DIED. - Will Purcell, son of Mrs. S. Hemphill, formerly of Ashland, die at Dixon, Cal., on the 13th inst., of con stimption. Will was a clerk in McCall & Baum's store during his residence in Ashland, and has many friends here, who will learn with sorrow of his early

DESIRABLE PROPERTY FOR SALE, -The house and lot of John Ralph, on Main street, is offered for sale at a bargain. The lot contains an acre and a quarter of ground, with extensive frontage, plenty of fruit, good water and excellent garden ground. The house is hard-finished, and has a good cellar. For particulars apply at the premises.

FURNITURE STORE -- Messrs. M. Baum and H. C. Hill contemplate opening a furniture store in Ashland soon, and will probably occupy the building to be vacated by Fountain & Farlow. A sto in which will be kept a general assortment of furniture arranged for inspection at all times will be a great convenience to purchasers, and it is rather singular that one has not been opened before.

LINKVILLE ROAD. - The business men of Ashland have subscribed to a fund for the improvement of the road between this place and Linkville, and Wednesday fforning Mr. Woolen went out with a few men to do some work on the Kean creek hill. Unless considerable improvement be made in the road it will be several weeks vet before we can expect to teams coming in from Lake county after provisions.

To East Portland .- T. G. Watters and family will bid farewell to Ashland next Monday, and start for East Portland, where the 'Squire will open a jewelry store. They have relatives in that city, and have been expecting for sometime to go there. The 'Squire is a good watchmaker and a good citizen, and we are sorry to see him leave Ashland, but wish him success and prosperity in his

GRIZZLYS ON A RAMPAGE. - A Drew's Valley correspondent writes to the Lakeview Herald: "John Jackson, who wintered a band a young cattle at Dog lake, met with a heavy loss a few days since. His calves were attacked by four huge grizzlies and over a hundred head were killed by them. Denny and Martin, two noted hunters of Drew's creek, went after the 'varmints,' and succeeded in killing them. The successful nimrods now wear grizzley claws for crnaments, and live on 'bar meat', PETITION TO LIQUOR SELLERS. -The committee of ladies who called upon the liquor sellers in town with the petition which we mentioned as receiving some 250 signatures at the M. BOBBY BURNS -THE SHETLAND-

GEN. FLEURY and BOBBY BURNS will be kept at my stable near Ashland the -ARABIAN BOY until the 28th of Arril and return the first week in July. Within the past few years there has been a desperate effort in this and Marion connties to prejudice the minds of the people gainst my Percheron stock; and in or to give their slander some appearance of being so, have destroyed two of as fine draft stallions as ever came to Oregon, with several colts and young horses. That the pubing some of the facts in the case with the high estimation this stock is held in at other places, which will be sent free on appitcat The people of this section well know of the valuable animals for farm and team the that were raised from the two French horses brought here by Mr. S. Colver some years ago. (they were 1/2 bloods, ) but when breeders can secure the service of a pure blood borse for a reasonable price they should avail themselves of the priviledge.
