W. M. GILROY,

Successor to Youle & Gilroy,

----DEALER IN----

Sash, Doors, Mouldings, Paints, Oils, Glass,

Putty, Varnishes,

And various builders' material.

Send or call for prices. Warehouse at R. R.track, foot of Helman street.

W. M. GILROY.

AT COST

MEN'S

Boots & Shoes

MEN'S

Furnishing Goods and Hats.

M. L. ALFORD,

ODD FELLOW'S BLOCK.

H. C. MYER,

Hardware, Stoves, & Tinware,

ASHLAND, ORECON.

The West Side

FEED STABLE.

Linkville, Oregon.

SHERM. STANLEY, Prop.

Keeps constantly on hand the best of HAY AND GRAIN. Horses left in my care will be properly cored for. Remember the place: west end of the bridge. Stable open night and day.

Near the Depot, Ashland, Paints, Oils & Varnishes

Which he will sell in large or small quant Painting of All Kinds

The Talent Restaurant

On and After June 16. MEALS -- ALL HOURS AND SHAPES Sherman Sisters, Prop'r's.

S. SHERMAN, Notary --- Public, TALENT, OR.

ALSO, DEALER IN Farm Implements SEEDS & FRUITS.

Opened again for All kinds Repairing and New Work. Boots and Shoes at cost, as Blount's, to close out the line. New Wind Mills and iron fencing

Transfer

Business!

LOWEST PRICES.

Passengers to and from each train. 12-11] J. H. McBRIDE.

CHEAPEST PLACE GROCERIES

J. K. VanSant's Goods delivered to any part of the city.

J. K. VanSant.

H. JUDGE,

Saddle and Harness MANUFACTURER,

Keeps constantly on hand a full supply of everything in above line, which will be sold at prices as low as can be offered anywhere.

ALL ORDERED WORK Repairing Neatly Done

Wood Notice.

office anywhere in town.

N. B: All parties hauling wood to town reluctantly ratified to convention.—Phila-

Rooms to Rent.

ON THE RIVER SHANNON.

AN OLD IRISH TOWN WHERE THE WOMEN ARE BEAUTIFUL.

The Legend of St. Mary's Bells, Whose Chimes Tolled Their Maker's Death-A Little Scene at the Station-Popularity of English Novels.

After Skibbereen and many of the West Cork towns it is delightful, indeed, to find one's self in pleasant Limerick. To the lover of the ancient and the modern the city offers equal attractions. In the English town, which is the oldest portion, the narrow streets are as quaint as any one could meet in Normandy. At one time this was the choicest residence quarter, and here, defended by high walls, the freemen of the city lived, and did all its business in dignified seclusion, apart from the more "Irishry," their neighbors, who, being neither Protestant nor "loyal," were religiously kept from all chances of money making in the unprosperous Irish town. Here all the wholesome bounds and restrictions which hedged in the Celtic inhabitants were devised, and from here at the outbreak of the American war three volunteer corps started to aid King

Now both sections are alike decayed. Fashion and business have forsaken them or Newton-Pery, a modern addition to the ity, built within the last ninety years. It ould be hard to find anywhere a finer street han its principal thoroughfare, George's street. Eked out by Patrick street and the Crescent, it extends for about a mile one long line of handsome buildings and well stocked, attractive shops. The women of Limerick are famous for their beauty, and in the crowded street we saw many in the rustic garb, as well as in fashionable attire, who ore testimony to the truth of that reputa-

THE SWEET CHIMING BELLS. Wellesley bridge and Thomond bridge across the Shannon are noble structures well worthy of the river they span, and besides these four other bridges connect various portions of the city divided by the Abbey stream. King John's castle, St. Mary's church and the treaty stone are the principal historical lions of Limerick, and very interesting they all are. Of St. Mary's bells the lovely old legend is told that their maker, an Italian, because of the surpassing sweetness of their tone, had a love approaching worship for them. Being be made absolutely clean and then well aired. in need of money he was obliged to sell them Those who have young children dependent matter of some importance." sacked and its inmates and belongings scat-tered. In his old age the maker of the bells, wise in the warm months it is extremely lia-of another associate, a little more mature. broken in fortune and health, and only longing | ble to become unwholesome. With but few | said: "Eugenie, I think this lady would like once more to hear the beloved bells for which | in cities is this possible, and, therefore, in to see you." self on the broad bosom of the Shannon in when received, to prevent its becoming sour. the vessel that had conveyed him from the | -Boston Journal of Health. south. It was evening; Limerick's towers rose before him in the sunset light, and the evening peace was on all things. Suddenly from St. Mary's belfry the evening chimes rang out, chimes that made his heart leap to hear-they were his long sought darling bells! Up the broad stream went the boat, the chimes still playing with tender music, the old man lying back with folded bands and a look of unutterable happiness on his face-

