

Semi-Weekly Tidings

Thursday, October 24, 1895

Trinity Guild Entertainment.

The entertainments to be given by the ladies of Trinity Guild will take place at the opera house on the evenings of Oct. 31st and Nov. 1st. A fine program is being arranged for both evenings, consisting of character songs, solos, recitations and operettas, etc., by the leading talent of the city. Ice cream, cake and other refreshments will also be served at the popular prices. Everybody is cordially invited to come out and enjoy themselves. Admission 10 cts.

Chrysanthemum Show.

The young ladies of the Epworth League of the M. E. church will hold a chrysanthemum show at the Granite hall commencing Thursday evening, Nov. 7th and continuing Friday, Nov. 8th, during the day and evening. Seven prizes will be awarded, including prizes for the greatest variety of chrysanthemums exhibited, the choice of variety and the best arranged display. It is hoped to have a creditable display of 'mums on this occasion and to that end all who can are invited to contribute liberally to the display.

Who Paid the Freight?

Chas. Anderson will not be brought before the charge of assaulting Jas. Stevens, at Central Point, during fair week. Anderson was arrested at Redding, Cal., last week, and held awaiting a requisition from Governor Lord to bring him back to Oregon. Stevens, however, has taken an sudden notion to leave the state himself, shipping his family to Redding, it is said, a day or two ago, where he followed shortly after. District Attorney Benson concluded it would be useless expense to the county to undertake to convict young Anderson without a prosecuting witness, hence he stopped the requisition proceedings and ordered the prisoner released by the California officials and the young scapegrace has again been saved from serious conflict with the law.

The Casualty Record.

S. M. Robinson, the well known talent farmer and dairyman, met with an unlucky accident at Talent Sunday evening. He went about the evening overland to secure a paper and in alighting his ankle turned, spraining it severely and breaking one of the small bones of the right leg three inches above the ankle. Dr. Farson gave him the necessary surgical attention but he will have plenty of time to read that paper before he is able to get aboard the train after another one.

A German named Dischberger.

has been employed by L. Waterman, south of Ashland, in cutting wood, brought his axe down on his left wrist the other day in calculating for a limb he held in his hand. An artery was severed and the blood streamed from it, but he had presence of mind to ligate the arm just above the elbow joint, until Dr. Farson could give the required assistance.

First of the Flyers.

The first train of the new service on the S. P. between San Francisco and Portland reached Ashland Tuesday afternoon at 2:50 from San Francisco, arriving and departing promptly on time. The train consisted of five passenger coaches, three Pullman and one Pullman, and carried 50 or more passengers.

Engineer Case, with No. "1355," hauled the train out of Ashland northward, but T. Ryan in charge as conductor, though it is understood that the veteran conductor, Shas Conner, will have this run between here and Portland regularly. On the south end, on the Ashland-Red Bluff passenger division, four crews are now employed, instead of three, and these handle the new train in connection with the overland.

The new train is scheduled to make no stops north of here except at Glendale and Roseburg.

The work train and a crew of 40 men have been piling up great stacks of engine wood in the yards at Ashland this week, hauling it down from the Siskiyou.

The heavy freight traffic on the railroad southward continues. Yesterday's freight south did not leave Ashland until after the 4:10 p. m. overland train arrived, and it took three big "hog" engines to haul it across the Siskiyou.

Asst. Supt. W. W. McGuire of the S. P. line in Oregon, was in Ashland the first of the week and took passage northward Tuesday afternoon on the new "Shasta Limited" train. In view of the importance of Mr. McGuire's position with the Southern Pacific most people would suppose that he would have access to any or all trains on the road. The Pullman conductor on Tuesday's "flyer," however, was following his instructions very religiously and refused him admission to the sleepers, but he managed to "get out" on the "blind baggage," to use the vernacular of the professional hobo.

A Big Excursion.

Geo. Estes, S. P. agent at Roseburg, was in Ashland Tuesday, advertising a special train excursion which will leave this place Wednesday morning, Oct. 30, for the Portland Exposition. The excursion he is managing under the auspices of the S. P. company and the Exposition jointly. The unusually low rate of $8 for the round trip has been secured and the excursion will go, he says, whether one hundred or one thousand people are secured to join it in this valley. Tickets will be good to return on any train within seven days, and the $8 fare will include two admissions to the Exposition. The train, which is expected to consist of ten coaches, will leave Ashland at 7 a. m. on the 30th, making a daylight run through to Portland. Children under 12 years, half fare. Tickets are now on sale by D. L. Rice, S. P. agent at Ashland, and can only be obtained of the railroad agents at the different points in the valley.

Dr. A. Hinman, the dentist, in Masonic block upstairs, is prepared to do all kinds of dentistry and invites a trial of his work.

BREVITIES.

Dr. Barr, Dentist, I. O. O. F. Building, W. C. T. U. near plaza, Saturday p. m.

