MORRIS BAUM.

ASMUANO.

INDEPENDENT ON ALL SUBJECTS, AND DEVOTED TO THE INTERESTS OF SOUTHERN OREGON

Turning the Tables.

Fred, but I suppose you are tired."

"Rosa," he said, presently reappear

"Now I shall have to spend the even-passing her hand over her fair hair.

"Indeed, I'm delighted!" warmly re-

DAVIS."

promised to go with him to B--- ringing after him.

disconsolately.

their footsteps died away.

picked it up. It ran thus:

did not want me to go?"

VOL IV .-- NO. 10.

ASHLAND OREGON, FRIDAY, AUGUST 15, 1879.

$2 50 PER ANNUM.

ASHLAND TIDINGS.

Issued every Friday, —В У---

LEEDS & MERRITT.

OFFICE-On Main Street, (in second story of McCall & Baum's new building.) Job Printing.

Of all descriptions done on short notice. Legal Blanks, Circulars. Business Cards, Billheads, Letterheads, Pos ters, etc., gotten up in good style at hving prices.

Terms of Subscription:

Club rates, six copies for Terms of Advertising: One square (ten lines or less) 1st insertion....... $2 50

Regular advertisements inserted upon liberal terms.

PROFESSIONAL.

DR. J. H. CHITWOOD, ASHLAND, : : : : OREGON.

OFFICE-At the Ashland Drug Store.

JAMES R. NEIL, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW,

Jacksonville, Oregon.

J. W. HAMAKAR, NOTARY PUBLIC.

Linkville, Lake Co., Oregon. OFFICE-In Post Office building. Special attention

M. L. M'CALL,

SURVEYOR & CIVIL ENGINEER.

Ashland, Oregon. Is prepared to do any work in his line on short notice.

DR. W. B. ROYAL,

Has permanently located in Ashland. Will give his undivided attention to the practice of medicine. Has had fifteen years' experience in Oregon. Office at his residence, on Main street,

DR. WILL JACKSON,

DENTIST. Jacksonville, ; : : Oregon Will visit Ashland in May and November, and Kerbyville the fourth Monday in October, each year. Ashland, Sept. 15, 1878.

THE ASHLAND MILLS

We will continue to purchase wheat

--- A T-The Highest Market Price,

And will deliver

Flour, Feed, Etc.,

Anywhere in town,

AT MILL PRICES.

Wagner & Anderson. ASHLAND

Livery, Sale & Feed

STABLES, Main Street, : : Ashland.

I have constantly on hand the very best

BUGGIES AND CARRIAGES,

And can furnish my customers with tip-top turnout at any time.

HORSES BOARDED

On reasonable terms, and given the best attention. Horses bought and sold and satisfaction guaranteed in

H. F. PHILLIPS.

MARBLE!

all my transactions.

ASHLAND (MARBLE)

Having again settled in this place and turned my entire attention to the Marble Business, I am prepared to fill all orders with neatness and dispatch. Monuments, Tablets, and Headstones. executed in any description of marble. Special attention paid to orders from all parts of Southern Oregon. Prices reasonable. Address: J. H. Russell,

Ashland, Oregon.

J. M. M'CALL.

NEW DEPARTURE.

The undersigned from and after April 18th, propose to sell only for

CASH IN HAND

Or approved produce delivered-except when by special agreement—a short and limited credit may be given. They have commenced receiving their New Spring Stock, and that every day will witness additions to the largest stock of

General Merchandise

Ever brought to this market. They de sire to say to every reader of this paper, that if

Standard Goods!

Sold at the Lowest Market Prices, wil do it, they propose to do the largest business this spring and summer ever done by them in the last five years, and tively make it to the advantage of every one to call upon them in Ashland and test the truth of their assertions. They will spare no pains to maintain, more fully than ever, the reputation of their

House, as the acknowledged HEADQUARTERS

For Staple and Fancy Goods, Groceries Hardware, Clothing, Boots, Shoes, Hats, Caps, Millinery, Dress Goods, Crockery, Glass and Tin Ware, Shawls, Wrappers, Cloaks, And, in fact, everything required for the fire. Soon the door bell rang again. trade of Southern and South eastern Oregon.

