

In the Social Realm

The Ladies of the Maccabees held a pleasant social hour in connection with their lodge meeting last night.

The Brotherhood of American Yeomen held a banquet at regular meeting in Odd Fellows hall Friday night after initiating a good-sized class. A very pleasant time is reported.

The young ladies of Trinity church were entertained Monday evening by Miss Ethelinda Sanford. The young ladies are planning a pantomime and masquerade ball to be given in December.

Miss Edna and Angie Neil and Messrs. Henry Enders, Jesse Neil and Murray Murphy were the guests of the Misses Blanche and Ethel Dav- enport at a five-course dinner at the Columbia Hotel Sunday evening.

Last Friday afternoon Mrs. Schofield entertained the North Main Street Embroidery Club. A dainty luncheon was served. Those who enjoyed this pleasant afternoon were Mesdames G. T. Salisbury, Ralph Billings, G. R. Weeks and Fred Taylor.

The Embroidery Club was entertained by Mrs. Walter Frulan at her home on B street Friday afternoon. As usual, light refreshments were served and a delightful afternoon was spent at needlework. Mesdames J. Lilly, Roy Hale, Livingston, Crow- son, Newlon and Musser were present.

One of the pleasant social affairs of the week was the five hundred party at the home of Mrs. Harris Dean on Granite street. Mrs. Wilshire carried off the first prize. Those who enjoyed this delightful evening were Mesdames D. Perozzi, Hintze, Rocho, Wilshire, Freeberg and Churchman.

The Pythian Sisters gave a tea Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Hemphill on the Boulevard. A guessing game in which the names of prominent men of Ashland played a part, and a musical program consisting of instrumental solos by Miss Haight and Mrs. H. C. Stock, added much to the pleasure of the afternoon.

The Pythian Thimble Club met at the home of Mrs. H. C. Stock Thursday afternoon and spent a profitable afternoon in making garments which will be turned over to the Sunshine Society for distribution. This club has been lately organized by the Pythian Sisters for the promotion of the social side of their lodge and the distribution of charity.

Mr. Finley, president of the National Audubon Society, and state game warden, will give an illustrated lecture at the Baptist church Friday evening, November 22, at 7:30. The preliminary program will be a piano duet by the Ahlman sisters, vocal duet by Miss Hamlin and Miss Hutchins, and a vocal solo by Miss Hilly. This lecture is free and all citizens are invited.

Mrs. Max Pracht was hostess to the Happy Hour Club last Thursday afternoon at her home on Euclid avenue. The afternoon was devoted to the election of officers and other business pertaining to the work of the club. Mrs. F. H. Walker was made president and Miss Eunice Charter secretary and treasurer. Owing to this business the regular literary program was omitted.

Mrs. William Hintze entertained the G. C. Five Hundred Club last Friday evening. Four tables were played, Mrs. Coffee taking first prize and Mr. Easterly the gentleman's prize. Mrs. Wiley and Mr. Eastman took the consolation prize. A delicious luncheon was served after the game. The guests of the evening were Messrs. and Mesdames East- man, Easterly, Rocho, Wiley, Applegate, and Mesdames Strickland, Coffee, Comb and Nisbet.

Owing to the theatre being burned down in Medford, Miss Crawly had to book in here on short notice. She will present "The Broken Law," by Oscar Wilde, a play full of beautiful epigrams for which this famous author is noted. The plot is based on the great question of "Why should there be one law for a woman and another for a man?" It is cleverly written and each part taken by capable artists, affording a good evening's enjoyment.

Billy Briggs royally entertained the Abot Girls Saturday evening and their friends at his home. The evening was spent in music, five hundred and dancing, after which the young people indulged in a tamale lunch. Those present were Misses Barrett, Claire Johnson, Esther Whited, Mildred Drake, Josephine Saunders, Marion Hodgson, Margaret Patterson, Hortense Winter, Messrs. R. L. Burdic, Jan Mowat, Kenneth McWilliams, Cedric Meyers, Neil Shinn, Harold Merrill, John Enders, Delbert Jones, Harold Huntley and Bob Wagner.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Sayle pleasantly entertained friends at cribbage on Wednesday evening at their home at 183 Gresham street. Four games were played, Mrs. A. A. Young and Mr. E. C. Payne carrying off the honors. After the games Mrs. Young was controlled and gave messages to all present. Refreshments were served and thoroughly enjoyed, the company breaking up at a late hour. Those present were Mrs. S. F. Thornton, Mrs. A. A. Young, Master Clyde Young, Miss H. Pygall, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Sayle, Mr. Ray Sayle, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Payne and E. C. Payne.

Last Saturday evening, November 16, Miss Blanche Saulsbury entertained a number of the young people of the Christian church at her home, 251 Grant street, the occasion being her birthday. The house was decorated with flowers and autumn leaves. Refreshments were served after a delightful evening spent in various games and amusements. Those present were Blanche Saulsbury, Ralph Saulsbury, Veri Barnhouse, Minnie Dunlap, Elsie Larsen, Robert Peachey, Walter Smith, Grace Milam, Granville Van Vactor, Mr. Burnett, Mr. Weeks, M. C. Larsen, Mrs. Williams, Mrs. Wick, Mr. and Mrs. Taylor and Mrs. Saulsbury.

One of the jolliest little parties of the week was given Friday night by Mr. and Mrs. Fred Homes and Miss Mary Homes, the place for the happy affair being a partially furnished house on a ranch about six miles northeast of town, where the Homes are "camping out" during the plowing season. Marshmallow toasting, card playing, fortune telling, candy pulling and dancing were some of the amusements planned for the guests. Later in the evening an old-fashioned oyster supper was enjoyed. Those present were Charles Homes and family, the Misses Myra Homes and Natalie Swigart, Messrs. Fox, Gibson and Cornish, and Mrs. Cornish.

