

Ashland Undertaking Parlors

LADY ASSISTANT.

FREE CHAPEL.

Calls Promptly Attended, Day or Night

H. C. STOCK, Proprietor

80-90 North Main.

Ashland, Oregon.

In the Social Realm

Society News.

Please phone all news items, society or otherwise, to the Tidings, No. 39. It is often necessary to leave late items over until the next issue, so as to insure insertion please phone them in as early as possible. The Tidings goes to press early each Monday and Thursday afternoon and items must be in and in type by noon if possible.

The Monday Embroidery Club meets with Mrs. C. A. Malone this afternoon.

The members of her former Sunday school class surprised Miss Maud Hawley Thursday evening at the home of E. N. Smith on Morton street. They spent a very enjoyable evening, Miss Blanche Salisbury in the role of a fortune teller being especially good.

Mrs. H. L. Walters and daughter Ruth of Portland came down Saturday to spend a few days with relatives. They went to the Russell ranch near Stinemann, Sunday, returning to Ashland Sunday evening. O. Winter and family also spent Sunday at the ranch, going by auto.

The U. G. Embroidery Club met with Mrs. Mattingly last Friday. Those present were Mesdames Alnutt, Young, Seaman, B. E. Smith, Neville, Stevens, Russell, Barber, Talcott, Guiley, Thompson, Leonard, Storey, Baker, Mattingly and the Misses Watson and Gibson, several of whom were visitors. A short business meeting was held and it was voted to send remembrances in the way of food and flowers to a sick neighbor. Refreshments consisting of pressed chicken, salad, peaches and cream, cake and coffee were served.

The Teacup Club met last Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. A. E. Mitchell on Glen avenue. Mrs. Dougherty, Mrs. Pratt, Mrs. Simpson and Mrs. Treiren assisted as hostesses. There was a good attendance in spite of the rain. After a social hour dainty little souvenirs in the shape of teacups were distributed and each one requested to expend a little mental energy, the contest being to see who could get the most words out of Teacup Club. The first prize, a dainty China teacup, was awarded to Mrs. Palmerlee. Afterward delicious refreshments were served, and the guests departed, to meet again the first Tuesday in November.

The Qui Vive Club met at the home of Mrs. A. A. Young, 9 Granite street, Friday, October 10. After the regular order of business a program was rendered, led by Mrs. Thornton. Mrs. Sayles, Address by Mr. Peebles; Mrs. Buck, Sunlight of Love and Good Will; Mrs. Young, Man Mortal and Immortal; Mrs. Wilcox, Hamlin Garland writes story of ghost which he says he saw with his own eye; Mrs. Goodyear, Friends; Mrs. Thornton, Address to the Jury. Adjournment was in order. Then Mrs. Garrison gave us some fine music. Afterward Mrs. Young through her guides gave some fine messages. The meeting broke up at a late hour, to meet again next Friday at the same time and place. All ladies welcome. ***

Reception for New Pastor.

A reception under the auspices of the Teacup Club will be given for the new pastor of the Methodist church, Rev. W. J. Douglass, and family on Friday evening, October 17, at Memorial hall. All members of the church and congregation are cordially invited to be present to meet Mr. and Mrs. Douglass and their two daughters.

Saltmarsh-Brennan.

Miss Maud Brennan, formerly of Ashland but more recently of Los Angeles, Cal., and Gilbert E. Saltmarsh of Boise, Idaho, were united in marriage at the home of Don B. Smith Thursday evening, Elder D. M. Brower of the First Brethren church officiating. The bride is a granddaughter of the late Mrs. Don B. Smith and has made many friends during her sojourn in Ashland, and the groom is a well-known young business man of Boise, Idaho.

Young People Have Candy Pull.

A number of the pupils of the seventh and eighth grades held a candy pull at the parish house of Trinity church. The affair was a hard time party, all the young people going in costume. The Mesdames Hedberg, Davis, Richman and J. C. Poor were chaperones of the merry crowd, among whom were the following: Gladys Good, Dorothy Payne, Alice Poore, Minnie Rickman, Lillian Greer, Minora Cornelius, Agnes Hedberg, Reta Gard, Helen Van Dyke, Margaret Gordon, Gertrude Moore, Gertrude Barber, Helen Cunningham, Mildred Gearhart, Charlie Brady, Fay Phillips, Lena Baughman, Verni Carter, Harold Simpson, Lynn Stark, Hawood Gordon, Arthur Mexedon, Arthur Rickman and Elwood Hedberg.

