Mr. Dean went to Klamath Falls to be absent for a month on a timber cruising trip, while Mrs. Dean went to Portland for a few weeks' visit with friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Eastman left last evening for the south on what "Happy" calls a delayed honeymoon. They go from here to Frisco, where they take steamer for Los Angeles, and from there go to Santa Ana to visit his relatives and to Pasadena to visit Mrs. Eastman's parents, Dr. and Mrs. Hosmer, formerly of Ashland. They expect to be absent about a month.

Mrs. Swingle Surprised.

Mrs. Young read an article titled, "What is and What is Not Mission of Spiritualists," by E. Garner; Mrs. Robinson of Talent, "You Are My Heir," said a Voice to a Senator's Wife; Mrs. Sayles, "Young Artist With Spirit Teacher"; Mrs. Wilcox sees husband die in a dream; Mrs. Thornton, "Ella Wheeler Wilcox on future life." We then adjourned and Mrs. Garrison gave us some fine music. Afterwards Mrs. Young through her guide did a good work. The meeting broke up at a late hour, to meet again next Friday at the same time, 2 to 4:30. There were twenty present. All ladies welcome. ***

At the home of the bride's grandparents at Bethel, Polk county, Wednesday, October 15, 1913, Stephen A. Stone and Miss Nellie Mulkey. The ceremony was performed by I. N. Mulkey, grandfather of the bride. Miss Mulkey is the daughter of Hon. B. F. Mulkey of Medford and is a former Lane county girl, having lived at Pleasant Hill. She studied music at the University of Oregon for two years and has been teaching in the Woodburn schools lately. The groom has been on the staff of the Eugene Guard for three months and is now telegraph editor. He is a graduate of Whitman College of the class of 1909 and has been in newspaper work since his graduation. This is the fourth wedding among the Guard employes this summer.—Eugene Guard.

Entertained for Departing Friend.

The home of Mrs. B. G. Tabor on upper Morton street was the scene last Thursday afternoon of a party at once pleasant and sorrowful. It was pleasant because it was a gathering of the ladies of the neighborhood who were most charmingly entertained by Mrs. Tabor, and it was sorrowful because it was in the nature of a farewell party in honor of Mrs. J. L. Greenwood, who with her husband leaves today for Ager, Cal., where they will go onto a ranch. The afternoon was spent in conversation, etc., and delightful refreshments were served by the hostess. The following ladies were present: Mesdames Greenwood, Wilson, McClaren, Carpenter, Ball, Walker, Stannard, Parish, Van Wegen, Watkins, Geiger, Morthland, Hartley, Robertson, Crowson, Ruckles, Rathbun, Hall, Butterfield and Miss Tillie Anderson.

Local W. R. C. Entertained Valley Ladies.

The ladies of Burnside Corps, No. 24, W. R. C., entertained the ladies of the W. R. C. at Medford, Grants Pass and Central Point at the G. A. R. hall in this city Saturday. About 80 visitors were in attendance, the local motor being crowded to the doors on its forenoon trip. The visitors were met at the motor depot by a delegation of the local corps and conducted to the G. A. R. hall, where a bountiful chicken dinner was served which was heartily enjoyed by all present. In the afternoon the local corps held their regular business meeting, at which Mrs. Hildreth of Grants Pass, the deputy inspector for southern Oregon, was present and commended the local corps for their work. Some of the visitors returned home on No. 16 while others remained until the evening motor. All report a most enjoyable time.

Reception to Rev. Douglass.

The reception at Memorial hall Friday evening in honor of Rev. W. J. Douglass, the new pastor of the Methodist church of this city, was attended by a large number of the members and friends of the church. The room had been beautifully decorated with flowers and autumn leaves by the ladies of the Teacup Club, by whom the reception was given. In the receiving line were Rev. and Mrs. Douglass and the heads of various societies of the church: G. F. Billings and wife, Mesdames Ware, Trefren, Engle, Tilton, Dougherty and Eubanks. The program consisted of a piano duet by the Misses Dougherty, vocal solo by Miss Gertrude Engle, violin solo by Mr. Reno, songs by the men's chorus and male quartet, the latter composed of Messrs. Tilton, Yeo, Borrer and Barnhill, an address of welcome by Prof. G. A. Briscoe and response by Rev. Douglass. The refreshments consisted of grape juice and cake, daintily served by the young ladies of the church.