At a little station outside Limerick a young lady got into our compartment. An affectionate party of friends were there to see her off, and while we remained beside the platform she and they were consumed with grief. One old lady interrupted her sobs every once in a while to remind the traveler of various articles in the shawl strap and lunch basket, which would be essential to her comfort during her journey—the shepherd's plaid shawl, the thick veil, the sandwiches and the sherry flask-but the girl sobbed on behind her handkerchief as if meat and drink would evermore be odious to her. The young man staring ruefully at her with his heart in his eyes, as they say here, was, I think, com-Norted by this last, and I was rather glad when, all the good-bys being over and the train well out of the station, he was not there to see how promptly she flung grief to the winds and settled herself comfortably for the journey with a novel of Ouida for beguilement up to Dublin.

HASTE TO THE WEDDING. The sun was shining over a smiling country. ilready well awakened out of its winter sleep. On the wayside banks the glory of the furze bloom was like another sunshine, the brown of the plowed fields was in rich contrast with the deep green headlands, and here and there in the hollows there was the delicious fairy gold of tender primroses and the glow of dog violets. More than once we caught sight of a gay procession of "weddingers" dashing in the long procession of the "hauling home" up to the village church, where a curious crowd awaited them. In the perfect spring day the sight of the gayly dressed merry makers headed by a tuneful piper, playing "Haste to the Wed-ding" in his liveliest style, was charmingly idyllic, and one willingly forgot for the time that after the wedding bells and the music it would be the same old round of scraping and delving and warring against overwhelming odds for those for whom the piper played It had not escaped me up to this that in the book shops and at the railway stalls the fictional literature offered is almost entirely English, Ouida, Wilkie Collins, George Meredith, Miss Braddon, John Strange Winter, Rhoda Broughton, within substantial English dress. Tolstoi and Zola himself are the guides, philosophers, and friends of the Irish novel reading public just now. Women everywhere are the chief novel readers, and remembering how much of the morality of a race depends on the mothers the array of names just given cannot fail to strike an observer rather painfully.

"But what are we to dof" queried my companion, to whom I said something like this: There is no Irish authors, male or female, writing novels now, and the old writers, Banim, Lever, Carleton and Lover, besides being vulgar, were not true." "But, Griffin," I said, botly, eager to dend him whose beautiful story and songs are of the very essence of the land that lost him "Oh, Griffin!" she cried, "but who wants ASHLAND, OREGON. to read a whole lot of old fashioned broque and things when there are lovely modern novels, perfect in English, to be had in And so we left our young friend, with her Follo Farine and her tlask of strong sherry as refreshments, for her six hours' journey .-

Limerick Letter in Chicago Times

When the illustrious Franklin was in his sightieth year he found the duties of minister to Paris too great for his strength, and on March 10, 1785, asked to be recalled. Before leaving the French capital he concluded There is a well stocked wood yard back of account of the extraordinary powers it confered on consuls. Franklin's successor, Jefferson, endeavored to get the treaty modified, and 20-inch heater wood, delivered on short but without success, a congress at length

"Going, Going, Gone!" Nicely furnished rooms to let at the character. In the larger cities of the coun-NEAR DEPOT.

NEAR DEPOT.

Ashland, - Oregon,

Climax, Sawlog and Escort tobacco

Climax, Sawlog and Escort tobacco

Climax, Sawlog and Escort tobacco

Near Depot.

Ashland, - Oregon,

Climax, Sawlog and Escort tobacco

Climax, of jest and long winded orations which would and paid no attention to my request." soon be extinct. -St. Louis Globe-Democrat. reply. -Elmira Gazette.

On'v a little girl I know, With golden hair an' bright blue eyes, Jes' about three years old or so-One o' the kind 'at never cries When ye sez a cross word, but jes Looks at you so reproachful like Ye feel ye'd rather die, I guess,

"JES' A LITTLE GIRL."

