

ASHLAND TIDINGS.

Friday, November 11, 1898

Home to Loan
To loan on approved first-mortgage security on farm land...

Train This Morning
The wreck Wednesday night...

Not a Full Jury Yet
The grand jury of Klamath county...

Religions
At the Congregational church...

The Fruit Growers Meeting
There was no quorum at the meeting...

Another Large Orchard
As stated by the Times sometime ago...

Took the Pistol to bed
Nattie, the 8-year-old son of ex-Sherriff Dean...

Butcher shop of Harris & Murphy
Burr was entered the same night...

SOUTHERN OREGON STOCK PROTECTIVE ASSOCIATION
MEMPHIS, OR., Nov. 8, 1898.

Pursuant to notice of the president...

Minutes of last meeting read and approved...

Resolved, That the members shall notify the secretary...

Resolved, That the secretary shall notify the members...

Resolved, That if any member shall have stock...

Resolved, That the association is now in much better condition...

Resolved, That the association is now in much better condition...

Resolved, That the association is now in much better condition...

Resolved, That the association is now in much better condition...

Resolved, That the association is now in much better condition...

Resolved, That the association is now in much better condition...

Resolved, That the association is now in much better condition...

Resolved, That the association is now in much better condition...

Resolved, That the association is now in much better condition...

Resolved, That the association is now in much better condition...

Resolved, That the association is now in much better condition...

Resolved, That the association is now in much better condition...

Resolved, That the association is now in much better condition...

Resolved, That the association is now in much better condition...

Resolved, That the association is now in much better condition...

Resolved, That the association is now in much better condition...

Resolved, That the association is now in much better condition...

Resolved, That the association is now in much better condition...

Resolved, That the association is now in much better condition...

Resolved, That the association is now in much better condition...

Resolved, That the association is now in much better condition...

Resolved, That the association is now in much better condition...

Resolved, That the association is now in much better condition...

Resolved, That the association is now in much better condition...

Resolved, That the association is now in much better condition...

Resolved, That the association is now in much better condition...

Resolved, That the association is now in much better condition...

Resolved, That the association is now in much better condition...

Resolved, That the association is now in much better condition...

Resolved, That the association is now in much better condition...

Resolved, That the association is now in much better condition...

BREVITIES.

Mother gives take the cake
Alfalfa, timothy, clover and blue grass seed at the Red House.

The President has designated Thursday, Nov. 27th, as Thanksgiving day.

Weather prospects are beginning to think that we will have an open and dry winter.

Three more car loads of Chinese were on Tuesday evening's train going to Cow creek canyon.

The report of the Chamber of Commerce is that the business is improving.

Heals boys or sold, died or liv, at Hood's.

Butler and Thompson have returned from their winter place in Donkey and will winter quite a number of their cattle out here.

B. Beach is at work with a good prospect in the construction of a new farm house for Mr. Batts on the Kingsbury place.

Here's "Heart of Oak" company has a good house in Ashland last Saturday morning.

Two engines went northward over the road last Monday for the Oregon road (formerly the narrow gauge) recently purchased by Huntington.

A new school house is to be built about half way between the Skyway and the station.

Now is the time to buy furniture, wallpaper, sewing machines, etc.

W. H. Miller and Sam Connor had an exciting chase after a bear Minkler had shot and wounded out at Fish Lake one day last week.

Wm. Hanley has been buying cattle in various parts of the valley.

The ladies of the M. E. church will hold a Christmas Bazaar at the Odd Fellows Tuesday and Wednesday, Dec. 16 and 17.

We will not be undersold on cigars, coffee, tea, rice, or anything in the grocery line.

The Festival of Days will be given by the King's Daughters, Friday and Saturday, Dec. 5th and 6th.

Articles and prices to suit everybody.

Legal blanks at this office.

John Strait had a foot badly hurt by a heavy square timber.

A party of Ashland men will go over to Hornbrook next week.

Legal blanks at this office.

John Strait had a foot badly hurt by a heavy square timber.

A party of Ashland men will go over to Hornbrook next week.

Legal blanks at this office.

John Strait had a foot badly hurt by a heavy square timber.

