Bounteous Shower for Miss Sanford

Mrs. James J. McNair gave a delightful affair last Thursday evening in honor of Miss Ethlynde Sanford. About forty of Miss Sanford's friends, including the Alpha Chis, were present, and the silvery peals of laughter above the soft sounds of music and animated conversation were eloquent proof of the good time all were having.

Later in the evening Miss Sanford was decoyed from the rooms upon some pretext and the lights turned low. Swiftly from his hiding place a lovely Christmas tree, glistening with silver and festooned with tiny electric lights, was placed before the blaze of the big fireplace. The beauty was tied to the tree, and when Miss Sanford returned her surprise was tiful gifts which each had brought complete.

Miss Sanford was lovely in a gown of pastel blue and brown fur, and all were delighted with the charming naivette of the little "Christmas bride" as she presided over her well-laden tree.

Delicious refreshments were served and the happy evening came to a close.

Christmas Service.

New Photographer Wyoming Mayor

The Hartville (Wyo.) Uplift mentions the following in regard to Mr. DeSchenka, who left there for Salem some time ago, and who has now opened up the Camps Studio: "C. A. DeSchenka and daughter, Daisy, departed Wednesday evening for Salem, Ore., where Mr. DeSchenka expects to locate. Mrs. DeSchenka and family will join him after the holidays. The people of Hartville feel that they have lost a valuable citizen in Mr. DeSchenka. He was prominent in the politics of the town and had served as mayor and city clerk. He also edited the Hartville Uplift until it came under the present management. His many friends wish him every success in his new location."
