

ASHLAND TIDINGS.

FRIDAY, JUNE 2, 1939

Dinner on Ocean Day. The Central House will keep up its reputation by giving a fine dinner on June 15th...

Farmers. Do not forget that you can save you from $5 to $25 on a mow or reaper...

Baptist Church. The ladies of the Baptist church will hold a social at the church...

Congregational Church. The morning service at the Congregational church next Sunday at 10:30 will be by the children.

A First Fact. The undersigned respectfully announces that he has come to stay and will do any kind of work in the line of business, service or carriage...

W. S. Bell, a prominent liberal writer, author of "Liberty and Morality," "Christianity vs. Civilization" and other works...

Notice. It is hereby given that the 13th annual meeting of the Pioneer Society of Southern Oregon will be held in the Town Hall at Jacksonville on Wednesday, June 6th, 1939...

A Food Company. The George Woodhouse Company has been playing a good game in Ashland and giving excellent service...

Civil Service Reform. The United States Civil Service Commission will hold an examination of applicants for the position of way mail carrier at Roseburg, on Friday next, June 15th...

Jack-an-janney Gets It. The district court meeting at Grant's Pass last Friday was attended by eight of the delegates from the several counties of the district...

Memorial Day. The memorial day exercises in Ashland were participated in by our citizens generally, and the program presided by G. E. Post...

Orange Blossoms. On Tuesday morning last at the home of the bride's parents on 2d street, Mr. O. A. R. Post...

A Trated Village. The aggregation of circus tents in the tented village at Central Park continues to draw large crowds...

PERSONAL.

Ashland will celebrate, and in style, too. Sticky and poison fly paper at Chitwood's.

John Weiler was visiting old friends at Yreka Sunday.

Prof. W. C. Roberts leaves for the Willamette this week.

W. H. Akenson made a trip over to Yreka Wednesday.

Class Smead made a short trip to Lakeview the first of the week.

W. C. Myer has been ill for a week or two, but is improving.

W. H. Parker and wife are stopping at the Oregon for a day or two.

Prof. Shepherd was at Grant's Pass during the visit of the ex-president.

Mr. A. B. Hudson was turned out of the office of postmaster at Jefferson, Ore., last C. B. Holland appointed.

George Neil, of Jacksonville, has been spending a week out at Dead Indian.

Mrs. DePatt and little son are visiting relatives at Grant's Pass this week.

Mrs. J. W. Watt and daughter left for Yreka Wednesday evening for Yreka Sunday.

Elli Perkins and wife arrived on yesterday morning's train and stopped at the Oregon for a day.

J. Joseph, a cigar maker of Albany, has been in town this week, drumming up trade.

Bob Baker has taken a sub-contract on the Ashland-Shake road to begin July 1st.

Congressman Binger Hermann left Washington for his home in Roseburg last Saturday morning.

Mr. S. W. Wilson, a prominent local business man, has returned from his trip to the coast.

Max Muller, our efficient and popular county clerk, spent Tuesday in Ashland on a business visit.

Miss Olive Fredrick left last Tuesday for Tacoma, to spend the summer with relatives on Puget Sound.

Dr. T. S. Somner went over to Shasta Monday night to remain till Sunday on a short vacation.

Frank Williamson returned from Corvallis this week, to resume his position as a business man.

J. W. Powers, proprietor of the Oregon bar, arrived from Woodland Tuesday, accompanied by his son.

E. P. McCormack, of Salem, former pastor of the Methodist church, returned on Tuesday's train, going to San Francisco.

Evan Reames, of San Jose, formerly of Jacksonville, is visiting relatives and friends at the former place this week.

C. W. Ayers was over at Montague Monday night, to look over the plans for the new brick school house to be built there.

J. W. Snowden, who is now representing the county in the legislature, was in Ashland Wednesday.

G. F. Billings went down to Corvallis Monday evening to be in attendance at the State Sunday School convention in session there this week.

Mrs. T. J. Patterson came in from Ft. Bidwell last Monday, to join her mother and father at their new home in Appleton, W. T.

Lindsay Applegate, who has been in the hospital during the winter and spring, is now at home, and is recovering well.

A spiritualist medium from San Francisco raked in a goodly number of dollars in Ashland on Tuesday, and left for the north on the evening train.

