ASHLAND, April 13th. [45-3.

THE CALIFORNIAN.—The May number of the Pacific Coast magazine has reached us, and its excellent articles fully justify the fast increasing popularity it enjoys. Every reader should take it. Send to the A. Roman Publishing Co., San Francisco. The subscription price is $3 per year.

FOR RENT.—The dwelling house on Oak steet recently sold by A. G. Rockfellow. The house is of good size, in good condition, conveniently arranged and pleasantly situated. The lots contain about three acres of land, with good garden patch, pasturage and plenty of fruit and berries. For particulars inquire of G. S. BUTLER,

ASHLAND, Ogn. 44-2w.

SMALLPOX.—East Portland has a well developed case of smallpox, the yellow flag being displayed in front of the residence of Wm. Burton, who it was discovered by his attending physician, was attacked with smallpox in its worst or confluent form. Mr. Burton caught the disease from some Chinese while on the steamer on his way to the Dalles from Portland. Sat sman.

UNSAFE.—The residents of Granite street are complaining, and with good cause, of the loss of the hand-rail along the board walk where the wood has been thrown over for the charcoal pits, and at some other places. It is a long way from the walk to the ground at that place, and there is a splendid opportunity to fall off there on a dark night. We don't know that the citizens of that part of town feel themselves any more in danger of falling off since the saloon opened than they did before, but they want that gap in the hand-rail closed, anyhow.

GOOD WATCH.—One day last week, one of the Phoenix school boys, Russell Ames, found a good silver watch hanging by a buckskin guard upon the limb of a bush near the school house. He took the watch home and wound it up, and it started at once and kept first-rate time. Upon the news of the find spreading about town, it was soon discovered that the owner of the watch had lost it eighteen months previously, while walking through the brush, and had advertised his loss at the time. It was a singular circumstance, and the watch must have a good, tight case to have withstood the weather eighteen months without harm.

THE CONCERT.—The entertainment given by Mrs. Nichols last Friday evening was enjoyed by as large an audience as could well be crowded into the Presbyterian church. Every seat was occupied, and many persons were standing the whole evening. The performances were very well rendered and were received with evident pleasure. The programme as published was faithfully carried out, with the exception of the reading by Prof. Nichols, which was omitted because of the lateness of the hour. The vocal and instrumental pieces by Mrs. Nichols' pupils were exceedingly well rendered, and not only reflected great credit upon the performers, but evidenced the most careful and successful training on the part of the instructress; the character pieces were well executed, and greatly enjoyed, the fact of their being rather a novelty here giving them more than ordinary interest; the tableaux were entirely satisfactory, and greatly admired. Upon the whole the entertainment was a gratifying success to all concerned. The receipts were about $65, which, with an admission fee of only two bits, is a good round sum.

At the school meeting in Phoenix on Monday the anti-tax party carried the day, and Prof. Nichols, believing he was unable to do justice to so large a number of pupils in an ungraded school, resigned, and closed the school.

The Sentinel reports that Hull Bros., on Rogue River, have lost fully two-thirds of their band of sheep; that Hill & Donegan have lost in still greater proportion, and Hill, of Trail creek, has lost nearly his entire band.

The physicians of Douglas county who are graduates of regular medical colleges are about to form a county medical association. Death and disease may as well take their departure thence—seek fresh fields and pastures new, "as it were."

About thirty hands are wanted to work on the road this side of Roseburg. They will receive $1 per day and board and transportation by the stage line. Communications should be addressed to Wm. Carll, the Superintendent at Grave creek.

Notice among the new advertisements this week that of Ferree's express line between Linkville and Fort Klamath. Al Ferree, who was one of the Ashland Academy boys last year, runs the stage, and will attend faithfully to all business entrusted to him.

Engineer Manning, who was detailed to survey the road over the Grave creek and Cow creek hills, where the appropriation for the military wagon road is to be expended, has finished his work, and the improvement of the road is now under the charge of Lieut. Symond. Twenty eight or thirty men are at work, and it is thought the grade over the mountains will be finished within two weeks.

We have received from the publishers a copy of "A Treaties on the Horse and His Diseases," which should be found on every farmer's shelf and among every horseman's collection of books. Every kind of disease that a horse is subject to can be found treated of in this work.

