

Treated Alike

We offer the best possible banking service to all our patrons.

Prompt and careful attention is given all business, and our customers receive courteous attention regardless of the size of their accounts.

Assuring you of this kind of service, we solicit your business.

First National Bank

ASHLAND, OREGON.

Oldest National Bank in Jackson County

A. F. and A. M. Ashland Lodge No. 23

Special communication of Ashland Lodge No. 23, A. F. & A. M., Thursday evening, March 4, 1915, for work on the Second degree. Visiting members are cordially welcome.

W. E. BLAKE, W. M.
W. H. DAY, Sec'y. 80-2t

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Spring walts arrived at Enders'. Contractor Sweeney was in town Tuesday.

Wesley Judy motored up from Medford Tuesday.

Depot hotel pays 13 cents a pound for live fat hens. 81-3t

Mrs. J. A. Westerlund was a visitor from Medford Tuesday.

New lace boots for ladies at Enders'. 200 extra votes with each pair.

E. V. Carter was a business visitor to Medford the first of the week.

Extra votes with dresses at Enders' until March 15.

E. J. Kaiser was a visitor in Medford and Jacksonville Wednesday.

1,000 extra votes with ladies' suits at Enders'. Buy your suit now.

Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Harris and wife visited friends here Saturday evening.

James R. Huggins of Marshall transacted business in the city early in the week.

J. K. Choate was in Roseburg the first of the week looking after business affairs.

Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Lafferty are the proud parents of a lusty eleven-pound baby boy.

See the splendid values in millinery at Miss Hargroves'.

Andy McGee has had all kinds of luck in various fishing expeditions along Bear creek this week.

William Grubb left the first of the week for Turlock, Cal., where he will visit his son, C. P. Grubb.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Dodge were in Ashland Monday in attendance at the funeral of the late Ira Dodge.

500 extra votes to the first five customers every Monday at Orres' shop. Girls, get busy.

H. N. Lowe of the Cafeteria left Friday for Los Angeles on a business trip. He will be gone about ten days.

The new telephone directory is just out and "information, please" will have an easier time of it for a while.

R. C. Stanley of Lake Creek, Ore., recently purchased a thoroughbred Hereford bull from Bowers Bros., the local stockman.

Miss Mamie Jacobs, who visited friends and relatives here the first of the week, has returned to her home at Medford.

Constable Al Hammond of Medford was up Tuesday on business. Authoritative styles in spring corsets at Enders'. Be well corseted.

James Reynolds spent Tuesday in Medford attending to business affairs. Medford will put all wanderers of the hobo and unemployed transient class to work sweeping streets and like work in the future.

Charlie Rose has started back from Kentucky and will stop at the exposition on his way home. He will get back to Ashland about March 15.

For every dollar you spend get one mile in travel on the auto bus, railroad, or buy your Pullman fare with Scrip. We give Scrip. Ashland Trading Co., phone 122.

T. W. Miles and wife, Delroy Getchel and family, W. H. Gore and party, John S. Orth and family were among the parties who motored to Ashland last Sunday.

Some of the girls of Medford have organized a roller skating club and skated over the pavement to Central Point. They are contemplating a trip to Ashland via skates.

Cal Hughes, veteran railroad man of Hornbrook, and for the past few years manager of the Miners' Hotel, was brought to the local sanitarium Tuesday, dangerously ill with pneumonia.

Sweetheart day at the Ashland Trading Co. Thursday, March 11. That means cut the coupon out of this paper and bring to us and get a cake of Sweetheart toilet soap free. Ashland Trading Co.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Dunlap stopped off over Tuesday night here. They are traveling from Woodburn to San Diego and are riding only during the daytime, thus missing nothing in the way of scenery and getting better rest.

The local high school issued the first number of a paper which they will publish at monthly intervals hereafter, on last Monday. The sheet is well gotten up and highly representative of school activities.

The time, Thursday, March 11. The place, Ashland Trading Co. The present, one cake of Sweetheart toilet soap for the coupon in this paper. Remember, Ashland Trading Co., phone 122.

Among the visitors from here to Jacksonville last Monday were: James Bowers, Homer Barron, Will DeWitt, Roy Walker, Butler Walker, O. Winter, Billy Briggs, E. D. Briggs, A. L. Irwin and several others. Much interest is being manifested locally in the Martin trial.

Much favorable comment has been heard lately on the artistic sign work and clever cartoons with which Ed Dews has been decorating the windows of local merchants as advertisements for the Medford-Ashland basketball games. Ed is getting to be quite clever with the brush.

