

Buy Land Now!

Some good tracts for you—
at the right price.

$4,900—9 acres of well-improved land, within 2 miles of Ashland, fine house, everything first class. Terms, $3,250—2 acres, 7-room house, fruit, soil and location O. K. Terms, $12,000—200-acre farm near Ashland; mighty good proposition for the right man. Only one-third down, $4,550—6.5 acres with house, barn and good improvements, livestock and farming implements; close in. $1,750 down.

BILLINGS AGENCY

41 E. Main St. Phone 211-J.
And all kinds of good insurance.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

A. J. Biegel is giving his home on Morton street a coat of paint.

The retaining wall which is being put in along the front of the grounds of the library building is now practically completed.

—Switches, puffs, rolls, etc., 20 per cent off at Enders'.

R. A. Dozier went to Montague Friday afternoon to look after his mining interests in that section.

William Powell has started another restaurant on A street. C. J. Perrine has also opened a lunch counter on that street.

—How about your graduation suit? See the best line ever at Enders'.

H. H. Frazer, who has charge of the water supply of the Suasta division of the Southern Pacific, was in the city Friday on business.

W. D. Hodgson was at Talent Saturday on business.

—Latest things in wall paper at Dickerson's.

Charles P. Stell and Henry Stell, dentists of Los Angeles, are in the Rogue River Valley looking after their real estate interests here.

Thomas Acklin and family were at Little Butte creek last Sunday, going by automobile.

—Get a cap to match that suit at the big store up the hill.

Mrs. Hartzel of Three Oaks ranch and Miss Blanche Young of Central Point spent Sunday in Ashland, the guests of Miss Margaret Tomlin.

E. D. Briggs has gone to Portland, Spokane and Idaho points on a business trip.

—Select your new wall paper at Dickerson's while the stock is fresh.

—Get it at Enders'.

Lynn Purdin of the Record force has purchased a new bicycle to assist him in running down the festive local and the evasive debtor.

Mrs. J. T. Sayle, who has been ill at the Granite City Hospital, is improving steadily.

—Brooms. Ask your dealer for the product of the local factory. 87-1f

Mr. and Mrs. William Landis, formerly of this city, who have been visiting at the home of O. W. Long, left Friday for California.

J. L. Corbett expects to leave tomorrow for his gold mine in the Hungry creek district.

—Shoes for the family at Enders'.

Mrs. R. J. Shaw left today for Snowden, on the Salmon river, in California, to join her husband, who is at the mine there.

Clarence Kellogg, at one time a resident of Medford, died in western Oregon a few days ago of heart disease. He was well known by a large number of local people.

A Bank's Responsibilities

This bank is responsible to its depositors for the money they intrust to its care;

It is responsible to its stockholders for the safe investment of its resources;

It is responsible to the community for a large share of the prosperity it enjoys, and for the wisdom with which its resources are applied to worthy business enterprises.

It invites the accounts of responsible people, who desire the facilities of a strong, responsible bank.

Citizens

Banking and Trust Co.

"The Bank That Helps the People."

ASHLAND, OREGON.

Capital $50,000 Surplus $5,000

H. P. FOHLAND, Pres. R. P. NEIL, Vice Pres.
V. O. N. SMITH, Cashier. W. A. TURNER, Sec.
E. L. DAVENPORT, Asst. Cash.
ROY C. WALKER, Asst. Cash.

Mr. and Mrs. David Herrin of Portland are in the city, having come down to attend the funeral of Mrs. Herrin's father, the late B. F. Reeser.

About sixty Ashland Elks attended the funeral of the late August D. Singler at Medford Friday forenoon.

—Get your violin, banjo, mandolin and guitar strings at Rose Bros. 86-1f

While there seems to be little new building contemplated this season, there seems to be considerable remodeling in sight. This is a good sign and it is an indication of more activity in the near future.

Mr. Boyd, who resides on the Klamath Falls road, left a few days ago on a trip to California.

The Tidings is for sale at W. M. Poley's Drug Store, 17 East Main St.

Charles Nelson was assessed $5 and costs by Recorder Gillette Friday for taking more of a load than he could carry.

H. L. Whited was a Hornbrook visitor Sunday.

—We should worry and get a wrinkle. Buy your suits at Enders'.

W. H. Andrews has repurchased 20 acres of the old Carter orchard, above the boulevard, recently sold by him, and is taking charge of it himself this year.

A second-hand store at Medford was burglarized and a number of revolvers were stolen.

Twenty per cent off on all hair goods for a short while at Enders'.

John Fiala left last week for San Francisco. Mrs. Fiala and little daughter expect to join him there this week and they will go to San Diego.

It is Miss Atkinson, daughter of T. W. Atkinson, instead of Mrs. Atkinson, who is sick with the measles. She is now getting along nicely.