Than scold or lift yer hand ter strike. Jes' a little thing 'at makes the love Come surgin' up till it fills yer heart, An' ye think an angel from above Has made herself o' yer life a part. A little thing with a tender way An' a smile so sunny an' bright,

Like darkness 'fore the mornin' light

It drives all sorrow an' care away

That's all 'at she wuz ter me, sir-Jes' a little girl, ez ye say; An' perhaps I oughtn't to murmur Because she was taken away But it's hard to learn to be patient

It's hard fur to bow down yer head, Though ye know there's an angel above A-praying 'at ye may be led.

-Theodore E. Milton.

Some Old Trees. The old oak tree at Waltham, which so excellent an authority as Professor Alexander Agassiz said was seven hundred years of age, has been cut down. It has been dead for some time, and stood in the path of modern improvement. Part of the venerable tree will be preserved in the library The great oak tree at Woodbridge, which was cut down a few weeks ago, after an existence reckoned at from fifteen hundred to two thousand years, is to be made into chairs for the mem-bers of the Quinnipiac club, of New Haven. This tree was doubtless the oldest along the Atlantic coast, although the authorities differ as to its age, and the largest oak in the world, Oliver Wendell Holmes said the tree was at least eighteen hundred years old, and Professor Abbott, of New York, who made a careful examination of the monster eighteen years ago, said it could not be less than two thousand years old, while Professor Eaton stands with these authorities by stating the age of the tree as ranging from fifteen hun-

How Milk Should Be Kept.

pitcher, and when this is emptied it should summer it will be well to scald the supply

A bridegroom took his wife on a tour to Switzerland for the honeymoon, and when wish can be easily done." there induced her to attempt with him the ascent of the highest peak. The lady, who at for a moment later the stranger was con- Lodging as carried by the guides with her eyes blindpassage. The bridegroom walked close to her, by heavy, olive colored portieres. expostulating respecting her fears. He spoke in "honeymoon whispers," but the rarefac-Charles, I did," replied she, sobbing hysterically, "but I never meant above the snow line."-Ouida's Gossip. "Talk about cooking birds," said George W. Cobb the other day, "when I was up in the Red lake country last year with the Indians, they would take the ducks we shot and roll them in clay, feathers and all, and throw them on the hot coals and ashes. After awhile, when the clay was baked, we would take the bricks, or whatever you may call them, out, break off the clay, and, with it, all the feathers, and find the naked duck done most elegantly. All the juices were retained and the meat was baked just about the third of an inch, leaving the inside as tender and delicious as any meat can be. There is no triumph of good cookery."-St. Paul Pioneer He Didn't See the Point. he himself relates and which has not yet seen the light of day; a story the point of which way of cooking game equal to this. It is the adds much to its flavor. his dignity. It does not oppress—it sustains a sharp stencil to the eyebrows and lashes, and comforts him. Not long ago he was and after another pencil with a chamois wing of the Capitol when a woman spoke to him and said. "Will you see if Mr. Glover is in the

Mr. Campbell drew himself to his full "Madame," said he, "there are gintlemen around here to do that thing:" and he emphasized his remark with a sweeping gesture, which included in its scope the entire force of house employes from the clerk to the doorkeepers.

The little woman looked up into Mr. Campbell's face.

"I'm Mr. Glover's wife," she said. "I thought you were," said Hon. "Tim" in a tone that showed that the fact did not impress him very seriously. "Yon're Mr. Campbell, are you not?" said

"I am," said the Hon. "Tim" in his most impressive way. "I thought you were," said Mrs. Glover, quietly, as she turned and walked away .-Chicago Herald.

There is a "fad" in nursemaids, and liter ally will it be a "cold day" for the sharp eyed, keen witted "bonne," if the Russian maid, a new departure in service, meets with the favor she anticipates. The Russian nursemaid is already an imposing feature in more than one aristocratic household. To look at, she is all that is delightfully picturesque. She wears a long, loose garment of deep blue cloth, bordered with a band of crimson, and on her head is the veritable Russian headgear, a creation of much puffed white tulle, from which depend, all the way to the bottom of the skirt, two wide lengths of crimson moire ribbon. So looks the Russian maid; how acts the Russian maid remains to be further tested. So far, though, she has been found trustworthy and capable. Another a consular convention with that government, dren for outdoor exercise entirely in white which congress was unwilling to ratify on | wool and white fur. The little ones, so arrayed, look like tiny wraiths as they speed along over the frozen ground through the

"There are very few smokers who will hesitate to ask an utter stranger for a match, and men who might pass each other on the street The old time auctioneer is becoming a rare svery day for weeks without even a nod of recognition will exchange 'lights' in a smoking car without the slightest restraint." So

LINESS ARE DISGUISED.

