

ASHLAND TIDINGS.

FRIDAY, APRIL 6, 1928

CALL FOR COUNTY CONVENTION.

A Republican county convention for Jackson County, Oregon, is hereby called to meet at the post office in Jacksonville, Ore., at 10 o'clock a. m., for the purpose of nominating candidates for the offices of sheriff, assessor, treasurer, clerk, coronator, and county auditor, and for the purpose of electing delegates to the Republican county convention to be held at Jacksonville, Ore., on Saturday, April 14, 1928.

The following is the list of delegates to be elected at the above mentioned convention: J. H. Hanks, John F. Miller and J. N. Summers appointed the county central committee, and Messrs. John Walker, J. E. Ketchum and Geo. Baldwin were elected delegates to the state convention.

The Democratic county convention to nominate candidates for the offices of sheriff, assessor, treasurer, clerk, coronator, and county auditor, and for the purpose of electing delegates to the Democratic county convention to be held at Jacksonville, Ore., on Saturday, April 14, 1928.

The following is the list of delegates to be elected at the above mentioned convention: J. H. Hanks, John F. Miller and J. N. Summers appointed the county central committee, and Messrs. John Walker, J. E. Ketchum and Geo. Baldwin were elected delegates to the state convention.

The following is the list of delegates to be elected at the above mentioned convention: J. H. Hanks, John F. Miller and J. N. Summers appointed the county central committee, and Messrs. John Walker, J. E. Ketchum and Geo. Baldwin were elected delegates to the state convention.

The following is the list of delegates to be elected at the above mentioned convention: J. H. Hanks, John F. Miller and J. N. Summers appointed the county central committee, and Messrs. John Walker, J. E. Ketchum and Geo. Baldwin were elected delegates to the state convention.

The following is the list of delegates to be elected at the above mentioned convention: J. H. Hanks, John F. Miller and J. N. Summers appointed the county central committee, and Messrs. John Walker, J. E. Ketchum and Geo. Baldwin were elected delegates to the state convention.

The following is the list of delegates to be elected at the above mentioned convention: J. H. Hanks, John F. Miller and J. N. Summers appointed the county central committee, and Messrs. John Walker, J. E. Ketchum and Geo. Baldwin were elected delegates to the state convention.

The following is the list of delegates to be elected at the above mentioned convention: J. H. Hanks, John F. Miller and J. N. Summers appointed the county central committee, and Messrs. John Walker, J. E. Ketchum and Geo. Baldwin were elected delegates to the state convention.

The following is the list of delegates to be elected at the above mentioned convention: J. H. Hanks, John F. Miller and J. N. Summers appointed the county central committee, and Messrs. John Walker, J. E. Ketchum and Geo. Baldwin were elected delegates to the state convention.

The following is the list of delegates to be elected at the above mentioned convention: J. H. Hanks, John F. Miller and J. N. Summers appointed the county central committee, and Messrs. John Walker, J. E. Ketchum and Geo. Baldwin were elected delegates to the state convention.

The following is the list of delegates to be elected at the above mentioned convention: J. H. Hanks, John F. Miller and J. N. Summers appointed the county central committee, and Messrs. John Walker, J. E. Ketchum and Geo. Baldwin were elected delegates to the state convention.

The following is the list of delegates to be elected at the above mentioned convention: J. H. Hanks, John F. Miller and J. N. Summers appointed the county central committee, and Messrs. John Walker, J. E. Ketchum and Geo. Baldwin were elected delegates to the state convention.

The following is the list of delegates to be elected at the above mentioned convention: J. H. Hanks, John F. Miller and J. N. Summers appointed the county central committee, and Messrs. John Walker, J. E. Ketchum and Geo. Baldwin were elected delegates to the state convention.

The following is the list of delegates to be elected at the above mentioned convention: J. H. Hanks, John F. Miller and J. N. Summers appointed the county central committee, and Messrs. John Walker, J. E. Ketchum and Geo. Baldwin were elected delegates to the state convention.

The following is the list of delegates to be elected at the above mentioned convention: J. H. Hanks, John F. Miller and J. N. Summers appointed the county central committee, and Messrs. John Walker, J. E. Ketchum and Geo. Baldwin were elected delegates to the state convention.

