Have you had our vacuum cleaner demonstrated to you? If not, why not? For demonstration call at this office or phone 39. Do not wait until the last day, as we have only a limited number of vacuum cleaners left. Get your order in early and make your house cleaning a pleasure instead of drudgery.

CHURCH ANNOUNCEMENTS.

First Brethren.

Sunday morning there will be Sunday school services as usual, but no 11 a. m. services on account of the union G. A. R. services. The Sunday evening topic will be "The Seventy Weeks of Daniel."

First Brethren.

The topic for the Sunday evening sermon at the First Brethren church will be "The Seventy Weeks of Daniel." This talk is an exposition of the wonderful prophecy which foretold the exact year in which Christ commenced his ministry. This prophecy has done more to win Jewish converts to Christ than any other one thing in the Scriptures. All Jews are forbidden by the rabbis to read it or any other part of the Book of Daniel. The morning service will be omitted to enable the members to attend the Memorial services.

Revival Services Are to Continue.

The revival services started by Revs. Lewis and Matthews last Monday and Tuesday nights at the Nazarene church are to continue. "Billy" Eastman, the ex-convict who spent thirty years in crime but who is now gloriously saved, will be at the meeting every night. Don't fail to hear him tell the story of his conversion; how he was delivered from the chains of sin in his prison cell.

The interest is good and the house is nearly filled. Six have accepted Christ as their Savior, others are being refreshed and a real revival is on. Come and enjoy this feast of fat things.

This we expect is the last meeting Mr. Little will conduct in your beautiful city, as he closes his pastorate here on June 15. He would like to see all of his friends at the meeting, that he might once more have the privilege of preaching to them the gospel of Christ. Services to commence at 7:45 p. m.

The Reasons for a Happy and Healthy Home.

There have been many women made happier since the National Vacuum Cleaner has been added to the family household, and we are glad to have helped so many to get them with our liberal offer in connection with this paper, as it has saved them not only in dollars that are asked for vacuum cleaners that are sold at enormous prices and will not do the work that the National Vacuum Cleaner will do, but saves house-cleaning times coming around three or four times a year, and have everything upset and lots of hard drudgery work.

Use a National Vacuum Cleaner a little every day. You don't inhale or cause others to inhale lots of dust and germs, which are the cause of lots of doctors' bills.

If you have not one in your house, phone at once to our office and our demonstrator will call and demonstrate it in your home. Don't wait and say you did not have an opportunity to get one, or "I wish I had got one," as this offer will close at noon Saturday. Don't wait. Do it now. Phone 39, Tidings office.

Reitman Wants No More of San Diego.

Los Angeles, Cal., May 21.—"They meant business; it was best for us to leave."

This was the statement here today of Dr. Ben Reitman, manager for Emma Goldman, who is in Los Angeles with the anarchist lecturer after being sent away from San Diego yesterday. Reitman will go to San Francisco tonight to prepare for a series of lectures there.

"The mob at San Diego was keyed up all right," Reitman said. "Some people were spreading $20 bills on the bars and giving everyone a chance to drink. There was no mistaking the temper of the crowd."

Obituary.

Josephine Magill was born in Calahan, Siskiyou county, California, February 2, 1867; departed this life at Oakland, Cal., May 12, 1913, aged 46 years, 3 months, 10 days. Miss Magill was united in marriage to Jackson True on April 29, 1891, at Sacramento, Cal. The first year of their married life was spent in Siskiyou county, California. The majority of their married life was in the vicinity of Ashland, and in the city. She leaves to mourn her departure a husband, three sisters, Mrs. J. C. Mitchell, Mrs. H. H. Mitchell, Mrs. S. S. Mitchell, two brothers, Samuel Magill of California and Archie Magill of Washington, also an aged mother, Mrs. P. C. Magill, of this city. The father preceded her to the other world four years ago.

The beautiful devotion of her home life has left its impress on all who knew her. Her throne was in the home circle, and there she was queenly in her bearing, patient, devoted, loving and kind. The large concourse of friends and acquaintances who attended the funeral services at the late home on East Main street was sufficient testimony of the very large circle of friends who were present to pay a tribute of their love to a hallowed memory. The sickness of this woman was of but two months' duration, yet during this time she suffered untold agonies with the greatest fortitude and patience, never complaining, but always resigned, and expressed her willingness to pass into the other and better life.

The funeral services were conducted by Rev. W. A. Schwimley, pastor of the Congregational church of this city, interment in Mountain View cemetery. She was laid away in a great profusion of flowers. A quartet choir of the Congregational church, V. V. Mills, Mrs. J. H. McGee, Mrs. C. C. Howard and W. A. Schwimley, sang two of the favorite hymns of Mrs. True.

The minister took as his text the portion of God's word as found in Romans, 14:7, 8.

Mr. True, Mrs. Magill and immediate relatives of the departed wish hereby to express their great appreciation to all who showed their sympathy and gave comfort and kind words during this their bereavement. They wish also to express gratitude in this public way to friends in Oakland who made their stay in that city comfortable, helping to bear the sorrow and burdens at the time most needed. The following friends in Oakland are thus remembered: Mrs. Cora Call, Mrs. Susie Rhine, Mrs. Chambers, Mrs. Carter, Mrs. W. A. Holmes.

J. E. Gribble Explains Forest Fire Law.

Mall Tribune: "Simply leaving a camp fire unextinguished is just as much a violation of the law as if the fire spread and destroyed hundreds of acres of timber. It is a violation of section 53 of the criminal code, act of March 4, 1909."

