

TIDINGS

NUMBER 4

ASHLAND THE BEAUTIFUL

VOL. XXXVIII GOOD ROADS GIVEN A BOOST

SUNNY SOUTHERN OREGON

PARTY FROM TWO STATES MEETS AT BORDER LINE.

quet Friday Night.

BIG BANQUET AT HOTEL MEDFORD

dent of Ashland, is responsible for Several From Here Are Guests and Movement to Bond County for

Mr. Hosley, who is the father of secure a tract of several acres, with train and goes with it to assist in Friday morning two automobiles private fish culture. He has orders sengers. fom Medford and one from Ashland from the leading cafes in San Franthe proposed new route over the Sis- a local demand.

heavy rough grade to a grade of a for a "fish farm." new route lies in Jackson county and a close student of piscatorial culpart in Siskiyou county.

The county court of Siskiyou coun- tion to the Rainbow and Mountain with County Judge Tou Velle and here.

Surveyor Howard went thoroughly into the proposed change. It was found along the entire route from San Diego to Portland.

There were twenty in the party the excess fry to United States Fish ence the entire party came over the western operations. hill to be present at the good roads banquet which was tendered by the Medford Commercial Club. Ashland entertained the visitors for dinner at the Oregon, after which they continued on their way to Medford.

At 8 o'clock in the evening a banquet was spread at the Medford Hotel with 170 plates.

State Treasurer Thomas Kay as well as the state highway engineer from California were present and offered some good suggestions along the line of good roads, with special

one. Everybody present was in fa-

Ashland Man at Klamath Falls Look ing for Suitable Site. Northwestern: A new industry, that of providing Rainbow and Dolly Varden trout and other game fish for the edification of California and Oregon people at their tables when game fish are scarce, is to be added to Klamath county's list of resources. Charles Hosley, a well-known resi-

ASHLAND

RAISE TROUT FOR MARKETS.

the move. $700,000 Was Launched at Ban-E. L. Hosley of Merrill, intends to strumental in securing the special stop for fuel and water.

proper water for trout, and take up looking after the comfort of the paskiyous as laid out by Surveyor How-Hosley is here looking for a desir-maximum of 7 per cent. Part of the For the past year Hosley has been Crowson and Mr. and Mrs. Autrey.

ture, and has given especial atten- dard Pullmans, one of which will be ty, together with the engineer from trout. He will be able to put his exthat county and the California state perimental work to practical advanhighway engineer, were present and tage when he commences operations

In addition to raising fish for the markets, Hosley has another source agreed that the Howard route was of income from the "fish farm." This practical and would result in as good supplying trout fry to the governhighway over the ridge as can be ment bureau of fisheries, for distribution throughout the west. It is said that he has already promised all that met at Hilt. After the confer- Commissioner O'Malley, in charge of

HORSE WENT CRAZY,

Valuable Animal Owned by Archie Million Ran Amuck Last Week.

A valuable horse owned by Archie Million, the popular express man, which had been sick for a few days, went crazy suddenly one afternoon last week and made things lively in the north part of the city for a little while. The horse, which was seen by L. J. Trefren and Mr. Ehrmann. drifts of snow four and five feet was thrown flat by the rebound. It disappearing." The meeting was an enthusiastic then bolted through a chicken coop and through a solid board fence, then back through the chicken fence again. Several times it threw itself, and Mr. Ehrmann, who is a husky, McCoy, Benton Bowers and others, heavy man, threw his whole weight have a large force of men and teams end coaches landed against telegraph aside as if he had been a feather

ASHLAND, OREGON, MONDAY, JUNE 9, 1913

ROSE FESTIVAL SPECIAL WELL FILLED MANY ASHLANDERS WILL GO TO PORTLAND THIS EVENING TO ENJOY THE ROSE FESTIVAL-SPECIAL TRAIN TO BE FULL

The special train for the Portland ( filled at Ashland, two at Medford Rose Festival this evening will be and one at Grants Pass. There will well patronized. The available sleep- be three chair cars and one baggage er space in the car assigned to Ash- car with a train baggage man to look land was all spoken for at noon to- after the baggage. The train leaves day and a large number expected to here at 6 o'clock and will be due in Portland in time for breakfast. Afgo in the chair car..

Among those who have secured for the exhibit building was Mrs. Eumet a like number from Siskiyou cisco for all the trout they can han- reservations in the sleeper are: Mr. genia Atkinson, whose contribution county at Hilt, Cal., and inspected dle, and in his opinion there will be and Mrs. G. W. Kramer, Mr. and was a fine assortment of variegated Mrs. L. J. Trefren, Miss Beulah Cald- roses. Flowers are solicited, now well, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Butterfield, that roses are in full bloom. They ard. As proposed, the new road will able site. One place, Barclay Springs, Dr. Bertha Sawyer, Mrs. O. J. Stone, may be left either at the Commergo some distance east of the present near Naylox, he believes is ideal. He Mrs. R. P. Campbell, R. H. Minkler, cial Club rooms or at the exhibit one and will be transformed from a is also looking up other good sites Mrs. J. M. Wagner, Mrs. J. M. Mat- building, which is open morning and tingly, Mr. Rasmussen, Mrs. F. H. afternoon near train time, about 11:15 a. m. and 4 p. m.