The following is the list of delegates to be elected at the above mentioned convention: J. H. Hanks, John F. Miller and J. N. Summers appointed the county central committee, and Messrs. John Walker, J. E. Ketchum and Geo. Baldwin were elected delegates to the state convention.

The following is the list of delegates to be elected at the above mentioned convention: J. H. Hanks, John F. Miller and J. N. Summers appointed the county central committee, and Messrs. John Walker, J. E. Ketchum and Geo. Baldwin were elected delegates to the state convention.

The following is the list of delegates to be elected at the above mentioned convention: J. H. Hanks, John F. Miller and J. N. Summers appointed the county central committee, and Messrs. John Walker, J. E. Ketchum and Geo. Baldwin were elected delegates to the state convention.

The following is the list of delegates to be elected at the above mentioned convention: J. H. Hanks, John F. Miller and J. N. Summers appointed the county central committee, and Messrs. John Walker, J. E. Ketchum and Geo. Baldwin were elected delegates to the state convention.

The following is the list of delegates to be elected at the above mentioned convention: J. H. Hanks, John F. Miller and J. N. Summers appointed the county central committee, and Messrs. John Walker, J. E. Ketchum and Geo. Baldwin were elected delegates to the state convention.

The following is the list of delegates to be elected at the above mentioned convention: J. H. Hanks, John F. Miller and J. N. Summers appointed the county central committee, and Messrs. John Walker, J. E. Ketchum and Geo. Baldwin were elected delegates to the state convention.

The following is the list of delegates to be elected at the above mentioned convention: J. H. Hanks, John F. Miller and J. N. Summers appointed the county central committee, and Messrs. John Walker, J. E. Ketchum and Geo. Baldwin were elected delegates to the state convention.

The following is the list of delegates to be elected at the above mentioned convention: J. H. Hanks, John F. Miller and J. N. Summers appointed the county central committee, and Messrs. John Walker, J. E. Ketchum and Geo. Baldwin were elected delegates to the state convention.

The following is the list of delegates to be elected at the above mentioned convention: J. H. Hanks, John F. Miller and J. N. Summers appointed the county central committee, and Messrs. John Walker, J. E. Ketchum and Geo. Baldwin were elected delegates to the state convention.

The following is the list of delegates to be elected at the above mentioned convention: J. H. Hanks, John F. Miller and J. N. Summers appointed the county central committee, and Messrs. John Walker, J. E. Ketchum and Geo. Baldwin were elected delegates to the state convention.

The following is the list of delegates to be elected at the above mentioned convention: J. H. Hanks, John F. Miller and J. N. Summers appointed the county central committee, and Messrs. John Walker, J. E. Ketchum and Geo. Baldwin were elected delegates to the state convention.

The following is the list of delegates to be elected at the above mentioned convention: J. H. Hanks, John F. Miller and J. N. Summers appointed the county central committee, and Messrs. John Walker, J. E. Ketchum and Geo. Baldwin were elected delegates to the state convention.

The following is the list of delegates to be elected at the above mentioned convention: J. H. Hanks, John F. Miller and J. N. Summers appointed the county central committee, and Messrs. John Walker, J. E. Ketchum and Geo. Baldwin were elected delegates to the state convention.

The following is the list of delegates to be elected at the above mentioned convention: J. H. Hanks, John F. Miller and J. N. Summers appointed the county central committee, and Messrs. John Walker, J. E. Ketchum and Geo. Baldwin were elected delegates to the state convention.

The following is the list of delegates to be elected at the above mentioned convention: J. H. Hanks, John F. Miller and J. N. Summers appointed the county central committee, and Messrs. John Walker, J. E. Ketchum and Geo. Baldwin were elected delegates to the state convention.

The following is the list of delegates to be elected at the above mentioned convention: J. H. Hanks, John F. Miller and J. N. Summers appointed the county central committee, and Messrs. John Walker, J. E. Ketchum and Geo. Baldwin were elected delegates to the state convention.

The following is the list of delegates to be elected at the above mentioned convention: J. H. Hanks, John F. Miller and J. N. Summers appointed the county central committee, and Messrs. John Walker, J. E. Ketchum and Geo. Baldwin were elected delegates to the state convention.

The following is the list of delegates to be elected at the above mentioned convention: J. H. Hanks, John F. Miller and J. N. Summers appointed the county central committee, and Messrs. John Walker, J. E. Ketchum and Geo. Baldwin were elected delegates to the state convention.

