

The Power of Money

is exemplified every day. The chance to make a good real estate buy—the chance to get into business—the chance to furnish a partner's capital—but you can't avail yourself of any of the opportunities because you haven't saved up any money.

Begin to save TODAY!

GRANITE CITY SAVINGS BANK

Ashland, Oregon

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Cliff Payne makes tabourettes. Cash Walker is in from the sheep country for a short visit.

W. A. Patrick, who has been spending the past three months at Newport, returned home last evening.

Ashland-Klamath Exchange will buy all your empty sacks. E. F. Rockfellow of Sisson was an Ashland visitor Tuesday.

Mr. G. W. Trefren left yesterday for Empire Creek, Cal., to look after mining interests in that section for himself and clients.

Mr. W. G. VanNess of Beatrice, Neb., is visiting at the home of W. S. Ball.

Berlin, the ladies' tailor, will be in Ashland September 11 and 12. Every lady who wishes to have beautiful hand-made suits by expert men tailors should call at the Hotel Oregon, September 11 and 12.

Walter Phillips and Herbert Poor left this morning for the Dead Indian country for a week's hunting trip.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Gillis left Tuesday evening for Dodge Center, Minn., where they will spend several weeks among relatives and old friends.

Mrs. L. E. England is at Portland visiting her daughter. Later she will join Mr. England at Eugene, where they will spend the winter.

Six cars of spring lambs were shipped by the Barron brothers, east of town, the first of the week, consigned to the Union Meat Company, Portland. The animals averaged about 75 pounds and brought $3.55 per head.

J. M. Gregory and wife of Parsons, Kan., stopped over here Tuesday night en route south and were so impressed with Ashland they vowed to return soon for a longer visit.

An invitation dance, the first of the season, will be given tonight by the Elks. A large crowd is anticipated.

L. D. Benninghoff and Miss Elizabeth Netherland of Medford were guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Netherland at the Hotel Ashland the first of the week.

O. Wunderlic, wife and daughter of Indianapolis are here enjoying the beauties of the Rogue river valley.

The Natatorium swimming pool is fine these days. Near the heart of town.

E. J. Farlow and family leave Saturday for Santa Cruz, Cal., where they will spend the winter in the hope of benefiting Mrs. Farlow's health.

Dr. and Mrs. F. G. Swedenburg were at Grants Pass yesterday.

SPIRELLA CORSETS.—Boned with the most flexible and indestructible corset boning, guaranteed not to break in regular corset wear. Phone 263-R. Residence, 369 Hargadine.

AMERICAN BANKERS ASSOCIATION TRAVELERS' CHEQUES

The Citizens Banking and Trust Co.

issues "A. B. A." Cheques and recommends them to tourists. The safest and most convenient travel funds.

Hotels all over the world are glad to cash them for guests. Railways, steamship lines, and the best shops generally, accept them.

Madame Dilhan has on display a splendid line of fall and winter millinery. Best quality at lowest price.

Mr. H. C. Stock returned from a business trip to Eagle Point Tuesday.

William DePeatt, who has been visiting his mother, Mrs. A. DePeatt, returned to Vancouver, B. C., where he is engaged in the jewelry business.

James Archibald, a former Ashland young man, was painfully injured at Philomath Tuesday, an axe in the hands of a companion slipping and striking him in the mouth. His face was badly cut, two teeth were broken out and a deep wound was made in his right shoulder.

Cliff Payne can save you about 40 per cent on your fire insurance. If Earl Walker and wife have returned to Bly after a visit with Ashland friends. They were accompanied by Butler Walker, who will spend a week at Bly.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Parker of Bly are visiting in Ashland.

Mr. C. D. Brown of Chicago, formerly a resident of Iowa, is on a visit to the coast and stopped off at Ashland Tuesday. Through the courtesies of Mr. C. B. Lamkin he was shown about town. Mr. Brown expressed himself as much pleased with our showing of fruit products and natural resources of this section.

Miss Jessie Ashby of Portland spent a few days of this week in this city as a guest of her cousin, Mrs. W. H. Wallis, and her sister, Mrs. DeCarlow, of Shake. Miss Ashby was on her way to her school near Klamath Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Beach leave today for Los Angeles to attend the National G. A. R. Encampment. They will remain a month or more to visit friends in southern California.

