Serious Runaway Accident Dr. A. C. Stanley, of Sam's Valley, was seriously hurt by a runaway acci-dent at Antioch, on Memorial Day. He had attended the memorial exercises there and was just starting home with his wife and niece in a one-seated buggy when the horses took fright and made a plunge, throwing him out. The horses then ran, with the two ladies in the buggy, until they struck a fence, when the buggy was overturned and the ladies received painful bruises, but were not seriously hurt. Dr. Stanley was found to have received a fracture of the thigh bone, close up to the hip joint, and the fracture of three ribs. The broken thigh may leave him somewhat crippled, but he is reported now as doing well.

Mr. George G. Eubanks and Miss Amanda Goodyear were united in mar- early cherries. riage at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Goodyear, on Church street, Wednesday, June 4th. The ceremony occurred at 11 o'clock, a. m., Rev. H. C. Lewis, of the M. E. church, officiating. The wedding company consisted of only the families of the bride and groom, but the parlors were handsomely decorated with flowers for the occasion, and an elegant dinner was served at

The bride and groom are both held in high esteem in their wide circle of friends and acquaintances in this city and elsewhere, and the congratulations and good wishes from all will be hearty and sincere. Their home will be at the residence property near the M. E. church formerly occupied by J. S. Eubanks, jr.

Card of Thanks.

The members of Burnside Post No. 23 G. A. R. beg leave to tender their kindest thanks to Co. D., 2d Reg. O. N. G. for their kindness in acting as escort to said Post on Memorial Day, and to the Ashland band for their fine

We also tender our sincere thanks to the choir for their sweet and appropriate songs, that went so far to make our memorial services a success; and to the ladies who so kindly donated flowers to us so that we might decorate the graves of our dead comrades, and to scatter flowers still higher on the mound of our unknown dead; and to the children of the public schools, who will soon take our places and scatter flowers over our graves when the Grand Army of the Republic will be no more.

ing Memorial Day such a grand success. No one can now pass through our cemeteries but will see that on most of the graves some loving hand has scattered flowers of sweet remembrance, and it is the hope of the G. A. R. that this beautiful custom of observing Memorial Day will grow stronger and stronger with all our people until every grave in our cemeteries will be decorated on Memorial Day. J. R. CASEY, J. CHISHOLM, Committee. B. BEACH.

Ran Away and Got Married.

The people of Big Batte precinct have been not a little excited during the past few weeks on account of a romantic marriage, the home of relatives in that precinct of one of the contracting parties being the refuge to which the persecuted lovers had flown. The name of the young lady to the transaction was Miss Letta Wilkinson, whose home is in Reno, Nev., and the young man whom her father and family objected to having her marry is named Applegate. About three weeks or more ago, the young lady left her home in Reno, telling her folks that she was going to take the train to visit relatives or friends manding, and their good appearance caused favorable comment on all sides. Then came Burnside Post and comrades including one or two Mexican war veterans, each of whom were presented with beautiful boquets as they stood in ranks ready to march, by the little flower girls, Misses Lena Casey and Mabel Chisholm; W. A. Patrick was in command of the post; next came the children of the Band of Hope and the pupils of the Ashiand Public schools, who were all supplied with a profusion of flowers; after with a profusion of flowers; after these came other citizens. The procession marched to Granite Hall, where a program appropriate to the occasion was rendered, including music, prayer, reading of orders, saluting the dead, address of welcome, post exercises, and address by comrade H. A. Barden, After these exercises, the procession re-formed and marched to Ashland cemetery, where it again broke ranks, and those beautiful exercises for which Decoration Day was set aside — the strewing with flowers of the graves of departed ones - were next in order. After these, the procession marched to the plaza and the forenoon exercises were completed. After dinner, the Post re-assembled and marched to Hargadine graveyard, where the same exercises as at the other cemetery were Says the Marshfield Mail of May 29: two young men were drowned in the Bay, opposite the Porter mill, on Sunday afternoon, by the capsizing of a small boat. Five men from Porter started out in the boat for a sail and in jibing the sheet the boat was cap-sized. Wooden clung to the boat as long as he could, but finally washed off and sank out of sight. Asher started to swim ashore, but having on his clothing and the bay being very rough he gave out and also sank. Boats from Porter immediately put out and picked up the other three men who were clinging to the boat and they were safely landed. Mana-ger Hinchman came to Marshfield and procured a seine to drag the bay for the two unfortunate young men, and on Monday the body of Asher was recovered, and his remains were brought to Marshfield and burried. The body
