Adjournment of Congress. Washington, June 22—Chairman Conger of the house committee on comage, weights and measures, which has the silver bill in custody now, said to-day that he did not believe congress would adjourn until Sep-tember. It would require, he thought, at least six weeks to finally dispose of the tariff bill, and, in view of Mr. Blame's commercial reciprocity re-specting the sugar and other features of the measures, might cause further specting the sugar and other features of the measures, might cause further delays; then the federal election bill must be adopted before adjournment, even though weeks of time are killed by the democrats in the senate where debate cannot be limited.
