When found by searchers the men were 12 miles from their camp on the Lake of the Woods, at the foot of Mount Pitt. The two men tell a harrowing tale of their adventures in a strange wood. Looking for deer, they had wandered about until they had lost all idea of the location of their camp. As night fell a fierce thunder and electrical storm burst over their heads. They sought shelter among the trees as best they could, expecting to find their way back to camp later. This they tried to do, only to get deeper into the jungle. Dr. Lyman located what he thought was Lake of the Woods off in the distance. The two men made their way to the body of water, only to discover it was a strange lake.

BOULEVARD IS PROPOSED.
Marshfield Residents Plan Drive From City to Ocean.
Marshfield, Ore.—The building of a boulevard from Marshfield to the sea is a plan which is being advocated by Mayor E. E. Straw of Marshfield and which will likely be carried out by the city, the chamber of commerce and other interests. The plan is to have a boulevard 200 feet wide from the city to what is known as Rocky Point in the lower bay opposite the bar. By taking the route which has been selected, the drive will be several miles in length and will go through a part of the country not reached by road.

WANT OPEN TOWN.
Astoria Citizens Petition for Reopening of Restricted Districts.
Astoria, Ore.—A petition signed by 900 residents of this city was presented to the council at the meeting Monday night, asking for the reopening of the restricted district in the interest of business. The petition was filed and the majority of the councilmen expressed themselves in no uncertain terms, opposed to the reopening of the district. Two ordinances were introduced providing for the regulation of the district and the prohibition of any means of communication between places where liquor is sold and apartments occupied by women, but both were laid over.

WANTS OPIUM TAXED.
Customs Officer Sees Only Method to Prevent Smuggling.
San Francisco.—"If opium were taxed $5 per pound, smuggling would cease and the government would obtain a large revenue," said United States Customs Surveyor Duncan E. McKinley recently in discussing the matter. "It is impossible under present conditions to prevent the smuggling of opium at this port. It would require about 100 men to guard properly one of those big China steamers."

RATES INCREASED.
Southeastern Alaska Sees Advance in Freight Schedule.
Seattle.—A general increase in freight rates to southeastern Alaska ranging from $1 to $3 a ton and covering all commodities, was announced this week by officials of the Alaska Steamship Company and the Northland Steamship Company. Officials of the Humboldt Steamship Company said they did not contemplate an advance and the course to be pursued by the Alaska Coast Company was not announced. C. J. Jones, general traffic manager of the Alaska Steamship Company, explaining the advance, said: "Three years ago the southeastern Alaska lines engaged in a rate war during which the rates on all commodities were given important reductions. Part of this cut is now restored. The new tariffs are not as high as those in effect before the rate war."

MUST CLEAN UP.
Governor West Denounces Hunting-ton and Its Mayor.
Salem, Ore.—Scathingly denouncing Mayor Charles A. Norther of Huntington, for failure to enforce the law of that city against blind pigs, gambling and disreputable houses, Governor West declared that he would demand that the mayor assent to the resignation of W. J. Wood, the police judge, and that he is also considering the advisability of having Norther resign as mayor. He declared further that he would use his influence to see to it that Norther was deprived of his position as cashier of the Huntington Bank.
"A man who will take the oath of office to enforce the laws and then fails to do so is hardly the man who will comply with the banking laws," declared the governor. A man who will stand by and permit tin horns and saloon bums to rob parents of their children does not appear to me to be the proper person with whom these same families should intrust their savings. I, as a member of the banking commission, propose to see that no bank is operated by a public official giving protection to crooks, either by the failure to enforce the law or otherwise. The way Huntington has been run is a stench in the nostrils of all decent people. Everybody, honest enough, admits this. While conditions are somewhat improved, they are still bad enough to warrant radical action by this office, unless the officials show a different spirit than they have in the past."
