O MALLER CAR

J. M. M'CALL.

TIDINGS.

VOL. IV.---NO. 8.

ASHLANDI OREGON, FRIDAY, AUGUST 1, 1879.

$2 50 PER ANNUM.

ASHLAND TIDINGS.

Issued every Friday,

LEEDS & MERRITT.

OFFICE-On Main Street, (in second story of McCall & Baum's new building.) Job Printing.

Of all descriptions done on short notice. Legal Blanks, Circulars. Business Cards, Billheads, Letterheads, Pos-ters, etc., gotten up in good style at living prices.

Terms of Subscription:

Club rates, six copies for.

Terms of Advertising:

Regular advertisements inserted upon liberal terms.

PROFESSIONAL.

DR. J. H. CHITWOOD,

ASHLAND, : : : : OREGON. OFFICE-At the Ashland Drug Store.

JAMES R. NEIL, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW

J. W. HAMAKAR,

Jacksonville, Oregon.

NOTARY PUBLIC. Linkville, Lake Co., Oregon. OFFICE-In Post Office building. Special attention

M. L. M'CALL,

SURVEYOR & CIVIL ENGINEER,

Ashland, Oregon.

Is prepared to do any work in his line on short notice. DR. W. B. ROYAL,

Has permanently located in Ashland. Will give his undivided attention to the practice of medicine. Has had fifteen years' experience Oregon. Office at his residence, on Main street, opposite the M. E. Church.

DR. WILL JACKSON,

DENTIST.

Jacksonville, ; : : Oregon Will visit Ashland in May and November, and Kerbyville the fourth Monday in Octo-ber, each year. Ashland, Sept. 15, 1878.

THE ASHLAND MILLS!

We will continue to purchase wheat

-- A T--

The Highest Market Price, And will deliver

Flour, Feed, Etc.,

Anywhere in town,

AT MILL PRICES. Wagner & Anderson.

ASHLAND Livery, Sale & Feed STABLES,

Main Street, : : Ashland.

I have constantly on hand the very best

And can furnish my customers with tip-top turnout at any time.

HORSES BOARDED

On reasonable terms, and given the best attention. Horses bought and sold

H. F. PHILLIPS.

MARBLE!

and satisfaction guaranteed in all my transactions.

ASHLAND MARBLE!

WORKS. J. H. RUSSELL, Proprietor.

Having again settled in this place and turned my entire attention to the Marble Business, I am prepared to fill all orders with neatness and dispatch. Monuments, Tablets, and Headstones. executed in any description of marble. Special attention paid to orders from all parts of Southern Oregon. Prices reasonable. Address:

J. H. Russell, Ashland, Oregon.

J. M. McCall & Co., Main Street, Ashland.

MORRIS BAUM.

NEW DEPARTURE.

18th, propose to sell only for

CASH IN HAND Or approved produce delivered-except when by special agreement—a short and limited credit may be given.

They have commenced receiving their New Spring Stock, and that every day? will witness additions to the largest stock of

General Merchandise

Ever brought to this market. They desire to say to every reader of this paper, that if

Standard Goods!

Sold at the Lowest Market Prices, will do it, they propose to do the largest business this spring and summer ever done by them in the last five years, and they can positively make it to the advantage of every one to call upon them in Ashland and test the truth of their assertions. They will spare no pains to maintain, more fully than ever, the reputation of their House, as the acknowledged

HEADQUARTERS

For Staple and Fancy Goods, Groceries, Hardware, Clothing, Boots, Shoes, Hats, Caps, Millinery, Dress Goods, Crockery, Glass and Tin Ware, Shawls, Wrappers, Cloaks, trade of Southern and Southeastern Oregon.

A full assertment of IRON AND STEEL

For Blacksmiths' and General use.

A Full Line of

Ashland Woolen Goods Flannels, Blankets, Cassimeres, Doeskins, Clothing, always on hand and for sale at lowest prices.

The highest market prices paid for Wheat, Oats, Barley, Bacon, Lard.

Come One and All.

J. M. McCALL & CO.

JAMES THORNTON, JACOB WAGNER, W. H. ATKINSON, E. K. ANDERSON. THE

ASHLAND WOOLEN MANUFAC'G CO.,

ARE NOW MAKING FROM

The Very Best

BLANKETS,

FLANNELS,

CASSIMERES, DOESKINS,

AND HOSIERY.