A full asscrtment of IRON AND STEEL

For Blacksmiths' and General use

A Full Line of

Ashland Woolen Goods

Flannels, Blankets, Cassimeres, Doeskins Clothing, always on hand and for sale at lowest prices.

The highest market prices paid for have grown, George!"

Wheat, Oats, Barley, Bacon, Lard

JAMES THORNTON,

W. H. ATKINSON,

BLANKETS,

FLANNELS,

CASSIMERES,

Come One and All.

THE

ASHLAND

WOOLEN

MANUFAC'G

CO.,

ARE NOW MAKING FROM

The Very Best

"Flatterer!" smiled her brother. "But where is Fred?" he asked, suddenly. "I am anxious to make the acquaintance of that happy brother that I have never seen. How much I wanted to come to J. M. MeCALL & CO. the wedding, dear, you cannot know. I was in Brazil when your message JACOB WAGNER, reached me. But what's the matter? E. K. ANDERSON.

> tears in her bright eyes, "tell me all Rosa poured the tale into his sypaat Rosa's grieved face. "There," seeing hizing ears, and ended with-"Oh, George! If we could only go! "And go we will," said George, rising and looking at his watch. "How soon can you be ready?"

tenderness.

making such a sensation?" suggestion of a smile, as she turned to her companion with a remark, which he bent his handsome head low to hear.

clutched Davis fiercely by the arm. "Why," he gasped, "it's Rosa, and who the deuce has she with her?"

"I don't know," returned Davis, indifferently. "Some friend, probably Sit down, Grey; don't make a fool of yourself."

"I won't sit down." retorted Fred. irascibly. Friend! My wife here with another man!" And with an imprecation he strode from the house. "I'll go home," he muttered angrily," and see what it all means. Serves me right for leaving her. How lovely she was! I didn't know she was half so beautiful But my proud darling at the opera with another? I cannot understand it !"

A few minutes rapid walking brought him to his home. "Kate," he inquired, summoning that worthy, "where is your mistress?"

was that glad to see her I thought he'd "Now what a pleasant evening we niver stop kissin' her." can have all alone!" said little Mrs. "That will do; you can go!" sternly man what came soon after yez lift, and Grey, dropping the crimson curtains in commanded Mr. Grey, and he slowly the cozy sitting room and turning to made his way into the little room he her husband as she spoke. "But I had left an hour before with such differwould like to go to the opera!" she ent feelings. The light was burning added, her dimpled face lengthening a brightly, the papers scattered about, the little. "You have promised, you know, open book, even the little lace trimmed handkerchief that in her haste she had "Yes," yawned her drowsy spouse, dropped upon the floor, all spoke elofrom his post on the sofa, where, with quently of the dear little wife, and Fred heels erect after the fashion of the groaned as he picked up, with nervous ear-rings, leaf shape, are exceedingly it open always. A many years ago two in Utah, where a wife has no claim masculine world in general, intent on fingers, a card from the table, on which physical and mental comfort, he lay was written "Gone with a handsome solitaires at the top, with smaller dia-

"But never mind," finished Rosa, con- Curtis." solingly; "we can go another time, and Fred laid it down quickly, as though and pearls was very costly, but it is now a family, and ere this his hair was gray, port themselves by their own unassisted I will read to you." And she drew the innocent pasteboard scorched his nearer the shaded light on the center- fingers, not noticing in his haste, that table and picked up a book. "Hark! the name was the maiden one of his there is the door bell." And she rose Rosa, and, falling upon the sofa, buried Two antiques in the collection are superb married, raised a family, and became eternal felicity his face in the pillow and moaned: "My little dove gone-given to an-"Stay, I will answer it," said Fred, suddenly forgetting his weariness, and other-lost to me!" springing up, he went hurriedly into the Soon the sound of carriage wheels reached him. There was a soft rustle across the carpet, and two hands touched ing at the door, "it's Davis; I have him, while a sweet, familiar voice cried: "Poor Fred! are you sick? Brother street, to see a sick friend of his. You George has come," she completed, breathwon't be lonely, pet, with so much to less, as he sat up, looking pale and hagwas gone, with her "Don't stay long!" was so lonely."

ing all alone. Oh dear!" she sighed must thank you for your care over Rosa in my absence." At that moment she spied a bit of "Not at all! Not at all!" responded paper lying on the carpet, and stooping, George, as they heartly shook hands. terson, from her grandfather; and Mr. there the interview ended. "I am delighted to meet the happy fel-"Opera at half-past eight. Will call. low who won my pet sister." And no further allusion was made to the affair. ago. "Ah!" said Rosa, her brows contract-

