

In the Social Realm

DEPARTMENT EDITORS: Miss Maud Hawley, Miss Vivian Greer.

Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Smith entertained guests at dinner Wednesday evening.

Mrs. E. N. Smith was a dinner guest of Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Reynolds Monday.

Rev. and Mrs. W. A. Schwimley and sons Max, Leslie and Don were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Patty Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray H. Hawley and Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Hedges were guests at a picnic supper at the V. V. Hawley home on Walker avenue, Tuesday evening.

Misses Dorothy Musser, Lena Smith, Dorothy Lennart, Ella Dews and Ruth Hadley took well-filled lunch baskets and spent the day picnicking at Colectin, Sunday. Charles Tryer and Miss Ruth Morris of Talent chaperoned the party.

Another picnic crowd who enjoyed the day at Colectin, Sunday, was composed of Mrs. George F. McConnell of Long Beach, Cal.; Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Gillette, Mr. and Mrs. George Gillette, Mrs. Hugh Gillette and Mrs. Tolbert Sanford.

Miss Amy Stannard was hostess to the Fleur de Lis Club at her home on Liberty street Saturday afternoon, the following members being present: Misses Thelma Throne, Edith Lowrey, Calla Beigel, Minnie Beaver, Nellie Beaver, Rose Thomas and Bessie Carpenter.

A girls' class from the Presbyterian Sunday school at Medford, chaperoned by their teacher and two other ladies, came to Ashland Tuesday morning and spent the day in Chautauqua Park. The stormy appearance of the sky drove them to shelter early in the afternoon, but not before the lassies had had a jolly good time on the banks of the creek.

A camping party headed by C. S. Johnson and wife, consisting of the following persons, Mrs. J. B. Ware and son Richard, Otto Klum, Miss Nell Pervis, Glenn Johnson, Allen Bergstrom, Mr. and Mrs. George A. Briscoe, Lance Briscoe and Miss Cordelia Smith, set out for Johnson's Paradise Monday evening. The party expects to remain till early in August. Their hope is to see all there is in the Dead Indian, Fish Lake and Jennie Creek country.

Mrs. Ottilla Caldwell was again honored Friday evening when Mrs. Elizabeth Van Sant entertained at a most enjoyable 5 o'clock dinner in compliment to her, only relatives and a few near friends being invited. The evening was spent in talking over old times and in listening to some excellent music. The dinner guests were Rev. and Mrs. Chisholm, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McNeil, Messdames Atkinson, George McConnell, Ottilla Caldwell, Mary Dunn, Louella Schaumlöffel and O. Winter; Misses Mabel and Nellie Russell.

A crowd of young folks expect to meet at Lane's tonight to discuss a trip to Mt. Ashland the latter part of the week. Those who expect to go are: Misses Olive Thorn, Claire Johnson, Esther Whitel, Marlon Hodgson, Margaret Seimental, Margaret Patterson, Ruth Turner, Josephine Saunders, Lucile Barber, Vivian Greer; Messrs. James K. McWilliams, Wilfred Carr, Jan Mowat, John Enders, Harold Huntley, R. L. Burdick, Lynn Mowat, Edmund Dows, Wilbur Holmes, Owen Douglas, Paul Williams, Verne Blue, Cedric Myers; Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Saviers and Mrs. Siemental.

Driven out of the park by the rain storm of Friday afternoon, the few members of the Loyal Daughters' class of the Christian Sunday school who had not been frightened by the afternoon's stormy appearance carried their picnic baskets over to the spacious porch of Mrs. M. L. Stanley, on First avenue, just above the park, and enjoyed the remainder of the afternoon under shelter. Plans were made for a two days' outing in August, each girl being enthusiastic over the prospect. Those present were Miss Hawley, teacher; Misses Grace Kenyon, Helen Conner, Eva Lindsey, Bessie Chapman and Roberta Leonard.