Dr. A. Hinman, dentist, upstairs Masonic block.

J. H. Pratt, tailor, at Reed's old stand. A fit guaranteed. Try him.

Underwear for ladies and gentlemen. The best assortment in the city at D. R. & E. V. Mills.

Messrs. O. H. Blount, J. T. Millon and L. L. Merrick returned home Tuesday from Buck Lake, near Chase's, duck shooting.

Lady just from Illinois would like situation in first class family in Ashland. Address Mrs. J. Kneel, in care of Elder David Brower, Talent.

When your subscription to the Weekly Examiner expires and you wish to subscribe again and get your ticket in the great prize drawing, leave your money in town by giving your subscription to Hasty, the local agent.

E. B. White, who has been an inmate of the county hospital for a short time past, was examined in Judge Neil's court by Drs. DeBar and Robinson on the 21st and pronounced insane. He was taken to the asylum by Owen Keegan and his son Chris.

The members of Alpha Chapter, O. E. S., had a pleasant social and feasting time Monday evening, the occasion being the introduction into the mysteries of this branch of the Masonic order, of Ed. P. Tynan, the popular S. P. freight conductor between here and Roseburg.

The Children's Choir lent attractions to the morning services at the Ashland Episcopal church last Sunday, the choir, carefully trained and conducted by Miss Cooper, being composed of a dozen bright young misses of Ashland, who furnished some charming musical numbers.

Messrs. O. Coolidge, W. G. Kropke, J. R. Tozer and F. R. Neil, who are out at Klamath lake enjoying a little sport with their shotguns, sent in a supply of wild geese to a number of their Ashland friends, who have been feasting on roast geese since. The Tynans return thanks for a fat and juicy honker weighing nearly eight pounds. They are in excellent condition at this season of the year.

The Ashland Iron Works, manufactory of the Tutthill water wheels, have just shipped two huge four-foot wheels to Siskiyou county, Cal., and E. C. Payne and W. E. Jacobs went over today to set them up. One of them is to furnish about forty horse power to run the Union flouring mills at Etna and the other is to run the dynamo for an electric light plant that will soon light Fort Jones.

Henry Jackson, one of the wealthy and influential Indians of the Klamath reservation, is in the valley this week with his family, purchasing supplies. Jackson used to visit Ashland often a number of years ago and was known by the sobriquet of "Skeedaddle." He is shrewder than many of his white brethren and has a snug fortune which he handles cautiously, as the valley merchants are finding out.

Crit Tolman is back from a hunting trip with Alex. Ireland off in the mountains between Elk and Evans creeks in the northern part of the county. They captured a cougar and two black bears and incidentally venison enough for camp meat. The cougar was one of the largest ever caught in this section, measuring 10 feet 4 inches from tip to tip, and his demise is welcomed by the stockmen of that section who have been suffering from his depredations.

S. J. Tutthill has resigned his position as electrician for the A. E. P. & L. Co., which he has held since the company was first organized, and will devote his entire time to the business of manufacturing the now celebrated Tutthill water wheels, which, with other work keeps the machine shops and iron works busy nowadays. F. L. Nelson, who has been assistant electrician for a number of years succeeds to the charge of the station and Fred Carter takes an apprenticeship.

Postmaster W. H. Brunk received yesterday a telegram announcing the critical illness of his father, Harrison Brunk, at Eola, near Salem, and this morning another telegram came announcing his death. The deceased was nearly 84 years of age, having been born in April, 1812, and coming to Oregon in 1849, and was widely known throughout the Willamette valley by his long years of residence there. The postmaster leaves on this evening's train to attend the funeral which will take place tomorrow.

The Tidings job department will in a few days receive a splendid new paper cutter to take the place of the one now in use, which has become too small to meet our requirements. That the new machine, which has been ordered for several weeks, it will be possible to make a 30-inch cut, instead of 22 as with the present machine. The Tidings facilities of type and presses enable it to turn out the best job printing on shortest notice and at prices the lowest in the valley. We carry, too, the largest paper and printers' stationery stock in the county.

In the reference in Monday's issue to the organization of the Ashland Music Club which is to be perfected tomorrow evening the statement of the expenses of membership was not clearly set out. It should have been stated that the new membership tickets for performers and those who do not perform have been placed at $1 each. These will be good for all musicals and entertainments given by the organization during the coming season, but are of course not transferable.

All wool cotton blankets for 75 cents. D. R. & E. V. Mills have them.

Sheriff Patterson has a new boarder the past few days in the county jail, one Al. Sanders, who was arrested at Yreka last week by Constable A. C. Parker of Central Point and brought before Justice Jacobs at the latter place to answer a charge of larceny of some jewelry or silverware during fair week. He was bound over to appear before the grand jury with safe, and the defendant in a Yreka last week by Constable A. C.