PATRONS,

OLD AND NEW,

Are invited to send in their orders and are assured that they

SHall Receive Prompt Attention

At Prices that Defy Competition.

ASHLAND WOOLEN MILLS.

W. H. Atkinson, SECRETARY. Hours.

Perhaps the oddest phase of smuggling (for smuggling it really was) was a long while though they had but a tempatent in a practice which prevailed for porary application. Let us quote a few several years in Dover, and was carried of these sharp retorts: To an unlucky on openly in full view of the preventives | Scotchman who claimed for his country and all the inhabitants of the town. a great many "noble wild prospects." About 1819-20 the fashion came up of Johnson replied: "I believe, sir, you The undersigned from and after April | wearing Leghorn bonnets of exorbitant | have a great many. Norway, 100, has dimensions. They were huge straw noble wild prospects, and Laplant is replaits, nearly circular and averaging markable for prodigious noble, wild pros about a yard in diameter; they sold in pects, but, sir, let me tell you that the England for two, three or more guineas nob'est prospect which a Scotchman ever each, according to their quality, and sees is the high road that leads him to nearly half their cost was the duty paid England." Bowell told Johnson that paid on importing them. Now, accord- he had heard a Quaker woman preach. ing to the law, duty is not demanded on "A woman's preaching," said Johnson, an article of dress worn by travellers. A clever dealer in Leghorns contrived to It is not done well; but you are surprised profit enormously by this law. He to find it done at all." 'Is it wrong, sir," hired a troop of the poorest women and asked Boswell, "to affect singularity in girls-ragged, squalid and wretched looking creatures they were to be sureand paid them almost a nominal fee for accompanying him daily in his voyage to and from the French coast, contracting with the captain of one of the steamboats for season tickets for the whole of them. The troop regularly left Dover in the morning with scarcely a handfull of bonnet on their heads; they dined at Calais, if they could afford to dine, and came back in the afternoon, two or three score of them, each with a bran new Leghorn of the fullest dimensions on her head, the rag bonnet worn in the morning being stuffed in their pockets. On landing they were all marched to the speculator's warehouse, denuded of their luxurious coiffures and dismissed for the day. A hundred times at least have I seen these forlorn and tattered purveyors of fashion both going out and coming in, and I could tell the boat they travelled by, while it was yet miles away, by the straw-colored amber lines which under a cloudy sky would glimmer like a streak of sunsnine ere the hull of the vessel was distinctly visible. "A form of smuggling," says a writer in the Pall Mall Gazette, "which is not likely soon to die out, is that practiced by tourists, who think it allowable to shirk paying duty on things which they And, in fact, everything required for the have bought for their own use. Public morals on this point are slightly elastic, and those of the gentler sex are especially apt to think that nothing compels them to 'declare' volumes of Tauchnitz, cases of eau de Cologne, yards of Lyons Josh Billings' Advice to Singers. the views which prevail among women silk or pieces of Brussels lace. Here is a story which will illustrate feminine notions on this subject and perhaps convey a moral: A Belgian bridegroom, that she thought of concealing several thousand francs' worth of lace about her, hoping by its sale to pay the cost of their journey. The bridegroom was not smitten with this frugal project, and pointed out that there were customhouse officers and a female searcher at Ercquelines who were sometimes struck with an unaccountable fancy for examining passengers' pockets. This he said, being a timid man, and his bride, to humor him, promised to give up her plan, but then she secreted the lace at the same time without telling him about it. Now, as the train approached the French frontier, the husband reflected that if his wife was not searched, his fears would be mocked at as having been groundless, and he would start on his married career with prestige impaired. This was not desirable; rather it was essential that he should from the very outset assert his infallibility. So when the train stopped at Ercquelines and the passengers alighted the Belgian bridegroom left his bride's arm for a moment, and siding up to a doua nier, whispered, 'I think if you search that lady vonder you may find some lace.' The douanier winked; the happy bride was accosted with the invitation to walk into the female searcher's room. She turned pale, tottered, but was led away, and five minutes later dismal sounds of hysterics were heard. Then the douanier reappeared, and said to the horrified busband, 'Thank you, sir; it's a good capture. The lady will be taken you.' This was a painful adventure, but it does not follow that all husbands are so inconsiderate, nor that all ladies who smuggle lace are caught." A more amusing anecdote on this sub ject was lately told at a public dinner by Ferdinand Duval, Prefect of the Seine. He said that the octroi men of but that, having boasted of their merits, friend of his, residing at St. Cloud, ha made a small bet that he would introwithout the octroi men detecting it. M. into Paris seated triumphantly on the the collection .- Scotsman. box beside the coachman. Since then the octroi men, it is said, stare with

Curious Stories of Smuggling.