A family dinner party which was one of the pleasures of the week to those who were present, was held at the Russeu home on North Main street Tuesday at 1 o'clock, with Mrs. A. H. Russell and Misses Nellie and Mabel Russell as hostesses. The honor guests were Mrs. Carl Nims, who left last week for her new home in Stockton, Cal., and Mrs. Ottilla Caldwell, Mrs. McConnell, Mrs. Schaumlöffel and Miss Lisie Fountain, all of whom have spent some time in this city as guests of Ashland relatives. Other guests were Mrs. Elizabeth Van Sant, Mrs. Margaret Dean, Mrs. O. Winter and son Paul, Mrs. Mary Dunn, and Jack Nims and Elizabeth Schaumlöffel.

A number of young ladies belonging to a Sunday school class of the Congregational church taught by Miss Porter returned Saturday from a two weeks' outing near Steinman. They had such a jolly time that they declare nothing but the empty appearance of the larder could have induced them to break camp so soon. A trip to the top of Steinman's Peak occupied one of the days. Another day was devoted to a "hiking" trip to Siskiyou, where the campers visited the school taught by Miss Mae Beaver of this place, all returning to Steinman that evening on Mr. Hunter's engine. The party was composed of the following: Misses Madeline Silver, Laura Silver, Kathleen Silver, Bessie Crowson, Romona Harrell, Stella Peterson, Helen Dickerson, Helen Cunningham, Ruth Brown and Marguerite Brown. The young ladies were chaperoned by Misses Porter and Kirkpatrick.

One of the most delightful affairs of the week was the lawn party given at the Blalock home on B street Thursday afternoon by Mrs. W. W. Blalock and Mrs. Elizabeth Van Sant, in honor of Mrs. Ottilla Caldwell of Los Angeles and Mrs. Belle Hosler of Madera, Cal. Most of the invited guests were schoolmates in the old Ashland academy many years ago, and many long-forgotten events of that happy time were recalled as the afternoon advanced. Old-time games such as they enjoyed in school-girl days were played during the afternoon, the old favorite, "Consequences," causing much merriment when the names of the old school friends were used in it. Light refreshments were served late in the afternoon, the hostesses being assisted in serving by Mrs. William Schaumlöffel and Misses Lydia and Belle Hosler. Those attending were Messdames Alice Butler, Mabel Kinney, Bertha Winter, Nora Walrad, Belle Parson, Ella Garrett, Laura Willie, Anna Wagner, Ottilla Caldwell, Belle Hosler, Carrie McConnell, Anna Walder, Laura Edwards, Ella Nickolson, Belle Songer, Susie Allen, Sarah Fox, Ella Helman, Jane Porter, Lena Phillip, Frances Billings, Ida Veghte, Mary Carter, Gusta Neill, Lizzie Gillette, Sarah Patterson, Carrie Hargadine and Louella Schaumlöffel; Misses Nellie Russell, Lydia McCall and Cordelia Smith.

Miss Abbott is well known in Ashland, having received her early education in the schools of this city. She is also a graduate of a California normal school, and has been teaching in the vicinity of Jacksonville, where she first became acquainted with Mr. Arm-priest.

GIRL WALKS 2,000 MILES.
Nebraska School Teacher Bound for San Francisco.

Ogden, Utah.—Nearly a month ago Miss Della Anthes, a winsome school teacher of Sutton, Neb., walked out of her home in that town, strolled down the street and on out into the country. Thursday she arrived in Ogden, still "strolling," having walked 901 miles in 27 days, an average of 33 miles each day. Friday Miss Anthes walked out of Ogden, en route to San Francisco, 1,000 miles to the westward.

Miss Anthes is not in any sense of the word a "lady tramp." She is simply a young school teacher of good education and refined manners. She enjoys walking and determined to spend her summer's vacation in a "hike" from Sutton to the Pacific coast. When school opens in September she will be found at her desk in the Sutton high school.

In the 27 days she has been on the road Miss Anthes has walked every step of the 901 miles between Sutton and Ogden. Not for a single foot of the way has she accepted a "lift" of any kind, although all sorts of chances to ride have been offered her.

