Presbyterian Doings.

A rousing missionary meeting was held in the parlors of the Presbyterian church last Thursday afternoon under the leadership of Mrs. J. R. Wick, who presided with earnest Christian dignity. A large attendance and an unusually large collection proved that the subject, "Mormonism," had been thoroughly studied and the perils therefrom, to the western states, fully realized. Many do not know of its steady growth and terrible menace to the United States.

Mrs. Shinn discussed and reviewed the lecture recently given by Dr. Wishart, who was for sixteen years a missionary to the Mormons at Salt Lake City. Mrs. Shinn has made a study of the subject and she emphasized the leading features of Dr. Wishart's lecture. Her heart is in the cause, and we need others like her.

Next, Mrs. Van Sant, who has studied this subject thoroughly, gave excerpts from an interesting article in the Mission World.

On the program was Mrs. McCoy, who gave the status of the church schools in Utah and information of their thorough work.

In the general discussion many participated, showing unusual interest and intelligence.

Mrs. Frea Conner, a visitor from Ogden, Utah, enlightened those present to the conditions prevailing in her town. Only four per cent of the people of Ogden are anti-Mormon, and only two business houses are conducted by them. All other business lies in the hands of the Mormons, who (it is well known) are the best regulated secret society and police system in the United States.

The last half hour was cheery and social, enlivened by the cup "that cheers but does not inebriate" and the fine New England doughnuts that only Presbyterian ladies can make. Thanks are due to Mrs. Poley and her committee.

Political Announcement

Ralph M. Hedges is going to make the race for recorder in the city campaign which ends with the election in December. Mr. Hedges came west four years ago from Cincinnati, Ohio, looked the country over from Sacramento to North Yakima and decided Ashland looked the best to him. He went to sleep last fall and spent the winter and part of the summer in Imperial Valley, but the heat woke him up and he has decided that Ashland is better than ever and a good city to stay and grow up with. His former connection with one of the largest stationery and printing firms in Cincinnati as office man and city solicitor well fits him to perform the duties of city recorder. He stands for law and order. He wants the office and to get it must have the necessary votes, so therefore respectfully asks the support of the voters of Ashland. (Paid Adv.)

Methodist Meetings Celebrate 50th Year

Passersby on North Main street notice the figures "1864" cut in the cornerstone of the Methodist church. This is the date of its founding and to celebrate that event is the purpose of the meetings being held at the Methodist church this week.

Sunday morning at eleven o'clock there was an old-fashioned love feast, greatly enjoyed by the congregation. The sacrament of the Lord's Supper was administered. In the evening Rev. Van Fossen, presiding elder of the Klamath district, preached a powerful sermon on the text, "Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart and thy neighbor as thyself." Rev. Van Fossen was for five years—the maximum time limit—pastor of the Ashland church.

Monday evening was devoted to the men of the church. The speakers were Prof. G. A. Briscoe and W. W. Hevener, who emphasized the importance of man's work in the church.

Tuesday evening the relation of the church to the community was discussed by Rev. Carnahan and Mayor Johnson. The latter said that the prospect of Ashland becoming a tourist and health resort made it necessary for Christian people to redouble their efforts to maintain the high moral character of our city.

Wednesday evening there was a get-together social. The Tea Cup Club served refreshments. Rev. J. S. Smith, a former pastor, and Mrs. A. H. Russell, one of the pioneers of Ashland, read papers on the early history of the church and city. Mrs. Russell's paper appears in this issue. Of the pioneers present at the M. E. church on Wednesday evening at the fiftieth year celebration of the church's organization, were the following: Mrs. A. H. Russell of 1852, Mrs. A. L. Harvey of 1852, Mrs. M. L. Gillette of 1852, Mrs. Kate Howell of 1853, Mrs. J. W. Mills of 1858, Mrs. George Anderson of 1862, Mrs. James Thornton of 1862, Mrs. Jacob Wagner of 1860, Mrs. William N. Mathes of 1863, and a number more that came a few years later.

Thursday evening will be spent considering what the women have accomplished and are doing today—the Aid Society, the four missionary societies, Home, Foreign, Young Ladies and Standard Bearers, the Tea Cup Club and several organized women's and girls' classes in the Sunday school.

Friday evening Rev. Phipps, superintendent of Oregon for the International Sunday School Union, will discuss his work.

Sunday morning Rev. Skipworth, who was pastor of the Ashland church in 1886 and 1887, will preach. The evening services will be in charge of the Epworth League, which will begin the work of "Win My Chum" week. To further this work meetings will be held Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings of next week. The first will be addressed by Rev. Carnahan, the second by Rev. Blackstone and the last by Rev. Ogg.

HIGH SCHOOL JIBLETS.

Merlin Wilson, a former high school boy, but who moved to Los Angeles when he was a sophomore, in a recent letter received by Fred Schuerman from him, states that he was elected joke editor of the big high school annual there. He is a senior this year.

Professor Vining spoke at the high school before assembly Wednesday morning. His talk was uplifting, to the point, as usual, and very beneficial. "Never acknowledge defeat—call it arrested success, keep trying, keep moving your aim higher and higher, and make the keynote of your life future success."

Medford has chartered a special train and expects to bring us about 300 people, so the high school boys and girls will have to turn out to make a noise. This also applies to all townspeople.

Miss Nissley is coaching the anniversary play, which will be put on just before Thanksgiving. It is a scream from the start to finish, being a parody on the Merchant of Venice.

Miss Priscilla Carnahan sang a part from the operetta Pauline as a number for assembly entertainment Wednesday morning. It was much enjoyed by the pupils.

There will be a student's rally next Friday at the Vining Theatre. Prices will be 10 cents for high school students.

Last Saturday evening Miss Hasinger entertained the faculty of the high school at a little party at her home. The first part of the evening was occupied with a candy pull. Though the candy was sticky, much enjoyment was had in the pulling of it. Miss Nissley had quite a time in finding her ring, and her excitement and annoyance at its loss furnished great amusement for those present. During the latter part of the evening a light luncheon was served, the deliciousness of which spoke well for the hostess. Those present report one of the most enjoyable times of the season.