The train will consist of four stan-

Agent Kramer has been largely in- ter leaving Grants Pass it will only First of the Season.

Among the first donors of flowers

Phone job orders to the Tidings.

ORK AT CRATER LAKE TRY TO WRECK TRAIN

Workmen.

ern Pacific Train Near Salem Saturday Morning.

Klamath Falls, June 7.-The temporary road for hauling supplies from tempt was made to wreck the South-Kirk to the park line has been prac- ern Pacific Willamette limited pastically completed, according to G. E. senger train at 9:18 o'clock this Goodwin, United States engineer morning near the feeble-minded loan of the nation's credit to the doubtedly assure a good market for corps, in charge of the Crater Lake school, three miles from Salem. A pinch bar lying a short distance road work, who came in Thursday from the track and positive evidence from Kirk on a business trip. "The construction force is now at that a spike had been pulled from work a mile inside the park line," the rails was found. There is no as it was then-but the valley has said Mr. Goodwin this morning. clue to the criminal. The train, consisting of an engine, new section to me." "They are at Wheeler creek, where permanent camp has been estab- two day coaches, oservation, mail lished. From Wheeler creek the and baggage, was derailed but did work will be carried on toward the not tip completely over.

rim of the lake as fast as the snow Joe Langlord, news agent, susdisappears. In getting into the point tained the most serious injury. He designated as a permanent camp it sustained a severe cut on the head. was necessary, a few days ago, at Mrs. Isabelle Woods of Sweet Lake some points to shovel a road through was bruised but not seriously hurt. reference to the Pacific highway now suddenly bolted against a barn and deep. The snow, though, is rapidly kink in the rails about 75 yards ahead and immediately applied the

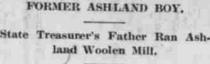

"We expect to commence work on emergency brakes, reducing the riage Law.

certificate of health before he can obtain a marriage license, which

Astoria, Ore., June 6 .- The new

Tom B. Kay, state treasurer of Oregon and member of the Oregon three men who govern Oregon, arrived in Ashland Friday to represent the commission at the good roads banquet. Mr. Kay is also pres- M. C. LININGER WILL MANAGE IT ident of the Salem Woolen Mills and is a former resident of Jackson coun- Fruit & Produce Association Will ty, his father having operated the woolen mills at Ashland many years ago

"The highway commission cannot do any state construction this year." said Mr. Kay, "because only $10,000 appropriation was placed at its disposal, but next year there will be $240,000 available and construction work can be done. In the meantime the services of the commission and this point, because of the changes the state highway engineer are at the and entanglements resultant from service of any locality applying for the operations of F. A. Korman in them, and Major Bowlby can be of material assistance to Jackson coun- ties, however, have been adjusted ty in helping it prepare for construction.

good roads effort and the state high- the year and will operate it in conway commission will co-operate in nection with the regular business of every possible way. We could not the association. M. C. Lininger, the get word to Engineer Bowlby in time-he is making a final inspection of the Pacific highway before assuming office, or he would be here also. The board cannot force its cooperation upon any section under the Salem, June 7 .- A dastardly at- law, but is for those that request it. "I think Senator Bourne's scheme for federal aided roads the greatest plan ever devised. It is merely a than by selling fresh. This will unstate and costs the state comparatively nothing. I hope it is adopted.

"I bought wool in southern Oregon years ago and know the county improved so much that it is like a

PAY YOUR DOG TAX.

The Dog Catcher Will Get Fido if You Don't Watch Out.

have been protected by the purchase granted.

TAKES IT OVER FOR YEAR.

Conduct Canning Business and Thus Be Better Able to Handle Crop.

It will be good news to the fruit raisers around Ashland to know that the Ashland cannery will be run this year. There has been some feeling of doubt in the minds of many on and the Ashland Fruit & Produce Association has arranged with the own-"Jackson county leads the state in ers of the plant to take it over for manager of the Fruit & Produce A8sociation, was manager of the cannery last year and is thus experienced in the business.

The cannery will be run on blackberries, peaches, tomatoes and perhaps fruits if the supply to be marketed is such that there can be more realized for the producers by canning all stuff raised here this year, provided, of course, the quality of the stuff is right.

OPERATORS COMPROMISE.

Wireless Men Ordered to Return to Work.

