

Classified Advertisements

(Continued from Page Three.)

TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY.

FOR SALE OR TRADE—Light spring wagon with good top. 292 East Main St. 57-8t

FOR SALE—Milk cow and fine year-old three-quarters Guernsey and Jersey bull. Bagley ranch, Talent, Ore. 56-tf

FOR SALE—No. 2 barrel churn. 150-egg Cypher incubator and Eldridge B sewing machine. Bagley ranch, Talent, Ore. 56-tf

JACK LONDON has joined the Appeal army. All readers of the "Appeal to Reason" acceptable. Copy mailed free, or 25 cents for 40 weeks. M. Jacker, 375 Otis St. 57-8t*

A Real Yankee.

A long-felt want has been supplied by an enterprising New Jersey farmer who owns some land of doubtful value within easy reach of New York city. This pioneer in a new life of endeavor had noticed that city hunters were greatly handicapped in their efforts by having to tramp over a much greater area than they should to accomplish a very little shooting. Plainly the situation demanded the services of an efficient engineer. So he assumed the job. He wire-fenced about 15 acres of his most worthless brush land, stocked it with a modest assortment of Belgian hares, and permitted the idea and ground to lie fallow for about three years. Then he allowed it to become known that he would permit "shooting over" his covers by city sportsmen on the basis of a payment of 50 cents for every "rabbit" shot. Gothamite hunters jumped at the opportunity, and the original genius is now busy booking dates and collecting half-dollars. And still there are those who maintain that the day of opportunity for the man of modest means has passed.—Rochester Post-Express.

The stream which has been supplying the ancient city of Damascus with water for nearly forty centuries has been harnessed and will provide electricity to light the city and operate 100 miles of railway.

Perforated corrugations encircle a new stiff hat for men for ventilation, at the same time being so inclined as to shed rain.

—Buy it at Enders'.

A RETAILER'S OBJECT LESSON.

How an Oklahoma Merchant Showed a Customer the Point.

Down in Oklahoma some time ago a man went into a store to buy a saw. He saw the saw he wanted and asked the price. It was $1.65, the dealer said.

"Good gracious," said the man, "I can get the same thing from Sears, Roebuck & Co. for $1.35."

"That's less than it cost me," said the dealer, "but I'll sell it on the same terms as the mail order house, just the same."

"All right," said the customer. "You can send it along and charge it to my account."

"Not on your life," the dealer replied. "No charge accounts. You can't do business with the mail order house that way. Fork over the cash."

The customer complied. "Now, 2 cents for postage and 5 cents for a money order."

"What—?"

"Certainly, you have to send a letter and a money order to a mail order house, you know."

The customer, inwardly raving, kept to his agreement and paid the nickel.

"Now, 25 cents expressage."

"Well, I'll be—," he said, but paid it, saying, "Now hand me that saw and I'll take it home myself and be rid of this foolery."

"Hand it to you? Where do you think you are? You're in Oklahoma and I'm in Chicago, and you'll have to wait two weeks for that saw."

Whereupon the dealer hung the saw on the peg and put the money in his cash drawer.

"That makes $1.67," he said. "It has cost you 2 cents more and taken you two weeks longer to get it than if you had paid my price in the first place."

A Reprimand.

"You know your lesson today?" said the head of the team, accusingly.

"Yes, captain."

"Well, let it pass this time, but it looks as if you were neglecting your football."—Washington Herald.

The khedive of Egypt is an enthusiastic electrician and uses electrical appliances wherever possible in his palaces and yachts.

Let That Christmas Present Be Something Useful

And what could be more useful than a suit, an overcoat, or some other article of apparel?

Each year our Christmas business grows larger. Each year more people, both men and women, come to realize that the best sort of gift is one that fills a real need.

Recognizing this need, we have this season filled our store with the sort of clothing and furnishings that any man or woman would be proud to give, and delighted to receive. As suggestions, we offer the following list:

SUITS of light or dark material, in every style that good sense and good taste demand.

OVERCOATS for every occasion—raincoats, dress coats, storm coats, motor coats.

SHIRTS and WAISTS of fancy pattern or plain, for everyday or dress wear.

NECKWEAR of brilliant or of sombre hues.

HOSIERY in plain colors or in sets to match cravat and handkerchief.

SLIPPERS in felts and leather. All colored felts for ladies.

And any person will tell you that they'd ten times rather have one of these useful gifts than some nicknack of which they have no need.

Hats, Caps, Shoes
Underwear, Jewelry
Traveling Bags, Etc.

H. G. Enders & Son

"WHERE YOU DO BETTER"

Long-Headed Girl.

He asked her in yearning, pleading tones if he could not give her an engagement ring as a Christmas present. But she comes of a thrifty and far-seeing family, which never loses its presence of mind. "No, darling," she softly whispered, "I will take the ring now. Let Christmas bring its happy surprises, just as usual."—Lippincott's.

The Cavalier.

Gladys—Oh, Bert, I wonder if there are any stalactites in this cave?
Bert—Well, if there are, haven't I got this stick to defend you with?—Punch.

Sweet Bait.

Mrs. A—I told Willie on his way home from school to get me a bar of soap.
Mrs. B—Oh, he'll forget it; my boy never remembers.
Mrs. A—No danger; I said he might buy five cents' worth of candy at the same time.