A Fashionable Craze-Female Complexions Made to Order-Peach Colored Checks THE MT. SHASTA ROUTE. Seem to Be Most in Demand-How the

tain their pristine fire and luster. As a general thing these manipulations in the interest of artificial beauty are not conducted with any great amount of secrecy, and a complete transformation and pleasing rejuvenation can usually be secured in the various establishments devoted to the dressing of ladies' hair. In fact, the general outfit is not considered complete unless the bangs, etc., have been trimmed in the prevailing Through Tickets to all points fashion. A VEILED ARRIVAL dred to two thousand years. - Boston Budget. Consumers of milk are too often indifferent store. The well groomed footman opened to their ways of keeping milk after it reaches the door for a lady richly attired in velvet them. When delivered in cans, it is a com- and sable. It was impossible to judge whether mon custom of many people to draw from she was young or old, for she was closely the same as they need it, and possibly a can veiled, and passed quickly through the swing may not be emptied until a fresh supply is ing doors of the establishment. Although received. As soon as the milk is brought it now shielded from public gaze, her courage should be poured into a glass or earthenware still deserted her, and, approaching one of

to a convent, which in a troubled time was upon milk food ought to receive a fresh sup. The young woman turned for a moment ASHLAND, OREGON.

took place between the two women, and then the young lady, who is possessed of a fluent tongue and well versed in her calling, ad-

home had never ascended a hill higher than a ducted to the rear of the store and shown church, was much alarmed, and had to be into a private room fitted up with velvet lounges and chairs. It was one of a series of folded, so as not to witness the horrors of the similar rooms, each separated from the other The lady, having given herself up to the intricacies of the beautifying establishment, tion of the air was such that every word was was placed in a high revolving chair; her audible. "You told me, Leonora, that you outer garments and bonnet were removed always feit happy, no matter where you and an apron deftly adjusted around be were, so long as you were in my company | neck; the face was first washed off with luketablishments that might have been applie by the hand of an amateur. The skin was It is the foundation of the whole treatment concoction of liquid paint was then intro their attention to the penciling of the eyebrows and lashes. A CONFIDENTIAL CRAT. This is the most delicate phase of the entire manipulation, and usually necessitates a con sultation with the forewoman as to the peculiar requirements of the case. In this case a mixed on a porcelain saucer, which contained esteem by the Indian princesses before the

While the beautifying process of the elderly customer was going on a clerk, who was talking to another special visitor who had not yet become a prey to these worldly vagaries. broke into a friendly and confidential vein of conversation, and explained the reason of the old lady's visit.

This conversation was interrupted by a

The flora of Europe embraces about 10,000 Baker and the Candlestick-species. India has about 15,000. The British possessions in North America, though with maker, and for everybody an area nearly as large as Europe, has only about 5,000 species. One of the richest floras is that of the Cape of Good Hope and Natal, at the TIDINGS office. which figures up about 10,000 species. Australia also is rich in species, about 10,000

They Like Them Now. Climax, Sawlog and Escort tobacco
the per plug at the Red House.

Boots and Shoes at cost, at O. H.
Blount's, to close out the line.

New Goods.

But," he continued, "I met a man yesterday on the cars who was an exception to the sense goes a long way, and the sale of thousense goes a lo

BEAUTY MADE TO ORDER.

A PLACE WHERE AGE AND HOME-

Transformation Is Made.

On one of the busiest of the uptown thoroughfares in this city is a store that has more | California Express Trains Run Daily interest for many women than any other BETWEEN PORTLAND & SAN FRANCISCO business place in New York. It is a shop where women are beautified, where under the skilled manipulations of hairdressers and lotion mixers wrinkles are smoothed out freekles are covered over and gray hairs are 14.00 p. M. Lv. Portland. Ar. 10.45 a. M. 8.00 a. M. Ar. Ashland. Lv. 5.40 p. M. 1.0.45 a. M. 1 changed to vellow, brown or black, as the prevailing taste of society may be. The usual throng of ladies in search of having their complexions rejuvenated by artificial means has steadily increased of late by the acquisition of numerous converts to the ranks of this fashionable craze, and skilled labor has been called into play to aid the devotees of the fashion. All the best artists in that line are naturally concentrated in New York, and the pilgrimage to the shrine where beautifying the face has reached the highest standard of perfection includes the young as well as the old. The latter are in quest of the extermination of troublesome wrinkles, while society belles long for anything that will help them to apparently re

One day last week a well appointed brougham, with running gear of conventional lake color, and drawn by two spirited bays, was driven up in front of a modest the young salesladies, she timidly said: "I dressed the stranger, who had then removed This explanation was apparently sufficient, pared for families.