"Fred," said Rosa demurely, as they ing as she spoke. "That's it!" and entered their own apartments, "is that she tossed the note into the fire. "That | friend of Davis's better? And"-very detestable Davis-and Fred, too!" she gravely-"how came you to attend the finished, the tears springing to her eyes opera?"

quickly. "Why didn't he say so if he "Rosa," cried Fred, turning impulsively, and catching her in his arms. go to-night!" And with a little sigh frighten me so, darling?"

Rosa, nestling closer. "But you de- Reichstadt, who was born King of "Show him in," was her reply to ceived me, and I felt so badly! If you Rome and heir to the French throne, Kattie's announcement, in rich Irish had only told me! But we will be good and died at 21, Lieutenant in the Ausbrogue, "Gintleman to see ye, mem!" now, won't we?" And she put up her trian artillery. There seems to have "I wonder who it is?" she murmured, lips for the kiss of peace.

"Why, George!" an instant later was itently, choking over the tender reproach. One died at 21; the other was killed at her delighted exclamation. "When did "I never will again, if you forgive me 23. Both had brilliant prospects at this once. I was punished, I think; I birth; both were born after long and Further exclamations were lost in thought I had lost my wife. But"-he anxious expectation; both were only sons fond kisses from the bearded young man. added, quickly-" we did call to see the and only children; both lost their prestglad to see the wanderer ?" was the affec- flush a little.

sponded Rosa. "How handsome you him about it next morning. "Turned the tables neatly.'

"Humph!" muttered Davis. "Told

A Poet's Wife.

A writer in the London Athenæum, referring to the recent death of the widow of Walter Savage Landor, says: "Lanhe asked, pausing quickly, and glancing dor could never really feel that he was old or getting old; this, very likely, is the | There is something very dramatic in the peculiar privilege of genius.

de Meranie to Philip Augustus, in Dr. | should have sickened life away at Marston's fine play. But, unfortunately, Schonnbrunn, and that the sole son of retty girls, as a rule, are precisely those Napoleon III. should be pierced to death who never can take that view of matters. by Zulu spears in a remote and barbar-Landor and his wife had the inevitable ous land, and in a cause in which he had family quarrels and made them up. In embarked simply for political effect.-"In fifteen minutes," laughed Rosa, deed, seeing how little of true sympathy N. Y. Times. gleefully, and she ran blithely away, to there was between them, they really seem to have been, for a long time, exceedingly There was a slight stir in the house as forbearing with each other. Most peoa couple entered; very late they were, ple who knew Mrs. Landor as a young the lady slender and graceful, with great | charm of manner. 'I must do this little | sometimes irritable on the bench, rewearing that air of polish attained by regret and pity.' And even Armitage Judge. He glanced at them and tossed foreign travel, and devoted to his com- Brown, in the letter justifying Landor, them back to the young lawyer. panion, whom he seated with careful written to Landor at Landor's request, and which is manifestly biased, speaks of "Grey," said Davis, giving his friend her kindness and gracious hospitality to a nudge, "who is that last party that is himself. But it is a pity that women cannot, for he comfort of men who never Grey turned carelessly and looked; the grow old, remain pretty girls during life. look deepened to a stare, and he gazed Still, the family jars seem never to have blankly at the lady, who fluttered her been serious till 1814. when Landor, conspangled white fan with the faintest sidering it necessary to depart from England, and being met with objections to the step from his wife, a quarrel ensued, in which his wife, in the presence of her Fred turned scarlet, then pale, and younger sister, struck home a kind of blow that was sure to rankle in his breast till the day of his death; she twitted Epicurus whose passion for youth was so strong and so deep, could ever forgive this; he never did. They afterward, to be sure, came together again, and children were born to them, but such a sore could never be healed, and, after quarrels innumerable, Landor left her, and not all the persuasions of such kind and considerate friends as he had could induce him to see her again. The issue of the marriage consisted of one daughter and three sons. The eldest of these, Arnold Savage Lan-

SECRETARY. | plained the girl, "with a foine gintle. | the rowing or the baseball department | amount to $50,000 or $60,000.