San Francisco, June 6 .- The strike of the wireless operators against the Marconi Wireless Company has been settled and the men reported for Chief of Police Porter has en- work this morning. The settlement gaged H. P. Wilcox to canvass the was a compromise. The union is not city in a quest for taxable canines. recognized, but all strikers are rein-Mr. Wilcox states that out of about a stated, and conditions are bettered, hundred dogs located less than thirty | The wage increase demanded was not of licenses. The chief has not yet The strikers were instructed by secured a man to do the catching International President S. J. Konenact, but it is expected that the round- kamp to report for duty today. ing up will proceed at once against While there is no recognition of the all dogs found loose without the union, there is an agreement that union men will not be discriminated against. The company promised to reinstate the operators as fast as yessels reach ports where they are sta-

Road in Park Being Pushed by Dastardly Attempt to Wreck South-Large Force of Federal for of the immediate improvement of the Pacific highway. Mayor Johnson, E. T. Staples, E. D. Briggs, J. W. way improvement.

It is estimated that the new road across the Siskiyous will cost, when completed with hard surface, about $150,000, and to properly improve out of its misery. the highway through the county will cost about $150,000 more.

The proposed bond issue will be for $700,000. That will leave about $400,000 with which to improve lat- Lawrence, Mass., Manufacturer Freed erals into the main highway throughout the county. The next most important road to the Pacific highway is the Green Springs road over the already constructed to the west Klamath county line by the commissioners of that county. It will take about $50,000 to put that highway in good repair and Ashland will ask on the fifth count, but the jury disthat that sum be expended on that road out of the bond issue.

That the uninitiated may have a clear idea of what a 7 per cent grade street, between the city hall and the bribery. First National Bank, and found it to be 6.7 per cent.

RESIGNS PASTORATE.

June 15.

Rev. J. T. Little has resigned the Ashland and will leave this city June 15 to attend the assembly of that Mr. Little's many friends will be sorry to see, him leave Ashland.

ficial paper, in its issue of the 7th docket, a lengthy one, includes over him will not be pressed. a score of important civil cases which will come up before Judge Calkins of June.

weight. The animal was so dangerous that Chief Porter was called in to put it by Jury of Charge of Dynamiting Strikers' Homes.

Boston, June 7 .- William Wood mountains to meet the splendid road was acquitted here today on all counts charging a conspiracy to plant dynamite to discredit Lawrence strikers.

> Frederick Atteaux was acquitted agreed on the four other counts. Dennis Collins was found guilty on the first two counts and not guilty on the other three.

conditions in the park. Wood was immediately discharged. is, it might be noted here that, as a Collins and Atteaux remained in result of a wager as to grades, City their seats as Attorney Hurlbut re-Engineer Walker took levels on Main viewed the charge of attempted pastorate of the Nazarene church in court Wednesday,

Rev. J. T. Little to Leave Ashland

Judge Calkins in Portland.

The Daily Abstract, Portland's of- regard it in any circumstances. Atteaux' bail was continued at that they have ever heard. inst., containing schedules of the ses- the present figure, but it is doubtful sions of the Multnomah circuit court | if he will be retried. Pelletier will for June, assigns Judge Calkins to not move for sentence to be imposed

A motor truck was built complete at 7:15 p. m., to attend the Flag Day for hearing between the 7th and 21st recently by prison labor at Sing services in Elks hall, Sing.

the permanent roadways by Mon-speed of the train from about 4 day," continued Goodwin. "The work miles an hour to 20 before the derailwill become more extensive as the ment occurred. The engine stayed at work."

According to the engineer there from tipping over. The steel built are twenty men and five or six teams cars again demonstrated their superat work now. In less than two jority. They withstood the wreck weeks, as the snow permits of a with practically no damage, except to greater scope of work, there will be the running gear.

them.

work for at least forty or fifty men and thirty or more teams.

A rock crusher for use in preparing dressing and foundation for the government's system of roads in the law requiring a man to produce a park has been received at Chiloguin.

Other road-building machinery is expected daily, The system of roads to be constructed in Crater Lake park by the ing to local physicians, who by agree-

United States engineer corps is very extensive, and the roads will be constructed with a view to permanency. clare that they could not conscien-It is planned to make a number of tiously do so. cross sections of experimental road. In this manner it will be ascertained what type of road building is best not make a competent test under adapted to the climate and traffic three weeks, and, furthermore, say

"To Hell and Not Back." Evangelist St. Clair, who is conducting special services at the Naza-Pelletier said he already had rene church, will preach Tuesday in the city have even refused to put called for a grand jury probe for night from the subject, "To Hell and their signatures to a certificate for South Vancouver and relieved Con-Monday and suggested that the pub- Not Back." This sermon is in an- that amount. Yesterday and today ductor J. Morrow of about $20 and lic investigation go over to Wednes- swer to "Pastor Russell's" sermon, day, when, he said, he would be in "To Hell and Back Again." Before a position to determine what is in preaching he will expose Pastor Rus- sired certificates. The would-be apthe story. Judge Crosby accepted sell and his scheme. Everybody the suggestion and announced that ought to hear these startling facts.