Doctor Johnson's Wit.

Johnson was the prince of piercing critics. Some of his sayings will live "is like a dog's walking on his hind legs. order to make people stare?" "Yes," replied Johnson, "if you do it by propagating error, and indeed it is wrong anyway. There is in human nature a gento make people stare by doing better than | taking Curtis' life. others, why, make them stare till they A New York girl the other day instare their eyes out." Johnson declared vited her aunt from Savannah, who was Here are twenty-four words, which, if hard bed for herself and must lie that the Scoich were always ready to lie visiting her, to enter a Broadway shoe written 18,000 times, make 432,000 in it. With an amount of money on each other's behalf. "The Irish," he store with her. Araminta, the niece, said, "are not in a conspiracy to cheat the much to her aged relative's horror, proworld by false representations of the merits | jected her pretty foot across the clerk's | are they? None whatever say 1 Rev. | couple went to housekeeping, but, with of their countrymen. No, sir, the Irish knee, had her old boots removed and are a fair people; they never speak well submitted interestedly, holding her of one another." "Scotch learning," re- dress conveniently out of the way, while any interest therein hereafter to be exe- which the young wife brought was exmarked Johnson, "is like bread in a be- the clerk began the process of encasing sieged town. Every man gets a mouth- the fair one's nether extremities in a ful, but no man a bellvful," Once a new and extra long pair of fifteen-dollar friend said, in answer to some abusive "high-buttoners." The Savannah aunt remarks, "Well, sir, Go t made Scotland." was shocked beyond expression at her "Certainly," replied Johnson; "but we niece's strange immodesty in exposing must always remember that He made it her stockinged foot to male gaze, and for Scotchmen; and comparisons are when the shoe clerk, beginning at the odious, sir, but God made hell." One lowest button, gradually progressed upday at Thales, Johnson fell foul of Gray, ward in his work, Georgia modesty and one of his pet aversions. Boswell denied propriety could no longer endure the that Gray was dull in poetry. "Sir." re- shocking spectacle, and down came the plied Johnson, "he was dull in company, sun umbrella on the shoe clerk's head dull in his closet, dull everywhere. He was with a whack, and her fingers, tingling dull in a new way, and that made people with shame, made busy with his hair. think him great. He was a mechanical It was to no purpose that Araminta ex- deed, mortgage, which have a well desperation, she sold the stock of furnipoet." Johnson once remarked in answer to somebody who said, "Poor old "regular thing" in New York. This is England is lost!" "Sir, it is not so much undoubtedly the truth, and the reporter Doe, John Doe "mortgages" to Richard make it comfortable for a year, and to be lamented that old England is lost as that the Scotch have found it."

The first thing to make a good quire singer is to giggle a little. Put up your hair in curl papers every Friday nite, soze being about to start for Paris on his to have it in good shape by Sunday mornbridal tour, was informed by his bride ing. If your daddy is rich you can buy some store hair; if he is very rich, buy some more and build it up high on your head; then git a high-prised bunnet that runs up very high, at the high part of it, and git the milliner to plant some high krown artefishals onto the highest part of it. This will help you sing high, as sophrano is the highest part.

When the tune is giv ou, don't pay attention to it, and then giggle. Giggle

Whisper to the girl next you that Em Jones, which sets on second seat from the front on the left-hand side, has her bunnet with the same color exact she had last year, and then put up your book to your face and giggle.

Object to every tune unless there is a solow into it for the sophrano, Coff and hem a good eel before you begin to sing. When you sing a solow shake the artifishels off your bunnit, and when you come to a high tone and brace yourself back a little, twist your head to one side and open your mouth to the widest on that side, shet the eye on the same side jest a triphle, and then put in for dear life.