—If you are in need of an A 1 book-keeper who has had valuable experience, call Main 474 at once. 88-1f

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Thomas of Newport, Ore., spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Roy Davis. They were on their way to Salem. Mrs. Thomas is an old schoolmate of Mrs. Davis.

W. H. McCoy of Dunsmuir is in charge of a crew that is running the lines of the right of way of the Southern Pacific railway in this section.

—If you want snappy, up-to-date clothing and furnishings call at Enders'.

W. G. Gordon was called to Elkhart, Ind., Saturday by the critical illness of his mother. Her age, 80 years, makes her recovery very doubtful.

—My stock of shoes must be closed out before May 1, and to do so unheard of prices will be given. C. J. Coburn. 82-1f

Dr. Kammerer, Miss Eleanor Greer, the Misses Winnie Hadley, Helen Scott and Vivian Greer went to Siskiyou Sunday on the morning train, returning in the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Carpenter of Dunsmuir are in the city, having come to attend the funeral of Mrs. Carpenter's father, the late B. F. Reeser.

—Ladies' suits, skirts and dresses tailored to your measure at Orres' shop. Satisfaction guaranteed.

Mrs. Louise Conner, the genial landlady of the Oregon, fell from a chair while washing windows a few days ago and sprained her back. She says she has sworn off that kind of exercise.

J. A. Clemm, who disappeared about a month ago from Ashland, has been heard from at Los Angeles. He got homesick and went back without saying a word to anyone here.

—Potatoes 55c per hundred at Ashland Fruit & Produce Association. 93-4t

R. K. Oliver and wife of Bremerton, Wash., spent several days in Ashland last week. They had been touring California by automobile and waited here for their car, which they shipped over the mountains from Dunsmuir.

Chaperoned by F. G. McWilliams and George W. Seager, a party consisting of H. G. Enders, F. W. Jordan and J. C. and H. L. Newton went over to the Little Shasta valley in California today to look after real estate.

—Remember the Elks dance May 1. Have your suit cleaned and pressed. Phone Orres' shop, 141. He calls and delivers.

The Citizens' Banking and Trust Company has recently put in a new railing so that users of safety deposit boxes can reach that vault without passing through the work room proper of the bank.

Mrs. C. E. Roy and little daughter of Laramie, Wyo., who stopped at McCloud, Cal., to visit her parents when Mr. Roy came to Ashland recently to assume a position with Enders & Son, arrived in the city Saturday afternoon.

McGee's
ASHLAND, ORE.
DRESS GOODS

Spring and Summer Fabrics

Seem to be prettier each season. With the budding of fruits and flowers comes the showing of the designers' latest creations. This store reflects the evidences of a careful selection of approved styles.

New and Sought-After Materials Shown Here

POPULAR WASH FABRICS.	DRESS GOODS—SILKS.	GINGHAMS, LAWNS, ETC.
RATINE continues strongly in favor this season and is shown in quantities as low as 25c and up to $1.00.	SILK and WOOL fabrics $1.00 and $1.50.	GINGHAMS 10c, 12 1/2c, 15c, 25c. For each lot we bought a good standard brand that would satisfy.
VOILES, more popular than ever and in many new styles. Pretty silk stripes 35c to 50c. Combination of voile with ratine stripe 50c. Embroidered voile flouncings are also selling readily.	FANCY CLOTHS, 40 to 42 inches wide, in great range of colors and patterns, 89c to $1.35, special.	IMPERIAL LINEN FINISH CHAMBRAY, 30 inches wide, at 15c, is especially recommended by us for service and quality.
ETAMINES with cord, nub suiting similar to ratine in colored stripes, pique and fancy cords, cotton crepes in new designs and qualities, poplins, plain or with silk stripes, colored linens and colored linens are all very popular for this season.	ALL WOOL, YARD-AND-A-HALF WIDE CLOTHS, both in dress and coat materials, are shown in a surprising variety of colors and combination of colors. $1.50 to $2.50 per yard.	RENFREW DEVONSHIRE CLOTH 25c. Tub and sun proof, wears like galatea, but is not so heavy.
	NEW SILKS, crepes, plain and brocade charmeuse, Bulgarian and fancy ratine for trimmings, tub silks, messalines, poplins, foulards, etc.	LAWNS—As warmer weather approaches comes the demand for lighter materials, and already sales indicate fulfillment of early predictions of a big demand for figured lawns.
	SPECIALS—69c silk specials now include a lot of $1.00 and $1.25 chiffon taffetas.	WASH BRAIDS FOR TRIMMING in many new varieties.

One of the largest wholesale houses in the land stands back of Puritan Underwear
FOR LADIES AND CHILDREN.

