

THE ASHLAND THINGS

LIBRARY AND READING ROOM

A movement has been made toward establishing a public library and reading room in Ashland, and it seems to be meeting with such favor among the substantial citizens that its success is undoubtedly assured.

THE MAINE ELECTION

It was sometime after the election before it was learned that the people had failed to elect a governor. In that state a majority of all the votes cast is required for that purpose, and no candidate received a majority.

The Sentinel corrects us in the matter of the wool export from Jackson county, giving the amount at three hundred thousand pounds, instead of two hundred thousand, as we had it last week.

Wednesday, the 19th, was a gala day at the Capital of the Nation. The occasion was the unveiling of the Statue of Gen. Geo. H. Thomas, erected to his memory by the Army of the Potomac.

The Yreka Journal says the highest point on the Siskiyou pass is four thousand five hundred feet above the sea level, according to the C. P. R. survey, made by Surveyor Hood.

De La Matyr, of Louisiana, says that Butler will be the Greenback candidate for President, and Jones, of Texas, for Vice President.

The Ashland Wool Manufacturing Company now use in their business about one-fourth of all the wool grown in Jackson county. The annual wool clip of our county is estimated at 100,000 pounds, and within the year ending with February next, the first year's operation of the mill by the present company, 100,000 pounds of raw wool will have been transformed by the spinners, weavers and knitters into cloth, cassimers, blankets, shawls, socks, etc.

The Yolo, Cal. Mail says: "A good deal of attention is now given by farmers in different parts of our State to obtaining Odessa wheat to sow. The reason is, that it has the reputation of being rust proof." In view of the prevailing idea of the nature of rust, it is difficult to conceive how any variety of wheat would be exempt from its attacks under conditions where other varieties would suffer by it.

In Massachusetts, by a statute styled the "Civil Damage Act," saloon keepers are made responsible for damages done by parties under the influence of liquor furnished by them. The first case under the Act was recently tried in the Middlesex District Court, and resulted in a verdict for $200 against a liquor seller of whose customers severely injured a policeman who attempted to arrest him.

During the past season 13 vessels have been engaged in codfishing in the North Pacific. Most of the fish were caught in the vicinity of the Chotanagin Islands and the Ochotsk sea. The total catch for the season was 1,499,000 fish weighing about 3,000 tons. This was an increase over 1878 of more than 300,000 fish.

A Michigan Senatorship has gone a-begging. F. C. Braman, recently appointed to the unexpired term of Chandler, declined on account of ill health. Henry P. Baldwin, of Detroit, has since been appointed to fill the vacancy.

Another telegraph cable now spans the bottom of the Atlantic ocean. It is owned by a French company and strikes this continent on the Massachusetts shore.

The latest Presidential combinations spoken of in Washington City are as follows: Democratic, Bayard and McDonald; Republican, Blaine and Windom.

At Seattle, W. T., on the 16th, 1,000,000 feet of logs, cut on the public lands, were sold on account of the Government and brought $1 per 1,000.

Gen Morrow, in command of the 21st Infantry at Vancouver, is making an effort to have a U. S. military school established on the Pacific coast.

The gigantic Corliss engine, admired by so many at the Centennial exhibition, is now in use at the mill at San Francisco.