We see by exchanges that H. F. Sukesdorf, Supervisor of census of Oregon, has been complaining that there have been no applications for the position of enumerator from either Lake or Josephine counties. The appointments will probably be made about the first of May.

Col. S. G. Whipple was on his way back to Fort Klamath, last week, from Fort Lapawai, and had come as far as Roseburg, when he received a telegram summoning him to Vancouver at once, and had to turn back. We have not learned how much longer he will be kept away from his post.

A. G. Rockfellow left in our office the other day an immense tooth, which, with a portion of the jaw bone, was washed out of the ground at Mr. R.'s mines below Ashland a few years ago. It is a molar of one of the huge elephants which used to roam over Southern Oregon in pre-historic times.

Last Thursday evening, April 15th, at the residence of the groom's parents, by Rev. L. L. Rogers, Mr. John Stanley and Miss Rose Cook were joined in matrimony. The small boys had arranged a chivirari, but the groom came down with a treat, and they allowed themselves to be bought off.

L. B. Applegate tells us that of the 1,300 head of cattle in the band of the Applegate Bros. but 55 head had been lost a few weeks ago, while when he last heard, a few days since, 200 had died. Their hay stacks had all given out by the 1st of April, and this is one of the hardest months on cattle this year.

O. Coolidge of the Ashland Nursery gives notice once more that he will sell shade trees, to be planted in Ashland, at reduced rates. He will sell shade trees of the four finest varieties for a bit each, provided they are set out in town. This is his last offer, as the time for planting will soon be past this season.

Wm. Pittinger, one of the first residents of Ashland, who is now living in Hillsboro, is visiting our town. He taught the first school in this neighborhood, in the old school house that stood on the bank of the creek, down below the planing mill. When he left Ashland, in '62, there were not more than half a dozen buildings of any size in the place.

Jackson county is in a fair way to acquire an unenviable reputation. She has been sending more than her share of patients to the Insane Asylum. On Monday last two brothers, Thomas and George Briner, 40 and 38 years of age respectively, were adjudged insane, and have been sent to East Portland in charge of W. C. Manning.

The heaviest shock of earthquake felt for years occurred in San Francisco and some other portions of California on the 14th. A dispatch from San Francisco says: "The motion was vertical. No damage reported, although buildings rocked so that the motion was plainly visible. Nevada Block apparently swayed a foot out of perpendicular."

The Susanville, Cal., paper says: B. H. Leavitt has invented a machine, which in addition to grubbing sage brush, will grade roads and dig ditches. It has a blade plated with steel which works on hinges and can be opened or closed to cut a wide or narrow ditch, at the will of the operator, or can be closed in the form of a plow to grade roads. It requires a heavy team to draw it but does effective work. Mr. Leavitt will have it patented.

The enterprise of the publishers of the San Francisco Charoncle is unapproachable and their resources of improvement and extension of their business inexhaustbile. They have recently published a handsomely-bound and illustrated book, giving a history of the Chronicle, and a full description of the handsome building it now occupies, the methods employed in conducting the business of the great establishment, and other interesting matter. We acknowledge the receipt of a copy. The Chronicle takes the lead in journalistic enterprise.

SAVE COSTS.—Notice is hereby given that the accounts of the estate of R. B. Hargadine, deceased, have been placed in my hands for collection, and those who are owing will save costs by calling at my office and making settlement at once.

46-3t F. W. BASHFORD.

BIDS FOR SUPPLIES.—The Chief Quartermaster of the Department of the Columbia advertises for sealed proposals for furnishing supplies to the various military posts, Fort Klamath among the rest, for the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1880. The supplies wanted are wood, charcoal, oats, barley, bran, hay and straw. Bids in triplicate will be received at Fort Klamath until 12 o'clock May 12th next. For particulars apply to Quartermaster at Fort Klamath.