The following is the list of delegates to be elected at the above mentioned convention: J. H. Hanks, John F. Miller and J. N. Summers appointed the county central committee, and Messrs. John Walker, J. E. Ketchum and Geo. Baldwin were elected delegates to the state convention.

The following is the list of delegates to be elected at the above mentioned convention: J. H. Hanks, John F. Miller and J. N. Summers appointed the county central committee, and Messrs. John Walker, J. E. Ketchum and Geo. Baldwin were elected delegates to the state convention.

The following is the list of delegates to be elected at the above mentioned convention: J. H. Hanks, John F. Miller and J. N. Summers appointed the county central committee, and Messrs. John Walker, J. E. Ketchum and Geo. Baldwin were elected delegates to the state convention.

The following is the list of delegates to be elected at the above mentioned convention: J. H. Hanks, John F. Miller and J. N. Summers appointed the county central committee, and Messrs. John Walker, J. E. Ketchum and Geo. Baldwin were elected delegates to the state convention.

The following is the list of delegates to be elected at the above mentioned convention: J. H. Hanks, John F. Miller and J. N. Summers appointed the county central committee, and Messrs. John Walker, J. E. Ketchum and Geo. Baldwin were elected delegates to the state convention.

The following is the list of delegates to be elected at the above mentioned convention: J. H. Hanks, John F. Miller and J. N. Summers appointed the county central committee, and Messrs. John Walker, J. E. Ketchum and Geo. Baldwin were elected delegates to the state convention.

The following is the list of delegates to be elected at the above mentioned convention: J. H. Hanks, John F. Miller and J. N. Summers appointed the county central committee, and Messrs. John Walker, J. E. Ketchum and Geo. Baldwin were elected delegates to the state convention.

The following is the list of delegates to be elected at the above mentioned convention: J. H. Hanks, John F. Miller and J. N. Summers appointed the county central committee, and Messrs. John Walker, J. E. Ketchum and Geo. Baldwin were elected delegates to the state convention.

The following is the list of delegates to be elected at the above mentioned convention: J. H. Hanks, John F. Miller and J. N. Summers appointed the county central committee, and Messrs. John Walker, J. E. Ketchum and Geo. Baldwin were elected delegates to the state convention.

The following is the list of delegates to be elected at the above mentioned convention: J. H. Hanks, John F. Miller and J. N. Summers appointed the county central committee, and Messrs. John Walker, J. E. Ketchum and Geo. Baldwin were elected delegates to the state convention.

The following is the list of delegates to be elected at the above mentioned convention: J. H. Hanks, John F. Miller and J. N. Summers appointed the county central committee, and Messrs. John Walker, J. E. Ketchum and Geo. Baldwin were elected delegates to the state convention.

The following is the list of delegates to be elected at the above mentioned convention: J. H. Hanks, John F. Miller and J. N. Summers appointed the county central committee, and Messrs. John Walker, J. E. Ketchum and Geo. Baldwin were elected delegates to the state convention.

The following is the list of delegates to be elected at the above mentioned convention: J. H. Hanks, John F. Miller and J. N. Summers appointed the county central committee, and Messrs. John Walker, J. E. Ketchum and Geo. Baldwin were elected delegates to the state convention.

The following is the list of delegates to be elected at the above mentioned convention: J. H. Hanks, John F. Miller and J. N. Summers appointed the county central committee, and Messrs. John Walker, J. E. Ketchum and Geo. Baldwin were elected delegates to the state convention.

BREVETTES.

Telephone wire at Ashland Fence Works.

Choice early seed potatoes at Clayton & Gore.

Attend the board of trade meeting to-morrow evening.

Prohibition speech at Granite Hall to-morrow evening.

New line of latest styles in men's spring hats. D. R. & E. V. Mills.

Fred Fry has a new house and barn on his farm in Eden precinct.

Convention to nominate a Democratic county ticket will meet May 5th.

Thos. Lynch organized a dancing class at Granite Hall Monday evening.

Opening days at the Bee-hive Thursday, Friday and Saturday, April 5th, 6th and 7th.

Extra clear mess pork at Clayton & Gore's. Something new for Ashland. Give it a trial.

Bahaha! Bahaha! Bahaha! cele brated insect exterminator, at Geo. H. Currys Grocery store.