Mrs. McClintock and daughter and Mrs. McClintock and son, who were in town this week, and took part in the Oregon, for a stay of several days.

H. H. Gilroy, of Salem, who for many years has been reading clerk of the U. S. Senate, was on Wednesday on his way back to his home in Salem.

Mr. H. Judge has been spending the week at Sola Springs, being under the weather from rheumatism. Mr. C. T. Taylor is also there this week, and is much improved in health.

Mr. Gross, the well known host of the depot hotel at Albany, who has been in town this week, returned home Monday evening.

Miss Corin Smith, who has been in town this week, and took part in the Oregon, for a stay of several days.

Mr. C. F. Plummer and family, who have been in town this week, and took part in the Oregon, for a stay of several days.

Mr. W. C. T. of Idaho, who has been in town this week, and took part in the Oregon, for a stay of several days.

Gen. J. C. Tolman has been afflicted with muscular rheumatism for several weeks, but is improving rapidly, and is expected to be in town this week.

Headquarters Bureau Post, No. 23, G. A. R., Ashland, Oregon, June 1st, 1939.

At a regular meeting of Bureau Post held on the above date, it was resolved that a wife of his be tendered the citizens of Ashland and vicinity for their liberal donations for the purpose of defraying the expenses of the Oregon, and also the ladies and children for their liberal donations.

Miss Carrie Roper returned from Oakland, Cal., last week, to spend the summer at her home in Ashland.

Mr. E. B. Huggins, the California horticulturist, went through Ashland southward Saturday in his private car, the "Amacoda." Mr. Huggins is said by those who know him to be the richest man in America, if actual income from permanent investments be the test.

Buy your flour and feed at the Ashland Mills, you can have it delivered in any part of town. Very cheap flour.

Go to Mill's Star Bakery and try his "Premium Bread" and "Ice Cream."

Bronze diagonal and plain dress goods, 10c to 15c per yard at M. L. Baker.

John Weber, of the U. S. Bakery, keeps choice stock of confectionery.

The best roast beef at 10c per lb. at Minkler & Son.

HERE AND THERE.

Many horses in Portland are suffering from distemper.

Col. Wm. Martin, a pioneer of 1852 is visiting Jacksonville. He is planning to publish a position paper, having been lately awarded a pension of $25 per month for meritorious service in the Florida and Seminole wars.

Quartz prospecting and mining is now engaging the attention of several different companies who have lately been outfitting for a summer campaign. A full report of locations and prospects is promised next week.

Quite a number of persons will attend commencement exercises at the State University. This popular institution of learning has graduated some of our finest and most exemplary young people, and it is steadily and permanently growing in favor with us.

The marriage of Mr. L. L. Jacobs, of this city, and Miss Helen Larson, of Uniontown, was a most happy and auspicious event in society circles here. The ceremony was held at the residence of the bride's parents, and was attended by a large number of friends.

Henry Villard will be in Oregon this week, to make a tour of inspection of the proposed extension of the State University at Eugene. He is expected to be in Ashland on Monday, and will be in Jacksonville on Tuesday.

The Ashland Tidings and the San Francisco Chronicle have agreed to publish a joint paper for $2.75 per year, in advance. The regular price of the Tidings is $2.25 per year, and the Chronicle is $2.50 per year. This is for a total of $4.75 per year.

The members of the Lakewick brass band wanted $75 to furnish music for the 4th of July and the committee thought the price was too high and refused to employ them, so that the Lakewick people will probably celebrate in some other way.

Miss Olive Fredrick left last Tuesday for Tacoma, to spend the summer with relatives on Puget Sound.

Dr. T. S. Somner went over to Shasta Monday night to remain till Sunday on a short vacation.

Frank Williamson returned from Corvallis this week, to resume his position as a business man.

J. W. Powers, proprietor of the Oregon bar, arrived from Woodland Tuesday, accompanied by his son.

E. P. McCormack, of Salem, former pastor of the Methodist church, returned on Tuesday's train, going to San Francisco.

Evan Reames, of San Jose, formerly of Jacksonville, is visiting relatives and friends at the former place this week.

C. W. Ayers was over at Montague Monday night, to look over the plans for the new brick school house to be built there.

J. W. Snowden, who is now representing the county in the legislature, was in Ashland Wednesday.

G. F. Billings went down to Corvallis Monday evening to be in attendance at the State Sunday School convention in session there this week.

