ceived the consolation, a music box with which to alleviate the sting of being beaten at cards by his wife. At the close of the game the hostess served light refreshments.

Mrs. D. H. Barneburg entertained the members of the S. S. Club in a delightful manner on last Friday afternoon. Needlework furnished an informal pastime until 5 o'clock, when a delicious luncheon was served. The club members present included Mesdames S. S. Mitchell, M. E. Briggs, George Siemantel, Charles Quinn, C. Bush, V. O. N. Smith, F. J. Shinn, W. Newcombe, H. Mathes and Miss Mathes. Mrs. Blalock was a guest for the afternoon.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Baptist church held a delightful meeting with Mrs. Gault on Second street Wednesday afternoon. The ladies had discovered it was Mrs. Gault's birthday and much to her surprise gave her a postal card shower. Miss Beatrice Miller and Miss Myrtle and Edna Dougherty added much to the pleasure of the afternoon with several piano selections. The hostess served refreshments to about thirty ladies.

Miss Madge Eubanks was hostess to the members of Alpha Chi Club last Thursday evening at her home on Wimer street. J. F. Patty took his Sunday school class of boys on a hike up Old Grizzly last Saturday. There were nine in the party, W. O. Dickerson being the guest of honor. They carried their lunch and ate it just this side of the summit on the cliff of rocks which is visible from the valley. It is said they had a few experiences which are better not related, but they all agree that they had a good time. Those in the party were Max and Leslie Schwimley, George Gray, Edward Gyger, D. R. Baughman, Glenn Inlow, Donald Dickerson and Messrs. Patty and Dickerson.

Two substitutes for the afternoon were Mrs. Sherwin and Mrs. Wagner, the regular club members present being Mesdames Cunningham, Frohbach, Boslough, Barneburg, W. Dodge, Bevington, V. O. N. Smith, M. E. Briggs and W. H. McNair.

The program will be varied, consisting of readings, an oration, music, both vocal and orchestral, and a class play, entitled "A Senior in Trouble." The returns from this program will go for reading material for the high school library. The custom of giving a literary program for this purpose was inaugurated twenty-two years ago and has been faithfully adhered to for the profit of the library and the enjoyment of the public.

Another new club formed this week is the "Jolly Jokers." They will meet once in two weeks on Tuesday evenings and play Five Hundred. Their initial meeting was held at the H. O. Frohbach home on Bush street last Thursday evening, where fourteen members enrolled. Mrs. Hall being assisted in her duties as hostess by Mesdames Wilson, Butterfield and Parrish. About twenty club members were present. Music for the occasion was furnished by Mrs. J. L. Gault, who presided over an Edison Amberola. A unique feature of the afternoon was the manner in which refreshments were served. Instead of using the old stereotyped form of sitting at a table, the hostess had the table removed and a cloth spread on the center of the dining room floor and the guests were invited to "sit down" and help themselves. It is reported that all responded nobly to the call. The home was tastefully decorated with chrysanthemums.

Qui Vive Club.
The Qui Vive Club met at the home of Mrs. Dora Young, 9 Granite street, Friday, November 14. After the regular order of business a talk was given by Mary Ann Lee spirit through Mrs. Breese, which was very interesting. Afterward Mrs. Young gave some fine messages, clairvoyantly. Afterward the Indian girl came and took up the messages and worked steady and well to give all a word from their spiritual friends. Twenty-one present. The club meets every Friday from 2 to 4:30. All ladies welcome. ***

Five Hundred Party.
Mrs. Abbie Lennart gave a five hundred party Wednesday evening honoring Mrs. Ralph Hedges, who leaves Saturday for El Centro, Calif., where she will join Mr. Hedges, who has taken charge of a stock ranch there. The bunch of carnations which was given as a booby prize went to Mrs. Benton Bowers as her consolation. The delicious luncheon served by Miss Dorothy Lennart and Miss Leona Smith was the delightful finale to the evening.
The guests were Messrs. and Mesdames Benton Bowers, A. C. Briggs, W. G. Gordon, H. L. Norwood, H. O. Frohbach, W. W. Usher, Mrs. Monroe, Mrs. Hedges and Mr. J. A. Kohagen.

West Side Circle.
The West Side Circle of the Parent-Teacher Association met at the West Side school Tuesday afternoon. After instrumental music by Mrs. Robertson a short business session was held, in which a resolution was passed thanking Mr. Campbell for his services to the club and recommending him to any organization needing his services. It was also voted to change the dues from a dollar a year to 25 cents. The report of the treasurer showed the club to be in a most satisfactory condition financially. A committee has under consideration the purchase of apparatus for the playground.

An excellent paper on home study from the parent's point of view was read by Mrs. Caldwell, which was followed by an equally good paper by Miss Myers, on the same subject, from the teacher's standpoint. The gist of the discussion which followed was that while home study is not usually desirable in the grades, it is sometimes necessary, and when done in the proper manner and under proper conditions it proves to be helpful. If done in the morning and the pupil is taught to concentrate his mind, more can be accomplished in half an hour than could be done in two hours in the evening.

Delicious "Eats"

IT IS a satisfaction to know that every article put on the table is fresh and wholesome. It is truly said that a thing well bought is half sold. We never consider an article of food well bought unless it is the very best that can be bought, for the health and happiness of the family depends upon the purity of the food consumed.

A large line of permanent, satisfied customers, buying dependable groceries at right prices, is our reason for being here.

Big Leaguers At Medford

There were about fifty fans from Ashland in attendance on the ball game of the big leaguers at Medford Monday. Despite the rain there was an attendance of about 2,000 people. There was some complaint among those from outside as to the game. It was called in the fifth inning on account of rain, and as could and should have been expected, there was no fast playing. With such a day no one had any right to expect championship form. The only possible kick anyone should have had, and that was not the fault of the Medford promoters, was the fact that the three leading stars, Christy Mathewson, Chief Bender and Walter Johnson, had left the aggregation before it reached Medford. This was a breach of faith on the part of the management of the tour, who knew full well that they could not sign up guarantees in America without the expectation of seeing the big stars. Thorpe, the Indian, proved the headliner of the crowd that made the trip. Several of the most famous players with the party did not show up at the grounds.

No Use for Sympathy.
A Yorkshireman suffering from toothache went to a dentist to have the aching tooth pulled out. The dentist pulled out the offending tooth, and was then asked to pull out the double tooth next to it.
"But that is a sound tooth," said the dentist. "The pain is only sympathetic."
"Yank it out, doctor. Hang such sympathy," replied the Tyke.—London Tit-Bits.