Parent-Teacher Reception.

The annual reception tendered by the ladies of the Parent-Teacher Association at the lecture rooms in the library building was a brilliant affair. The rooms were well filled when the assemblage was called to order by Mrs. D. Perozzi of the West Side circle. The first number on the program was a piano solo by Mrs. J. R. Robertson, which was much enjoyed and heartily applauded. Dick Posey, the inimitable Dick, brought down the house by reciting "Glorious Woman," and responded to a hearty encore by giving a boy's recital of a love story.

Next came the Elks' Quartet, which sang "Mammy's Pore Little Black Lamb." They sang well, as they always do, and responded to an encore by singing "I Want a Girl Just Like the Girl That Married Dear Old Dad." It was also well rendered.

Mrs. Perozzi then introduced Mrs. W. W. Usher of this city, a recent acquisition from Medford, and one of the vice-presidents of the State Congress of Mothers and Parent-Teacher Association. Mrs. Usher spoke briefly of the work and introduced Mrs. R. H. Tate, state president of the association, who made the principal address of the evening. Mrs. Tate began by telling how the association came by its long and hyphenated appellation and also told something of the work sought to be accomplished by the organization. Mrs. Tate praised the local circles for their successful industrial fair and spoke of the possibilities of reforms which could be brought about by the ladies if they went at it the right way. Nothing could be accomplished, she said, by unpleasant criticism. She also urged that the spiritual side of the work be taken up. She made a plea to the women to stand by the university appropriations at the special election this fall and also declared in favor of the Southern Oregon Normal.

Following the address, Mrs. C. B. Wolf beautifully sang, to the tune of "Maryland, My Maryland," a song specially written for a national Mothers' Congress. Professor Briscoe was then called upon, who announced that the first evening of the University Study Club would hold its first meeting Friday evening, October 24, at which time one of the professors from the university would be present and lecture. There will be one lecture each month throughout the winter. All are invited and there is no charge. The lecture will be at 8 o'clock, lasting one hour. Those wishing to take heavier work also may do so and secure university credits.

After Professor Briscoe spoke Mrs. Perozzi reported on the Industrial Fair, showing it to have been a financial success as well as in every other way. The report is elsewhere in this paper. Following the program a social hour was spent and refreshments consisting of sherbet, cider and wafers were served.

For Quick Sale.

A modern home at a bargain. Inquire at the Tidings office. 40-21*

Buggies at Piel's for $39.90.

Convention of School Officers, Jacksonville, Ore., Oct. 7, 1913. To School Officers of Jackson County:

In accordance with the provisions of section 86, page 47, Oregon School Laws, 1913 edition, I am calling a convention of school officers, to meet at the high school building in Medford, Saturday, October 18, commencing at 10 o'clock a. m.

The law provides that the chairman of each school board shall be the legal delegate to this convention, but if he is unable to attend he shall appoint some member of the board or the clerk to represent the district. The delegate who represents the district is entitled to receive the sum of $2 out of the general fund of the county for his expenses.

We hope that not only one representative from each district will be present, but that the entire board can attend, as well as others interested in our public schools.

This meeting is called for a general and free discussion of questions pertaining to our educational system, and we hope everyone will come prepared to enter into the discussions. A representative from the office of the State Superintendent of Public Instruction will be present to render any needed assistance. There will be no set program, but the following subjects will be discussed:

Forenoon.

1. Children's Agricultural and Industrial Fairs. What educational and economic value have they, and how can they best be promoted?
2. School Finances, Methods of Taxation, etc.

Afternoon.

3. The School as a Social Center.
4. How Can Rural School Supervisors Best Serve the People?

Other subjects of general interest will be discussed if time permits.

Yours truly,

J. PERCY WELLS,

County School Superintendent.

Additional Local and Personal

Bandon Western World: Mrs. F. J. Lowry and daughter, Miss Edith, and two sons, Merton and Vernon, arrived Friday from Ashland, Ore., to join Mr. Lowry, who is employed as cutter in the City Market. They were accompanied by Miss Simpson, a trained nurse and sister of Mrs. Lowry. Miss Edith was given quite a send-off by her high school friends, as will be seen in an article taken from the high school notes of that city.

