THE DUCKING STOOL

Betsy Didn't Think It a "Pleasant Mode" of Punishment.

In colonial days hog stealing was considered one of the most serious of crimes. At the first offense the thief's ears were siit, at the second his ears were nailed to a pillory, and at the third he suffered death "without benefit of clergy."

Deceltful bakers and careless fish dealers had to "lose their ears," while he who spoke detracting words had his tongue bored by a bodkin.

A Frenchman traveling in America in "pleasant mode" of punishing a scold-

In 1635 Thomas Hartley of Virginia wrote of his witnessing the execution of a ducking stool sentence:

Rattling down some ed near the great Roman aqueduct and ascended another steep street on the other side of the market place.

Early as it was, we found that the people of Kavalla were up and doing. The stalls of the fruit men were attractive with oranges, pomegranates, lemons and dates. The vegetable dealers displayed a tempting array of caulfflowers, cabbages, onlons, okra, leeks and potatoes.

As in all eastern cities, there was no privacy. The cook was preparing his breakfast on the sidewalk, the shoemaker was plying his awi, the tailor his needle, and the blacksmith was shoeing his horses almost in the very street.-Christian Herald.