When the preacher gets under hedwey with his preachin, write a note onto the blank leaf of your note book. That's what the leaf was made for. Get sumbody to pass the note to sumbody e'se, and you watch them while they read it

If anybody talks or laffs in the congrethat's a good chance for you to giggle, and you ought to giggle a great eel.
The preacher darsent say anything to you to prison, and half the fine will go to bekaus you are in the quire. If you had ment." a bow before you went into the quire give him the mitten-you ought to have sumbody better now. Don't forget to giggle.

Bones of the Moa.

Paris, who levy the municipal barrier his son in Otago, New Zealand, a large ishness occurred among common, ill-bred dues, are a most vigilant set of fellows, box filled with bones of the Moa, a species of wingless bird of immense he (the Prefect) had been caught. A size, which is supposed to have been long lady buttoned up her ten-button kids country, and a number of enthusiastic nati Enquirer. duce a pig into Paris in his brougham ornithologists who have inspected the collection in the possession of Dr. Begg. Duval took the bet, and strict orders have not only been impressed with the were given at all the gates of Paris to great size of some of the bones, which look out for the brougham of the friend are not unlike those of the legs of a in question. Within less than a week, horse, but with the weight of several of however, the Prefect received the sum the specimens. It is the intention of name she runs quickly to the side of her port of opposing tickets, but men and stopped by a tall countryman with the of 80 centimes, being the amount of Dr. Begg to have a case prepared for mistress and demurely waits while a women divided their votes very evenly, remark: of 80 centimes, being the amount of Dr. Begg to have a case prepared for mistress and demurely waits while a duty leviable on a pig, and a request to the preservation of the bones, which tiny bib, made expressly for her, is tied and a ticket bearing the names of two "Say, mister, I was in to the play tocome and assured himself that the quad- will be classed by a gentleman versed in around her neck. A two-ounce vial ruped had been successfully smuggled ornithology, and it is not improbable in. It turned out that the pig, killed that arrangements may be made by and scalded, had been dressed up in which parties interested in the subject paws, she raises herself on her hind woman's clothes, and had been driven may have an opportunity of examining feet, puts the bottle to her mouth, and

"never did like a low cut vest

Modesty of Women.

It is strange how different civilization looks upon the same matter. In Japan, for instance, men women and children bathe together without a vestige of clothing, and with no thought or suggestion of indecency. There is in the the views which different sections entertain in respect to what constitutes an that, at the North, a degree of contact Richmond, Va., in which Charles C. Curtis was shot dead by John Poindexpretty form, and had, as the young lady declared, squeezed her arm rather warmly in helping her into the carriage. With this as a provocation, Poindexter eral inclination to make people stare, and every wise man has himself to cure dead, and the jury could not agree that of it, and does cure himself. It you wish Poindexter had committed a crime in veyed and confirmed, and by these haughty and purse-proud. He was enplained that such occurrences were the who has been interviewing New York Roe. belles, apropos of the bloody tragedy at in Gotham. He says: avenue if she allowed a shoe clerk to

"Why, of course I do," she said, "and lace them up, too. That is what the shoe clerk is for. Only a silly woman with country ideas, or a common woman who looks upon the clerk as a probable sweetheart, would object to a shoe clerk putting on her shoes. Every well-bied lady in New York expects the clerk to lace a new pair of shoes." "But suppose the clerk should remark, 'You have a pretty foot,' or 'Your foot is small,' would you be indignant?" "Certainly not. I should consider he remark the same as if a servant had made it. If this Miss Cottrell of Richnond had been a true lady she would never had made such a silly fool of herself; and if Poindexter had not been a harum-scarum goose, without true gentlemanly instincts, he would not have killed Mr. Curtis, the simple and nnocent shoe clerk." "Do you allow a young gentleman elerk to put on a new kid glove?"

"Yes; in Paris the glove clerk always puts on a new glove for you. While I would not allow a young gentlemen friend to put on my glove, I consider it highly proper for a glove clerk to do it." "Suppose a gentleman at a party in your own set should squeeze your hand in the lancers, what would you do?" "Now, that is a different thing. If he return it; but if he were a casual acgashun and the preacher takes notis of it, quaintance, and I thought he squeezed my hand impertinently, I would cut him dead. I shouldn't tell anyone, but the man would suffer a silent punish-

"Would you go back to the same clerk three times, as did Miss Cottrell, if he said your foot was pretty?" "Yes, if I had business there. If his remarks offended me, I should tell him to please make no remarks. I shouldn't have gone to my lover with a silly story. The Rev. Dr. Begg has received from The fact is, this whole Richmond foolpeople, not used to the usages of refined society;" and then the aristocratic young extinct. Such remains are rate in this and prepared for a promenade. - Cincin-

A Cat With Table Manners.