The full line of Polytechnic School books and supplies are carried at the East Side Pharmacy.

Everybody's doin' it—leaving their orders for fall suits and overcoats at Orres Tailoring and Cleaning Shop.

Mr. W. B. Johnson of Wilderville is in the city and will place his son in the East Side school for the winter.

Miss Martha Gilchrist, one of the high school teachers, who has been spending her vacation with friends and relatives in Minnesota, arrived in Ashland this afternoon to take up her work in the high school.

Miss Ila Myers, who has been attending school at Berkeley, Cal., arrived home a few days ago, feeling repaid for her summer's work, and better able to take up her work again as teacher in the Ashland schools.

Mr. W. H. Sullivan, who has been in Washington for some months, returned to Ashland last week.

A. E. Powell is overhauling his cider mill in anticipation of a heavy season's run. Many apples in orchards up the valley will be unmarketable because of the hailstorm last summer, and these will mostly be turned into cider.

Willis K. Folks and wife of Linnwood, Kan., are on a tour of the coast looking for a location and stopped off at Ashland for a few days this week. Mr. Folks has been engaged in banking business and desires to take up that business somewhere on the coast.

Mr. F. E. Watson left for North Yakima on Tuesday.

When you have shoes to repair take them to the Ashland Electric Shop, 343 East Main street. Lyman & Sons, proprietors. The best of work. Try them.

Mr. Monroe and son of Cottage Grove are visiting the Hale family near the new high school.

Rex Stratton, one of the well-known Ashland boys, arrived on No. 13 Tuesday for a short visit with his mother and brothers, but was disappointed at learning that they were all in the mountains, even his dog being away from home. Rex returns to his work in Marshfield in a few days.

Leith Abbott, son of Arthur Abbott, left on No. 15 for Dunsmuir, Cal., to visit his aunt, Mrs. A. R. Mount, a few days before taking up his school work.

One hundred and twenty-nine jolly boys of the navy passed through Ashland on their way from Mare Island to Seattle, this week. They amused themselves, as well as the spectators, by putting chunks of ice down each other's necks, causing many a hearty laugh.

Carroll M. Wagner has returned to Eugene, where he will resume his studies at the university.

A hunting party consisting of E. J. Mahan and J. McClellan have returned from a trip near Red Mountain. The party were out about ten days and secured eight fine bucks and saw a number of bear signs. They expect to return when they are able to secure a bear dog. Their camp was located near a large snowbank and they refrigerated their game and had an abundance of fine eating.

All of the popular shades in the new Rousard kid gloves at $1.00 and $1.50. Minkler's Cloak and Suit House.

H. E. Barney of Everett, Wash., arrived in Ashland the first of the week to visit his daughter and son-in-law, Mrs. S. C. and Chief Oien.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Bagley, daughter, Doris, and Elmer, Jr., are spending the present week at their Meadow Brook ranch at Rogue River.

The busiest spot in town these days is at the Orres Tailoring and Cleaning Shop. Go early or late to avoid the rush.

Melvin Abbott is assisting at the Orres Tailoring and Cleaning Shop, during the absence of Walter Phillips.

Miss Mabel Van Nice left Saturday for California, where she will teach school.

Complete assortment of the new fall weights in Gordon hosiery and Forest Mills underwear at Minkler's Cloak and Suit House.

GET YOUR SCHOOL SUPPLIES

POLEY'S

Sold as cheap as anywhere

We give FREE with every purchase a genuine Hardwood 5c Ruler

Poley's Drug Store

Mrs. C. E. Pratt and children of Weed, Cal., arrived today for a short visit with Ashland relatives. She expects to leave her two oldest daughters, Frances and Katherine, with her mother on Factory street, that they may attend the Ashland schools during the coming year.

Miss Rose York has been entertaining friends from Josephine county this week.

Howard Fox visited in Ashland Sunday with his brother James, who is a student at the Polytechnic school.

