Nyswamer-Works.

Miss Elizabeth WWorks of Talent and W. R. Nyswamer of Bray, Cal., but formerly of Talent, were married in Medford, Wednesday, July 18, 1913. The bride is one of Talent's favorite daughters and was born and raised here. The groom is also a native of Talent and his mother is still a resident of the village. The happy young couple have gone to Bray, Cal. where the groom has a position with the Butte Creek Lumber Company and where they will make their future home. The best wishes of the entire community go with them.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to extend our heartfelt thanks to the kind friends and neighbors who gave so much assistance and sympathy during the long and last illness of our brother, George M. Wilson. Their many acts of kindness will ever be cherished in memory.

Woman Kills Husband Who Forced Her to Sleep in Stack.

Oakland, Cal., July 17.—Mrs. Mary Davalle confessed tonight in the Alameda county jail that she shot and killed her husband on their ranch near Irvington yesterday morning because he had driven her from the house after he had threatened her life and forced her to sleep two nights in a haystack.

THE PEOPLE'S FORUM

These columns are dedicated to the people for the discussion of public questions or the diffusion of general information. Articles must be limited to 300 words and name of writer must accompany articles. Sectarian, Partisan or Personal Criticism is prohibited. Opinions expressed here are the expressions of the writers only, and not of the Tidings.

From time to time the Tidings has received communications from readers. It is a helpful thing to exchange opinions on current subjects. Especially is this true of those subjects that affect the material well-being of the community (either of the city of Ashland or the county of Jackson), and this column is dedicated mainly to that end. However, there are many persons in this community who produce good literary articles. Every reader who feels inclined to write on any subject, except those prohibited, is invited to contribute to this column, always being sure to keep your article within as nearly as practicable the 300-word limit. This we request so as to have room to use articles from more than one contributor at a time.

Another Extract From Newcomer's Letter.

The beautiful dimple in the Siskiyou known as Chautauqua Park, with its fruit-laden hillsides sloping back to the snows, is transformed this week to a veritable paradise. My dreams of heaven are realized! If I was charmed with the spot before, I am now entranced. By this murmuring stream among the whispering alders and pines flit gifted messengers bearing spiritual food for the people. From the state university comes Dr. Conklin with his searchlight to illumine the dark recesses of mind. Dr. Berchtold, from the Agricultural College, distributes the choicest flowers of literature. The old Willamette sends Dr. Peck to enlighten us about the humble plants and flowers—the "stars of earth." The little children are carried by a sprite to fairyland; and music under Professor Isaacs, with its celestial harmony, casts a spell over all. All this without money and without price.

The choicest platform lecturers, culled from all sections, and treating a great variety of live subjects, address us nightly. At the round table able and earnest men and women endeavor to discover and correct the ills of humanity.

TALENT NEWS ITEMS.

The crew of depot carpenters for the Southern Pacific railway was in Talent Thursday and Friday cutting off the end of the depot platform in the rear of the building, and also narrowing up the overhang of the eaves of the building on that side. The increase in the height and width of cars used by the various railway companies rendered this necessary.

E. T. Cook, who returned Tuesday from Dickinson, N. D., says that Oregon is good enough for him. He reports crops there badly damaged by the drought.

Vance Wolgamott, marshal of Talent, was operated upon at the Granite City Hospital Wednesday evening for appendicitis. He is reported to be getting along nicely.

Clarence Seaman died Thursday morning and was buried Friday afternoon in Wagner Creek cemetery. The cause of death was brain trouble. The funeral services were at the home and were conducted by Mrs. E. C. Gard of Ashland.

Dr. Rand left Friday morning for Reno, Nev., where he will spend a short time on business before returning to his home in Saak Center, Minn.

Attorney J. A. Lemery of Ashland was doing business in Talent Friday. Louis Lager returned to Talent Friday after spending a few days in Ashland attending Chautauqua.

Cecil Ager had his arm broken Thursday evening by a fall from the roof of their house while striving to rescue a stranded kitten. The break was near the shoulder and is a serious one but the lad is getting along nicely.

Mrs. Oliver Helms went to Portland and Seattle the latter part of the week to visit relatives and friend.

Ava Holt went to Albany Wednesday evening to visit his father.

Green corn on the market July 18 is going some, but it was on sale at Vanderstul & Burgan's on that date. It was raised by Mrs. Jane Jones in her garden in Talent.

The Talent Hardware Company has accepted the agency for the Oliver Typewriter Company.

Mrs. Vance has an aunt and other relatives from eastern Oregon visiting her.

Wallace Bell is wearing his left eye in a sling as a result of a collision with a refractory belt at the Bagley Canning Company.

B. A. Dougherty, foreman of the Talent Orchards Company, has gone to Crescent City on a vacation trip, traveling overland.

A New Business Law

Chapter 154, Page 270, Oregon Laws, 1913.

Regulating Persons Doing Business Under an Assumed Name.

"No person or persons shall hereafter carry on, conduct or transact business in this state under any assumed name or under any designation, name or style, corporate or otherwise, other than the real and true name or names of the person or persons conducting such business or having an interest therein."

The law in brief is: Such person or persons shall file a certificate in the county clerk's office in the county in which said business is conducted, with the names of all interested persons in said business and their postoffice address.

All persons now conducting any business, as is stated above, shall file and have recorded and indexed in a book kept for that purpose a certificate, as above required, within 30 days after this act shall take effect. (Law became effective June 3.)

Non-compliance with this law will prevent and debar any person or persons conducting, carrying on or transacting business as aforesaid from maintaining any suit or action in any courts of this state.

"Any person violating any provisions of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $100."

Blanks necessary to conform to the above law can be had from the Tidings for 10 cents each or three for 25 cents.

A MOTHER'S GRATITUDE.

Many a Mother in Ashland Will Appreciate the Following.

Many a strong man and many a healthy woman has much for which to thank mother. The care taken during their childhood brought them past the danger point and made them healthy men and women. Thousands of children are bothered with incontinence of urine, and inability to retain it is oftentimes called a habit. It is not always the children's fault—in many cases the difficulty lies with the kidneys, and can be readily righted. An Ashland mother tells how she went about it.

Mrs. C. E. Roach, 763 B street, Ashland, Ore., says: "When I suffered from kidney weakness and other kidney disorders Doan's Kidney Pills helped me more quickly than any other medicine. When I gave Doan's Kidney Pills to our little boy for kidney weakness they stopped that annoying trouble. I am thankful to Doan's Kidney Pills for the benefit they have brought us."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.
