The Oregon Fruit Growers Association held a meeting in Portland this week. We shall publish proceedings in next issue of the Times.

The O. A. C. R. R. is the heaviest taxpayer in the county, and the Bank of Ashland next, with Maj. Barron and C. C. Bekman closely following.

PERSONAL.

S. B. Gale, Esq., has been retained as associate counsel with Judge Hanna for Kent in the suit to annul the election of district attorney Colvig.

The conference of the M. E. Church, South, which met at Weston lately, failed to make an appointment for this circuit; but a minister will be supplied.

Jackson Hooker's mill raised over 1500 gallons of blackberries on about an acre of ground at his place in the north western part of town this season.

J. B. Williams reports that five members of the family of H. C. Fleming of Little Butte precinct are down with typhoid fever, some of them very low.

Mr. G. E. Beardon, Baltimore, Md., Commissioner of Deeds for all the States, suffered for a long time with rheumatism, which yielded promptly to St. Jacobs Oil.

For the best fruit cans, fruit jars and jelly glasses at the lowest cash prices, call at Myer Bros.' hardware store. Full stock of goods in our line always on hand.

Mark B. Kerr's topographical surveying party has removed headquarters from Ashland to Roseburg, and will disband there for the season within a week or two.

Dyphtheria is frequently the result of a neglected sore throat, which can be cured by a single bottle of Red Star Cough Cure. Price, twenty-five cents a bottle.

N. A. Steadman is now the proprietor of the Ashland delivery and express business, having purchased it of R. T. Vining when the latter moved to Washington Territory.

H. H. Lynch and Mr. Hopkins found a rich prospect in decomposed quartz last Monday on or near an extension of the Hope ledge, and the report created considerable excitement in Ashland.

Everybody says Ashland is the liveliest and busiest town of its size in the state. It is settled long ago that it is the most attractive and comfortable place for a home within the boundaries of Oregon.

Mrs. L. Powell has opened a laundry in Ashland, and those who complain of the "necessity" of employing Chinese washers will have an opportunity to prove their sincerity of their anti-Chinese sentiments.

A peculiar virtue in Ayer's Sarsaparilla is, that while it cleanses and purges the blood from all corruptions and impurities, and thereby cures skin diseases, it invigorates the whole system, and makes one young again.

Mrs. Harriet E. Chambers, who left Jacksonville a year ago last April, to visit her old home in Michigan, returned to this county about two weeks ago very low with consumption, and died at Medford last Friday.

The total amount of taxable property in Douglas county for 1886 is $2,825,000, and the following levy was ordered: For county purposes, 2.54 mills; state, 4 mills; school, 1 mill; military, 5.10th mills; university, 1.10th mills. Total, 18 mills.

In the trap-shooting last Sunday, E. V. Mills made the best score on the first ten shots, breaking eight balls of the ten. Messrs. E. J. Farlow, E. V. Carter and O. Coohige were about a tie. In fifteen shots E. V. Carter made the best score, breaking twelve balls.

Many forget that the hair and scalp need cleaning. Excessive use of Ayer's Hair Vigor has proven to be the best cleaning agent for the hair—that it prevents and removes dandruff, cools and soothes the scalp, and stimulates the hair to renewed growth.

The Ashland rod and gun club will adopt a constitution and effect a permanent organization soon. It is to be hoped the club will be able to devise some plan to check the ruthless slaughter of deer for their hides, which is disgracing Southern Oregon at this time.

Congressman Hermann when in Ashland last week stated that he was informed that the Secretary of War would likely decide about the 15th of this month whether or not the order for removal of troops from Fort Klamath should be carried out or indefinitely postponed.

The Klamath Star of last Saturday reported that the Shovel creek springs property, on Klamath river, had been sold to an Oakland party for $40,000. This, we think is an error. The owners of the property refused an offer of $30,000 last week, but at last report received here had not sold.

At the city election held in Roseburg last Monday Rev. John Howard was elected marshal; Ed Fisher was elected treasurer, defeating John Chase; T. Ford was elected recorder, defeating E. G. Horns. In that city there are never any nominations made, but the aspirants for municipal honors announce themselves through the papers, and the best man generally wins.

A large number of relatives of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Rockefeller gave them a surprise party one day last week, as a farewell. Mr. and Mrs. Rockefeller will leave soon for San Diego, Cal., with the intention of making that city their future home. They were among the early pioneer settlers of this valley, and are widely known throughout the county. The good wishes of many friends go with them to their new home.

Yorke & Gilroy have on hand a large quantity of the finest of sugar pine lumber from the Rogue River mill for winter shop use. They have also a quantity of fine hard wood lumber—alder, maple, ash and oak, recently received from Butte creek. A handsome bed room set of furniture has been recently made by them of the native woods, and they are prepared to fill orders for anything in that line.

Says the Medford Monitor of last week: The team attached to J. A. Crain's mill wagon, driven by Mr. Borer, became frightened at Thursday evening and ran away, demolishing the wagon and seriously injuring Mr. Borer and his son, a small lad who was in the wagon at the time. Mr. Borer received a small cut on the head, and was otherwise bruised, while the boy appeared to be badly stunned. The wounds, though of a serious nature, are not considered dangerous.

State Supt. McElroy has notified the county school superintendents that hereafter all applicants for teachers' certificates must pass an examination in physiology and hygiene. Teachers holding certificates will not be required to pass an examination in the additional branch until their present certificate expires. All teachers holding first grade certificates subject to renewal must pass an examination in above named studies, before such renewal can be issued.

