An Important Fnterprise for Ashland Now in Progress.

Some three months ago Messrs. Bo-man & Helm, who bought the Tolman in the county. warm sulphur springs, proposed the opening of a broad, straight avenue from Ashland to these springs. The proposition was just in line with the spirit of enterprise which has so rap-idly developed the cities and towns of California, and the benefits it promised to the town and the lands along its route were self evident; yet considerable difficulty was encountered in Trayner, near Lost river. Should the obtaining the right of way, and many discouragements were met. Now, however, all obstacles have been removed except the objection of one land owner, at the edge of town, who still refuses to grant the right of way across the corner of his 17-acre tract which the avenue would cut. Everything else | county is looking well, but rain would being clear along the route, the pro-