"I'm out for a walk, not a ride," has been her answer when invited to "climb in" by some rancher going in her direction. Or, when some well-meaning hobo tells her of a soft berth in a side-door Pullman, the young woman smiles and thanks him with a shake of her head.

Miss Anthes traveling outfit is unique. It consists of an automatic pistol and a toothbrush. She takes just enough money along with her to pay her "walking" expenses. However, she has letters of credit which she can use in an emergency. Her extra clothing she sends on ahead by express and catches up with the trunk every few days.

CANADA USES POWER.

Generating Plants at Niagara Falls Being Enlarged.

Niagara Falls, N. Y.—Recent enlargements of the generating plants of the hydro-electric power companies on the Canadian side of Niagara Falls call attention to the rapidly growing demand in the province of Ontario for this modern form of energy, and are leading to apprehension as to the effect of this expansion upon industry on the American side of the border. Six years ago less than 3,000 horsepower from Niagara Falls was sold in Canada. Now sales amount to about 100,000 horsepower, while one of the three companies in the field announces that by 1913 it will have ready two additional generating units of 13,000 horsepower each to meet the increasing demands of its Canadian business.

There is a limit to this growth. It is found in the recently negotiated treaty for protecting the scenic beauty of the falls, by which Canada is restricted to a maximum of 36,000 cubic feet of water a second, and the United States to 20,000 cubic feet a second—in all only a small fraction of the total flow. The United States is already using all but 4,000 cubic feet of her allowance, Canada about half of hers.

The United States would be using her full amount but for the fact that the treaty is not yet fully operative in this country. By an old law, running until March 4, 1913, industries on the American side of the falls are limited to 15,600 cubic feet of water a second, while importation of electrical current from Canada is restricted to 160,000 horsepower. The latter provision, intended to safeguard the Horseshoe falls, was devised at a time when the Canadian government afforded the cataract no protection. Under the treaty the protection is ample and permanent, and when the treaty becomes operative the restriction will be removed.

What is worrying business men of western New York is that while they wait for the treaty to give them 4,400 cubic feet additional water and to remove the limit on importation of power, new industries are passing them by and locating in Canada. This means not only loss of the industries themselves, but the absorption of Canada's limited quota of hydro-electric energy, so that when unrestricted importation of power is finally permitted, Canada may be using all the treaty permits her to develop, and there may be none left to import into the United States.

RUBBER ATROCITIES HORRIBLE.

Peru Conditions Said to Surpass Those of Congo.

London.—The atrocities committed in the Putumayo rubber district in Peru, which universally have been characterized here as surpassing in horror any charged to the rubber collectors of the Congo, apparently will be kept in the limelight unless something is done to punish the perpetrators and to bring about the assurance that there will be no repetition.

Questions were launched at the British foreign office in the house of commons and from the replies it was apparent the foreign office expects to take a subordinate place to the state department at Washington in bringing Peru to book.

"It is clear, I think," said Francis D. Acland, parliamentary secretary for foreign affairs, "that the United States has a better opportunity of getting things done than any other government interested."

Acland also referred to the question raised by the United States government as to whether Peru is a suitable state to have control of a district like the Putumayo, or whether that government should not be forcibly dispossessed of it; and he promised that "his majesty's government will do everything it possibly can to help any action the United States may take."

Acland said the rubber company was now in liquidation, but that the government would be delighted if any of its directors could be made amenable to English law.

HANGS FEET OUT WINDOW.

Cottage Grove Man Suffers Injury to Members.

Cottage Grove, Ore.—Riding with his feet out of the window of the car on which he was a passenger, William Landess was the victim of a peculiar accident when his feet collided with some object beside the track, presumably a post of some kind. The accident occurred while Landess was returning from Portland, where he attended the Elks' convention. As the train pulled into Salem some object beside the track, a post or possibly a truck of trunks, caught his feet, jamming them against the framework of the car, inflicting painful injuries. At first he thought one leg was broken, but later developments proved that such was not the case. He had to be carried from the train to his home, but is able to get around on crutches.