Miss Louise Fraley of Medford was a guest of her aunt, Mrs. C. W. Fraley, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark True enjoyed an auto trip to Central Point Sunday, going in Harry Pelett's car. While there, Mr. Pelett found a purchaser for the machine in the person of Mrs. True's father.

G. T. Salsbury and son Ralph returned Thursday from a month's outing in the Umpqua river country. They report the killing of two fine deer. Mrs. Salsbury and Miss Blanche Salsbury, who spent two weeks in the Umpqua country, returned with them.

Miss Mildred Drake, who has been spending the summer with her father at Woodburn, returned to Ashland Wednesday to resume her studies. She will stay with her grandmother, Mrs. Owens.

Floyd Fraley returned to San Bernardino Sunday to resume his work as manual training teacher in the city schools at that place. He was accompanied by his brother, Milton Fraley.

Mr. A. B. Scofield brought down a basket of 20-ounce pippins and Gloria Munds from his ranch on North Main street, Tuesday, which will and ought to go in the fair exhibit. The apples run from 17 to 20 ounces, are perfect in form and color and present a fair illustration of what Ashland soil and climate will do in the production of fruit.

W. P. Barbee, until recently employed in the Ashland Record office at this place, lies seriously ill with malarial fever at his home in Medford. At last report his condition was slightly improved. Mrs. Barbee, who met with an accident a short time ago which resulted in badly burned arms, is recovering rapidly.

Mr. C. H. Lathrop of Berkeley, Cal., who for some time has spent a portion of each year in Ashland, arrived in town Sunday. Since leaving Ashland some months ago, Mr. Lathrop has been an extensive traveler, having gone as far as the Hawaiian Islands on the west and Portland, Maine, on the east. Among other points visited were New York city, Asbury Park, Atlantic City, Boston, Bridgeport, Conn., the Berkshire Hills in Massachusetts. Mr. Lathrop is still attracted by the beauties of Ashland.

Tonight!

DREAM DRIVEN GIANTS OF STEEL THE FIGHT AT THE MILL THE NEW POLICEMAN (Comic)

Friday & Saturday

THE LONESOME TRAIL ONE AND ONE BLOOD STAINS MIGHTY HUNTER

DREAMLAND THEATRE

Meet me in Dreamland and see the latest

PHOTO-PLAYS Always in the Lead.

Nothing but Big, Bright, Feature Photo-Plays.

New Term Opens September 2nd, 1912
Ashland Normal and Business College
CORNER BOULEVARD AND MAIN STREET, ASHLAND

Offers a thorough and practical course in all Commercial and Stenographic training. Offers a thorough Normal course for those who desire to prepare for teaching in public or private schools.

Come to Ashland
—And attend a school that trains for success.
—And attend a school that teaches the practical things of life.
—And attend a school that turns out bread-winners and gives independence.
—And attend a school that gives an education that

Leads Straight to Business and Success
No matter whether you are a millionaire or at the other end of the financial thermometer, you need a business education.

Ashland Normal and Business College
Phone 474, Ashland, Oregon.
W. E. Gibson, President. H. C. Ingram, Vice-Pres. W. T. VanScoy, Principal.

J. E. Gowland made a business trip to Hilt on Monday.
Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Poley have returned from a vacation of two weeks at Bandon, Ore.

James D. White left on Tuesday for San Diego, Cal., where he will be employed by the local gas company.

Miss May Benedict spent last week in the country as a guest of her sister, Mrs. W. A. Cooper.

Paul Bahtell, who is in the employ of the electric light company of Klamath Falls, spent Sunday in Ashland.

Mrs. T. M. Lynch and Mrs. G. A. Culy, went to Portland Tuesday, combining business and pleasure on the same trip.

F. Butts, who is building a splendid bungalow on his place on Mountain avenue, has it well under way. When completed it will be one of the best bungalows in the city.

Mrs. Pearl Storm and son, from San Francisco, Cal., are visiting at the home of her uncle, Mr. Bagley, on Beach street.

E. R. Smith of Postville, Iowa, who has been visiting his brother, E. R. Smith, says Ashland is just about O. K. and the best climate on earth.

R. L. Brown and wife returned Wednesday from a ten days' trip to Eugene, Portland, Newport and other points in the north.