H. R. Reed is crowded with orders for the lawn and farm fencing which he makes in Ashland.

"Normal notes," among other matter, came in late enough to be crowded over into next week's issue.

J. H. Oatman will open a store at Bonanza, Klamath county, with James Morton in charge of his business.

DeCooper, a dentist who resided in Ashland several months last year, died in O. K. Point, Cal., recently. It is reported that he was a member of the K. K. K.

Dress goods, four shades of the latest color, mahogany brown, eight shades of albatross. D. R. & E. V. Mills.

Large stock of wall paper and wall and ceiling decorations, and window shades and fixtures, at Messenger & Smith's.

A fine stock of new goods have just arrived from the millinery and dressmaking factories of Mrs. Boynton. Call and see them.

Messrs. Thomas Jones and David Horn, of Hornbrook, are talking of building a large brick store and hotel at that place.

J. S. Herrin offers for sale a large acreage of fine farming, fruit and grazing land in this valley. See his ad. in another column.

Moore's Revealed Remedy—cleanses and repairs the entire system, giving new life. Sold by Clatlock Bros. and T. K. Bolton, Ashland, Oregon.

George W. Dickinson opens the soda works, formerly owned by John Vanington, to-day, and will manufacture the best of everything in his line.

B. R. Willis will organize a class in vocal music next week. He is one of the best instructors in that line who ever taught singing in this county.

T. H. Carter, vice-president of the Bank of Ashland, is in charge of the business of the bank during the absence of his brother in San Francisco.

Appropriate Easter services were held in all the churches of Ashland, Oregon, and the churches were tastefully decorated for the occasion.

Trout fishing is legal in Oregon now, since April 1st, but the fish don't feel as much like rising to bait now as they will during the warm days of May.

Granite Hall association will give a grand May Day ball, and the people of Ashland and vicinity who enjoy pleasant entertainments should prepare for the event.

List of prizes at the third grand prize drawing at the Red House last Saturday, see Red House advertising column. The prizes are yet unclaimed by the lucky ticket holders.

Max Pracht offers for sale the building (dwelling) on the lot on Main and Grandine streets, which he recently bought of Govan High. He proposes erecting another building in its place.

A slight cold often proves the forerunner of a mountain fever, which may be fatal. Avoid this result by taking Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, the best remedy for colds, coughs, and all throat and lung diseases.

Ed C. Phelps will publish the Medford Advertiser weekly hereafter. It was begun as a monthly, but the suspension of the paper has left a field open for its issue as a regular, weekly newspaper.

Says the Roseburg Plaindealer: J. B. Barnett and daughter Miss Lucy, left Sunday night for Arlington, Oregon, where they will play their first evening game. They are an excellent company, and are playing here under the auspices of Cooper & Loos. Mr. Cooper having come over from Yreka with them.

Their price tonight is 50 cents—no higher; children 25c.

Real Estate Sales.

Mr. J. Gum has sold his place of twenty-two acres in the southern part of Ashland to Max Pracht; consideration, $1000. The property contains a number of houses and stables, but Mr. Pracht will probably make several changes in it, and will build a 100-foot avenue to be opened through this place, and will leave Main street near the school house.

DePaath & Kyle report the following sales:

A. T. Kyle to D. Moore, the Adams lot on Grandine hill (also reserved); consideration, $1000. It is a large tract, capable of seating 600 pupils, and contains side rooms for school purposes, two restrooms, a kitchen, and a playground for special purposes. The building is in the form of a cross, and has a floor area of school rooms of 7544 square feet. The Roseburg papers claim it to be the finest school house in Southern Oregon. The citizens of Roseburg desire credit for their enterprise and public spirit.

James D. Looper, who was arrested in Modoc county four years ago for the murder of old man Dick, of Madeline, has been released from jail in Susanville, March 19th, with a full parole partly expiring next month. He was charged with the suicide. The Adin Argus says: "A short time before his death Looper had told Mr. Barry that he had a great secret to confide in him, but he never revealed it. Mr. Barry believes the secret was something concerning the murder of Dick. The circumstances of which, it was supposed Mr. Looper knew."

Clayton & Gore have removed to Butler's Block, first door south of Post Office, where they will be glad to meet their patrons, old and new.

At a regular meeting of the Ashland City Council, held Monday, April 2d, full board present, the following business was transacted:

Minutes of last meeting were read and approved.