he would consider the matter in open The special meeing is one of great success, over a score of souls seeking

All last night the jury stood 11 to God yesterday. About a dozen young 1 for Wood's acquittal. Shuman was people and children gloriously denomination in Portland. From the only juror hanging out. At 5 saved. The meeting is to continue there he will go to some new pastor- o'clock this morning he yielded and all this week at 7:45 every night exate, but has not fully decided where. the jury quickly decided Collins' fate. cept Saturday. Miss Greene will sing water today following an overflow of the scenic beauties within park en-The first ballot on Atteaux' case at each of these services. Bible the river. The water is now nearly closures. stood 8 to 1 for acquittal. Four of readings Tuesday; Wednesday, five feet above last year's high mark, the jurors said they believed John Thursday and Friday at 9:45 a. m. J. Breen's story and would not dis- Those who are attending say that these are the most helpful readings the land was submerged.

> .... Notice to G. A. R. Members of Burnside Post, G. A. schools will be called at 6:15 at the are requested to meet at the G. A. June 11. No charge for admission. lors. R. hall Saturday evening, June 14, poles and held the middle coaches magic brass ticket.

J. M. MATTINGLY, P. C. France.

For Sale.

Hay at reasonable price, close in. Phone 259-Y. O. J. Rathbun. 2-tf tioned.

Otto Klum Elected to Teach Manual Training in Ashland Public Schools Next Year.

went into effect in this state Tuesday, is proving impracticable, accordment have refused to issue the certificates requested because they deat the Agricultural College in Cor- recognition of the union as a whole vallis, to teach manual training, was not accorded. The matter of The fee provided by law is $2.50 wise policy of the board to secure and seniority was adjusted. and local physicians declare they canhome people in the school wherever possible.

few of them have the necessary Masked Men Hold Up Street Car. equipment for making a thorough Vancouver, B. C., June 5 .- Three blood test. No physician could unmasked men perpetrated one of the d rtake to make the test for less most daring robberies ever carried than $15 or $20, they say, and a few out here when, about 10 o'clock last night, they held up a street car in Band Re-Saw Machine Patented by several unsuccessful attempts were made their escape. They have not yet been captured.

"With Verdure Clad."

The park surroundings are more beautiful than ever this season. Some extra fine views of this charming spot are now available, one of ings hopes that the most sanguine which has been presented to the hopes of the inventor may be real-Fields and roads in the lowlands Commercial Club by Marble, the pho- ized. near the Columbia river are under tographer, representing to perfection

> June Clearance Sale. -The June clearance sale of mil-

Midsummer Sale.

4-tf

In 1916 the navy of the United Sophia, the new queen of Greece, States will rank below that of is a sister of the present emperor of Germany.

"The settlement is not a victory; neither is it a defeat," said Konenkamp. "Conditions made it better to effect a compromise than to continue the fight, and the company was very willing to meet us half way."

It was distinctly understood that At its regular meeting last Wed- the operators have the right to join nesday evening the Ashland Board of the union, and the company agreed Education elected Otto Klum, for- to receive and treat with grievance merly of Ashland, but in attendance committee, despite the fact that Otto is well fitted for the po- promotions on the basis of ability

> The company promises to put into effect rules which will protect the men from summary dismissal without a hearing and in case of dismissal for reconsideration of the case.

ASHLAND BOY, INVENTOR.

Resident of Hilt.

Samuel E. Ranger of Hilt, son of Mrs. L. A. Ranger, 546 Holly street, Ashland, has received a patent upon a band re-saw machine, which it is thought will prove of great benefit in the lumber industry and also incidentally increase the financial holdings of the inventor. The Tid-

Love of Son Leads to Arrest. Roseburg Review: Attracted to Roseburg through the love for his little son, James H. Staley, about 24 years of age and from all appearlinery, ribbons, etc., now on at Miss ances a young man of ordinary refinement, was arrested here this morning by Sheriff George Quine and Deputy Sheriff Fred Stewart on a A 20 per cent reduction on all mil- charge of murdering Matt Monahan Department 7 of that tribunal. The on Collins an dthe charge against R., and Burnside Corps, W. R. C., school grounds, Wednesday evening, linery at Mrs. Simons' millinery par- and seriously wounding the latter's brother, Hugh Monahan, near Springfield, Ill., on March 18, 1912.

> Cuba ranges from twenty-five to one hundred miles in width.

here were taken off in a launch when Hargrove's. The baseball game between the Baptist and Christian church Sunday made in the city to secure the de-plicants have as yet not obtained

Columbia Float Five Feet Above Year Ago.

Several residents of an island near Kennewick, Wash., June 6.-