Madame Bonaparte's Jewels.

The collection of the late Madame specimens, and would bring large sums one of the solid men of Boston. Rosa sat listening till the sound of twinkling eyes, Fred extended his own, intrinsic value. Two of them have plain Gale is of the opinion, from its style,

Prince Napoleon's Death.

Unfortunate as was the death of young Louis Napoleon at the hands of own, his death was less important than she sat down again and looked into the "Did you care so much?" whispered that of his second cousin, the Duke of been a remarkable parallelism in the "Of course we will !" said Fred, pen- in the fortunes of these two princes. of their Imperial fathers; both were "Smart woman, that little wife of forced to quit their native country; both -one in Austria, the other in England; both were of delicate constitution; both were amiable, generous and estimable, without inheriting the paternal strength; both pined for opportunities; both came to an untimely end. The twe youths were as gentle and likeable as their fathers were selfish, cruel and treacherous. Yet their fathers had magnificent success up to a certain time, and lost their power by overweening ambition. fact that the sole son of Napoleon I., The good are ever young, says Marie the greatest torce in modern times,

The following incident is related and all eyes were centered upon them - woman speak of her amiability and sweet | the late Judge Banard, who, though azure billows of silk falling around her | wife the justice,' said Robert Lander in | gretted more than any one else his hasty in shimmering folds, pearls braided low one of his letters, to say that I saw much | words and deeds at such times. A young in her brown hair, and a snowy opera of her about three years after her mar- lawyer, since then elected to Congress, cloak drawn carelessly about her shoul- riage during a long journey through when a young man just arrived in the ders—the gentlemen stately, nonchalant, France and Italy, and that I left her with city, once laid some papers before the > these papers?" asked the lawyer. "They're not properly drawn up," said the Judge.

young lawyer inquired.

The words were heard by a crowded court-room. Much mortified, the lawyer took his leave. A week afterward he was sitting in the same court-room, and with the disparity between their ages! It the Judge said: "Mr. ---, will you step was absolutely impossible that Landor, to the bench for a moment, if you please?" The gentleman did so, and the spectators wondered what was coming. "Last Monday," the Judge began, "you laid some papers before me, which I erroneously pronounced incorrect, and I acted like a scoundrel. I am ashamed of it, and as I grossly insulted you in open court, I want to tender you an apology

Congress having adjourned without dor, is now of Ispley Court, Warwick- action on the bill authorizing an allowance for leakage on export packages of alcohol between the distilleries and the A promising young Boston man has port of export, immediate collection of produced a book called "Little Tin Gods | all drawback assessments for this cause on Wheels." He is a Harvard man, but is ordered, and delayed pending the ac-"Sure, she wint out," volubly ex- it is not stated whether he belonged to tion of Congress. The assessments in open court. I beg your pardon."

Bonaparte's jewels recently placed on ex- their brethren from Chicago right royally possible disabilities which a marrigage hibition, consists of necklaces, finger- this week, says the Boston Transcript, would entail upon a sensitive and high rings, antiquities, vinaigrettes, bon-bon and the guests will return home con- spirited woman under the law of poboxes, ear-rings and other articles. They | vinced that hospitality is not a lost art | lygamy, that it is hard to believe any were presents from her parents, from on the seaboard. So it will do no harm woman would marry under such circumrelatives and friends, from her husband to tell this story, which Causuer heard stances, except when duped by a false during her brief married life, and from ! recently, but not in the West-a story | sense of religious obligation. A pracpersons she met during her extended which Boston may well ponder over, for tical evidence of the loss of wifely indevisit to Europe. One fine cameo ring is | though she has a warm heart and opens | pendence is shown in the fact that the valued at $150. One pair of diamond it wide on occasions, she does not keep right of dower has already been abolished man," and on the other side "George monds forming the leaves below. These street. John went to Chicago in its wives" of men in comfortable circumare worth $1,000. A crown of amethysts | muddy days, prospered, married, raised | stances do in Utah live alone and supworth only $500. There are four pearl became a well-to.do, substantial citizen, efforts. No wonder the priesthood have necklaces, the lowest in value being appraised at $50, and the highest at $500. remained at home. He, too, prospered, that earthly marriage is essential to that it was made three hundred years son, roving through the West, reached ceive her support either from one man Chicago. He remembered his father's or from the public. If her husband is friend by name, and hunted him up in under a permanent and exclusive legal his office. "Well, my son," said a and moral obligation to provide that pleasant voice before he had closed the support, the wife still remains an indedoor. "My names is James ---, sir, pendent person, because she is a partner and I thought-" "What? you don't in the matrimonial firm. His property savages, taken by surprise, enlisted in a mean to say that— Of course you are; is liable for her uses; his accumulations cause of doubtful worthiness, and at I might have known it. Where's your if she survive him, become in part her "Oh!" she finished, "if I could only "Don't tease me. How could you best not a cause of his country or his boggage?" "At the hotel, sir." "At own, and the remainder goes to her

