GRIZZLY BEAR. - The Lakeview Herald reports that Jerome Knox and John Forbes had an encounter with a huge grizzly with cubs, in the mountains near Paisley. The bear, being wounded, turned upon Forbes and closed her jaws over his head, tearing the scalp and cutting the face up fearfully. The flesh was also torn from the calf of one leg. He fell upon his face, feigned death, and the bear, after growling fiercely overhim for a moment, fled for the woods again. Knox hastened to Paisley for assistance, the wounded man was taken home and properly cared for, and at last accounts, was getting along nicely.

ARRESTED ON SUSPICION .- On Wednesday a stranger who had stopped at the Franco American Hotel in Jacksonville left town without settling his board bill. As he had acted strangely, he had been noticed closely by a number of persons, and Dave Crosby, the wide-awake, Marshal, became convinced that he an swered the description of the man who is wanted to answer the charge of the murder of two persons in the Palouse country, and for whose capture a reward of $1,300 is offered. So Crosby took a team and started this way after the man overtaking him somewhere on the road between Jacksonville and Ashland. He questioned closely and examined him, and although through Ashland last week, bound for he answered the description in most re- Vancouver with a prisoner from Fort spects. Crosby thought he was not the Klamath. man, and let him go. Changing his mind, however, he telegraphed to H. F. Phillips to stop him, in pursuance of which Mr. P. took the road and, capturing the man near the toll house, brought him back to Ashland, and yesterday Crosby took him to Jacksonville. The man acts strangely, and many think he is crazy.