Mrs. T. J. Patterson came in from Ft. Bidwell last Monday, to join her mother and father at their new home in Appleton, W. T.

Lindsay Applegate, who has been in the hospital during the winter and spring, is now at home, and is recovering well.

A spiritualist medium from San Francisco raked in a goodly number of dollars in Ashland on Tuesday, and left for the north on the evening train.

Mrs. McClintock and daughter and Mrs. McClintock and son, who were in town this week, and took part in the Oregon, for a stay of several days.

H. H. Gilroy, of Salem, who for many years has been reading clerk of the U. S. Senate, was on Wednesday on his way back to his home in Salem.

Mr. H. Judge has been spending the week at Sola Springs, being under the weather from rheumatism. Mr. C. T. Taylor is also there this week, and is much improved in health.

Mr. Gross, the well known host of the depot hotel at Albany, who has been in town this week, returned home Monday evening.

Miss Corin Smith, who has been in town this week, and took part in the Oregon, for a stay of several days.

Mr. C. F. Plummer and family, who have been in town this week, and took part in the Oregon, for a stay of several days.

Mr. W. C. T. of Idaho, who has been in town this week, and took part in the Oregon, for a stay of several days.

Gen. J. C. Tolman has been afflicted with muscular rheumatism for several weeks, but is improving rapidly, and is expected to be in town this week.

Headquarters Bureau Post, No. 23, G. A. R., Ashland, Oregon, June 1st, 1939.

At a regular meeting of Bureau Post held on the above date, it was resolved that a wife of his be tendered the citizens of Ashland and vicinity for their liberal donations for the purpose of defraying the expenses of the Oregon, and also the ladies and children for their liberal donations.

Miss Carrie Roper returned from Oakland, Cal., last week, to spend the summer at her home in Ashland.

Mr. E. B. Huggins, the California horticulturist, went through Ashland southward Saturday in his private car, the "Amacoda." Mr. Huggins is said by those who know him to be the richest man in America, if actual income from permanent investments be the test.

Buy your flour and feed at the Ashland Mills, you can have it delivered in any part of town. Very cheap flour.

Go to Mill's Star Bakery and try his "Premium Bread" and "Ice Cream."

Bronze diagonal and plain dress goods, 10c to 15c per yard at M. L. Baker.

John Weber, of the U. S. Bakery, keeps choice stock of confectionery.

The best roast beef at 10c per lb. at Minkler & Son.

Buy your flour and feed at the Ashland Mills, you can have it delivered in any part of town. Very cheap flour.

Go to Mill's Star Bakery and try his "Premium Bread" and "Ice Cream."

Bronze diagonal and plain dress goods, 10c to 15c per yard at M. L. Baker.

John Weber, of the U. S. Bakery, keeps choice stock of confectionery.

The best roast beef at 10c per lb. at Minkler & Son.

Buy your flour and feed at the Ashland Mills, you can have it delivered in any part of town. Very cheap flour.

Go to Mill's Star Bakery and try his "Premium Bread" and "Ice Cream."

Bronze diagonal and plain dress goods, 10c to 15c per yard at M. L. Baker.

John Weber, of the U. S. Bakery, keeps choice stock of confectionery.

The best roast beef at 10c per lb. at Minkler & Son.

PERSONAL.

Ashland will celebrate, and in style, too. Sticky and poison fly paper at Chitwood's.

John Weiler was visiting old friends at Yreka Sunday.

Prof. W. C. Roberts leaves for the Willamette this week.

W. H. Akenson made a trip over to Yreka Wednesday.

Class Smead made a short trip to Lakeview the first of the week.

W. C. Myer has been ill for a week or two, but is improving.

W. H. Parker and wife are stopping at the Oregon for a day or two.

Prof. Shepherd was at Grant's Pass during the visit of the ex-president.

Mr. A. B. Hudson was turned out of the office of postmaster at Jefferson, Ore., last C. B. Holland appointed.

George Neil, of Jacksonville, has been spending a week out at Dead Indian.

Mrs. DePatt and little son are visiting relatives at Grant's Pass this week.

Mrs. J. W. Watt and daughter left for Yreka Wednesday evening for Yreka Sunday.

Elli Perkins and wife arrived on yesterday morning's train and stopped at the Oregon for a day.

