Everything in the Stationery line at Minkler & Son's.

Covered benches for 10, 15 and 20 seats at Dean's.

Mirror of Ireland, Friday and Saturday nights.

You can buy flour and feed of G. W. Crowson very cheap.

It takes but a little money to buy a nice derby coat or fur hat at Dean's.

The bear show was in town this week again—going southward this time.

Notice to Laboring Men.

All day laborers, residents of Ashland, desiring to work on the water works of the city, can register their names at the store of D. R. & E. V. Mills, any time during business hours, for the next 10 days.

Ashtland, like most other growing cities of the United States, has its first cemeteries located to the west of the town, and that one of them is already surrounded by dwellings.

The cemeteries will soon have to be abandoned anyhow, and it is high time that arrangements were begun for grounds to take their place.

Lieut. James A. Swift, U. S. Signal Service, has been ordered to Norfolk, Virginia, upon the closing of the military school at Fort Leavenworth.

Sunday's storm left a coating of snow on Grizzly peak, and a fringe extending down for one or two thousand feet toward the valley.

The Oakes comedy company and Swiss ball riggers had a good house at Ashland last Saturday evening, and gave a very general satisfaction.

Lindley & Co. report the sale of lots 1 and 2, Nickelplate addition to Ashland, W. E. Price to Francis M. Granger, consideration, $500.

The annual services at the Presbyterian church next Sabbath. Sermon subjects: morning, "The Church as a Spiritual Power," evening, "The Uses of Financial Discipline."

Head the prices of the latest shipment of new goods received at Moral Bros' store, opposite the postoffice, before you make your purchases.

County Stock Inspector W. F. Sanger is now engaged in the regular fall inspection of the county, and reports that the condition generally than at this time last year.

As a family medicine, Ayer's Pills excel all others. They are suited to every age, being sugar-coated, are easy to take, though sometimes and though in effect, they are mild and pleasant in action, and their use is attended with no dangerous results.

Lake of Killarney by moonlight, Granite Hall to-night.

Wagner, who is road supervisor of the district which includes the Skidway mountain portion of Ashland precinct, has been up in the mountains trying to collect road tax recently, but finds the men very few who can or will pay.

Splendid and realistic moonlight effects in "Kitty from Cork."

Harvey Walker took over to Klamath City Wednesday several boxes of large, long, pointed, and well-made, and by reservation, but the date of sale has not been made. This is quite a large body of land, and the reservation is especially valuable. The order to sell this property is nearly complete, and the others were all well returned, presumably abandoned.

Frames, moldings, chromos, artotypes—a fine line at bottom prices at Minkler & Son's.

Says the Klamath Examiner: The land office at this place has been ordered to sell the Fort Klamath military reservation, but the date of sale has not been made. This is quite a large body of land, and the reservation is especially valuable. The order to sell this property is nearly complete, and the others were all well returned, presumably abandoned.

HERE AND THERE.

The "half-interest" swindlers are at work in Seattle now, and are in limbo, too, some of them.

The Los Angeles Herald says the people of that city have paid out $50,000 for butter imported by rail since last of July.

During the last six months 27,000 pounds of butter have come from the east over lines of the Southern Pacific railroad, according to San Francisco.

The big North Salem flouring mills were closed last Saturday afternoon, because of a strike of the mill hands.

It is estimated that 150,000 people visited the great fair in Portland which closed last Saturday.

Sandy Olds, the Portland gambler, was to have been hanged to-day, but a stay of execution has been granted.

The three men arrested for tampering with the switch which caused the death of engineer Miller and fireman Hattie near Salem have been indicted for murder in the second degree.

J. L. Morrow, who has just returned from his tour in the interest of Warner Valley, passed through Lakeview yesterday morning, en route to the city.

The jury in U. S. Circuit Court at Portland last Friday, in the case of the United States vs. John H. Hamersley, of Lake County, for cutting timber on government land, found a verdict of $500 against Hamersley.

The Postmaster-General has designated the observance of the National Day of Washington, this country's birthday, and gives an opportunity for the painter to get in his work.

The report of Assistant Adjutant Sherman, of the G. A. R., shows that in the department of Oregon there is a membership of 1632. The next increase over the membership for 1887 is 81, with a loss of 33. The net increase is 48.

There are at present 29,000 bushels of wheat stored in the farmers' warehouses in Eugene and a great deal more in the hands of the millers, and it is expected that the crop will be a bumper one.

Horse thieving is being carried on extensively in the Snake river country according to the following from the Friday morning edition of the Oregonian: A man named John H. Hamersley, who resides on Snake river, has had 120 head of horses stolen from him.

A professional sprayer from Pittsburg, Kan., relieved the Gervais sports of $2000 in the city of Gervais, Cal., on Friday last. Cameron was six feet behind at the outcome.

NEIGHBORING COUNTIES.

SIKIYOU COUNTY, CAL. (Siskiyou Journal, Oct. 26.)

Klamath City residents intend applying for a new school district at once after the next school census is taken, and will maintain a private school this winter, it being very inconvenient for the children to go so far to either Hanley or Willow Creek, the nearest schools to them.

Deputy Game and Fish Commissioner Bogart seized about a thousand deer hides and antlers in the mountains yesterday, sent there for shipment below, on account of being the hides of does, these being the season for their sale. Even if the hides are of bucks, there must be evidence to show, else they will be seized just the same, and the person buying, if he is not a dealer in the same is guilty of a misdemeanor, as it is unlawful to kill, destroy or take any female elk, antler or deer of mountain sheep at any time.

The City Trustees heard the report of the water committee last week, on the proposition to farm water for fire purposes. Anterath & Co. offer to supply water for a dozen hydro-pneumatic tanks, to be located on the main, or $750 per year from a 200,000-gallon tank, or $200 per year from a 100,000-gallon tank, at Main street, per specifications submitted. Mr. Scheid, of the City Water Works, offered the sale of his plant to the city for $15,000. The board adjourned to next regular meeting without making any action.

Mr. O. A. Stearns sent to the Linkville cash store this week a really beautiful pair of trousers, made by a beautiful farm. One of them, a "Flint Dutch," measured three feet and three inches around.

George Nickerson, formerly of the City of Astoria, who has been on a visit East, and is on his way to San Jose, arrived on Tuesday morning, and will be in for a few days to see his wife, who has been staying at the residence of O. J. Applegate.

Hunters at Lake Creek, Oregon, are making the sylvan bear pasturemen, and a storm is being over the hills. Nails, Owens found eight large ones in the woods and shipped them to the city, where he will get no less than twenty dollars apiece for them. They are the best of the kind.

The taxable property of King county, W. T., including Seattle, increased 50 per cent, in the year just past. The taxable property of the county of Tillamook county, Oregon, increased 75 per cent, in the year just past. That is bigger—at least as far as percentage is concerned.

The Postmaster-General has designated the observance of the National Day of Washington, this country's birthday, and gives an opportunity for the painter to get in his work.

The report of Assistant Adjutant Sherman, of the G. A. R., shows that in the department of Oregon there is a membership of 1632. The next increase over the membership for 1887 is 81, with a loss of 33. The net increase is 48.