All kinds of lumber for sale at bottom prices. W. G. TANNER, Ashland.

Climax tobacco 12 ct. plugs 35 cents at the Red House or for $1.

HERE AND THERE.

The Mechanic's Fair at Portland opens October 7th and closes on October 23.

The Oregon Pacific Railroad owns $300,000 worth of real estate in Albany.

The grand lodge, K. of P., of Oregon, will convene in Portland Tuesday, October 12th.

A slight shock of earthquake was felt in San Francisco last Monday. No damage done.

Property on Taquima bay to the amount of $50,000 has been bonded and will soon be thrown on the market.

Eastern Oregon will have five tons of its gold and silver ore on exhibition at the Mechanics' Fair this week.

Cass Matlock of Pendleton has refused $6000 for his race mare, Repetta. Lots of money for a horse raised on brush-grass—[Western Leader.]

John W. Mackay, the bonanza millionaire, who is interested in the new telegraph line now being built on this coast, will visit Oregon this week.

Roseburg paper: The excitement continues unabated in regard to rich gold mines in the southern part of this county. All will be millionaires soon.

Portland Or., sent $2,420.20 to help the Charleston sufferers by the earthquake. Chicago with a population twenty times as great as Portland, sent about $300.

Eastern Oregon exchange: The lack of rain was never so severely felt as during the present year in Eastern Oregon. The roads have been all worn into channels, and but little improvement can be made until rain falls.

The total receipts of the Lane county Fair amounted to $1,516, and the expenses, including improvements, aggregated between $800 and $900, leaving about $700 for premiums, and eighty per cent of the premiums awarded are being paid.

Eastern Oregon gentlemen are shipping east large numbers of cattle from Huntington. The O. R. & N. Co. charges such an enormous freight rate that shippers are compelled to drive to some point on the N. P. or Oregon Short Line.

Elder M. Peterson exhibited at our office a square raised by George Brown of a English pig, weighing 193 pounds. It is of the Mammoth variety and well deserved its name. Mr. Peterson sent it to the Oregon State Board of Immigration.

The Oregonian says that Rev. B. Wistar Morrison, Episcopal Bishop of Oregon, will go East next week to remain for the winter. He goes on "recruiting service" for money and men for the churches and schools he has under his management here.

The Southern Pacific Company has cleared and is improving 200 acres of land on the Oregon & California line, near Sisson's, and a town is being laid out. The arrival of many intending settlers in that section, as the result of the extension of the line, is said to exceed the expectations of the company.

Considerable excitement was created in Beaverton, Washington county, a few days ago, by the report of a mailpoach. He informs us that he was the reported victim. Investigations proved the report to be false, but the boy had a very narrow escape from death through blood poisoning which resulted from his inhaling poisonous gas in an old well which he had been cleaning. The poison caused an eruption on the skin which was mistaken for small-pox.

Says the Crescent City Record: Mr. Israel Morrison, from Smith River, who has been obliged to dispose of dairy produce, came up on the steamer of Thursday. He informs us that he packed butter in very low, bringing but from seventeen to twenty cents, but that fresh roll is away up, selling at from thirty to thirty-seven cents. He says that the great cry is for fresh roll butter, and that dairymen have made a mistake in packing so much of their butter this year.

Those who have hoped that the railroad would pass through Yreka, says the Union, are doomed to disappointment. As we have it from a high authority that the company will not build through the town even if a bonus is paid. The company claims that the distance is greater via Yreka and more expensive to build and keep in repair. The best thing of this kind is a branch line. The expense of such a road would be about $80,000, which amount could be easily raised in Yreka.

The Salem Statesman says: Lying near the track of the railroad which passes through this city, may be seen telegraph poles, cross-arms, coils of wire, and barrels of insulators and pins. These are for the construction of the new Bennett-Mackay post cable telegraph line from British Columbia to San Francisco, Cal., and it may be expected that the line men will be constructing the line in a few days. The business men will welcome it in competition which represents the life of trade.

The Coos county News says: C. D. McFarland has two acres ready for planting cranberries on his place on North slough. The plants which he ordered from the east were destroyed by railroad strikes and resembled hay more than they did live plants when they finally arrived. Although it was thought at first that the plants were lifeless, he now entertains hopes of utilizing two-thirds of them. The plants will be put in about fifteen inches apart, and upwards of 25,000 will be required to plant an acre. Mr. McFarland is much pleased with the prospects for the successful cultivation of cranberries at North slough, and anticipates a handsome return for the outlay incurred.

Grand Millinery Opening At J. D. Fountain's, commencing Wednesday, Oct. 6th and continuing Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Mrs. Fountain having spent several weeks in San Francisco studying the styles and the latest methods of trimming, also in personally selecting a very large and complete stock of millinery goods, she is better prepared than ever to fully satisfy her customers in everything in the millinery line. The ladies of Ashland and vicinity one and all are cordially invited to attend the opening and examine the fine display.

Woolen Goods for Lake Co. J. B. R. Hutchings will start the last of this week or the first of next with two loads of choice blankets, flannels, socks, etc., from the Ashland Woolen Mills, for sale out of the mountains. He will go to Lakeview, Paisley, Silver Lake, Samner Lake, Crooked Creek and other places in Lake county. Look out for his wagons.