A party of Ashland men will go over to Hornbrook next week.

Legal blanks at this office.

John Strait had a foot badly hurt by a heavy square timber.

A party of Ashland men will go over to Hornbrook next week.

Legal blanks at this office.

John Strait had a foot badly hurt by a heavy square timber.

A party of Ashland men will go over to Hornbrook next week.

Legal blanks at this office.

John Strait had a foot badly hurt by a heavy square timber.

A party of Ashland men will go over to Hornbrook next week.

Legal blanks at this office.

John Strait had a foot badly hurt by a heavy square timber.

A party of Ashland men will go over to Hornbrook next week.

Legal blanks at this office.

John Strait had a foot badly hurt by a heavy square timber.

A party of Ashland men will go over to Hornbrook next week.

Legal blanks at this office.

John Strait had a foot badly hurt by a heavy square timber.

A party of Ashland men will go over to Hornbrook next week.

Legal blanks at this office.

DISASTROUS TRAIN WRECK.

Yesterday's South-bound Express train with a Trestle near Chewama—Many People Injured—Five Killed.

The most disastrous wreck that has ever occurred on the O. & C. R. R. took place Wednesday night.

Dispatch report, Wednesday night: Chewama U. S. Indian School, 5 miles west of Salem, Ore.

The report of the Chamber of Commerce is that the business is improving.

Heals boys or sold, died or liv, at Hood's.

Butler and Thompson have returned from their winter place in Donkey and will winter quite a number of their cattle out here.

B. Beach is at work with a good prospect in the construction of a new farm house for Mr. Batts on the Kingsbury place.

Here's "Heart of Oak" company has a good house in Ashland last Saturday morning.

Two engines went northward over the road last Monday for the Oregon road (formerly the narrow gauge) recently purchased by Huntington.

A new school house is to be built about half way between the Skyway and the station.

Now is the time to buy furniture, wallpaper, sewing machines, etc.

W. H. Miller and Sam Connor had an exciting chase after a bear Minkler had shot and wounded out at Fish Lake one day last week.

Wm. Hanley has been buying cattle in various parts of the valley.

The ladies of the M. E. church will hold a Christmas Bazaar at the Odd Fellows Tuesday and Wednesday, Dec. 16 and 17.

We will not be undersold on cigars, coffee, tea, rice, or anything in the grocery line.

The Festival of Days will be given by the King's Daughters, Friday and Saturday, Dec. 5th and 6th.

Articles and prices to suit everybody.

Legal blanks at this office.

John Strait had a foot badly hurt by a heavy square timber.

A party of Ashland men will go over to Hornbrook next week.

Legal blanks at this office.

John Strait had a foot badly hurt by a heavy square timber.

A party of Ashland men will go over to Hornbrook next week.

Legal blanks at this office.

John Strait had a foot badly hurt by a heavy square timber.

A party of Ashland men will go over to Hornbrook next week.

Legal blanks at this office.

John Strait had a foot badly hurt by a heavy square timber.

A party of Ashland men will go over to Hornbrook next week.

Legal blanks at this office.

John Strait had a foot badly hurt by a heavy square timber.

A party of Ashland men will go over to Hornbrook next week.

Legal blanks at this office.

John Strait had a foot badly hurt by a heavy square timber.

A party of Ashland men will go over to Hornbrook next week.

Legal blanks at this office.

John Strait had a foot badly hurt by a heavy square timber.

A party of Ashland men will go over to Hornbrook next week.

Legal blanks at this office.

John Strait had a foot badly hurt by a heavy square timber.

A party of Ashland men will go over to Hornbrook next week.

Legal blanks at this office.

John Strait had a foot badly hurt by a heavy square timber.

A party of Ashland men will go over to Hornbrook next week.

Legal blanks at this office.

John Strait had a foot badly hurt by a heavy square timber.

PERSONAL.

Edw. A. Swope returned to Portland Tuesday night.

W. K. Pries, of Tolo, spent two or three days in town this week.

G. F. Billings returned Tuesday morning from Pendleton.

W. K. Pries, of Tolo, spent two or three days in town this week.

Mrs. C. S. Galey, wife of Salem Wednesday night, to look after her father.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Kane are now in California on their return home from the East.

