

You Should Know

"Guessing is good only when it hits."

You avoid guessing when you use a checking account at this Bank.

You KNOW exactly what you have received and what you have paid out and have the best kind of a receipt for every dollar.

Try it—we assure you of courteous treatment.

First National Bank

ASHLAND, OREGON. Oldest National Bank in Jackson County

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Maxey and Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Sanford spent a day on the Rogue River last week and enjoyed a catch of twenty-two fine fish.

—We will save you one-fourth to one-half on ladies' and children's winter underwear. Separate garments and union suits. The Forest Mills kind. Minkler's Cloak and Suit House.

Ed Farlow and son Elbert enjoyed a good day's hunting last week, when they together shot fourteen big mountain quail. The game was found over on Grizzly.

—That October special offer at Studio Ashland is too good to miss. Get busy. Only a few more days.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Seeley of Woodburn are visiting Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Doughman.

—Auto service, Julius Hart, phone 450-R. Rates reasonable. 33-1mo.

—Miss Melissa Wenner represents all magazines and is authorized to duplicate clubbing offers of reputable publishers. All orders promptly attended to. Magazine rates advance November 10. Order now. Phone 447-J. 41-4t*

Mrs. Henry Landess of Cottage Grove visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hedberg Friday and Saturday. She left here for Klamath Falls, where she will visit friends.

—Over 100 ladies', misses' and children's coats, suits and dresses in good styles, values to $25, on sale to close out at $2.50 to $10. Minkler's Cloak and Suit House.

The practice of Pauline is being vigorously pursued, so vigorously carried on, in fact, that all of Sunday afternoon was spent in rehearsing.

Mrs. George R. Williams and Mrs. George Gillette of Dunsmuir are spending a few days in the city.

—Suits that are strictly all wool and tailored to your figure at reduced prices at Orres' shop.

A. A. Frederick of Seattle was in the city Tuesday attending to some business matters.

—Rain or shine, have those photographs made this month. Studio Ashland.

F. Werth, who has been employed on the Columbia Highway for some time past, arrived in the city Friday and will proceed to the Siskiyou Highway, there to find work.

Mrs. Margaret R. Butterfield returned from Montague Friday, after spending the week in that place.

L. A. Freeland of Portland was a business visitor in Ashland on Tuesday.

—Cliff Payne makes pruning ladders.

Mrs. Carl Murphy returned last Saturday from her trip to the east. Her sister, Marian Huntley, is still in Duluth, Minn. They spent most of their time in Duluth, where many of their old friends and relatives reside.

Sumner Parker left Wednesday morning for San Francisco, there to study violin work under the personal instruction of Manetti, the famous virtuoso.

The Park garage has made a great improvement in the roadway leading up to its entrance doors, having filled in with assorted gravel.

Miss Beatrice Miller left Saturday morning for Eugene, where she will spend the winter visiting her relatives.

—Ladies' and children's hosiery 25 to 50 per cent under price at Minkler's Cloak and Suit House.

Miss Lawrence Brown left Saturday for Sisson, there to spend a few days.

Miss Alice Cromar, who was a member of the class of 1914 and who is now teaching the school at the fish hatchery on Rogue river, spent two days in the city last week, following the institute. She left Saturday for her school again. She does not think that she will be able to return to the city until Christmas.

J. S. Gilbert, the 83-year-old grandfather of Mrs. Tabor, the proprietress of the Ashland Hotel dining room, arrived in the city Tuesday for a short visit. He made the trip alone from his home in Ohio.

—Parents, if you wish your children to receive individual instruction you should arrange to place them in Mrs. Hardy's private school. Call between 4 and 5 o'clock. 37-1t

Mrs. S. L. Grigsby and daughter Leone leave today for San Diego, where they will make their future home.

Mrs. W. C. Sanderson and son Sidney left Wednesday for Petaluma, where they will join Mr. Sanderson.

Mrs. J. E. Crowson spent last week with her daughter, Mrs. A. W. Thomas near Kingsbury springs.

—Everybody is taking advantage of the special October offer at Studio Ashland. It's too good to miss.

William J. Ferns of Phoenix spent a short time in the city last week on business.

E. D. Purviance of Artica, Ind., is visiting at the home of R. P. Campbell.

Many parties visit the Pacific Highway on the Siskiyou Sundays. It is becoming a very popular place to go for a short auto trip. Everyone that views the work is enthusiastic over the progress the county is making, and tourists from other states and counties are loud in their appraisal.

O. A. Stearns, who was a pioneer of '53 in Jackson county, who has been in the city the past week, left Saturday for Klamath Falls, where his home is now located.

—Three dozen ladies' all-wool serge and mixture skirts, good styles that sold for $7.50 to $10, on sale to close at $4.95. Minkler's Cloak and Suit House.

Mrs. George Mead of Oxford, N. Y., arrived Wednesday to spend the winter in the city with her mother, Mrs. Addis.

