EDITORIAL NOTES AND NEWS.

The legislative situation in Montana remains unchanged up to date.

It is announced that the tariff question will be discussed by Gladstone and Blaine in the January number of the North American Review.

The delegates to the Pan American congress will start from New York about Feb. 1st on a long tour south to New Orleans, then to the S. P. R. R. to California.

The Del Norte (Cal.) Record, makes an "invidious" comparison as follows: "Senator Mitchell will ask this winter for two Government vessels, a lightship tender and a revenue cutter for service in Oregon waters."

For the first time in the history of the House of Representatives, an appropriation bill has been passed before the holiday recess.

At Purvis, Mississippi, the great trial of the state against Jake Kilrain for violation of the statutes against prize fighting in felony came to a farcical end by the jury, after a mature deliberation of five hours, bringing in a verdict of not guilty of prize fighting, but guilty of assault and battery on John L. Sullivan.

The epidemic of influenza has become so general in a number of the larger cities of Europe as to be a topic of daily dispatches to the American press.

Prince Marat, of Paris, who made public declaration that he would sell his hand and title to Miss Caldwell, approximately $100,000, and to accept such consideration as she may see fit to allow him.

The committee of the House of Representatives appointed to investigate the affairs of the office of sergeant-at-arms in its report, finds a deficiency of a little over $70,000, and censures severely, asserting that in six years he has not once counted the cash in the office.

An important question, affecting the right of married women in this state to take lands under the United States timber act of June 3, 1878, is now being considered, and it will soon be decided by the secretary of the interior.

The following significant cablegram came from London under date of Dec. 15: It is asserted that "the West End scandals," as they are called, may result in upsetting not only royalty in the kingdom, but also the rule of the privileged classes as well.

The dispatches give further particulars as follows: Simultaneous with the announcement of the verdict, Cotghin, O'Sullivan and Burke turned deathly pale, while Kunze started suddenly from his seat and a moment later dropped his head upon his breast and burst into tears.

Forest, on behalf of the four convicted defendants, entered the accustomed motion for a new trial, and after considerable discussion the judge filed January 13th as the day on which the motion for a new trial will be argued, and the prisoner will be released on bail.

Among the confirmations today was that of Hon. Solomon Hirsch to be minister to Turkey. There was no question as to unanimous action by the senate upon the name of this distinguished Oregon representative.

Senator Mitchell's Chinese education bill have caused a general clamor in Washington to-day, as even Blaine disapproved of it. It is scarcely probable that they will pass unless some modification is made, but they will be warmly supported by the Northwestern Association and the progressive states of the union which are members of it.

In the contest between G. W. Smith, John Bennett and Jesse Higgins and the Oregon & California railroad over land in the Roseburg district, the authorities in the department at Washington have decided against the railroad company.

The following cash patents have been issued to land in the Lakeview district, viz. Nos. 44, 66, 92 and 93.

NOTES AND NEWS.

Smallpox has broken out in the posthouses at Minneapolis, Minn.

The European influenza is reported as having made its appearance in New York.

President Harrison's message was one of the longest ever issued, containing over 15,000 words.

The life saving service, a creation of the late S. S. Cox, saved 287 lives and $5,000,000 worth of property this year.

The men on trial for the Wham robbery in Arizona were acquitted at Tucson on Feb. 1st. There is great indignation over the verdict.

Robert Browning, the poet, died at his home in Florence last week, at an advanced age. Critics class him with Milton among the English poets.

The vote on the tariff in the national farmers' congress at Montgomery, Ala., on which the free traders had been building high anticipations, stood 160 for protection and 89 against.

Tom Fitch, the silver-tongued orator of Nevada, would up a senator at the Silver Convention at St. Louis by asking: "Is it not time for the American eagle to rise and shake the Liverpool suit from its tail?" This brought down the house.

"The baseball slave trade" is what some papers are calling the buying and selling of players in America. The Federation of Labor adopted a resolution the other day condemning this "traffic" by the national baseball league.

Silcott, the absconding cashier, by those forgeries, etc., many congressmen have lost large sums of money, and it is supposed secretly got aboard a south bound ship while lying in mid stream at night, and is probably now in South America with Tascot of Chicago fame.

Franklin B. Gowen, one of the most prominent lawyers of Philadelphia, committed suicide at Washington during a visit here last Saturday. The cause of his act is not known, but it is thought that his mind had become unbalanced by too close application to business.

A brutal fight between Jack Gallagher and G. H. Ward, at Crystal Springs, Montana, resulted in the death of Gallagher after ten rounds. London rules, with skin tight gloves. The fight was to settle a dispute over a house Ward was building for Gallagher. There were 18 witnesses to the murder.

The latest intelligence from Sutter Lake basin along the Sacramento river is to the effect that there are no breaks in the levees between Moon's Ferry and Meridian. Damage to No. 70 levee district will approximate $100,000. The whole 6500 acres were under water. At least four-fifths of the district are still under water from one to six feet deep.