E. P. Mackintosh, of the salmon bar, went out to Linville this week.

Lindsay Applegate, who has been very ill at Linville, is somewhat better.

Miss Ruth Matthews, of Salem, Cal., is in town this week.

W. H. Mowall, of the Postal Telegraph Co., is in town this week.

A. F. Hunt, who has been in the valley for some time, is in town.

C. S. Sargent, of Linville, is in the valley for some time.

Gen. John F. Miller and ex-Sheriff Childers returned to Ashland this week.

Miss Jennie Jackson left for Grant's Pass Wednesday night.

Among the local Indian people who will be in town this week are...

W. H. Mowall, of the Postal Telegraph Co., is in town this week.

A. F. Hunt, who has been in the valley for some time, is in town.

C. S. Sargent, of Linville, is in the valley for some time.

Gen. John F. Miller and ex-Sheriff Childers returned to Ashland this week.

Miss Jennie Jackson left for Grant's Pass Wednesday night.

Among the local Indian people who will be in town this week are...

W. H. Mowall, of the Postal Telegraph Co., is in town this week.

A. F. Hunt, who has been in the valley for some time, is in town.

C. S. Sargent, of Linville, is in the valley for some time.

Gen. John F. Miller and ex-Sheriff Childers returned to Ashland this week.

Miss Jennie Jackson left for Grant's Pass Wednesday night.

Among the local Indian people who will be in town this week are...

W. H. Mowall, of the Postal Telegraph Co., is in town this week.

A. F. Hunt, who has been in the valley for some time, is in town.

C. S. Sargent, of Linville, is in the valley for some time.

Gen. John F. Miller and ex-Sheriff Childers returned to Ashland this week.

Miss Jennie Jackson left for Grant's Pass Wednesday night.

Among the local Indian people who will be in town this week are...

W. H. Mowall, of the Postal Telegraph Co., is in town this week.

A. F. Hunt, who has been in the valley for some time, is in town.

C. S. Sargent, of Linville, is in the valley for some time.

Gen. John F. Miller and ex-Sheriff Childers returned to Ashland this week.

Miss Jennie Jackson left for Grant's Pass Wednesday night.

Among the local Indian people who will be in town this week are...

W. H. Mowall, of the Postal Telegraph Co., is in town this week.

A. F. Hunt, who has been in the valley for some time, is in town.

C. S. Sargent, of Linville, is in the valley for some time.

Gen. John F. Miller and ex-Sheriff Childers returned to Ashland this week.

Miss Jennie Jackson left for Grant's Pass Wednesday night.

Among the local Indian people who will be in town this week are...

W. H. Mowall, of the Postal Telegraph Co., is in town this week.

JACKSONVILLE ITEMS.

L. L. Bartenshaw, the Ashland attorney, was in Jacksonville Monday.

Charles McKel, editor of the Times, returned from Klamath county this week.

W. L. Miller will begin the instruction of a class in typewriting this week.

Pat. Dunn was in Jacksonville Saturday shaking hands with old time friends.

Hon. Henry Klippel and Francis Fitch, of Medford, were in town during the week.

Hon. W. H. Parker will visit Cottonwood and Redding, Cal., this week on legal business.

Messrs. Taylor and Haymond, county commissioners, were in Jacksonville during the week.

Miss Carrie Beckman entertained a number of the society young people at a pleasant winter party last week.

Miss Mamie Day has taken the place of Mrs. S. E. Ish, at the Ish farm.

Sheriff Binley and G. Kareski, who have both been very sick, are much better, although they are still very weak.

Miss Annie Cameron will leave next week for Lincoln, Nebraska, falling she will make her home with her aunt and attend school there.

James Calvert of Grant's Pass, proprietor of the Idaho stage line, and W. G. Kenney have spent several days at the west week buying horses in this valley.

Mrs. G. W. Albright entertained a large number of Jacksonville ladies at a social gathering at her home at an afternoon tea, and a most enjoyable time was had.

The young ladies of Jacksonville are generally enjoying themselves in the city.

