Is There Carbon in Your Engine?

We Can Remove it by the Oxygen Method

Tearing down an engine to clean the carbon out is both expensive and unsatisfactory.

The oxygen removes every particle of carbon from the combustion chamber simply by removal of spark plugs and application of the oxygen with our special carbon removing equipment.

Allies Again Press Back the Germans

PARIS, August 26.—Terrific fighting rages all along France's eastern frontier. Heaviest is at Meubuge, Givet, Montmedy and Luneville. The crown prince said to be in command of Kaiser's soldiers. They are charging desperately in face of a hurricane of shrapnel and rifle balls. The slaughter is frightful. In places German corpses are piled breast deep. It is simply a renewal of the struggle which marked the German advance westward. Tuesday's lull but gave the combatants a breathing spell. The refreshed Germans came on even more savagely. Paris is their goal.

PARIS, August 26.—Following the deep gloom caused by the reverse the Allies suffered at the hands of the Germans Tuesday, Paris is wild with joy today over the reports of successes by Allies in a mighty battle on the Belgian frontier. The Allies are more than holding the gateway to Paris. They repulsed the Germans at Maubesse and Givet, slaughtering them wholesale and pushing their own lines back into Belgium. The fight along Lorraine frontier is reported as going north against the Germans.

LONDON, August 26.—Reinforced, the Germans in Belgium and along the French frontier are again attacking The Allies furiously. Fall of Ostend expected shortly. This will menace Great Britain directly. Germans believed to contemplate mounting big guns to resist naval attacks and making Ostend the base for raiding British Isles by dirigibles. British reinforcements being rushed to continent.

PEKIN, August 26.—Japanese troops landed on Shantung Peninsula close to Kiao Chau Bay. Landing effected under cover of bombardment by British cruisers. Forts replied vigorously, damaging ships and killing ten men.

Reports from the European war are appalling. Since the last issue of this paper Brussels has fallen to the Germans, who demand $40,000,000 was tax. The Belgian capital is moved to Antwerp. Since Saturday along the French frontier in a zigzag line 150 miles long from Mons to Melle the Germans have stood off the French and British and gradually gained ground in four days' fighting. The Allies lost heavily and great gaps were torn through the German front only to fill quickly with fresh men. The tide of battle swung to the Allies today.

Russia is pouring troops across the German border and Cossacks have crushed the Austrian frontier cavalry. Russian soldiers hold a strip fifty miles wide inside the German border with Berlin as their goal. German forts oppose their progress and can stand them off for months while German soldiers fight on toward Paris. Four towns in east Prussia are in the hands of the czar's troops, which cut the twentieth German army corps to pieces.

A Paris dispatch Monday says more casualties than in any other battle of history are already piled up. The third day of the conflict showed points where the Allies' defensive walls were broken, but reinforcements were rushed forward and invariably filled the gaps. In places the German infantry was compelled to retire. The Germans were enormously strong. Experts declare there are a million reserves behind the Kaiser's three main armies. London dispatches on Tuesday confirmed the fall of Namur and said:

"This success by the Germans is regarded as ending all hope of a speedy termination of the war. It is believed the British will be compelled to send every available soldier in the country to help the allied forces already in the field. The British losses are enormous. A government official says: "When it becomes known what both sides have suffered, the world will be appalled."

Japan declared war Sunday on Germany and is operating against the Germans in their sphere of influence in China about Kiao Chau and Tsing Tschau. Austria has declared war on Japan. A Tuesday dispatch from Tokyo says Japanese, British, French and Russian warships are blockading Tsing Tschau and dare taking every precaution against floating mines. It is stated on good authority that more than ten thousand mines obstruct the entrance to the harbor. The German garrison, seven thousand strong, showed plainly a determination to resist. Investigation has proved that the land defenses are really formidable.

Alaskan Steamer Rammed By Liner

The Alaskan steamer Admiral Sampson was rammed by the Canadian Pacific liner Princess Victoria eighteen miles from Seattle at six-fifty this morning and sank in ten minutes. Three passengers and eight members of the crew, including Captain Z. A. Moore, were lost. A deep gash was torn in the Sampson both above and below the water line and the ship was set afire. The collision was due to a dense fog.

Practically all the passengers were asleep, but the captain took charge of the rescue work and boats were promptly lowered and ropes thrown out. The last seen of Captain Moore he was raising his hand as though saying "Good-bye" as the ship was swallowed up by the sea. The passengers drowned were Mrs. Ed Banbury, G. W. Bryant, Eddie Bracken. The crew's dead are Captain Moore, A. Sater, C. Marquette, Miss Campbell stewardess, L. Cabanas, John G. Ware, A. J. Noon chief engineer, W. E. Reker.

A nice exhibit of Alberta peaches are on display at the exhibit building of the Commercial Club.