J. E. Gribble, forest ranger, who just returned from the hills, makes this statement for a more clear understanding of a ranger's duties as specified in his oath of office. The circumstances in connection with all fires found on the national forest are reported at once as actually seen and supported by good evidence. All cases then go into the United States department of justice and the forest service has no further obligation in the matter.

Often a forest ranger's work is difficult and distasteful to perform, but his sworn obligation compels him to do it without fear or favor.

Car Drowned.

Medford Sun: A car driven by Lyle Walther, son of H. L. Walther of the California-Oregon Power Company, met with temporary grief in the waters of Bear creek about 6 o'clock Wednesday evening. The young man attempted to ford the creek, but the engine stopped when about half way over. Crawling out on the hood he tried to crank the car again, but was unsuccessful, and while a hundred spectators gave advice from the new bridge, he sent for a dray to pull him out.

The Natatorium will open Saturday to swimmers and skaters.

Obituary.

Rev. William Lucas was born in Eccleston, England, September 5, 1848. He came to the United States in 1873 and worked among the mountaineers of Tennessee for a number of years. He was made priest by Bishop Bedell of Ohio in 1886 and served the churches of Ravenna and Marion in that state. He was called to St. Mark's in Hastings, Neb., where he ministered to the people for five years. In 1894 he accepted the rectorship of the Church of the Good Shepherd in Allegan, Mich., and remained there until November, 1909, when he came to Oregon, taking charge of the church at Medford. He was placed in charge of the Ashland church in October, 1911.

Rev. Lucas was married but a few years ago to Miss Mary Bassett of Allegan, Mich., who mourns his demise.

Funeral services are being held this afternoon at Trinity church, conducted by Rev. C. H. Bloor, assistant rector of Trinity church, Portland. The pastors of the various Ashland churches attended the services in a body. Mrs. Lucas, accompanied by her brother, Mr. Bassett, who came from Michigan for the purpose, will leave this afternoon for their former home at Allegan, Mich., with the remains for interment.

The Ashland Ministerial Association, of which Mr. Lucas was a member, presented Mrs. Lucas with a beautiful silver plate in recognition of the work done by Mr. Lucas in this city, and in token of their appreciation of his life and character.

A Medford Tribute.

Mall Tribune: Rev. William Lucas, former pastor of the Episcopal church of this city, died Sunday, May 18, at the Ashland hospital, from the effects of an operation. He was the rector of Trinity Episcopal church of Ashland at the time of his death. He is well known in this city, and often came here to officiate at weddings. He was in Medford last month for the Mathison-McCormack wedding. He was 64 years of age, and leaves a wife and many friends in this section to mourn his death. He was well loved and highly respected throughout the state. The funeral will be held Thursday at Ashland.

His body will be taken to his old home in Michigan for burial.

Samuel Melvin Morgan died at his home on Third street in Ashland, Sunday, May 18, 1913, at 8:30 o'clock, from paralysis. Mr. Morgan was a native of Canton, Ohio, and was 82 years, 8 months and 25 days old. He was a pioneer of Oregon, crossing the plains in 1850. He settled in Jackson county, but removed later to Crescent City, Cal. He lived there until 1870, and then came to Ashland, where he has since resided. Mr. Morgan was married to Mrs. Martha Hendricks in 1878. To their union seven children were born, six of whom, with the widow, survive him, also one son by a former marriage. The children are Mike, John and Charles Morgan of Ashland, William Morgan of Langell Valley, Ore.; Mrs. Arthur Miller and Mrs. James Heubusch of Ashland; Mrs. Ralph Bluet of Ukiah, Cal. Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon from J. P. Dodge & Son's undertaking parlors. Interment in Ashland Cemetery.

Art Exhibit at High School.

The art exhibit at the high school, including all grades, will be held Friday, May 23, from 2 to 8 o'clock p. m. Work from the manual training, sewing, cooking, drawing, penmanship and agriculture departments will be on exhibition. It has been the aim to represent every child in the city by at least one piece of work. A cordial invitation is extended to the public to see this work and those coming to the senior play can come an hour earlier and enjoy these exhibits.

Attention, Comrades.

Every member of the G. A. R. is requested to meet at Ashland cemetery at 9 o'clock Friday morning, May 23, to assist in clearing the graves of soldiers buried there, preparatory to Decoration day.

By order of the commander, JAMES MATTINGLY.

Mail Order Business

Last month we offered to furnish anything in our line at as low a price as any Mail Order House in the country, plus the freight or postage. We will make the same price and you can pay the freight—or we can arrange to have the merchandise come with other goods and this will save you some freight.

We are pleased and gratified with the responses we have had. About twelve have been in and had us fill their orders. Now the parallel. These orders amounted to $42.50. We made some profit and saved some freight because the articles came with goods for stock. This profit will be used in paying rent, taxes, buying groceries, etc., at home. Now had this money gone to the Mail Order House where would the profit part have gone—to help pay the nine million dollar dividends. Would any of it have been used in paying for schools or churches in Ashland? We are not sore. We are not asking for your business from sympathy, or because we live in Ashland. We came here because we believed Ashland had the finest climate in the country. We are making a good living and this is all we expected when we came. This is the finest town we ever lived in and we have strived to help build up Ashland. This whole proposition is a business one. You don't owe us anything simply because we live here.
