A Good Beginning.

During the week we met J. H. Stewart, of Medford, Oregon. Two years ago Mr. S. came out from Illinois, and in selecting a home visited about every section of the Pacific. He determined to settle in Southern Oregon, and among other things that he has done he has now 10,000 fruit trees out, and will soon have out 5,000 more. But for some of the other things This season he raised six watermelons that aggregated 196 pounds. He has on exhibition in the office of the Board of Immigration 12 ears of corn that weigh 17 pounds. Two ears of corn raised by him weighed 334 pounds, which knocks out the Illinois record. Mr. Stewart is pleased with Oregon, and believes his section will be the finest fruit country in time, on the coast. | Rural Spirit. Just What They All Say. Hon. D. D. Haynie of Salem, Ills., he uses Dr. Bosankos Cough and Lung Syrup in his family with the most satisfactory results, in all cases of coughs, colds and croup, and recommends it in particu-
