GENERAL NEWS.

Frederick the Great's silver drinking cup has recently been sold in Berlin for $1,500.

The last negro held in slavery in the South was owned by another negro near Thomasville, Ga. It has been decided not to ask Congress to appropriate $10,000 for the Hendricks monument. The mileage of congressmen foots up $143,000 a year. The Oregon congress man gets $3000 mileage. At no time since April, 1878, have the payments of duties on imports in silver coin been equal to one-half of 1 per cent.

Ferd. Ward has been found incompetent to keep books in Sing Sing prison, and he has been set to working a card Hereafter Cleveland proposes to hold Senators and Representatives responsible for the men they recommend for appointment to office. The railroad lobby is working hard to prevent the forfeiture of the grants to the California and Oregon, and Oregon and California roads. Senator Mitchell of Oregon has been placed on the following committees:
