Rev. Walters of this place spent a couple of days in Medford visiting with Rev. C. N. Goulder, an old friend.

Hornbrook made no effort to celebrate the Fourth, and yet every one on the streets seemed to be having a fine time. There was a ball game in the morning between Ward and Hornbrook. The score was 19 to 2 in favor of Hornbrook. In the afternoon there was a game between Hornbrook and Hill. The score was 22 to 7 in favor of Hornbrook. There was abundant music by the band during the day. The band stand was decorated in the national colors and the band wore the red, white and blue badges. Hornbrook showed its public spirit by contributing sufficient money to the band to wipe out their old discouraging debt, a fitting deed for the Fourth. The Hornbrook band has ever shown itself to be public spirited. In the evening there were a few races.

Eagle Point Letter.

Editor Tidings: When you were in our town the last of last month and took dinner with me at the Sunnyside, you requested me to drop you a few lines occasionally, and let your readers know something of what is going on in this side of the valley, and as we are on the map and are among the aspirants for the honor of having the new court house built on a tract of land within the corporate limits of our thriving little town, I thought that perhaps it might be of interest to some of your readers to know something of what is going on among us. As many of your readers know, it having been thoroughly advertised, we had a grand celebration here on the Fourth of July, and by that means came in touch with a large number of strangers who never honored us before with their presence. The morning of the Fourth broke in on us as lovely as a morning could, and before the average citizen was awake, some of our enterprising young men had climbed a hill just at the upper end of our town, supplied with a liberal quantity of dynamite, etc., and by the time the chicks and birds began to stir they were making the surrounding hills reverberate with the echoes of their salutes given in honor of the "Glorious Fourth." Soon all was astir and the screech of the whistle of the locomotive was heard, bringing in those of our neighbors who wished to join with us in the festivities of the occasion, while the different conveyances of almost all kinds from the ordinary farm wagon to the bobtailed pony came rushing in, and soon every available place was filled with horses, and the streets, park and hotels were crowded.

About 11 o'clock the Eagle Point-Butte Falls brass band began to play and soon a vast crowd assembled in the park, where we had some fine instrumental and vocal music, then some special singing by a choir of little girls and some recitations by the Carjurons. Rev. Eldridge of Medford was introduced as the orator of the day, and his address was surely a fine one, many pronouncing it the best they ever heard. Then dinner was announced, and although it was announced that "free meals would be served," the hotels were crowded to their utmost capacity. I have not been able to learn the exact number who took dinner at the different hotels, but understand that at the Eagle Point 150 took dinner, at the Sunnyside 225 and at the Tavern I was unable to get an estimate. There were hundreds who brought their lunches with them.

Although this letter is getting a little lengthy, I must mention about the baseball games. The Talent team came up and in the forenoon played against the Eagle Point boys. They had a hotly contested game and the score stood at the close 7 to 5 in favor of Eagle Point, and in the afternoon they played another game. At first it looked as though the second game would close 0 to 0, but finally the Talent boys made one and then the locals made one. Thus they stood for some time, when Eagle Point made another, and then the Talent boys seemed to have lost their grip and soon the Eagle Point boys made two more, and thus it stood to the end of the game, 4 to 1 in favor of Eagle Point. In addition to the ball game they had horse races, foot races, catching the greased pig, etc. No accident occurred and the people were generally quiet and orderly and all seemed to enjoy themselves very much. Notwithstanding the fact that we are cursed with a saloon (bar in the Tavern), there was very little drunkenness. The committee caused to be erected a large platform for the benefit of the dancers, but they didn't seem to take to it as it was so rough, but Spiker's Opera House was packed to its utmost capacity. BROOK TROUT ARE PLANTED.

Creeks and Lakes of Oregon Supplied With Eastern Fish.

Sixty cans of eastern brook trout fry were on Saturday taken to Cazadero by Chief Deputy Craig, of the state game warden's office, where they were distributed among the creeks in that vicinity. Ten cans of trout fry also were taken down the river to be liberated in streams near Scappoose.

The work of distributing these fish is being shared by members of the Multnomah Anglers' Club. Cans of fish are being transported to various points in automobiles belonging to club members.

Another shipment of eastern trout is soon to be taken into the mountains of the Cascade range for liberation in the lakes that are now without fish of any kind. The fish will be carried in cans especially made to be taken on horses, as many of the lakes cannot be reached by wagon.

If you are a housewife you cannot reasonably hope to be healthy or beautiful by washing dishes, sweeping and doing housework all day, and crawling into bed dead tired at night. You must get out into the open air and sunlight. If you do this every day and keep your stomach and bowels in good order by taking Chamberlain's Tablets when needed, you should become both healthy and beautiful. For sale by Poley's Drug Store.
