A BIT OF ADVICE.

First, Don't Delay; Second, Don't Experiment.

If you suffer from backache, headaches or dizzy spells; if you rest poorly and are languid in the morning; if the kidney secretions are irregular and unnatural in appearance, do not delay. In such cases the kidneys often need help.

Doan's Kidney Pills are especially prepared for kidney trouble. They are recommended by thousands. Can Ashland residents desire more convincing proof of their effectiveness than the statement of an Ashland citizen who has used them and willingly testifies to their worth?

Mrs. M. J. Wilbourn, 190 B street, Ashland, Ore., says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills and have found them so good that I willingly recommend them. I keep a supply in the house all the time. Whenever my back and kidneys bother me I have Doan's Kidney Pills on hand and they quickly drive the trouble away. I never knew of another remedy that gave such good results. I think all kidney sufferers would do well to give Doan's Kidney Pills a trial."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Wilbourn had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

A Good Advertiser Can Sell Good Property—Any Time, Anywhere

He must keep his ad at work. It must be THERE when the possible buyer looks—and he might not look more than one day out of ten. Of course, he might see and investigate it on its first publication, or, perhaps, the fifth or sixth time it appears. The good advertiser knows that, however persistent a campaign may be required, the cost will be an easily forgettable thing when the sale is made!

The asphalt mixer has been closed for two days on account of rain.

The Clark-Henry Construction Company expected to have the pavement completed as far as Talent by Saturday evening, weather permitting.

Joe Kerby quit his job at the Johnson sawmill and John Hearing will take his place for the winter.

The Community Club held a very novel meeting Wednesday afternoon. The business meeting was held in the auditorium of the Talent school building. After the business was attended to the ladies adjourned to the home of Mrs. Lewis Brown, where games were played. In the guessing games Mrs. A. S. Ames won the first prize and Mrs. Effie Seaman the consolation. In the dressing doll contest Mrs. J. H. Fuller won the first prize and Mrs. O. H. Barnhill the consolation. All the games were immensely enjoyed. At about 5 o'clock the ladies repaired to the home of Mrs. C. D. Burgan, where a delicious lunch was served which consisted of sandwiches, creamed chicken, pickles and coffee. Those ladies who attended the meeting were Mesdames Crawford, Lester, Burgan, Brown, Budgeon, Seaman, King, Ames, Perry, Hart, Adamson, Wilson, Stannard, Terrill, Barnhill, Ager, Holdridge, Fuller, Beeson and Misses Emma Crawford, Ella Gershong and Mae Smith.

Miss Emma Crawford spent Friday evening in Medford.

Ben Inman is helping William Carey finish his cottage and build a woodshed.

Mrs. George Ziders and daughter visited Ashland Thursday.

The Ames car left here Wednesday morning for Eagle Point with the C. T. U. ladies, who attended the county convention. Passengers were taken on at Phoenix and Medford at the Southern Pacific depot, twenty-one ladies in all. Before leaving Medford the car ran up and down the main streets of that place with the ladies singing the "Rally Song."

At 1 o'clock they arrived at Eagle Point, despite the rain and mud, and were served with a bounteous dinner at the home of Mrs. Stover. After the banquet all the ladies adjourned to the Baptist church, where the convention was held. Mrs. Smith, one of the national speakers, was one of the main features of the afternoon.

Miss McDonald of upper Rogue river gave a very fine reading and Mrs. McCulloch gave a very good talk on the conditions and affairs of the state in temperance work. Taking it from start to finish, the convention was one of the best ever held in Jackson county. All the ladies say that the Eagle Point people are certainly splendid entertainers. At 7:30 Thursday morning the Ames car left Eagle Point with the ladies, all singing and giving the rally cry, "Oregon dry in 1914." Those who attended from Talent were Mesdames W. Vogel, E. E. Cook, L. Sleppy, Vance Wolgamot and J. Backus.

Friday evening Dr. McCulloch of Medford gave a very good lecture, and those not attending missed one of the best talks ever given in Talent.

Mr. Fitzgerald of the Clark-Henry Construction Company reported that if the weather was clear for about forty days the pavement between Talent and the Jackson hill near Ashland would be completed.

Talent Industrial Fair.

Talent will hold its second exhibition Wednesday, September 23. The exhibits will be placed and all judging will be done on Tuesday. The doors will be open to the public at 9 a. m. At 10 a. m. the program will commence, consisting of short addresses by P. L. Harrington, state field and industrial worker, County Superintendent J. P. Wells, Supervisor A. R. Chase and others. At 12 o'clock the picnic dinner will take place. Everyone is requested to bring their dinner and participate in an old-fashioned picnic dinner. Free coffee will be served by the domestic science class. Sandwiches and cake may be procured from the Talent Study Club. The proceeds will go toward the athletic fund.

At 2 p. m. a literary program will be given, consisting of several selections by the school children, a dramatic reading by Miss Calkins, an ex-Chautauqua entertainer of high standard, also an instrumental selection by Miss Holmes of Ashland a noted pianist.

Everyone bring your lunch, also anything you wish to exhibit, and enjoy a holiday with the school children from the Talent, Wagner creek, Anderson creek and other districts.

The KITCHEN CUPBOARD

COOKING CRABS.

AN easy way of serving crab meat in the shells is to shred it and mix it with a dressing made of four tablespoonfuls of oil, two teaspoonfuls of vinegar, salt and white pepper and cayenne. Return the dressed crab meat to the cleaned shells and garnish each with a thin slice of lemon cut in two pieces and two or three green sprigs of parsley. Crab meat may be prepared in the same way heated, then returned to the shells and eaten hot.

Garnished With Parsley.

Broiled Crabs.—Boil the crabs and pick out the meat. Dice or shred and mix it with nutmeg, salt and pepper. Cut three ounces of butter in small pieces and add it to the crab meat. Then add three tablespoonfuls of vinegar and a quarter of a pound of fine breadcrumbs. Mix all these ingredients, fill the shells with the combination and put them on a hot broiler. Brown them quickly and serve immediately. Parsley and lemon may be used for garnish.

Tempting Luncheon Dish.

Crabs With Pimentos.—Boil hard four eggs, chop the whites, mash the yolks and mix them with two tablespoonfuls of fine white breadcrumbs and one and one-half tablespoonfuls of canned pimentos chopped fine. Melt, but do not brown, four tablespoonfuls of butter in the dish. Work in the egg mixture and add slowly a cupful of cream and, lastly, a cupful of crab meat. Season with salt, pepper, a teaspoonful of lemon juice and a dash of nutmeg. Let grow smooth and serve at once in little individual dishes or on toast.

Served in the Shells.

Scalloped Crabs.—Boil and pick out the meat from the crabs. Beat an egg light and mix the meat of a dozen crabs. Season to taste with salt and cayenne and a little powdered mace or clove of garlic chopped very fine. Mix thoroughly into the crab meat some fine bread or cracker crumbs—enough to enable you to form the mixture into balls about the size of English walnuts. Dip these in beaten egg and roll in crumbs and fry in deep hot fat. Have the crab shells cleaned and heated, put about four of the small balls in each shell with a sprig of parsley stuck in the topmost ball, pour a little cream sauce in the shell and serve very hot.