NEW RIFLES.—We find the following in the military notes of the Portland papers: Springfield rifles with buck horn rear sights and new front sights having been issued to the troops armed with rifles in this department, all such rifles numbered under 50,000, together with all surplus buck horn rear sight, will be turned into arsenals on receipt of the arm. The company cammanders at Fort Stevens, Canby, Townsend, Klamath, Harney, and Boise Barracks, will pack, forward and invoice their old rifles and surplus buck horn sights direct to the commanding officer, national armory, Springfield, Massachusetts. Other company and post commanders will ship to Vancouver arsenal.

NEW BRIDGES.—The County Commissioners advertise that on May 5th there will be let at public "outcry" to the lowest responsible bidder the contracts for the building of three bridges, two across Little Butte Creek, one near the residence of Peter Simon's, the other near the residence of James Miller, and one across Elk creek at Strawberry Ford. Plans and specifications to be seen at the County Clerk's office.

REPUBLICAN NOMINEES IN DOUGLAS.—The Republican Convention of Douglas county, which met last week, made the following nominations: State Senators: D. W. Stearns, W. W. Colvig; Representatives, B. B. Brockaway, D. S. K Ruick, F. M. Spencer and D. Montgomery; County Clerk, Geo. W. Kimball; Sheriff, D. Applegate; Treasurer, J. Hockett; School Supt., J. W. Strange; Assessor, D. B. Winniford; Commissioners, R. S. Applegate, and A. Riddle.

MAY RACES.—The races at the Jacksonville track in May will be as follows: On May 13th—Trotting race, free for all horses that have never trotted for public money, purse $50; a foot race, two hundred yards, purse $20. On May 14th—Running race, single dash of one mile, free for all, purse $50; trotting race, best 2 in 3, in harness for horses that never beat 3 minutes, purse $50. May 15th—Trotting race, free for all, best 2 in 3, purse $100, entrance fee to go with purse; also, a half-mile running race.

WAGON ROAD MEETING.—At the meeting held at the Court House last Saturday, C. C. Beekman was chosen chairman, and Jerry Nunan and Max Muller, secretaries. The report of the meeting of the committees at Waldo the week before was submitted, and the action of the committee representing Jackson county was approved. On motion, the committee was then directed to call for ten per cent. of the subscriptions, to meet the expenses of the survey, the ten per cent. to be deducted from the original amount of the subscriptions. Max Muller was appointed to solicit subscriptions in San Francisco.

CINNABAR.—A. G. Rockfellow informs us that on his mining ground near Ashland cinnabar ore exists of such quality and in such quantity that he has no doubt that with a furnace it would pay well to mine it. There is considerable cinnabar in that portion of the valley, and from time to time the building of a furnace has been talked of, but nothing more substantial than talk has yet resulted. Several gentlemen of Ashland are in earnest now, however, in the purpose of building a small furnace during the next summer. They have knowledge of a style of furnace which may be put up for less than a thousand dollars, and which will reduce the ore at a paying rate.

ATTEMPT AT SUICIDE.—O. A. Davis who was a resident of Ashland a few years ago, living at the place now owned by Thos. Smith attempted to commit suicide by jumping from the Oakland ferry boat into San Francisco bay, last week. He was caught by someone as he was jumping, and taken to the Oakland city prison, whence he probably went to the asylum, as he was evidently insane. The Call says: He has, according to his own story, been twice married, and has six children living. He says he does not want to live any longer, does not fear death, and thinks he can aid his family better in the spirit world than in this. He had given someone a letter for his children, in which he declares himelf to be in perfect health, physically and mentally, and that his spirit friends has assured him that it would be best for him to "shuffle off the mortal coil."

SORGHUM IN JOSEPHINE CO.—S. A. Borough, writing from Waldoville, Josephine county, says: Orr Brown, living near hear, manufactured last season several hundred gallons of sorghum syrup, which we must say is of fine qualitp, having had the pleasure of tasting some of it. For several years some of his neighbors have been raising a small quantity of this cane and manufacturing out of it a rather inferior article of syrup (they not being acquainted with the manufacture of it,) and being supplied with only rudely constructed wooden mills that left a large per cent of the juice still remaining in the stock. They became discouraged, and almost abandoned its cultivation altogether. Last year Mr. Brown was indseed to go into the cultivation and manufacture of the cane into syrup, he at once sent East for a mill. He will add other improvements this year as he expects to engage quite extensively in the manufacture of this syrup, a number of his neighbors agreeing to furnish him with the cane.