E. T. Bond of Washington, D. C., stopped in Ashland Monday and attended to some business matters.

J. G. Townsend of Portland transacted business in Ashland last Wednesday.

Charles McWilliams and J. C. Davidson of Klamath Falls, who have been in the city waiting for the rains to stop so that they might take their car back to Klamath Falls, left last week on the train, as there seemed to be little hope for dry roads for some time. They attempted to cross last week, but broke down and had to return.

—The next attraction of the Lyceum Course at the Vining Theatre on November 7 will be The Killarney Girls, seven in number, who appear in Irish costumes, presenting a program of music and singing embracing the humor, patriotism and pathos of the Irish people. 42-1t

Miss Miriam Gregg returned Wednesday from Medford, where she spent the fore part of the week with Miss Marie Seeley, her boarding school chum.

Ivan Phipps, who has been in Sams Valley with his parents during the summer, has now returned and eoters school again today.

—For dry cleaning, pressing, altering and repairing try Orres' shop. Phone 64.

W. T. Small of Dunsmuir was a business visitor Wednesday of last week.

The Chautauqua ladies are making some extensive plans for the beautifying of the park. They are heartily in line with the "beautify Ashland" movement.

—Did you get bumped? Try Orres next time.

A spelling club has been organized in the district of Green Springs school, which meets every two weeks on Friday evening. They gladly welcome anyone to come out and attend. Miss York often brings out her town friends to attend them.

—Miss Rita Rich, whose work is one of the special features of The Killarney Girls, is a famous impersonator in songs. As a singer of folk songs Miss Rich is a wonder. At the Vining Theatre November 7. 42-1t

The Green Springs school is having a vacation this week on account of the teachers' institute. Miss York will go back to school next Monday.

J. H. Hunsberger and family of Vineland, N. J., were guests at the Columbia last week.

J. W. Fitzgerald of Dunsmuir was in the city last week on business.

Herman Wallace and wife of Oakland, Cal., spent Wednesday in Ashland.

E. P. Hughes and family have moved their home to Kerby, Ore., where Mr. Hughes will pursue ranching.

Don Lowe entered school last week. The school enrollment has now reached 250, a number eclipsing and previous enrollment.

Mrs. Pansy B. Childs left Friday for South Dakota, where she will spend about eight weeks visiting friends and relatives.

—If you have the blues go hear the operetta Pauline at the Vining October 23.

O. L. Grange and wife of Astoria were visitors in Ashland Sunday.

Mrs. G. W. Powell of Hilt spent a day last week visiting friends in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. D. N. Davis and Misses Lucy, Grace and Amy Davis, also Paul Deuber, all from Green Springs, attended the teachers' institute at Medford.

Col. C. E. S. Wood brought quite a Hanley delegation from Medford with him Thursday night. Those in the party were Mrs. E. B. Hanley, Mrs. Charles Schieffelin, Mrs. John M. Root, Miss Josephine Root, Mrs. Ed Andrews, Miss Caroline Andrews, Miss Venita Hamilton and Mrs. J. F. Reddy.

Roger S. Bennett of Medford was in the city Thursday attending to various business matters.

C. E. Driver of Lakeview, Ore., spent Friday in the city on business.

D. W. Abrams of Newburgh, N. Y., spent a day in Ashland last week.

J. E. A. Smith of Portland, who is connected with the Louise Home of that city, was in the city Friday and Saturday on business.

The nine-months-old baby daughter of Mrs. E. H. Hultz of this city had the misfortune to swallow a safety pin last week. The pin opened in her throat and it was located about in the middle of the chest by the X-ray. Nothing was done in the hope that it would pass on down, which thing occurred today. The baby is feeling quite hearty and well after the accident.

E. Watson of Medford spent Monday in the city.

Mrs. H. N. Lowe spent Tuesday and part of Wednesday in Medford.

George H. Graves of Salem was in the city Tuesday.

J. C. Currie of Salem enjoyed a stay in Ashland this week.

James Howe of San Diego stayed at the Ashland Hotel last week.

Operetta -- "Pauline"

Seventy People. Under the direction of Marie Christian Watkins, Vining October 23

ARGUMENT.

Opening Scene.—A picnic party arrived at the grounds of The Dalles, a country inn. Pauline, the handsome daughter of Cassidy, landlord of the hotel, gives them hearty welcome. Faber, a press correspondent of New York, who is a kind-hearted, innocently self-important, happy-go-lucky young man, arrives for an outing; he is greeted by his prior-time host, to whom he makes himself his guest to the party, to whom he makes himself an early school preceptor to Faber, arrives to enjoy a short vacation, at the invitation of his erstwhile pupil. There being no one to receive him, he falls asleep. Three insurgent spies, disguised as tramps, make themselves at home, until they discover the sleeper, and disappear. Faber, in his original manner, informally greets his early teacher. The meditations of Chilkootee, an eccentric village character, are interrupted by Chickie. Cullie becomes suspicious. Shady has troubles of his own. Ruben appears, much to the delight of Cullie. Kloml tells fortunes. Pauline is unhappy over the absence of the Village Physician, who is a very busy man.