A child in North Berwick, Maine, filled with milk is then laid on the floor beside her, and taking it between her The man who owns one diamond stud down, she patiently waits for her mouth has he hid them?" "Little girl: "Why, right out in meetin'." some fixity at plump women when they always wears it in the top stud-hole of to be wiped and for the bib to be re- I heard him tell mamma he had put behold them on carriage boxes.—Leisure his shirt-bosom, and tells his tailer he moved, after which she usually indulges them up the spout, and he guessed they

Too Many Words.

During the year 1878, there were recorded in the Register's office in New most romantic period, and from now York city about twelve thousand deeds, until we settle into a city of 10,000 inincluding thereunder leases, contracts, habitants such instances as we are or other instruments, and about six about to relate will be of not unfrethousand mortgages. The average cost quent occurrence. The circumstances United Slates even, a wide difference in of recording a deed was $2 25; of a came to a knowledge of the reporter at mortgage, $2 75. So that during one the dinner table this afternoon, and, year about $40,000 was paid to the acting upon the hint, the clew was folinsult from a man. It is undeniable Register for recording instruments in lowed up until at last one of those life his office. Paid to what purpose? histories which occur now and then, and and familiarity is tolerated without a Largely for copying into books a vast inspire new faith in human nature was thought of impropriety, which, in the mass of superfluous words. Old set revealed. Five years ago a young man South, is resented as an impertinence phrases which have come down to us whom we shall call Smith because that and insolence. The recent tragedy at from bygone times when, as Steele says, is not his name, was married to a beautautology was the first, the second, the tiful girl in one of the interior towns of third excellence in a lawyer. "The Iowa. Smith was then only 22 years ter, is a case in point. The murdered universal practice is to extend a deed old, though intelligent, well educated man had complimented Miss Isabella by means of repetitions, tautology and and active, was only a clerk in a dry Cottrell, Poindexter's sweetheart, on her circumlocution. The origin of this abuse goods store, depending upon a maggre is to be traced to the cupidity of con- salary for subsistence. Common pru-

these words, "hath granted, bargained, ture. The father of the young lady was sold, aliened, remised, released, con- one of the pioneers of the town, rich, remise, release, convey and confirm." the delicate young girl she had made a words, for copying which owners of real ridiculously small, considering his

Richmond, doubtless correctly reports from only one part of the deed. It ago. The old story of a young, refined could be drawn from any and every part. and unprotected female in a large city Useless repetition which, day after day, was re-enacted in l.er case. Always I asked one of the belles of the Fifth year after year, is accumulating in our finding admirers, she drifted from city to record offices, necessitates the use of city, occasionally sending a little money injuring our profession. Every dollar with passionate tenderness. During all much, and in the end we lose by it. no longer charge for the printed part. peared, and she went to her lodging with reason they were originally used was to again encountered that face and met a get an increase of pay? Mr. Barbour, glance that caused her to tremble. In force of this rule in an amusing way. seized, and she knew that her husband, In one of his later editions, in a note to whom she had never ceased to love, a form for a creditor's bill, he naively drafting bills in equity having been tion, and prospered, and supposing she deed of a city lot, under our present | native town. She told him all; he forforms, about a thousand words; in a gave all; and the next day the strangely mortgage, containing interest and in- united couple left to begin a new and surance clauses about seventeen hundred happier life.—Leadville Eclipse. words. The description of a city lot words; deducting these which are a constant quantity, I venture to affirm that just as valid instruments, containing first half of the present century, used to all the essence, but stripped of the verwere an intimate friend, I should take it biage, can be drawn with a fourth of the Matthews retells in his article on "The as a joke; if he were my lover, I should words, making a saving of three-fourths. American on the Stage" in Scribner's -Corr. Albany Law Journal.

Woman Suffrage.

ject of great speculation, and every con- ence assembled with the women seated Hampshire anticipated Massachusetts church; and throughout the play the right to vote for members of the school | They were attentive, but they gave no evcommittee, and the first election under | idence of approval or displeasure; there at the State Capitol. The result was a not a smile; all was solemn stillness. Hill over half were deposited by women.