"My darling little sister! So you are friend first." And he had the grace to ige and chances by the military downfall go home to-morrow." "Tut, tut, my is imperilled. We never knew anymine," he remarked to Davis, as he told | were educated in foreign military schools | you're going to stay that long, anyhow." Stage Life.

Saw His Error.

"Your Honor, what is the matter with

"If you don't know, I can't tell," the Judge responded. "If I had a tyro in my office who couldn't draw up better papers than those, I'd throw him out on the sidewalk."

Boston and Chicago Hospitality

Beston's merchants are entertaining the hotel ? We'll go and get it and take children. it right up to the house," answered the genial old gentleman, closing his desk with a vigorous slam. "We'll go right up now. There's plenty of time for a drive this afternoon. This evening you | See that, in founding a home for your can go to the theatre with my girls, and selves, you do not neglect the household to-morrow you and I will take a run out library. We rejoice in pretty furniture on the C., B. and Q., and have a look at and artistic pictures, but we want to see the country. Then I want to take you a new book sandwiched in between out to the stock yards, and have a trip every two purchases, and newspapers on the lake, and-" "But, sir," broke and magazines drifting around so thickly in the overwhelmed young man, "I must that the very order of the sitting-room boy, don't talk that way. You can't thing worse than intelligent sons and begin to see this city under a week, and And he did. In fact, he's there now.

adies, who so savagely condemn the Scott, Thackerary, Dickens, Hawthorne actress without recommendation to mer- and Holmes to theology. We should y, would pass scatheless through the know the opinions of the best minds of ordeal to which she is subjected, the to-day, upon all questions of social life, temptations by which she is surrounded? philosophy, of agriculture. We have To be nomely in mind and face, without known famous business men, keen finanbeauty or wit, to be born and reared and ciers, to grow out of the bookless homes, coddled in all the respectabilities and but never the great-hearted and tenderconventionalities; to be watched so care- souled. So, parents, remembering this, fully that you could never find an op- glance over your libraries to see if there orthodoxes, left to your own wild will sings along the quiet vales of life in lanto be poor, beautiful and brilliant, to guage we all can understand. Win them see the handsomest men sighing at your to read aloud around the evening lamp, feet, doing homage to your talents as and most unconsciously their young souls well as to your face, and then to come will be drawn out to follow after those out of the fire unscathed, as many an who call—to follow and sing and be glad actress has done and will do-then, -for great is the power of influence. lady, you have the right to look down upon one who has not been blessed with Effects of Opium and Nicotine. Bigoted ascetism revels in those gloomy pictures in which the shadows killing himself with nicotine by smoking are unnaturally deepened and the lights

"What is wrong about them?" the Ben Butler's Cow. Ben Butler was called on by a person who wanted to have a talk with him. "Mr. Butler," said he, "one of my last night, and completely destroyed my flower beds. The gate was of the height required by law, and was closed. Now I wish to know whether I can obtain damages?"

"Well, Mr. Butler, how much ?" "Oh, about ten dollars."

"But, Mr. Butler," triumphantly, "the cow was yours." "Ah?" said Mr. Butler, thoughtfully, and he looked unutterable things duct. Opium is eating up his life, and out of his bad eye. Then he turned to he will not last long. It is a pity, for his his desk, scratched off a few lines on a piece of paper, and handed it to his and he might render much useful public visitor. It was in the form of an account, and read as follows: "B. F. Butler, to Mr. ___, Dr.: To damages caused by cow, $10. Cr., by legal advice, $15. Balance due me, $5." "Mr.--," said Mr. Butler, softly, "You needn't hurry about the payment." The Stewart mine of Utah produced $10,220 in gold in June.