Dean-Lowe Wedding.

On Saturday morning at 9 o'clock, October 18, 1913, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. George M. Lowe on Vista street, this city, occurred a quiet and most happy wedding in the marriage of their daughter, Vera Esther Lowe, to Clyde R. Dean, Rev. W. T. Van Scoy officiating, the beautiful ring ceremony being used. The glowing sunshine outside upon the red and orange tinted autumn leaves fittingly portrayed the joyous hearts within. No finer autumnal morning ever came out of the eastern sky for two young lives to unite in one. Only the members of the two families were present. The groom is a native of the state of Michigan. He attended the schools of his native state, also the public schools of Duluth, Minn., and then completed his education in the high school of Ashland, Ore. He was in the employ of the Ashland Electric Power and Light Company in 1908 and 1909, and then after working in the post-office for a short time he was re-employed by the electric company in 1912 and has continued in the capacity of cashier up to the present and will continue in the office work for the company indefinitely. Mr. Dean is one of the industrious and straightforward young men of Ashland.

The bride is an Oregonian, her birthplace being Wagner creek above the town of Talent. She was educated in the public schools and the Southern Oregon State Normal School, in which school she completed the eighth grade of the training department in June, 1908. For the last four years she has been one of the operators for the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company, and will be missed by her telephone associates. She is one of the model young women of Ashland.

Both groom and bride have done well in this choice for life. They are already keeping house at 99 Granite street, where their many friends will always be welcome.

Tour the Valley.

Yesterday Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Burdick, Mr. and Mrs. William Myer, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Blake, Mr. and Mrs. Clark Bush and Master David, the Misses Madge Eubanks and Hope Burdick, toured the valley in automobiles as far as Eagle Point, in which locality they enjoyed a picnic dinner on the banks of Little Butte creek. It was an ideal outing on a typical autumnal day.

Many Changes Among Clergy

Seldom does a city the size of Ashland see so nearly a complete change of clergymen as is the case here at the present time. With the exception of Rev. W. A. Schwimley and Rev. Father Moisant there is not a pastor in Ashland who has been here a year and who is going to remain. And Rev. Schwimley has gone to the national council and there is no telling what they will do with him there.

The change from Rev. L. C. Poor to Rev. W. R. Douglass in the Methodist Episcopal church comes in the regular order of things in that church, likewise the change in district superintendent from Rev. Mr. Dunlap to Rev. H. J. VanFossen.

The Presbyterians have been reluctantly compelled to accept the resignation of Rev. W. T. Chisholm, their very popular pastor, who goes to a suburb of Los Angeles because of his wife's health and because he gets a larger field.

Rev. W. N. D. MacCullough of the Baptist church presented his resignation a week ago last Sunday, to take effect November 3.

Rev. Frank Lindblad of the United Brethren church is devoting much of his time to work in the Butte Falls and Trail country and there are rumors that he expects to make this his entire mission in the near future.

The Nazarene pastor, Rev. E. B. Shaver, has been here but a few months and Rev. N. L. Browning, the gifted pastor of the Christian church, is also a recent acquisition.

By the way, the changes in the personnel of a community in the west is particularly striking to an easterner. In the east the young people are apt to emigrate, but the old people are a fixture. In the west, with the exception of a few patriarchs everyone seems a newcomer, comparatively speaking. Whether or not this is the reason for the frequent changes of pastors is hard to tell. But the old system where the white-haired clergyman had officiated at the burials and weddings for more than a generation in many a family brought about a closeness of ties and an influence which cannot exist under a system of frequent changes. It is not that the clergymen are less consecrated and able than then, but largely because the people expect too much of their clergy. They expect a Spurgeon or a Moody on $600 a year, and when they do not find it they are not satisfied and want to try someone else.