Then, why are you not happy now!" "Yes. Charles, I did," replied she, sobbing hysteriany other deleterious compounds of rival es-then bathed and saturated with a rich liquid and when it had become thoroughly soaked into the pores of the skin its surface was carefully burnished with a piece of chamois leather and the veins painted a deep blue. A peculiar duced, and the tops of the eyes, fleshy parts of each check, the tips of the ears and crown of the chin artistically rouged. A fine powder, selected to suit the tint of the lady, was dusted over all. Then followed more polish ing. The beautifying artists next turned

There is one story on Tun Campbell which selection was made from the grease that was the fundamental colors of black, brown and Tim has probably not seen himself yet, for he blonde, and whose ingredients were said to tells it in an innocent way which, of course, have been a secret of and held in the highest Mr. Campbell has a strong appreciation of Sepoy mutiny. The mixture was applied by walking through the corridors of the house point had been drawn under the eyelids to make the contour uniform the transformation was complete. The lady looked at least ten years younger than she did an hour be-

"You see," she said, "that lady who is undergoing private treatment is probably 60 years old, and when she comes out of this parlor she will not look over 40. We are sure of our premises and the results attained, and so we make no charge for the application, but if the widow has a well filled pocketbook we are certain to relieve her of a goodly sum in the necessary outlay that we will recommend, in the shape of half a dozen bottles of liquid, two boxes of rouge and a full assortment of powders and the magical grease for the eyebrows, together with a corresponding accompaniment of brushes, chamois skins and dozen ladies jostling against each other to catch the next trip of the elevator. The elevator has been constantly plying up and down all morning, carrying a motley crowd of patrons, who have previously supplied themselves with a fifty cent check and who desired to reach the first floor, where the cutting, trimming and curling of hair are done. On entering the room it is nothing but a commodious hair dressing saloon, in charge of ten male artists who are all supposed to have been imported direct from Paris, but who revel in the more pronounceable titles of Mr. Brown, Mr. Smith, Mr. Murphy, etc. It differs little from a man's fashionable barber shop, except that it is more crowded and the Babel of tongues, clatter, "scrimmage" and angry looks are more incessant from a long row of some fifty ladies who are waiting their turn.-New York Star.

being already known. In the West Indies

SAW GUMMING A Specialty.

H. SCHERRER.

Just received at McCall's a superb line of spring and summer dress goods.
Prices unprecedentedly low.

of jest and long winded crations which would sadden the heart of the auctioneer of yore. The auctioneer of public sales will be remembered that George Francis, in the face of bitter opposition.—San Francis, in t cisco Chronicle.

Southern Pacific Company's Line. Time between Ashland and San Francisco, 23 HOURS.

Local Pas'gr Train Daily (Except Sunday) SOO A. M. | Lv. Portland, Ar. | 3:45 P.

PULLMAN BUFFET SLEEPERS. TOURIST SLEEPING CARS,

The S. P. Co.'s Ferry makes connection th all the regular trains on the East Side v. from foot of F St., Portland.

West Side Division BETWEEN PORTLAND AND CORVALLIS | HOPE REBECCA DEGREE LODGE NO. 14. Mail Train Daily (Except Sunday) At Albany and Corvallis connect with rains of Oregon Pacific Railroad. Express Train Daily (Except Sunday

South and East - VIA -CALIFORNIA.

M. Lv. Portland. Ar. 9:00 A. M. N. Ar. McMinville, Lv. 5:45 A. M.

E. P. ROGERS, Asst G. F. & Pass, Agen KOEHLER.

 $\mathbf{HOTEL}.$ C. W. Ganiard, Proprietor

Hot or Cold Sulphur Water Baths, 25 Cts. Baths at any time from 7 o'clock, a. in OYSTER PARLORS.

ASHLAND, OREGON. First-Class in Every Respect

Monle 25c.

MEALS AT ALL HOURS.

B. F. Snyder, Propr.

Board per week, $1 Colestin Soda Springs

HOTEL tion of a limited number of guests. loard and lodging, per week > eek for each individual, BYRON COLE, Proprietor.