Reports of treasurer, marshal and street commissioner for month of March were read and filed.

The following bills were audited by the finance committee and ordered paid:

Engene Walden, city marshal, $5 00

D. H. Hawkins, night police, 45 00

Wm. Patterson, street work, 31 25

Wm. Patterson, street work, 8 00

W. H. Lewis, printing blank forms, 21 75

Donors for labor for streets, 43 35

Total, $209 25

Petition of Smith & Messenger for permit to erect a telephone line. Read and ordered granted.

Petition to abate nuisance on First avenue. Referred to finance committee.

Petition of J. J. Donahoe for retail liquor license was read, but as it was not presented at the meeting of the council specified in notice, the council will not take any action on it until the next meeting.

Petitions of High & Taylor and Cason & Garrett for retail liquor licenses, were read, and pending their consideration, council adjourned till Wednesday evening, April 4.

HERE AND THERE.

Alturas, Cal., will have some horse racing on the Fourth of July.

Alturas, Cal., has a new paper, the New Era, published by E. M. Burnett.

Thomas Nast and Mr. Pike, of Los Angeles, Cal., will build a theater at Los Angeles, Cal.

Frank Noble, formerly of Roseburg, has made $10,000 in real estate speculation at Seattle.

The Senate has confirmed the appointment of John Myers, as the U. S. Marshal of Oregon.

Messenger & Smith will put up a telephone line between their planing mill and furniture store.

An express and "fast freight" wagon has commenced running between Sisson and Adin, via Lookout, Cal.

J. H. Stine, founder of the Grant's Post Co., has retired from the Lebanon Express, being succeeded by Kirkpatrick & Bugler.

The west side narrow gauge railroad proposed to build a branch line from Ashland, in Yamhill county, to Newport, on Yaquina bay.

Cooper & Loos, of Yreka, are preparing to make a tour of the United States, and will visit several of the several young people of Yreka will be members of the company.

Albert Applegate, who was born at the old Mill, near Salem, on Dec. 6, 1843, died at his residence, on the 19th ult. He leaves a wife and seven children.

Recently quoted prices of lumber in San Francisco are as follows: delivered at wharf: Rough Pine, $22.50 per 1000; dressed pine flooring $35; rough redwood or spruce, $22.50; clear redwood, $30.50.

A new town is in contemplation in Josephine county. J. G. Lanterman is subdividing a tract of land at Merlin in consideration of the coming agent of the U. S. Masonic Benevolent Association of Council Bluffs, Iowa.

At San Juan, Cal., the ancient Spanish custom of hanging in effigy Judas Iscariot, on Good Friday, was observed there by the youths of the town. The Judas effigy was strung up by the neck amid the shouts and jeers of the crowd.

The San Francisco Chronicle publishes a review of the crop prospects of California, which shows the grain acreage throughout the State to be greatly increased. The cereal and vineyard acreage, also, is increased more than in any former year.

A rumor is current in San Francisco that S. R. Arnold, who is following a porking of Chicago, intends establishing a packing house in that city. The presence of Mr. Arnold in Pasadena, Cal., and his connection with the city, are being investigated.

Pearl Page, (Mrs. Rose Bryan), who has become notorious in connection with her complaint against the Harding in the robbery of Dickson, an Alaska miner, in her room at Portland, and who was sentenced to the penitentiary, has been pardoned by Gov. Peterson.

The Salem chair factory was destroyed by fire last Thursday. It was a two-story building, and contained a large amount of stock, and the loss is estimated at $15,000, no insurance. An effort is being made to rebuild the factory.

Dalles paper: The fish wheels on the beach are being overhauled and put in condition for the coming season's work. The fishermen, like the farmers, are producers, turning into money the products of the river, which money generally comes from the sale of fish to the city.

John Hanley has just taken 52 barrels of Rogue river whiskey out of the government warehouse at this place. He was allowed three years ago to remove this whiskey, but was compelled to pay the government taxes on the whiskey and withdraw it from the warehouse.

Henry Pape, Sr., who has been appointed postmaster at this place, vice Max Miller, whose commission expired on March 1st, has been appointed to the office until the first of May. Most of the time till then having to be consumed in forwarding necessary papers.

The following named gentlemen constitute the grand jury: W. R. Jones, foreman; R. J. Cameron, James McDonough, J. W. Morrison, J. W. King, Frank Amy and Walden Beeson. This body has found true bills against the Douglas brothers for burglary, and the Edmondsons for slandering their father.