Showing of trimmed hats, shapes, flowers and trimmings Saturday, March 6. All the ladies are invited to inspect the new styles. Prices reasonable. 2,000 extra votes with each cash purchase of hats.

A. D. Barr and family of Spokane have settled in Ashland and are located in the Van Scoy home on Morton street. Mr. Barr was attracted here on account of the fine climate and the springs development. He will likely soon be in the market for property, but desired to look the place over for a while before he invested.

Showing of trimmed hats, shapes, flowers and trimmings Saturday, March 6. All the ladies are invited to inspect the new styles. Prices reasonable. 2,000 extra votes with each cash purchase of hats.

The Interurban auto completed their run of the railroad last Monday when they actually carried a train of cars from here to Medford. The train was not full size, however, but was a toy train which some transient at the Medford Hotel had picked up at the East Side pharmacy and was taking to his little boy at the Medford Hotel.

Mayor Johnson was in the midst of a wonderful oratorical effort last Tuesday afternoon at the Ohloans' gathering when word was brought to him that his store was on fire. Without losing a word he threw his keys to a nearby policeman and went on with his speech. The fire was only a little blaze started in the window by the sun and a reading glass and did no appreciable harm.

Extra vote with shoes at Enders' until March 15.

Rev. Paul S. Bandy, pastor of the Presbyterian church at Jacksonville, and L. L. Norcross, recently from Sioux Falls, N. D., were in Ashland Wednesday on a visit to their old friend, P. A. Van Ness. Mr. Norcross has recently purchased a 25-acre alfalfa ranch at the east end of the paved street at Central Point. He came to the valley to escape the frigid climate of Dakota and is charmed with our climate, scenery and healthful conditions.

Everybody Should

Drink

Sassafras

Tea

in Spring time

get it

AT

Poley's Drug Store

Poley & Elhart, Druggists.

Any Size
Any Shape
Any Focus Lens

Made by our complete optical outfit—no delay—broken lenses measured and replaced.

H. L. WHITED
Jeweler and Optician.

A New Harness Store in Town.

By constant demand from my and Mr. Settle's customers, I concluded to get a line of harness and received it Saturday, so am ready to serve everybody with harness, collars, pads and all kind of straps.

Respectfully,
81-3t EMIL PEIL.

Hargrove's Millinery display Friday and Saturday, March 5th & 6th.

Taylor Payne, who has been visiting his father, C. T. Payne, here for the past few months, has returned to Sacramento, Cal. Constable Irwin left Monday for Jacksonville. He is a witness in the trial of Louis Martin.

See Hargrove's window Friday and Saturday and then go inside.

Trees

PATRONIZE THE

Eden Valley Nursery

The leading nursery of Southern Oregon.

A full line Fruit, Shade, Nut and Ornamental Trees.

Roses, Flowering Shrubs, Vines, Hardy Perennials.

All stock guaranteed to please and the price guaranteed to be right.

My constant aim is to serve the public promptly, pleasantly and well. Mail list of stock wanted, or, better still, call at delivery yards, 610 1/2 East Main street.

N. S. Bennett

Phone 102. Box 823.

MEDFORD, - OREGON

Artemus Spooner was up from Medford Tuesday.

Better hats- Better prices! Enders'.

B. H. Dunlap and family have moved to Williams, Ore.

Try a pair of shoes from Enders'. You'll like them.

L. E. Waterman was up from Medford Wednesday on business.

Marela S. Cudleg of Red Bluff, Cal., arrived Tuesday for a brief stay.

New spring hats at reasonable prices at Miss Hargrove's.

W. T. Clockner of Grants Pass was a business visitor last Tuesday.

Clyde Farrar left last week to join his parent at Myrtle Creek.

Miss Florence Roberts of this city visited in Medford Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Blaine Klum were recent visitors here. Their home is in Medford.

D. O. Anderson of Oregon City transacted business in the city last Tuesday.

Mrs. A. M. Mack of St. Joe, Mo., arrived Monday and visited here the first of the week.

Miss Alice Hansen came up from Grants Pass Monday morning to visit her sister in this city.

Mrs. May Wolford returned to Wolford, Ore., Sunday after a few days' visit with friends here.

Rev. Wharton and wife of Gold Hill were up Tuesday for the Ohio day celebration at Moose hall.

M. O. Warner of Eugene was in the city Wednesday attending to business affairs and visiting friends.

It's me to the shop that makes the snappy clothes. No disappointment at Orres', where you have a fit.