An insurrection has arisen, and a company of Grenadiers has been ordered out. The stars and stripes are not forgotten. The Village Physician pauses long enough to disclose his calling, aspirations, hopes and regrets. Chickie displays authority over the Professor, which is discovered by Faber, who becomes hilarious; his flattery fails to control Cullie, and the picnic party return for lunch.

The second part opens in the woods, with the girls enjoying a flower carnival. Pauline interprets the language of the red rose. Faber appears and breaks up the party, then proceeds to lay his plans for the siege of the heart of Pauline. Shady, who is very homesick, enters and interrupts the strange soliloquy. The messenger boy escapes death at the hands of Shady, delivers his message, which orders Faber to the scene of riot. This materially alters his modus operandi of love-making and changes his mind. A widowed mother, with her little son, making her way back to the old homestead, carries that the child may rest; both fall asleep. Uncle Joe, the lady's former servant, in search of her, accidentally arriving at the same place, is overjoyed to find his "Young Misses." Faber, equipped for his trip, comes upon the scene. Uncle Joe finds a grandson, and the widow a benefactor. A reception is given. Cassidy. Ruben brings word that the insurrection is quelled. The spies, nervously retreating, find nothing of value to carry away, and, disgusted, their old-time habit proves strong, and they march away as in the chain gang. Faber returns with a full account of the riot, gives his blessing, unasked, to all concerned, and love and happiness crown an eventful day.

Pauline, daughter of Cassidy. Mrs. Sylvan Provost Cullie, servant maid. Priscilla Carnahan Chickie, a spinster sister of Cassidy. Miss Nellie Briggs Naine, a village belle. Mrs. D. D. Norris Kloml, an Indian fortune teller. Miss Ruth Brown Mother, a widow lady. Mrs. C. B. Wolf Her child. Fred Watkins Faber, a New York journalist. Lloyd Stratton Shady, Faber's valet, a colored boy. Kenneth Cunningham Cassidy, landlord of The Dalles Inn. A. O. McGee Professor, a middle-aged school teacher. T. H. Howell Chilkootee, eccentric village character. H. O. Purucker Ruben, a farmer boy. M. E. Briggs The village physician. D. D. Norris Uncle Joe, former slave of the widow. Arthur Graham

PRICES 75c, 50c, and 25c

—See what Studio Ashland can do for you this month. Don't miss it.

C. L. McCaslin of Portland spent a few days in Ashland last week.

J. L. Greenwood of Ager, Cal., was in the city Friday looking after some business interests.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Turner, who left last week with Mr. and Mrs. Lamkin for a tour of California, are reported as intending to extend their trip through Nevada and Texas and from thence on to Ohio. They will go by way of the Lincoln Highway.

G. W. Wilcox, who has been visiting his son, H. P. Wilcox, of this city, left today for Lemon Grove, Cal.

Henry Galey and family have moved to Glendale, Cal., where they will make their future home.

50th Anniversary Of Methodist Church

The week of November 8 to 15 inclusive will mark the fiftieth anniversary of the Methodist church of this city. A program for that entire week will be arranged so as to have speakers every evening. The Methodist church was among the first to be organized in the city. The week of celebration will be one of the most active in the church history.

Fifty cents invested in a Tidings "For Sale" ad often sells a $5,000 property. Did you ever try it?

Phone news items to the Tidings.

T. Bernhard of New York city, a landscape gardener, arrived in Ashland Monday and is now working on the street-sweeping crew. Miss Bertha Calkins enjoyed a trip to Medford Tuesday.

L. O. Van Wegen AUTO SERVICE DAY OR NIGHT 6-Passenger Carter Car Phone: Office 103; Residence 350-J

SENATOR CHAMBERLAIN Will address the People of ASHLAND AND VICINITY AT THE VINING THEATRE Wednesday Afternoon 2:30 Sharp Ladies Cordially Invited.

THE CITIZENS BANK OF ASHLAND Systematically Accumulate Do not be content to deposit money merely at long intervals—but introduce system and make weekly deposits. Your account is invited. 4% ON SAVINGS DEPOSITS

TO-NIGHT! "BABY MINE" At.. The VINING

Fun from Beginning to End!

Secure Your Reserved Seats at Once

Only a Few Choice Seats Left

A Laugh! A Scream!

PRICES—Orchestra, first six rows $1; next ten rows $1.50; last four rows $1. Balcony, first two rows $1.50; next two rows $1. Gallery, first five rows 75 cents; remainder 50 cents. Box seats $1.50.