Do not envy the well dressed woman.
Use Pictorial Review Patterns.
And fit your garments over an
"American Lady" Corset

No better values could be offered in Ladies' Suits

SUITS $7.85, $11.75, $14.75

$ 7.85 for suits worth $15.00 to $20.00
11.75 for suits worth 17.50 to 25.00
14.75 for suits worth 25.00 to 30.00

Skirts $1.98 Good Skirts for every day use

No more practical garment for Spring than a Coat

COATS $7.85, $11.75, $14.75

$ 7.85 for coats worth $12.50
11.75 for coats worth 17.50
14.75 for coats worth 22.50

Linen Suits 1-3rd Off

Great Reductions in Ready-to-Wear Garments

SALE OF WAISTS

69c for one lot of lawn waists, regular 98 to $1.19 values.
98c for one lot worth regularly from $1.25 to $1.50, with a few slightly soiled waists worth up to $2.50.

All lawn and voile waists reduced.
All silk waists reduced.
All tailored waists reduced.

SALE OF CHILDREN'S WEAR

Children's colored dresses 19c, 39c, and up to $1.45.
Children's white dresses 64c to $1.75.
Infants' wear articles one-fourth off, including wool and flannelette sacques, kimonos, petticoats, flannelette gowns, silk bonnets, etc.
$1.49 for children's summer coats.

The trustees of Ashland lodge No. 23, A. F. & A. M., expect to meet tomorrow to take steps to have active work started on the remodeling of the front of the Masonic building. The work has been delayed by the illness of F. D. Wagner, who is one of the trustees and is looking after the details of the arrangements.

A silver-tongued orator descended upon the virtues of collar buttons and other things in an effort to divorce the bystanders and their coins Saturday afternoon. There seemed to be more collar buttons than coin.

Mrs. Susie Allen reports the sale of the Louis Lager bungalow and three lots at the corner of Main and Sixth streets to Mrs. Sarah D. Brady of this city. Mr. Lager takes some farm property near Williston, N. D., in the exchange.

Insure against fire. Cliff Payne can save you about 40 per cent. 1f

Assistant Superintendent Dodge of the Western Union Telegraph Company passed through the city Friday on No. 13. Mr. Dodge has supervision over the affairs of the company west of the mountains and from British Columbia to Mexico, with headquarters in San Francisco.

Judge Calkins expects to remove to Medford this week to make his future home. The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Calkins are sorry to see them go, but wish them happiness in their new home. Clark Bush has rented the Calkins residence on Laurel street and will take possession at once.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Bosqui of Dayton, Wash., are the happy parents of a 10 1/4-pound boy born to them yesterday in this city. Mrs. Bosqui is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Barges and has been spending some time at the parental home. Mother and child are doing nicely.

One afternoon last week Louis Lager climbed Grizzly Peak, being one of the first of the season to make the trip. He left the city limits at 1 o'clock and returned by 7. Considering the distance and the time made, this is considered by professional mountain climbers to be "going some."

—A full line of Hohner harmonicas carried in stock at Rose Bros.

Mrs. L. J. Orres returned Friday noon from Humboldt, Iowa, where she had been visiting relatives for some time. He went to Medford to meet her and reports the Singler funeral one of the largest he has ever seen.

—Did you see that window full of ladies' waists for $1.25 at Enders'?

G. W. Davis of Medford was in Ashland Friday. Mr. Davis is an old Oklahoman. He used to be connected with a socialist publication at Oklahoma City. Now the socialists are launching a publication at Medford and Mr. Davis is interested in that. He is a bright fellow, well learned in agriculture and socialism, being able to preach both doctrines well, and no doubt his publication will stimulate interest in socialistic doctrines in this valley.

John W. Wagner, formerly of this city, but now of Sparks, Nev., is in the city looking after his property interests here. He is now employed as a locomotive engineer on the Central Pacific Railway. T. L. Van Landingham, a passenger brakeman running between Red Bluff and Ashland, has removed his family here from the south end of his run. They expect to make their future home in this city.

The PORTLAND EVENING TELEGRAM and Ashland Tidings one year, $5.00.

John Lebo, of the new jobbing firm of Charles S. Lebo Company of Medford, was in the city Friday making his first call upon the trade. The new company is taking over the wrapping paper trade of the Pacific Paper Company of Portland and will handle the line of goods put out by that company. C. L. Monson, the Pacific Paper Company's veteran salesman, was making the rounds with Mr. Lebo.

Charlie Gant, who was connected with the Central Point Herald in the capacity of city editor two or three years ago, is in trouble with the federal authorities at Anacortes, Wash. Gant in company with A. L. Lewis edits a paper at Anacortes and some of the editorials commenting on the "wet" and "dry" campaign in that city are charged in the complaint with being improper for transit through the mails. The defendants are out on $500 bail pending their trial.

LaSalle Hotel

10th and Burnside Sts.
PORTLAND : OREGON

Absolutely fireproof and strictly first class. Headquarters for Ashland people. Rooms without bath 75c and up; with bath $1.00 and up.

M. E. PUTNAM, Manager

A full line of the latest things in Wall Paper just arrived. Get yours now.

WM. O. DICKERSON