

ASHLAND TIDINGS

WATER WORKS.

Removal. A. P. Ball, saddler, has removed to Aylesworth's building, north of bridge.

O. E. S. Meeting. Regular meeting of Alpha Chapter, No. 1, O. E. S., next Tuesday evening, June 18th. Business of importance. All members requested to be present.

Dr. J. B. Picketing. Surgeon-General and Medical Specialist of Portland, will be at the Oregon Hotel, Ashland, all day Sunday, June 23. Specialties of eye, ear, lung, chronic, uterine or rectal disease. Free examination and opinion. (11-2)

Stray. From Carter's ranch, June 23, 1891, one small brown horse, seven years old, with white strip in face, branded C. W. on left hip; had seven on one fore foot when last seen. Also one large bay horse, six years old, with small bell on. Suitable reward for information on above described horses. Address, Eugene, Oregon.

Choice Fruit Land. The land recently platted and offered for sale in Forty-acre tracts by Kingsbury & Allen at Toke, where the O. & C. R. crosses Rogue River, is the choicest of red soil the best in the state for orchards. A few apple trees on the land, which were planted fifteen or twenty years ago, and have had no cure whatever, are thirty and forty years old, and prove to everyone who visits the tract the superior quality of the soil and location for fruit growing. Plans may be seen at the office of G. F. Billings in Ashland.

The Cannery Cases. The $1200 bonus for the cannery was made up this week through the efforts of Secretary Billings of the Board of Trade and other patriotic citizens, and A. F. Schulz, who is taking the bonus and will plant the machinery of which he has not less than $2500, started Tuesday for Portland to order the machinery. He will confer with Manager Ketcher, of the O. & C. R., while in Portland, about a location for the cannery near the railroad. On his return to Ashland he will at once begin preparations for erecting the building.

Death of Mrs. Nickell. The death of Mrs. Charles Nickell, which had been seen for several weeks to be near at hand, occurred last Saturday morning at 10 o'clock. An illness of ten weeks had brought her to her great suffering, but after the wasting fever had done their worst the final release of the spirit was as quiet and peaceful as the sleep which takes the child from its mother's arms. The funeral on Sunday, June 23, was the largest ever seen in Jacksonville. Rev. Robert Emms conducted the services. A husband and three little children are left to mourn her loss, the youngest child being less than three months old.

Look out for thieves. The circus and menagerie to be in Ashland to-morrow is a big affair, one of the largest that ever traveled on the Pacific coast, and there are a small army of hangers-on and "camp-followers" traveling with it who are capital foragers. Every time the case. No circus ever traveled without having a gang of thieves following it, and that gang is always well followed as any judge by the reports of papers in California. The people of Ashland will do well to watch their premises at night, to-night, to-morrow night, especially, and for several nights. Extra precautions will be employed by the circus, day and through the night, but don't leave anything valuable lying about loose.

Robbery at Talent. Miss Stambach, the blind oculist, who was stopping at the boarding house of Sherman Sisters at Talent, was robbed of about $80 on Tuesday evening of last week. While she and all the people of the boarding house were attending a lecture of M. L. Hall. The thief broke into the house, and found a safe containing about $80 in gold and silver, besides some jewelry of value. The safe was found back of the house, cut open, and the empty purses were found near the barn. A bander named Harry Hoover, a man about 35 years of age, who was in Talent recently, was suspected. On Monday evening Hoover bought a ticket at Talent for Portland. Statements before his departure confirmed the suspicions against him. The Portland chief of police, who was with the facts, and arrested Hoover Tuesday, to hold him till Sheriff Birdsey should arrive for him.