W. L. Miller and George H. Neil are quite a popular feature in the newspapers, but only got in reality as far as Ashland. The attractions in this town are too much for them.

Wm. McDonald was surprised with a visit from about 30 of his schoolmates. He must have anticipated the event, for hearty welcome and hospitality were being in waiting for the guests.

The Presbyterian Sunday School is increasing in attendance and interest; the religious classes are rapidly increasing and the instructions are of rare value to those interested in sacred history.

Chas. J. McCull and his daughter, Miss Lydia, were in Jacksonville Saturday. When the Captain was asked if he had heard the election news he said he had heard from the news.

A staunch old line democrat who heard some of his younger brethren falling over the Oregon news remarked that the "democratic" was in line in time to elect their president in 1892.

Two surprise parties took place in Jacksonville last Saturday night. Twenty of the prominent society ladies of Jacksonville surprised Mrs. J. J. Phillips, publisher of the Weekly, and a traveler for a brewing company of Milwaukee.

A large company of Ashland young people were in Jacksonville for a "Progressive Home" party at the Young Men's Association.

Miss Polly Kareski, who contemplated spending the winter with her sister, Mrs. Magaly, in Portland, returned to Jacksonville on Monday.

There will be a meeting of 15 members of the Oregon Press Association in Portland this week.

Chas. J. McCull and his daughter, Miss Lydia, were in Jacksonville Saturday.

There is on foot a project to establish electric light works in this place.

The building of the railroad to Jacksonville and the prospect of large business enterprises being opened here in the near future.

The interior of Medford's new opera house is now being finished in excellent style.

The weather is hard to beat.

The Infernal machine is looking up.

The old enterprise blacksmith shop is no longer needed as a shop and is being used for a blacksmith.

Mr. Edwards shipped another car load of apples this week.

With such a school board as Messrs. Helms, Klippel and Abbott, and Miss Gentry, will the school be any good?

A petition is being circulated and presented for signature for cutting down timber for the reason that nearly all the improvements in the Rogue valley were made from timber taken from government land.

The land is there yet and timber grows faster than it is being used and spruce, fir and hemlock.

Commissions Court.

The matter of county road petitioned for by L. A. Murphy et al.

The matter of county road petitioned for by L. A. Murphy et al.

The matter of county road petitioned for by L. A. Murphy et al.

The matter of county road petitioned for by L. A. Murphy et al.

The matter of county road petitioned for by L. A. Murphy et al.

The matter of county road petitioned for by L. A. Murphy et al.

The matter of county road petitioned for by L. A. Murphy et al.

The matter of county road petitioned for by L. A. Murphy et al.

The matter of county road petitioned for by L. A. Murphy et al.

The matter of county road petitioned for by L. A. Murphy et al.

The matter of county road petitioned for by L. A. Murphy et al.

HERE AND THERE.

Black corsets at D. R. & E. V. Mills.

Log Cabin Maple Syrup at D. L. Minkler & Son's.

Woodville sent a carload of wool to Ashland and a carload to Medford last week.

Don't forget to go to Hunsaker's for your dress goods.

Brimstone in unlimited quantity is found in and around the crater of Mt. Baker, Wash.

Farm wagons sold on long time by G. C. Eddings.

Recorder Berry began last Monday his annual assessment of property within the city of Ashland.

13 lbs. D. G. Sugar at the Red House, Wash.

Hammor Bros. of Medford, shipped a carload of mixed trees to Nevada last week.

Fruit buyers estimate that there will be at least 5,000 boxes of apples shipped out of the Illinois valley this season.

Mr. T. E. Hills, of Heron Lake, Minnesota, a retired banker, arrived last week and intended purchasing a stock farm in this county.

Mr. J. F. Seyforth, of the Illinois valley, is in the city Monday, reporting that another very rich copper mine had been discovered near Waddy, and considerable work was now being done.

LIST OF LETTERS

Remaining in the Ashland, Oregon, P. O. Nov. 11, 1898.

Mr. J. J. Phillips, publisher of the Weekly, and a traveler for a brewing company of Milwaukee.

A. J. Clark, dispatch of Nov. 9th says: At 4 o'clock this morning an incendiary fire broke out in the city.