J. Joseph, a cigar maker of Albany, has been in town this week, drumming up trade.

Bob Baker has taken a sub-contract on the Ashland-Shake road to begin July 1st.

Congressman Binger Hermann left Washington for his home in Roseburg last Saturday morning.

Mr. S. W. Wilson, a prominent local business man, has returned from his trip to the coast.

Max Muller, our efficient and popular county clerk, spent Tuesday in Ashland on a business visit.

Miss Olive Fredrick left last Tuesday for Tacoma, to spend the summer with relatives on Puget Sound.

Dr. T. S. Somner went over to Shasta Monday night to remain till Sunday on a short vacation.

Frank Williamson returned from Corvallis this week, to resume his position as a business man.

J. W. Powers, proprietor of the Oregon bar, arrived from Woodland Tuesday, accompanied by his son.

E. P. McCormack, of Salem, former pastor of the Methodist church, returned on Tuesday's train, going to San Francisco.

Evan Reames, of San Jose, formerly of Jacksonville, is visiting relatives and friends at the former place this week.

C. W. Ayers was over at Montague Monday night, to look over the plans for the new brick school house to be built there.

J. W. Snowden, who is now representing the county in the legislature, was in Ashland Wednesday.

G. F. Billings went down to Corvallis Monday evening to be in attendance at the State Sunday School convention in session there this week.

Mrs. T. J. Patterson came in from Ft. Bidwell last Monday, to join her mother and father at their new home in Appleton, W. T.

Lindsay Applegate, who has been in the hospital during the winter and spring, is now at home, and is recovering well.

A spiritualist medium from San Francisco raked in a goodly number of dollars in Ashland on Tuesday, and left for the north on the evening train.

Mrs. McClintock and daughter and Mrs. McClintock and son, who were in town this week, and took part in the Oregon, for a stay of several days.

H. H. Gilroy, of Salem, who for many years has been reading clerk of the U. S. Senate, was on Wednesday on his way back to his home in Salem.

Mr. H. Judge has been spending the week at Sola Springs, being under the weather from rheumatism. Mr. C. T. Taylor is also there this week, and is much improved in health.

Mr. Gross, the well known host of the depot hotel at Albany, who has been in town this week, returned home Monday evening.

Miss Corin Smith, who has been in town this week, and took part in the Oregon, for a stay of several days.

Mr. C. F. Plummer and family, who have been in town this week, and took part in the Oregon, for a stay of several days.

Mr. W. C. T. of Idaho, who has been in town this week, and took part in the Oregon, for a stay of several days.

Gen. J. C. Tolman has been afflicted with muscular rheumatism for several weeks, but is improving rapidly, and is expected to be in town this week.

Headquarters Bureau Post, No. 23, G. A. R., Ashland, Oregon, June 1st, 1939.

At a regular meeting of Bureau Post held on the above date, it was resolved that a wife of his be tendered the citizens of Ashland and vicinity for their liberal donations for the purpose of defraying the expenses of the Oregon, and also the ladies and children for their liberal donations.

Miss Carrie Roper returned from Oakland, Cal., last week, to spend the summer at her home in Ashland.

Mr. E. B. Huggins, the California horticulturist, went through Ashland southward Saturday in his private car, the "Amacoda." Mr. Huggins is said by those who know him to be the richest man in America, if actual income from permanent investments be the test.

Buy your flour and feed at the Ashland Mills, you can have it delivered in any part of town. Very cheap flour.

Go to Mill's Star Bakery and try his "Premium Bread" and "Ice Cream."

Bronze diagonal and plain dress goods, 10c to 15c per yard at M. L. Baker.

John Weber, of the U. S. Bakery, keeps choice stock of confectionery.

The best roast beef at 10c per lb. at Minkler & Son.

PERSONAL.

Ashland will celebrate, and in style, too. Sticky and poison fly paper at Chitwood's.

John Weiler was visiting old friends at Yreka Sunday.

Prof. W. C. Roberts leaves for the Willamette this week.

W. H. Akenson made a trip over to Yreka Wednesday.

Class Smead made a short trip to Lakeview the first of the week.

W. C. Myer has been ill for a week or two, but is improving.

W. H. Parker and wife are stopping at the Oregon for a day or two.

Prof. Shepherd was at Grant's Pass during the visit of the ex-president.