M. A. Darland, representing the Columbia River Milling Company, spent the week-end in Ashland as a guest in the J. R. Burnette home on Baum street.

Young Business Man Springs Surprise.

G. H. Billings, generally known as Homer, left Ashland a few days ago for Seattle, St. Paul and other eastern points, presumably on his summer vacation. A telegram just received explains the reason for the trip. It announces his marriage to Miss Ellen Conroy at Leon, Iowa, Tuesday morning.

Mr. Billings is one of the best known young business men in this city, having been connected with the Billings Agency for the past six years. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Billings of this place. Mr. Billings is an active member of the Methodist church, and has been prominently identified with all the young people's organizations of that church. He is a graduate of the Ashland high school, and also of the University of Oregon, graduating from the latter school in 1906.

The bride graduated from Simpson College, Iowa, in 1907. She taught in the Ashland high school in 1909 and 1910, and left here to accept a better position in the Klamath county high school, which position she has held for the past two years. She was very popular during her stay in Ashland, and her friends in this city will be glad to know that she is to become a permanent resident.
The newly married couple are now en route for Oregon, and will arrive in Ashland during the coming week. For the present they will be at home in the Tweed residence, just south of the Billings homestead.

CHURCH NOTICES.

Presbyterian church, corner North Main and Helman streets. H. T. Chisholm, pastor.—Public worship at 11 a. m. and 8 p. m.; Sunday school at 9:45 a. m.; Men's Bible class at 12 m.; Junior C. E. at 4 p. m.; Y. P. S. C. E. at 7 p. m. Thursday prayer meeting at 8 p. m. Morning subject, "School Problems." All are cordially invited.

Congregational church.—Subject for the next Sunday morning sermon, "The Child Life, and the Law of Habit." For the evening sermon, the same as last Sunday, "The Buried Hatchet." Miss Hilty will sing. A trio of violin, flute and piano will be one of the musical numbers. Everybody invited. W. A. Schimley, pastor.

Get your school books and supplies at the East Side Pharmacy.

Star Laundry and French Dry Cleaning Company. Phone 64.

The Tidings is for sale at W. M. Poley's Drug Store, 17 East Main St.

MISS THORNE Graduate Nurse
64 THIRD STREET
PHONE 309-J.

Ashland Restaurant
BEST MEAL IN TOWN
25 Cents
86 NORTH MAIN.

Do you need Drainage or Irrigating Tile?
Increase the yield of your land 25 to 50 per cent.
WRITE US FOR INFORMATION
Jacksonville Brick and Tile Co.
JACKSONVILLE, OREGON

Where To Buy
You can buy American Boy Stockings at 15c a pair. It's the stocking for school.
You can buy Rulers, Erasers and Pencils at 1c each.
You can buy good Writing Tablets and Composition Books for 5c.
You can buy good Pencils 3 for a nickel.
You can buy Lunch Boxes for 10c.
You can buy good Hair Ribbon for 10c and 15c.
You can buy Men's Sox for 10c and 15c a pair.
You can buy Men's Neckties for 25c.
You can buy a big 50c bottle of Peroxide for 25c.
You can buy a two-bit bottle Peroxide for 10c.
You can buy Red Hand Candy for 15c pound.
You can buy something else for 5, 10, 15 and 25c.
AT KOHAGEN'S
5c, 10c, 15c and 25c Store
"He who gives most gets most."

Buy Good Land Today
Real Estate bought right and tended properly will give you something to bank on in the future.
We have something that will interest you.
FOR INSTANCE, LET US SHOW YOU
17 acres of high-class orchard land, partly in bearing; fair house and barn; lies well and good subirrigation; a place that grows on you; all you need is to see it. $4,500.
14 acres two miles from town; half in alfalfa (3 crops), rest in orchard, partly bearing; fair house and good barn; location that can't be beaten. $7,000.
Good city properties at right prices, also.
Billings Agency
Phone 211-J. 41 East Main.
ALL KINDS OF GOOD INSURANCE.

Only Two Left
We wish to call the attention of prospective buyers to the fact that we have only TWO FORD CARS LEFT in stock and will be unable to secure any more until October. Phone your order now for a
FORD TWENTY, $820
Pellett's Garage