Improving the Militia. Washington, Nov. 29.—Capt. Taylor of the ordnance department, in charge of supplies to the militia, in his annual report strongly urges the passage of the pending bill to promote the effi-ciency of the militia. He calls atten-tion to the disparity in the number be-tween the cavalry and infantry militia, and says the cavalry is the most diffi-cult arms to improvise, and some steps should be taken to encourage the for-