Ladies' Day at the Elks Temple.
Last Thursday was ladies' day at the Elks club room, when about 45 ladies enjoyed the afternoon at five hundred. These meetings are to be a regular affair of the Elks Temple, this afternoon being set apart for the ladies. Punch and wafers were served and a most delightful afternoon spent.

Men's Chorus.
Last Thursday evening a male chorus was organized at the home of Mr. Harry Yoe, to promote interest in music in the Methodist church. They meet once a week during the winter. Those who constitute the chorus are: C. F. Tilton, S. L. Singer, Harry Yoe, J. A. Lemery, Homer Elhart, G. W. Gregg, Clayton Borrer, S. C. Oien, G. H. and O. H. Barnhill, and O. E. Crews. Dr. Tilton will be the director.

M. E. Ladies Entertained.
The Ladies' Aid Society of the M. E. church and the Teacup were beautifully entertained yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. A. Patrick, on Almond street. Mrs. Patrick was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. Edwards, Mrs. Mills and Miss Lulu Smith. A jolly afternoon was spent by the ladies of the two societies and light refreshments were served.

For Federation of Clubs.
The Civic Improvement Club has issued invitations to the following clubs, the Parent-Teacher Association, the Sunshine, the Chautauqua, and library board, to meet with them in the lecture room of the library building next Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock for the purpose of a social meeting and talking over the advisability of forming a federation of ladies' clubs of Ashland. Members of these clubs are urged to attend.

The Wednesday Club.
The Wednesday Afternoon Club met yesterday with Mrs. J. Choate on Wimer street. Mrs. Ralph Hedges and Mrs. Bert Greer assisted in entertaining. The ladies brought their needlework and spent the time in conversation, and several little presents were completed and will be ready for some dear friend at Christmas time. The hostess served refreshments to about fifty ladies. The club will meet with Mrs. Van Sant in two weeks.

Grand Army Boys Feed.
The members of Burnside post, No. 23, had a very enjoyable evening last Saturday. They got up a bachelor supper and were enjoying it hugely when the ladies of the W. R. C. invaded the 'campfire' and put the old soldiers to rout, declaring that no man could prepare a meal fit to eat. There was a cessation of hostilities declared and all had a good time, but the men declare if the women try the game again they will have them all arrested and put in the guard house.

A Fine Performance.
A number of Ashland's high school pupils attended Pinafore, given in the Natatorium Monday evening by the Medford high school. The house was filled with a most appreciative audience. The pupils were assisted in the presentation by Mr. Ed and Frank Andrews, formerly of the Andrews Opera Company, and Miss Andrews. Those attending from Ashland were Lucille Barber, Margaret Patterson, Alice Skinner, Josephine Saunders, Olive Thorn, Mildred Drake, Ruth Flinder, Ruth Hutchins, Jarved Woods, Edward Dews, Vivian Greer, Billy Briggs, John Enders, Kenneth McWilliams, Bob Spencer, Jan Mowate, R. L. Burdic, Jr., Harold Huntley, Avery Trask, Miss Eleanor Greer caperoned the party.

"Our Boys."
Tuesday evening, November 26, the Ashland High School Literary Society will celebrate the 21st anniversary of its society with a class play, "Our Boys," at the high school auditorium. A play is given each year to purchase reading matter for the school library. The play will follow a musical program by the high school orchestra, which is directed by Carl Bush and L. A. Pederson. The cast of the play is as follows: Sir Geoffrey Champneys, Kenneth King; Talbot Champneys, Neal Shinn; Perky Middlewick, Harold Huntley; Charles Middlewick, John Enders; Kemster, Sir Geoffrey's servant, Edward Stannard; Poodles, Middlewick's servant, Walter Carpenter; Violet Melrose, Mildred Applegate; Mary Melrose, Glyndon Scott; Clarissa Champneys, Vivian Greer; Belinda, a servant, Margaret Patterson.

Study Work and Program at M. E. Church.

On Tuesday afternoon a political study plan was mapped out for the women who desired to follow the "Topical Outlines arranged by competent workers in Portland. One of the judges of Oregon sent as a gift, unasked, a comprehensive treatise on laws of Oregon for our use. Attorney Seager gave an interesting talk on the change in the constitution in Oregon. He also went over the manner of becoming a citizen when an alien, gave us the law on various questions, and conducted a "quiz," which lasted for a considerable time. Rev. Chishlm wished the new citizens present success and was heartily applauded. These talks will follow one another from time to time, and the latest information bearing directly on Oregon's welfare and its laws will be topics of instruction.

Coming Social Events.
The Eleven O'Clock Club will have one of their pleasant dances on Monday evening next. Pedersen's orchestra will furnish the music.
The Elks are planning a big ball for Thanksgiving evening.

WAITE TRACT IS SOLD

Rumors That Large Amount of Other Land is Included in Big Colonization Deal.

F. B. Waite of Sutherlin was in the city a few days ago and stated that he had a deal practically closed to transfer his tract of land the other side of Bear creek to an Oakland syndicate who will colonize it next year. There is about 2,000 acres in the Waite tract, and street rumors have it that several thousand acres additional are included in the deal. The Simons-Selling tract is known to be on the market, and if, as rumored, there is 15,000 acres in the deal, this tract of 5,000 must be included.

The Tidings has endeavored to determine just how much and what land is involved; but beyond the fact that a former partner of F. G. McWilliams, now in Oakland, wrote him regarding the Waite tract, can learn nothing. Mr. McWilliams states that the gentleman is a millionaire and fully able to carry out the colonization scheme.
