EPWORTHIANS RALLY.

Leaguers Hold Enthusiastic Annual Rally at Methodist Church.

(Deferred from last week.)

The Epworth League meeting Sunday evening at the Methodist church was right in line with their reputation of being the best young people's society in the state. There were 127 members and visitors in attendance, filling both the league and green rooms to overflowing. Most everybody was given a small souvenir bouquet of flowers tied with ribbons of red and white, the league colors.

The meeting was led by the president, E. O. Smith, the main feature being talks on league work by the various vice-presidents and their chief assistants, who are as follows: First, O. H. Barnhill, Mary Young; second, J. B. Hunter, Jean Anderson; third, Mrs. J. A. Lemery, Lulu Smith; fourth, Grace Barney, Clayton Borror; fifth, Irene Skeen, Alvin Wheeler. Other league officers are: Secretary, Kathryn Miller; assistant secretary, Emily Wells; treasurer, Clinton Wright; chorister, Edith Merrill; accompanist, Edith Lowry.

The special music consisted of a duet by Mary Young and Edgar Wolcott; quartet, Eunice and Wilma Charter, Irene Skeen and Amy Stannard; piano solo, Edna Dougherty. Violin music was furnished by Nellie Beaver and Marian Hodgson.

The first department has charge of the spiritual work, which consists principally of holding Sunday evening devotional meetings. The attendance during the summer has averaged over 50, which is more than usual, and will be largely increased during the summer months. A personal workers' class rendered valuable service during the early part of the summer. A prayer circle meets 15 minutes before the Sunday evening meetings. Bible study classes are to be organized September 15. About one-third of the members are enrolled as comrades of the morning watch. Leaders' meetings are held occasionally. The entire membership of the league is divided into committees, which are supposed to meet once a month.

The second department looks after the missionary work and systematic giving. The league supports a native preacher in China and is planning to educate a native Christian in India and aid in missionary work in the United States. This in addition to contributing $50 a year to the church board of missions.

The third department directs the mercy and help activities of the league, visiting the sick and aged, strangers and those in distress, or others needing help of any kind. Flowers, reading matter and other material things are furnished. About 50 calls a month are reported by this department.

The fourth department arranges for a social every month or so and takes subscriptions for the Epworth Herald. The Ashland leaguers are noted for their friendliness and sociability, and the fourth virtues' work is always popular.

The fifth department is a special one created by the Ashland league for the purpose of obtaining new members and making them welcome at the league meetings. Much of the credit for keeping up the membership is due to the efforts of this committee.

The district president, J. O. Rigg, spoke about the coming convention, which meets here next May.

A letter has been received from the general secretary commending the work of the Ashland league.

Business meetings are held the first Tuesday of each month. The present membership of Chapter 6043 is between 75 and 100. The annual dues are $1. There are two mottoes, "Look Up, Lift Up," and the words of John Wesley, "I desire a league offensive and defensive with every soldier of Jesus Christ." The league takes its name from Wesley's birthplace, Epworth, England.

Pink Salmon Crop Entire Failure.
Seattle.—The humpback or pink salmon, which supplies the cheaper priced cans sold in the eastern and southern states, failed to appear abundantly in Puget Sound this year, and the humpback pack was only 1,000 cases, as against more than 1,000,000 last year. In southwestern Alaska, also, the late humpback run did not occur, and the cannerymen have given up hope. The pink pack of southeastern Alaska is 200,000 cases short.

There is always irregularity in the movements of the humpback hordes, but no such crop failure as this year's has ever been known before. A fish authority says there will be no cheap canned salmon in the stores this year. At times this fish has retailed as low as 10 cents a can.

Meat Prices to Drop Soon.
Omaha, Neb.—The prices of fresh meats are due to take a tumble, says President Cudahy of the Cudahy Packing Company. Cudahy in a statement said:

"Cheaper meats will come, and come soon, especially cheaper beef. The season of grass-fed cattle has arrived, and the heavy run of medium-grade cattle will force prices down. Pork also will drop, but not until about January, when there will be a drop of about 10 per cent. By next summer pork will have dropped one-third.

"This is all due to the tremendous crops now being harvested in the west. With so much corn and feed of every kind meat prices are bound to go down."

The Coos Bay Times states that Mayor Kinney, a townsite promoter of Marshfield, says that he will wager $10,000 of Coos Bay property that the train of another transcontinental railroad will run into Coos Bay before the Southern Pacific operates a train there.

Place for sale? House for rent? Want anything? A few lines in the Tidings' want columns will do the business.

Resolutions.

At a meeting of the vestry of Trinity church held at the rectory on the 5th of August, the rector and Mr. F. E. Watson were instructed to prepare a fitting memorial of Mr. Edward H. Gould, copies of which were to be sent to his sister, Mrs. Bingham, and to the local papers. In accordance with the above instructions the following has been prepared:

Whereas, at the ripe age of 75 years, Edward H. Gould was delivered from the burden of the flesh and taken home to God. The officials and members of Trinity church recognize that in the death of Mr. Gould, a devout Christian and loyal churchman has been taken from them. And while the church has lost a faithful son, the rector and officials feel they have lost a warm personal friend.

And the city of Ashland is the poorer by the loss of a true citizen who stood for a good quality of citizenship. Deeply do we regret our loss, at the same time realizing that his death is but a translation from the church militant to the church triumphant.

May we who are left behind be led to emulate his good qualities, and be comforted by the anticipation of an eternal reunion in our Father's home on high.

Signed in behalf of the vestry by the following:

WILLIAM LUCAS,
F. E. WATSON.

Springfield Bank President Dies.

Springfield, Ore., Sept. 5.—J. C. Brattain, president of the First National Bank of Springfield and a prominent capitalist in this city, died suddenly at his home at 1 o'clock today, aged about 65 years. Mr. Brattain had been ailing for a few days but was not considered seriously ill, as he was able to be about the house. Mr. Brattain was a pioneer who came to Lane county with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Brattain, in 1852.

Rural Mail Carriers' Pay Increased.

Washington, Sept. 7.—Under authority conferred by the postoffice appropriation bill, Postmaster General Hitchcock increased today the salaries of rural letter carriers on standard routes from $1,000 to $1,100 a year, thus affecting 30,000 men, with proportionate increases to carriers on shorter routes. The order is effective September 30. This will mean an increased disbursement of $4,000,000 a year.

If it is Tidings work it is the best.