Two sons of Chris Caldwell, who was sent to the penitentiary from this county for slaying his brother, were arrested at Gold Hill Monday afternoon for threatening to kill Max Jones, the west with its usual morning news.

The new school house at Roseburg has been completed at a cost of about $20,000. It is a large building, capable of seating 600 pupils, and contains side rooms for school purposes, two restrooms, a kitchen, and a playground for special purposes. The building is in the form of a cross, and has a floor area of school rooms of 7544 square feet. The Roseburg papers claim it to be the finest school house in Southern Oregon. The citizens of Roseburg desire credit for their enterprise and public spirit.

James D. Looper, who was arrested in Modoc county four years ago for the murder of old man Dick, of Madeline, has been released from jail in Susanville, March 19th, with a full parole partly expiring next month. He was charged with the suicide. The Adin Argus says: "A short time before his death Looper had told Mr. Barry that he had a great secret to confide in him, but he never revealed it. Mr. Barry believes the secret was something concerning the murder of Dick. The circumstances of which, it was supposed Mr. Looper knew."

Clayton & Gore have removed to Butler's Block, first door south of Post Office, where they will be glad to meet their patrons, old and new.

At a regular meeting of the Ashland City Council, held Monday, April 2d, full board present, the following business was transacted:

Minutes of last meeting were read and approved.

Reports of treasurer, marshal and street commissioner for month of March were read and filed.

The following bills were audited by the finance committee and ordered paid:

Engene Walden, city marshal, $5 00

D. H. Hawkins, night police, 45 00

Wm. Patterson, street work, 31 25

Wm. Patterson, street work, 8 00

W. H. Lewis, printing blank forms, 21 75

Donors for labor for streets, 43 35

Total, $209 25

Petition of Smith & Messenger for permit to erect a telephone line. Read and ordered granted.

Petition to abate nuisance on First avenue. Referred to finance committee.

Petition of J. J. Donahoe for retail liquor license was read, but as it was not presented at the meeting of the council specified in notice, the council will not take any action on it until the next meeting.

Petitions of High & Taylor and Cason & Garrett for retail liquor licenses, were read, and pending their consideration, council adjourned till Wednesday evening, April 4.

JACKSONVILLE ITEMS.

Circuit court in session.

Some rain Tuesday morning.

Jacksonville is lively this week.

Paul Boulton's show is billed for next Saturday night.

The public school returned studies Monday afternoon.

James R. Little, of Portland, is here attending circuit court.

The measles have about abated in this place and vicinity.

Mrs. Judge Webster has been slightly indisposed of late.

Henry Kippel is attending the Democratic State Convention at Pendleton.

The telegraph rates between Jacksonville and Medford have been again placed at 25 cents.

Cloudy and cool weather during the past week has not been enough to injure fruit or grapes.

Easter services were held at the Catholic church Sunday morning, and at the Presbyterian church in the evening.

It is reported again here that A. S. Jacobs has sold his half interest in the Riddle house at Medford to a new owner.

A sister of George H. Watt, who arrived here shortly, to remain and take charge of Mr. Watt's four small children.

Mrs. H. Judge and family and Misses Marie Judas and Grace Judas, spending the day in this city.

A. W. Presley, formerly of Jacksonville, has removed with his family to Woodstock, Va., where he intends engaging in the lumber business.

The Tolman-Riddle case has been settled by Riddle paying Tolman's bill for the horse and carriage, and horse race at Medford last fall, a draw.

Mrs. Genevieve Moore, of this city, is teaching the Lone district school, and Miss Lottie Reed, also of Jacksonville, is teaching in San Joaquin.

Cox Smith & Teal, attorneys of the metropolis, are here this week, as attorneys in the case of I. R. Dawson vs. Charles Nickel and M. E. Payne.

Samuel Hayden died at the county hospital last Monday, aged about 50 years. His brother, who is an attorney at Salem, gave him a decent burial on Tuesday.

In the case of George M. Love vs. Charles Nickel, action to recover money, the jury brought in a verdict Monday evening of $600.93 in favor of Mr. Love.

It is estimated that fully 100,000 vines have been set out in Jackson county since last fall. The largest county since the beginning of the century, and is being planted in and near Jacksonville.