ENTERTAINMENT TO-NIGHT.—The dramatic entertainment for which the Good Templars have been preparing for some time will be given this (Friday) evening in the M. E. church, the use of that building having been kindly granted them by those having it in charge. The entertainment will consist of a drama, in two acts, entitled "The Last Loaf," which is well received wherever played, and which we feel safe in saying will be well rendered; vocal and instrumental music by some of the best performers in town; and a "side splitting" farce, in one act, entitled "Trouble in a Chinese Wash House," which is warranted to send the most confirmed hypochondriac into convulsions of laughter. The price of admission has been fixed at 25 cts. and we look for a large attendance. The proceeds are to be applied in liquidating a debt of the Good Templar's Lodge, and although the entertainment is thus worthy of patronage because of its object, it will be found that the enjoyment it will give will be worth twice the price of admission. Go and see if our home talent will not bear comparison with that of the traveling persuasion.

Linkville School.

EDITOR TIDINGS:—

If you regard school reports as news items, please say to your readers that the third term of public school at Linkville closed on Friday last.

An examination of two days, Thursday and Friday, demonstrated to a goodly number of visitors that the pupils of the school were very proficient in the various branches studied during the term, ranging from primer to advanced Algebra.

Ed. C. Brooks being alone in advanced algebra and Robinson's Progressive Arithmetic, in which branches he excels, was passed without an examination, that more time might be alloted to other classes.

Thursday forenoon was occupied by the different reading classes; in the afternoon, sufficient time was found for a lively spelling match, James D. Fairchild remaining master of the situation.

School will reopen after a vacation of two weeks (on next Monday). Let there be a full attendance on the first day—a number of additions to the register are expected. A P. ARMSTRONG, Teacher,

APRIL 12th, 1880.

Our correspondent sends us the following under date of April 19th:

Is is snowing here at present with two inches on the ground.

Three freight teams came down as far as Castle Rock Station, from Yreka, on their way to Reading last Saturday, but turned back on account of the roads being in such a bad condition.

They have been crossing the mail at Pitt river, for the last week, in small boats.

Billy Woods from Redding passed up here last week on his way to Yreka with an eight mule team loaded with tools and dredges for the Yreka Creek Co.

A large amount of mail matter from Lakeview addressed to Linkville passed up this way, having come via Alturas.

John Buick is driving the C. & O. S. Co.'s swing drive between Slate Creek and Sacramento bridge.

Mr. J. H. Sisson has sold a half interest in his hotel and farm at Strawberry valley to Jerome Fay. Mr. Fay is well known and it is hoped that he will meet with success. OBSERVER.

HILL'S LEADING CASES.—We have received the last number of "Hill's Leading Land and Mining Cases," a quarterly journal published at Washington, D. C., and containing the decisions of the U. S. Supreme Court and the Secretary of the interior in all important cases involving title to agricultural mineral and other lands, etc. It is a very valuable publication to every one at all interested in such matters. Subscription price $1 per year.

TEMPERANCE MEETING.—The temperance meeting in the M. E. church last Sunday evening was so largely attended that the seats were all filled, and a number of people who came late were compelled to go away without hearing the speaking. After prayer and music, Rev. L. L. Rogers spoke earnestly for about half an hour upon the present aspect of the temperance question in our midst, and expressed the opinion that it was within the power of the citizens of our town to suppress entirely the sale by the glass of every kind of intoxicating liquor. Following his speech were recitations by Miss Adah Horton and Wm. Willits and a select reading by Miss Irene Wrisley. After more music by the choir, Dr. E. L. V. Coon, G. L. of the Champions of Honor, was introduced and spoke in an interesting manner for about half an hour, and the meeting was concluded with the usual ceremonies.