Mr. A. B. Hudson was turned out of the office of postmaster at Jefferson, Ore., last C. B. Holland appointed.

George Neil, of Jacksonville, has been spending a week out at Dead Indian.

Mrs. DePatt and little son are visiting relatives at Grant's Pass this week.

Mrs. J. W. Watt and daughter left for Yreka Wednesday evening for Yreka Sunday.

Elli Perkins and wife arrived on yesterday morning's train and stopped at the Oregon for a day.

J. Joseph, a cigar maker of Albany, has been in town this week, drumming up trade.

Bob Baker has taken a sub-contract on the Ashland-Shake road to begin July 1st.

Congressman Binger Hermann left Washington for his home in Roseburg last Saturday morning.

Mr. S. W. Wilson, a prominent local business man, has returned from his trip to the coast.

Max Muller, our efficient and popular county clerk, spent Tuesday in Ashland on a business visit.

Miss Olive Fredrick left last Tuesday for Tacoma, to spend the summer with relatives on Puget Sound.

Dr. T. S. Somner went over to Shasta Monday night to remain till Sunday on a short vacation.

Frank Williamson returned from Corvallis this week, to resume his position as a business man.

J. W. Powers, proprietor of the Oregon bar, arrived from Woodland Tuesday, accompanied by his son.

E. P. McCormack, of Salem, former pastor of the Methodist church, returned on Tuesday's train, going to San Francisco.

Evan Reames, of San Jose, formerly of Jacksonville, is visiting relatives and friends at the former place this week.

C. W. Ayers was over at Montague Monday night, to look over the plans for the new brick school house to be built there.

J. W. Snowden, who is now representing the county in the legislature, was in Ashland Wednesday.

G. F. Billings went down to Corvallis Monday evening to be in attendance at the State Sunday School convention in session there this week.

Mrs. T. J. Patterson came in from Ft. Bidwell last Monday, to join her mother and father at their new home in Appleton, W. T.

Lindsay Applegate, who has been in the hospital during the winter and spring, is now at home, and is recovering well.

A spiritualist medium from San Francisco raked in a goodly number of dollars in Ashland on Tuesday, and left for the north on the evening train.

Mrs. McClintock and daughter and Mrs. McClintock and son, who were in town this week, and took part in the Oregon, for a stay of several days.

H. H. Gilroy, of Salem, who for many years has been reading clerk of the U. S. Senate, was on Wednesday on his way back to his home in Salem.

Mr. H. Judge has been spending the week at Sola Springs, being under the weather from rheumatism. Mr. C. T. Taylor is also there this week, and is much improved in health.

Mr. Gross, the well known host of the depot hotel at Albany, who has been in town this week, returned home Monday evening.

Miss Corin Smith, who has been in town this week, and took part in the Oregon, for a stay of several days.

Mr. C. F. Plummer and family, who have been in town this week, and took part in the Oregon, for a stay of several days.

Mr. W. C. T. of Idaho, who has been in town this week, and took part in the Oregon, for a stay of several days.

Gen. J. C. Tolman has been afflicted with muscular rheumatism for several weeks, but is improving rapidly, and is expected to be in town this week.

Headquarters Bureau Post, No. 23, G. A. R., Ashland, Oregon, June 1st, 1939.

At a regular meeting of Bureau Post held on the above date, it was resolved that a wife of his be tendered the citizens of Ashland and vicinity for their liberal donations for the purpose of defraying the expenses of the Oregon, and also the ladies and children for their liberal donations.

Miss Carrie Roper returned from Oakland, Cal., last week, to spend the summer at her home in Ashland.

Mr. E. B. Huggins, the California horticulturist, went through Ashland southward Saturday in his private car, the "Amacoda." Mr. Huggins is said by those who know him to be the richest man in America, if actual income from permanent investments be the test.

Buy your flour and feed at the Ashland Mills, you can have it delivered in any part of town. Very cheap flour.

Go to Mill's Star Bakery and try his "Premium Bread" and "Ice Cream."

Bronze diagonal and plain dress goods, 10c to 15c per yard at M. L. Baker.

John Weber, of the U. S. Bakery, keeps choice stock of confectionery.

The best roast beef at 10c per lb. at Minkler & Son.

PERSONAL.