THE ASHLAND

STABLES

The old stables on Main street near the bridge, and the new stables on Oak street, are now under the proprietorship and management of GEO. W. STEPHENSON,

Who is now prepared to offer the public better accommodations than ever before afforded in Southern Oregon in the li

Horses Boarded and Fed.

At reasonable rates. New and handsome turnouts, reliable and safe buggy teams, and good saddle horses always to be had at these stables. Will Buy and Sell horses

GEO. W. STEPHENSON

For the Merchant, the Mechanic, the Butcher, the Masonic Directory, Ashland.

SISKIYOU CHAPTER, No. 21, R. A. M. Regular convocations on the Thursday next after the full moon. W. H. Atkinson, H. P. E B Myer, Sec'y. [9-36]

ASHLAND LODGE NO. 23, A. F. & A. M. Stated communication on the Thursday of or before the full moon.

E. V. Mills, W. M. 3

Wm R Lawson, Secretary.

ALPHA CHAPTER NO. 1, O. E. S. Stated meetings on 1st and 3d Tuesday in each month. Mrs J D Crocker, W. M Miss Kate Chitwood, Secretary.

ASHLAND LODGE No. 45.

I, O. O. F., Hold regular meetings every Saturda evening at their hall in Ashland. Brethrei in good standing are cordially invited to attend. D. Holl N. G.

W C Roberts, Secretary. PILOT BOCK ENCAMPMENT NO 16,1 O O F Meets in Odd Fellows's Hall every 2d and 4th Monday in each month. Members in good standing cordially invited to attend. Robustavior, C. P. N. A. Jacobs, Scribe.

Meets on the 2d and 4th Tuesday in each mouth in Odd Fellows's Hall, Ashland. Mas Annie Long., N. G. John May, See'y.

Ashland Lodge, A. O.U. W Meets in lodge room in Odd Fellow's Hall every First and Third Wednesday in each month. Present hour of meeting 7:00 P. M. All Brethren in good standing are cordially invited to attend. WM. PATTERSON, M. W. T. W. LYNCH, Recorder

Knights of Pythias.

GRANITE LODGE, NO. 23, Knights of Pythias, Ashland, Oregon, meets every Friday evening. Visiting Knights in good standing are cordially invited to attend. W. B. MILLION, C. C. H. T. CHITWOOD, K. of R. & S. G. A. R. Burnside Post, No. 23, meets in Masonic Hall on the 1st and 3d Saturdays of each month. Visiting omrades cordially welcomed.

MAX PRACHT.

CHURCH DIRECTORY. DUNKARD CHURCH, GRANITE street, Ashland. Preaching every day at 11 o'clock a. m.

M. E. CHURCH—H P SATCHWELL Preaching at 10 A. M., and 7 P. M. Praye meeting Thursday evening at 7 P. M. FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH Ashland, Oregon, Rev. F. G.Strange, pastor. Sabbath services: Preaching morning and evening. Sabbath school at 9:30 s. m. Young people's meeting at 3 p. m. Geaeral prayer meeting Thursday evening.

ARCHITECTS, BUILDERS, ETC. Ayers, Barbour & Elviage,

Contractors & Builders, ASHLAND, OREGON

C. W. AYERS, Architect. Estimates made on all kinds of buildings and all materials furnished for the same. Plans and specifications for dwellings of latest modern designs made at our office and furnished free to our patrons. We understand our business in all its branches, and do not hesitate to guarantee satisfaction. If you contemplate building anything, from a foot bridge to a hotel, call on us at our office corner Main and Hargadinests, Ashland, Or, and see what we can defor you. We have an unlimited supply of material of all kinds for building purposes and can build your house without any un-

Ayers, Barbour & Elviage.

JAMES NORRIS, Architect and Superintendent ASHLAND, OR.

Will furnish plans for any and all kinds of buildings and superintend the construction of the same when desired. Office on the west side of the plaza with Luckey & Co. [13-12] B. BEACH, CONTRACTOR & BUILDER.

ASHLAND, OREGON. ings, at short notice.

All work warranted to give satis

Place of residence, Hargadine street, back f South School House. [124] Report on Entries, Contests, Tracts of Land, Scrip Locations, Townsites, &c. 183,00. burying Land Patents. Filing Arguments, and HENRY N. COPP Every Settler hond rave COPP'S SETTLER'S

Office and warerooms at railroad crossing