointed administrator of the estate of Chas. Frederic, deceased. A. J. Foster, E. q. County Assessor, started this week, in company with his mother, on a visit to the state of Maine.

Mrs. Amos Cogswell, aged over 70 years, fell while coming down stairs a few evenings ago, and sprained her ankle very badly.

NEIGHBORING RIPPLES.—The Roseburg Plumber is to be engaged. The Masons of Ellensburg will give a ball on Christmas night.

Geo. Swainbrooke will open a blacksmith shop at Unappo falls. The miners about Crescent City are complaining of a lack of rain.

Many farmers in Cole's valley have already finished sowing their wheat. Oakland has an ordinance which prohibits horse and hogs from running loose about town.

Mr. J. B. Howard's house, at Alin, Cal., was robbed of $150 in broad daylight, one day recently.

A Chinaman was shot at Happy Camp, Cal., a short time ago, while attempting to rob a hen roost.

The Reading Independent tells of an Indian funeral, in which the man to be buried was not dead when the cortege was formed. It is to be hoped he was not buried alive.

The Western Star says: Roseburg cannot do without its schools, free libraries, or free lunch houses, but on Jackson street we have a sign which excites the starting intelligence, "FREE SHIRT TEARS." Let any city of this size boast that it can.

One of the heaviest wind storms ever known in Douglas county was experienced on the night of Sunday, the 8th inst. Damage was done to fences and outbuildings, and a number of buildings were unroofed. The R. R. Co's engine house in Roseburg was overturned and one of the night watchmen buried in the ruins, but he escaped unhurt.

The Scott Valley News localizes the following account of a shooting accident: On last Saturday while Mr. H. B. Hood, the proprietor of a steam saw mill near Marion Station, in this county, was firing his saw he called Mr. Billy Perrin to him to talk about some business matter. Mr. Perrin accidentally touched the lever governing the running gear of the saw, and in an instant the saw was set in motion and caught Mr. Hood and pressed him between the lower and upper saws entirely cutting off the flesh from the right hip to the knee and injuring him otherwise. He lay from Saturday until Tuesday evening last.

We have concluded to hold our next spelling contest on Wednesday eve, Jan. 8th. The contest will be conducted similar to the previous one, viz., ten cents admission, but if the receipts will warrant it, we may award five prizes. We will spell out of the Pacific Coast-speller.

Uncle Dan Livenburg's folks are preparing largely for a grand ball on Christmas eve. On Christmas day Mr. Frank Terry and others are to offer the sporting men of this community an opportunity to exhibit their skill in shooting at a target for turkeys; also some "sports" are coming here from Jacksonville on Christmas day to exhibit their dexterity in foot-racing, and give us Phoenixians an opportunity to win the "belt." Upon the whole a gala time is expected. Sports.

Jacksonville Letter.

The following letter was received just too late for last week's issue. D. C. 9th, 1878.

ED TIDINGS.—Our marshal reaped a harvest of "drunks" Saturday last; he had four bottles full in the jug. This morning they appeared before the Recorder, who fined two of them $15 each, the third $10 and the fourth $5, in lieu of which amount, the first series were remanded for seven days, the $10 man for five days, and the $5 man for two days. They remarked that they had not the amount about them at present, with the exception of one of the high priced, who said he had $10 he would be willing to yield for sweet liberty. His honor concluded the money would be of more benefit to the town than the prisoner and released him with a strong admonition.

Mr. W. H. McDaniel, a resident of this place for many years, died on Saturday at 2 o'clock, P. M., and was buried yesterday in the Old Fellow's cemetery, under the auspices of the Improved Order of Red Men. Services were conducted at the grave by the Rev. A. Hardin, followed by the ceremony of the order. There were about 300 people present.

People wondered what was the matter with Tom Kenney one day last week. A beautiful smile lit up his countenance all day. Finally some one heard a whisper behind the curtain that Mrs. Tom Kenney had a new ten pound bill.

A woman in the country, wishing some pin money and not having the needful within her reach, sold her coffee strainer. It brought enough to fill the bill. This proves that they are equal to an emergency.

I heard that Mr. Bann, one of the popular Ashland firm of McCall & Bann was in Jacksonville one day last week, looking for Kenneth. I dodged him on every corner and managed by considerable dexterity to keep out of his reach. I was afraid he wanted to make me a present of a new overcoat. I since heard he wanted to take me around to the new restaurant of Grob & Ulrich and treat to the oysters, so in my anxiety to escape his clutches I cheated my commissary out of that delicious nourishment called "anti-biocratic-transmutation" or what we polished German citizens translate into English, sauer kraute.

People in crossing our desert, even those acquainted, often get bewildered by the cross roads and thus for a time lost and travel many miles out of their way. I don't say that happened to Gen. Shamp when he went to the dedication of the new Catholic church at Eagle Point; but he took a good big circle to see the country.

Charles Griffith, commonly known as Hugh Curley, and Mr. Clemens, were teaming on the road between here and Roseburg last fall, when Curley got very happy (that is a new name for it). They halted near a stream to water their horses, when Charles in reaching after some water with his bucket, plunged in. He was in a very wet and critical condition; so the other gentleman concluded that if he did him any good in this world, he must hurry. Finally he concluded to offer up a prayer. Dependent does not know whether he was a stranger to such proceedings or not; however, while Charles lay on his back, two or three times, he commenced: "Praise God, from whom all blessings flow. Praise Him all creatures—" by this time the prayer was heard, and Charles stood up, and the water just ran over his boot tops.