Sawmill waste of Douglas fir, of which an enormous quantity is found in the western forests, is being used to make paper pulp by a mill at Marshfield, Ore.

Mightn't a person be thankful, as Christmas approaches, for having no friends?

The Little Amenities of Life.

Candid Hostess (on seeing her nephew's fiancée for the first time)—I never should have known you from your photograph. Reggie told me you were so pretty.
Reggie's Fiancee—No, I'm not pretty, so I have to try and be nice, and it's such a bore. Have you ever tried?

Answered.

He (trying to strike up an acquaintance)—What? Only you here? Where have all the other nice girls gone?
She (bitingly)—They've gone off somewhere with all the nice boys.—London Opinion.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS.

Bids for remodeling front and other repairs to south storeroom in I. O. O. F. building will be received by the undersigned at his office in room 1, Pioneer block, Ashland, until noon, December 15, when they will be opened and contract awarded to lowest bidder, but right is reserved to reject any and all bids. Plans and specifications may be examined at my office.
GEO. W. TREFREN, Sec.,
Ashland Lodge, No. 45, I. O. O. F.
56-2t

Ashland Tidings wants ads bring results.
tt

CUNNINGHAM & COMPANY

We have the following desirable properties for sale at prices that represent their TRUE VALUE:

PROPERTIES

No. 122—80 acres, 8 miles from Rogue river; good roads, R. F. D. and telephone; one mile from school; all good red soil; all fenced with woven wire; 40 acres under cultivation, 35 acres in grain; about 50 fruit trees, family orchard, all kinds of berries; small house, good barn and other outbuildings; 2 horses, 3 cows and calf, 3 wagons, 2 plows, 2 cultivators, mower and rake, spring-tooth and drag harrows, and all kinds of small tools. The entire place can be cultivated if cleared; light clearing. This is all deep rich red soil, ideal for pears. Price $4,500; price includes all articles mentioned above. Terms half cash, balance in three years at 7 per cent interest.

We offer an excellent drug business in one of the thriving towns of Southern Oregon. Only drug store in town. Will invoice about $2,600.00. Splendid opportunity for the right party.

No. 123—Nine-room house, pantry, bath and cooler. Lot 100x130, on paved street. Fruit and berries. Two blocks to high school, 3 blocks to East Side school. All paving assessments to be paid up. Price $3,300. Half cash, terms on balance.

No. 114—One of the finest located homes in Ashland, 2 blocks from business; large lot, with fruit; house of 8 rooms, exclusive of bath, pantry, etc. The owner of this property has spent on the grounds alone $1,000, and we offer you this property at $2,500.

No. 5—A six-room house, barn, chicken house and run. All kinds of fruit and berries. One acre of ground. This place commands a fine view of the city and vicinity. Price $2,000. Terms.

THE TIME was never better for an investment in Ashland property, but like all periods of time before it, THIS TIME WILL PASS.

Our advertisement seems to be reaching people in all parts of the United States. Some are offering their property for its real worth, some are listing their property but are indifferent as to its selling, as they consider it good to hold, while a few are offering property for less than it is worth.

Mr. Investor, this last class of sellers should interest YOU, not at some future time, but NOW.

No. 124—Ranch of 110 acres 2 1/2 miles from Rogue River (Woodville). Good roads, R. F. D. and telephone. Sixty acres in cultivation; about 30 acres more can, with light clearing, be cultivated. All rich black sub-irrigated loam soil. About 100 fruit trees, coming into bearing. Small house, barn and other outbuildings. Price $65 per acre; $3,000 cash, balance one, two and three years at 7 per cent interest.

No. 108—Seven-room house, plumbing complete. Barn, chicken house and run. Lot 165x150. This place is on paved street, close to both East Side and high schools. Price $3,000. Terms.

No. 121—Eight-room house, barn, chicken house and run, woodshed; with one acre of ground, close to high school. Price $2,600. Terms.

120-Acre Alfalfa and Stock Ranch, Rogue River, Oregon

LOCATION—Eight miles north of Rogue River, Oregon, on main line of S. P. R. R., R. F. D. and telephone line.
BUILDINGS—Two sets of buildings in fair shape, fenced, 80 acres fenced and cross-fenced.
FRUIT—This land is well adapted to the raising of all kinds of fruit. The elevation of the ranch is about 1,200 feet.
ALFALFA—Fifty acres of this land is adapted to alfalfa; plenty of water for irrigation at a depth of from 15 to 20 feet; running water all year on one corner of the place.
OUTLOOK—This ranch is located in what is known as the Evans Valley basin, comprising about 8,000 acres of alluvial soil, surrounded by mountains which not only present views of rare beauty but supply the valley with a watershed, nature's reservoir, for the irrigation of the valley. School one-half mile, proposed high school one mile, store one mile.
Sixty acres of the 120 plowed and ready for seeding; balance tillable, practically level and easily cleared.
PRICE—The price on this property is $45.00 per acre.
TERMS—Half the purchase price, cash; balance two years at 6 per cent interest.

CUNNINGHAM & CO.

175 EAST MAIN ST.

ASHLAND, OREGON

TELEPHONE 63