Purvis (Miss.). September 6th.—A statement in a dispatch from New York, alleging that C. W. Rich of Richburg had leased the County Prison of Marion county and would have charge of Kvirain and Sullivan, is a mistake. The County clerk says that no such contract exists between the county and Rich, and before the Board of Supervisors can lease the prisoners to anyone, bids will have to be advertised for in this county as prescrited by law. There are other citizens, among them mill owners, charcoal contractors and farmers, who would like to lease the county prisoners, and if bids are advertised for, Rich will not have it all his own way.