WHO HE WAS.—The man who was arrested by Marshal Crosby, of Jacksonville on suspicion of being the Whitman county murder proved to be the wrong man, but a well-known bilk, who undoubtedly deserves arrest for the many frauds he has perpetrated. He was recognized by M. Baum as one who passed through Ashland about two years ago and succeeded in getting a small loan from Mr. B. upon the representation that he was a foreign gentleman of means in a temporary strait. He represents himself as being Baron W. Von Morpurgo, K. K. Rittmeister, an Austrian Colonel, and he had to leave his native country for killing a man in a duel. He dresses well, has a handsome gold watch and chain and a profusion of jewelry and has his clothing marked with the initials and coat of arms of his fictitious title. He is a young Austrain about 26 years old, average, a fine musician, good talker and converses fluently in English, French, German and Italian. He is a notorious swindler and has traveled through a good portion of the United States already, playing his game.

BRAZEN SERPENT.—Sometime since H. C. Hill and Jasper Houck boxed up and shipped to Prof. E. D. Cope, of Philadelphia, who visited this county last summer, a lot of bones and fossils; and, by way of a joke, a curious growth of some kind of wood, which resembled exactly a serpent twining around a stick, and which by a little carving had been made to imitate a snake so closely that anyone would be deceived by it at the first glance, was carefully wrapped up and labeled "The brazen serpent which has passed into history with the story of the Children of Israel." Just how the serpent had succeeded in wriggling itself from the neighborhood of the Red sea to the wilds of Oregon was not explained, but the locality of its discovery, etc., was carefully given. A day or two ago Mr. Houck received a letter from Prof. Cope, acknowledging receipt of fossils, and mentioning the serpent in a manner which showed that he thoroughly enjoyed the joke. The Professor would like to have a bear skeleton from this region, and if some hunter will take the trouble to preserve the bones of the next bear he kills, and bring the skeleton complete to Mr. Houck, he will be paid for his trouble.

THE OREGON KIDNEY TEA.

Read the following testimonials, not from persons 3,000 miles away, whom no one knows, but from well-known and trustworty citizens of Oregon, whose names, written with their own hands, can be seen at our office:

I hereby certify that I was suffering from an attack of backache so severe that I went about doubled up, and could not straighten up. I used one package of the Oregon Kidney Tea, and I am fully persuded that I was restored by its help.

J. W. LENGER,

Eugene City, Or., Oct. 20, 1879.

I have used the Oregon Kidney Tea for pains in the back, and I am satisfied with its effects, and do not hesitate to recommend it as a mild and safe remedy.

Z. T. SCOTT,

Harrisburg, Or., Dec. 31, 1879.

IN WARNER VALLEY.—E. H. Loftus received this week a letter from his son John in Warner valley, dated April 7th. He says that stock has fared rather better in Warner valley than in most other sections, but a good many cattle have died about there, nevertheless. Stock men had begun to take the cattle upon the table lands, but could not go far back from the valley on accotint of the snow, which was very deep, having drifted the Camas creek bottom so full that only the tops of the willows could be seen. Grass was up so that horses would live, but a good many old, poor cows would still get down in bad places, and perish because unable to regain their feet, as they were very weak.....He writes that his two brothers, Columbus and Henry, are very indignant over the trick which McConaghy served them in arresting them and taking them 200 miles, to Fort Harney, to appear before a Justice, for having used hay which they had bought of another man, and paid for. They say McConaghy had the Justice under his thumb, and fixed the matter up to suit himself; that McConaghy is anxious to run them out of the valley, so that he can have the range, and loses no opportunity to harass and annoy them.

—GEN. FLEURY and BOBBY BURNS will be kept at my stable near Ashland the coming season.

—ARABIAN BOY until the 28th of April and return the first week in July.

Within the past few years there has been a desperate effort in this and Marion counties to prejudice the minds of the against my Percheron stock; and in order to give their slander some appearance of being so, have destroyed two of as fine draft stallions as ever came to Oregon, with several colts and young horses. That the public may not be deceived by these base slanders I will soon publish a circular giving some of the facts in the case with the high estimation this stock is held in at other places, which will be sent free on application.

The people of this section well know of the valuable animals for farm and team use that were raised from the two French horses brought here by Mr. S. Colver some years ago, (they were ¾ bloods,) but when breeders can secure the service of a pure blood horse for a reasonable price they should avail themselves of the priviledge. Some of the finest draft colts at the last State Fair were sired by Gen. Fleury.