150-299, and 662. Another interest- by his extra exertion and mortified by has a kitten which has been instructed ing feature of this election was the fact his want of success, was passing through in table manners. When called by that the sexes did not rally to the sup- a public room in his hotel, when he was men was elected by a narrow majority | night. over another which bore the names of a man and woman.-Investigator.

milk; then, laying the bottle gently 'cause papa's hid them." Visitor: "Where hadn't been for the women I'd a laughed

A Leadville Romance.

Leadville is now passing through its

dence should have dictated to the young Eighteen thousand times in one year | couple the propriety of waiting, but they in one office were written and paid for loved each other and laughed at the fupremises doth grant, bargain, sell, alien, raged at the match, and coarsely told estate paid some $900. Of what use wealth, he dismissed her finally. The Stat. 748, sec. 1. It is there provided all their love and economy, failed to "every grant or devise of real estate or make both ends meet. The money cuted shall pass all the estate or interest | pended during the first year, and love of the grantor or testator unless the in- which "laughed at locksmiths" flew out tent to pass a less estate or interest of the window when poverty came in at shall appear by express terms, or be the door. Misunderstandings, bickernecessarily implied in the terms of such | ings and quarrels followed each other in grant." Why, then, is it necessary to rapid succession, and finally it seemed use more than one word, John Doe to the unhappy pair that it was impos-"grants" to Richard Roe? Instead of sible for them to live together, and after twenty-four words, one. Instead of a somewhat more violent scene than 432,000 only 18,000; instead of $900, usual, Mrs. Smith took her babe and less than $50. The word "grant" would went to her father's, only to have the suffice for a mortgage as well as a deed, door shut in her face. Returning to for the qualification of the estate would her own home, she found that her hus-"appear by express terms." Still, as band had left a note stating that she there is in common speeches, the words | should never see him again. In a fit of recognized legal meaning, why not use ture, placed her babe in charge of her husthem? John Doe "deeds" to Richard band's parents, with enough money to started for a large city to make a living. The foregoing is an illustration drawn | This was only a little more than a year thrice as many books as need be. It is for the care of her babe, which she loved given to mechanical labor therein is a this time, however, she never forgot her dollar taken from brain labor. Every husband, having learned that her love dollar of useless expense attending the had been clouded, not extinguished. Last transfer of real estate fetters it just so week she arrived in Leadville. As she descended from the coach she noticed in The drawing of a deed has come to be the throng of bronzed faces one that wholly a perfunctory thing, except the seemed strangely familiar, though covfilling up of the blanks properly. We ered with an enormous beard. It disap-Why then continue the use of words for a strange feeling of unrest and isolation. which we are not paid when the only | The next day in walking about town she in his Chancery Practice, recognizes the another instant both her hands were stood before her. He had come to says that, the compensation per folio for | Leadville immediately after their separaabolished, he has shortened the form as | was still at her father's, was about starting home with sufficient means to There are in a full covenant warranty establish himself in business in their rarely takes over one hundred and fifty An Amusing Theatrical Story.

"Yankee" Hill, a famous actor in the tell an amusing story (which J. B. atre in this country. Hill once "showed" -to use a professional phrase-in a town in the western part of New York, Whether women would vote if they where no theatrical performances had had the right to, has always been a sub- ever been given. He found the auditribution of fact to such a discussion is on one side of the hall and the men on therefore of decided interest. New the other, exactly as they used to sit in by a few months in giving women the most solemn silence was observed. the new law was held a few days ago was no applause, no laughter; there was wonderfully full vote, not less than did his utmost to break the ice; he did 2,160 ballots being cast, and of these everything a clever comedian could do, but in vain. He flung himself against The balloting extended over three their rigidity; it was no use. The audi meetings, and the number of women ence was evidently on its best behavior who participated was almost exactly and the curtain came down at last amid double on the second and third evenings a silence oppressive and almost melanwhat it had been at previous meetings- | choly. After the play, Hill, worn out

"Were you?" said Hill. "You must have been greatly entertained." "Well, I was! I tell you what it is Bright little girl: "The robbers can't now, my mouth is all sore a straining to remaining in that position drinks the steal my mamma's diamond earrings, keep my mouth straight. And if it

> In towing the inclination of the head is alone neccessary.