A Just View.

So numerous and shocking are the

In Utah, as a partial remedy for the if sold. One of the greatest curiosities | Now it fell out that when John's old- social conflicts caused by this infernal inin the lot is a bracelet made of gold est son-they called him Jack-was 21, stitution, marriages can be dissolved by wire, about twenty-two carats fine, made he visited Boston bearing a letter to his either party at a nominal cost. But free from gold found upon the arm of a father's old friend, whom he found in a divorce is almost equally injurious to skeleton discovered in the ruins of Pom- dingy Pearl-street counting-room, deep women. For if marriage is dissoluble peii. There is a black enameled bracelet, in the Advertiser. Jack presented the at the will of the wife it must be equally made in Paris and set with American letter, and stood, hat in hand, while the so at the will of the husband. But to quarter-eagle gold pieces, worth $100. old gentleman read it twice. "So you're women marriage means maternity, and Another bracelet is made of six $5 gold | John's son!" he said. "You don't look | maternity means a life devoted to the entertain you." And with a kiss he gard. "He took me to the opera; I pieces and a French coin linked together a bit like your father." Then there was nurture and care of children, which is a with gold. There are three gold watches a pause, Jack still standing. "What life incompatible with the success or prose-And seeing the outstretched hand and unique and beautiful, but not of much | brought you to Boston?" he was asked- cution of any other industrial pursuit. "Well, sir," said Jack, "father thought | To ask a mother to earn the means of hunting-cases, blue enameled open-faces. I'd better see his old home and get a support for herself and her children is and the third is a double-cased watch, taste of salt air." "Going to be here simply to ask her to do double duty, to ornamented with pearls. One of these over Sunday?" "Yes, sir." "My pew be in two places at the same time. As a watches was a present to Mme. Bona- is No. — at Trinity. Hope to see you rule she cannot do both. The majority parte while she was Miss Elizabeth Pat- there. Glad to have met you." And of men and women, having in their youth little or no accumulated property, It chanced that, not long after, James' a married woman in most cases must re-

Bookless Homes

A dreary place is a bookless house, daughters to grow out of such untidiness. To go to housekeeping without a family bible and an unabridged diction' ary ought to be elected a criminal of fense. Here lies the beginning of wisdom. Then we should add modern How many of you straight-faced history to ancient, poetry to science, portunity of going astray, even if you be not some vacancy to fill up with a desired it; in short, to develop into an volume which will add to the cheer of mmaculate matron, is not such a mar- the windy Winter nights. Get for the vellous matter to congratulate yourself | boy a book of history or travels; for the girl a copy of Tennyson, or Longfellow, But to be born altogether out of the or Browning-some sweet poet, who

The report that Senator Carpenter is wenty cigars a day is a reminder that are omitted; but gentler morals might others are suffering from the same sort of draw from that same source the bright | excess. Most of the smokers in Congress est examples of noble self-devotion, un- smoke too much. Some of them carry daunted perseverance and divine charity. | cigars in their mouths all the time. There are Senators and representatives who never walk down the avenue without the stump of a cigar between their fingers. One prominent man in Congress is rapidiy killing himself with opium, and one of the neighbor's cows jumped my garden gate | Doorkeepers of the House is at the point of death from the same cause. The public man I refer to is a popular and respected man, whose strange ways have long been a wonder to those who do not know of his secret habit. He is a kind "Most assuredly," replied the widow's and genial gentleman, but he is liable to pass his best friend with a blank stare half an hour after he has met him pleasantly in conversation. His fits of abstraction and depression amount almost to craziness. At times he is so odd and queer that his associates are puzzled by his conis one of the best intellects in Congress, service if he would.—Washington Correspondence Boston Herald.

> A special from Austin says that news was received of a fight between the State troops and a party of Indians at the head of Concho river. One Indian was killed and several wounded. The rest escaped. . The State troops lost several horses and pack mules. They were still pursuing the Indians.

WORKS. J. H. RUSSELL, Proprietor.

ASHLAND WOOLEN MILLS

At Prices that Defy Competition.

PATRONS,

DOESKINS,

AND HOSIERY

OLD AND NEW,

Are invited to send in their orders and are assured that they

SHall Receive Prompt Attention

W. H. Atkinson