A Day's Fishing in Florida Waters and What It Means to a Northerner Who Has Been Accustomed to Trolling in Florida Ponds and Babbling Brooks. "We ought to turn in early tonight for we must be up by 6 o'clock."

Land Lost by a Treaty.

The wording of the treaty by which Arizona was ceded to the United States by Mexico was such that we would have enjoyed the distinction of having a deep water harbor.

Punishing Idols in China.

A curious case of arrest and punishment of idols took place recently at Foochoo, China. The idols of a certain temple in that city were those appealed to by persons who desired to be revenged on their enemies.

The Line of Retreat.

Edward Atkinson, one of the most radical free traders in the United States, has come to the conclusion that it is too early yet for free trade in this country.

How's This?

We offer One Hundred Dollars reward for any case of Catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure.

The Work about Faded.

It has been known among newspaper men that Frank M. Franks, the brilliant manager of the Oregonian, had some time ago been in the city.

Sheeping the Range.

Ed Tidings.—The ranchers of Applegate, noting in your paper of July 7th a statement concerning the Little Apple gate outrage and the difference between the ranchers and sheep owners over the same, find that said statement is altogether too smooth and favorable to the sheep men to agree with all the facts and with the justice of the case, as we understand it.

ABOUT STATE INSTITUTIONS.

The general hard times and slowness about payment of taxes is causing all the state institutions to languish. A reporter was sent to ask state officials what about work on the several projects for which money was appropriated by the last legislature.

KLAMATH COUNTY.

Woodworth, the most enterprising horse-buyer that visits Klamath county, bought all of Dan Colwell's horses this week, numbering 125 head, at prices averaging $35 per head.