I had the pleasure of attending the dedication of the Catholic church at Eagle Point on the 27th of October, and thought perhaps some of your readers would like to hear something about the ceremony and appearance of the building, although some time has elapsed. Father Blanchet had felt the necessity for a church at that point for a long time, and concluded to appeal to the generous citizens of this valley to aid in its erection. They responded very liberally and seemed to take a great interest in the enterprise; and Mr. Feyer, a resident of the Point, kindly donated over an acre of ground for the site. Father Blanchet officiated at the dedication, through special dispensation of the Archbishop of Oregon. The building is fifty feet in length by twenty seven in width, and has an arched ceiling. It will cost not far short of $2,000. The structure was not under the special protection of St. Francis Xavier, a picture of whom was hung on the wall above the altar. On the right of this was one of our Sisters, while on the left, that of the blessed mother, Mary. The floral decorations of the altar were very fine. Nearly three hundred persons were present, and found ample room in the building. Mrs. R. Brown permitted the use of her organ, and the singing of the Sisters, and their young ladies' choir was excellent. Father Blanchet delivered a very thoughtful address, wherein he depicted the progress of the Catholic church in this country, and all publicly thanked all who contributed in any way to the construction of the building. KENNEDY.

The Salem Statesman has the following account of a shooting accident: On last Saturday while Mr. H. B. Hood, the proprietor of a steam saw mill near Marion Station, in this county, was firing his saw he called Mr. Billy Perrin to him to talk about some business matter. Mr. Perrin accidentally touched the lever governing the running gear of the saw, and in an instant the saw was set in motion and caught Mr. Hood and pressed him between the lower and upper saws entirely cutting off the flesh from the right hip to the knee and injuring him otherwise. State News.

Diphtheria still clings to Baker county. The Oregon City Enterprise has changed hands. Fall wheat is growing finely in the neighborhood of Clackamas.

Gophers and squirrels are still running about in Wasco county. The convicts at Salem no longer have tea, coffee or tobacco given them. Logs are running at full tilt on the Joe Edwards creek, Polk county.

A telephone line is being put up between Portland and Oregon City. The old rail fences in Linn county are rapidly giving way to plank plank ones.

The narrow gauge road between Brownsville and Albany is still talked about. Land lately "grubbed" along the margins of Linn county streams proves to be very rich.

The trial of Mercer for the murder of McDonald, of the Telegram in Portland, was set for yesterday. Hon James Chenoweth, of Roseburg, shipped a couple of loads of hogs to Portland, that averaged 240 pounds each.

D. A. McAllister, of Grand Ronde valley, will start for the East to purchase some thoroughbred stallions and fillies. The Chinese mission school, at Salem, is educating and evangelizing the Celestially inclined Celestials in right godly numbers.

Nearly all the mines on Chicken creek, Baker county, are paying as high as $2.50 to $10 a day to the land, and water scarce at that. A correspondent writing to the Salem Statesman from the Siletz Agency says entirely too much money has been spent upon the Indians there.

Mike Fox, an old resident of Del Norte, but lately of Curry county, Oregon, was drowned in Rogue river, near Ellensburg, on the evening of the 30th ult.

Work has been discontinued, says the Salem Statesman, on the narrow gauge, until spring opens. The track has been laid to a point about two miles south of Perrydale.

White Owl and Quilt-a-Trumps, two of the murderers of Geo. Coogan, were sentenced the other day by Judge McArthur to be hanged on the 10th day of January next.

A motor of considerable size fell with a whizzing sound and a sharp report, near Oak Grove station, last week and burned itself in a field of Mr. Stephenson.

A daughter of Mr. Campbell, who lives about seven miles from East Port land, was killed on Sunday of last week by the accidental discharge of a gun in the hands of her brother.

J. J. Flett has severed his connection with the Western Star, published at Roseburg. Geo. Mosher will continue the publication of the paper, in the same able manner that it has been conducted in the past.

Barnegardner, the Portland forger for whom a reward of $500 dollars was offered, was followed from Portland to Yachima Bay, and thence along the coast to Empire City, where he was arrested while engaged in playing a little game of poker.

The following postal changes have been made in this state: Postoffice established—Cascado Lake, Wasco Co. Discontinued—Dardanelles, Jackson county, St. Joseph, Yamhill county. H. C. Roe has been appointed postmaster at Hood River, Wasco county.

The Astorian says: There are women in this county who can sling an axe in the woods. One woman and her daughter have just sent 21 cents of stove bolts to market, at Astoria, and we hear of another who has undertaken to cut a schooner load of wood for a firm in this city.

The Portland Standard of the 13th says: Last night about 10 o'clock a certain opium den in this city was in full blast. From parties who knew, we were informed that at that hour there were 150 women and 25 young men in the den smoking the poisonous drug at the same time. The fearful extent of this vice is not known to the general public.

Don't Forget It!—If you are troubled with nervousness, are disheartened, tired of life, fear death or feel out of sorts, as the saying is, you may safely conclude that you have the dyspepsia of Liver Complaint. The liver is very apt to become out of this season of the year, as poisons arising from stagnant water or decaying vegetation, are more numerous and are, through inhalations taken into the blood, unless the liver is strong and active and furnishes a supply of fresh and pure blood to drive out the impurities, the above mentioned symptoms are sure to follow and fast lead to many more terrible diseases and death. White's Peppermint Cure proves itself the Great Liver Purifier. Its action on the liver is different from any medicine ever compounded. It cures are truly wonderful. Try it. For sale twenty-five cents and seventy-five cents. For sale by CHURCH & ATKINSON. (noted)

They all take it.—When the system is run down to such extent that you pass sleepless nights, are nervous and irritable, have a going for chills, your stomach sick and ache and coated tongue, do not enroll yourself at high price in the regular under General Debt by but cheer up and try White's Peppermint Cure, the Great Liver Purifier, now for sale in every city and town on the continent. No medicine ever compounded, is fitly equal for the cure of DYSPEPSIA and LIVER COMPLAINT.