Clyde Costella and Earl Hosler went hunting the other day, probably Saturday, and bagged a fine bunch of mountain quail. The Tidings man is ready to testify to their plumpness and to say that quail this year are as toothsome as any in the past. Costella brought three big ones to the editor's house, affording us a fine Monday morning breakfast.

—See the latest in ladies' suits and coats at Enders'.

D. Nicholson and family arrived in Ashland from Victoria, B. C., last week and have rented the residence of C. W. Holmes on Almond street and will spend the winter in Ashland, placing two of his daughters in school here. Mr. Nicholson states that he has traveled most of the time for the past four years and that the Hotel Oregon is the cleanest hotel he has struck in that time.

T. W. Osgood came up Monday to look after loading out a big load of provisions and equipment for the Hyatt Prairie irrigation work. He says that work will be shut down when the weather gets bad and will not be opened till good weather comes in the spring, as work cannot be done economically in bad weather.

—W. D. Hodgson has for sale 55 acres near Roseburg; about 10 acres steep, balance fine land; house, barn and close to electric survey. This is cheap at $3,500. Who wants it? Fine spring and young fruit. I also have good homestead on Pacific Highway, one mile from Hills. See me about this. 40-2t

Free.

Over 3,000 fruit and shade trees will be given to any one who will get them. Want the land. No one person or company can take these trees; they are to be distributed to individuals. 186 Weightman street.

$50.00 Reward

will be paid for definite information concerning the existence or death of a Norwegian by the name of alias Strand, who left San Francisco early in 1909, probably for Northern California or Oregon, and seems to have disappeared. MADS HAUGAN was then 35 years of age, well built; height, 5 ft. 9 in.; weight, 160 lbs.; dark complexioned.

MADS HAUGAN

Facts concerning him, whether dead or alive, should be sent at once to

Consulate of Norway

San Francisco, Cal.

Fine Art Goods

Special low prices on Pictures, Jardinieres and General Art Goods during the month of October. Overstocked and must reduce.

Art Store, Medford

30 NORTH GRAPE

This Will Enable Women

Dress More Becomingly

The big new fashion magazine (price 5c) will be a boon to woman. It will show her how to dress better on the same income. Takes you to Paris and New York, via photograph.

"The Criterion of Fashion"

5c per copy.

50c per year

Shows you what is the proper thing in shoes, hosiery, wraps, dresses—every article of women's clothes. Don't miss the October issue.

Beebe & Kinney

ASHLAND

Frank Burgess, district manager for the Metropolitan Life, came up from Medford Sunday to adjust the industrial policy on the life of little Fay Schoenthal, who died Saturday evening.

Spirella Corsets. Mrs. Myra McNeill, 190 Oak street, phone 344-L, is the only representative now in Ashland for the very popular flexible, comfortable Spirella corset. 1t-Mon.

Longer Nights and Colder Days

NO MORE positive sign that pump and oxford days are past and that boots are needed.

Just as necessary to have boots to go with that new street costume as new hat or gloves.

We were never better prepared to fill your footwear needs—the "JOHN KELLY" styles for women never looked so pretty. The new leathers—patent, tan, dull calf, kid—are here.

$3.50

to $5.00

H. G. ENDERS & SON.

"Where You Do Better"

Why Make Your Wife Suffer

With a range that will neither bake nor draw? You would not use poor tools yourself; why make her? Especially when you can buy a range that is guaranteed to cook well, and bake well and be economical in fuel for only $37. Remember, we have an expert plumber and can connect up your range or attend to your troubles in the plumbing line on short notice.

A. J. BIEGEL

Hardware—Paints—Plumbing

Phone 90.

297 E. Main St.

Big Reduction in Ladies' Suits!

WOOLEN HOUSE OVERSTOCKED ORDERS US TO SELL 35 CHOICE PATTERNS AT $25.00

FIT GUARANTEED. Also Best Value in the City in Men's Suits and Overcoats. We Give Blue Trading Stamps.

Fuller & Paulserud, The Tailors and Cleaners