C. W. Chaffin left Monday for Missoula, Mont. He was called by the serious illness of his father.

1,000 extra votes with every suit or coat ordered during March. We also give the green stamps at Orres' tailor shop.

Dr. E. A. Woods of Rogue River, who has been attending a patient here, returned to his home Tuesday evening.

E. D. Briggs left for Salem Tuesday evening. He will attend the session of the supreme court and will return tomorrow.

Mrs. E. R. Lawrence and little daughter came up from Grants Pass Monday to join Mr. Lawrence, who has purchased the Star Theatre here.

See Mary Pickford in one of her greatest characters as Dolly Lane, in the great Paramount theatrical play, "Behind the Scenes," at the Vining Friday night, March 5.

Zella G. Evans and Mrs. Vivian R. Evans, who have been visiting at the home of William Nortridge, have returned to their home at Norcellia, Ore.

Fred Day, Southern Pacific claim agent, well known locally, lost a hand when he slipped while getting on a train at Junction City Wednesday morning.

If you like good coffee try the special blend bulk coffee. It is cheaper than cans and labels. We give Scrip, one mile in travel for one dollar in trade. Ashland Trading Co.

The will of C. C. Beekman, who passed away last week at Jacksonville, is being probated. Wealth estimated at $500,000 is left to his wife, daughter and son.

Dr. Julia McQuilkin, who recently moved her office to Grants Pass, has accepted a position with Dr. Julian Johnson of that city and will act in the capacity of assistant.

A new carload of American fence at Pell's. While prices on fence are going up, I bought before the last raise, so can and will sell cheaper than elsewhere. Emil Peil. 81-3t

Mrs. J. O. Marete received news of the death of her father at Lawton Springs, Nev., and left Monday for that place, taking with her Fred and Florence, her son and daughter.

The front of Vaupel's store building is receiving a much-needed coat of paint under the brushes of John Rigg and George Watson. A general application of paint all over town will be a great beautifier.

Get the best at Enders'.

The Chautauqua Park Club will hold their regular business meeting Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Chautauqua hall. Important business matters are to be considered and all members are urged to attend.

Perfection in Style and Fit That's what

Pictorial Review Patterns mean.

Here are four of a wonderful collection of smart EMPIRE dresses. The FASHION BOOK for Spring. Costs only 10 cents when purchased with one 15 cent pattern.

Guimpe 6135 Bolero 6138 Skirt 6146
Waist 6112 Bolero 6134 Skirt 6074
Guimpe 6135 Bolero 6134 Skirt 6072
Guimpe 6135 Bolero 6138 Skirt 6074

15 cents for each of the above numbers.

We recommend to you to look through The FASHION BOOK for Spring before deciding on your new gowns. APRIL PICTORIAL REVIEW PATTERNS now ready.

New Silks for Spring and Summer Dresses

40 inch crepe-de-chine $1.25. Color range includes, white, black, pink rose, sky, Labrador blue, sand, corn, wisteria, and cardinal. Splendid quality $1.25 40 inch heavy crepe-de-chine $1.65, in black, navy, battleship grey and prune.

24 to 26 inch fancies 89c Several hundred yards of regular $1.00 to $1.25 fancy silks. The lot is going to sell quickly at 89c Black silks include yard wide messalines, crepe-de-chine, peau-de-soie, faille and others. 36 inch heavy quality messaline, $1.00 yd.

SPRING WASH GOODS

Includes printed and plain flaxon organdies, lace cloth, voile, rice cloth, etc. Devonshire cloth, gingham, percales and 25c ratines are best for house dresses and children's dresses.

We give Fidelity Trading Stamps and votes

Your new dress should be fitted over your new corset. The new Gossard Corsets have arrived.

EXTRA VOTES
Five extra voter for every one you are regularly entitled to on purchase of silks or wool dress goods between March 1 and 10.

More New Suits and Coats

Just arrived. One beautiful fabric used in some of these suits is the Chudd cloth, lustrous as silk with weight and body of wool goods. Splendid for traveling suit.

M. W. Wheeler, former resident of Ashland, now living in Corvallis, visited here the first of the week and attended to business matters.

Charles Hatfield, a former Ashland resident, now of Portland, renewed the acquaintance of a host of friends here the last of the week.

Skating at Natatorium Rink Every Saturday

1:30 AND 7:30 P. M.

Rink will be rented for private skating parties on dates not conflicting with above. Apply to
A. L. LAMB, 343 Mountain Avenue, or Phone 463-J

CLEANLINESS, PERSONAL ATTENTION AND COURTESY

COMBINED TO MAKE THE

Eagle Meat Market Popular

Inspect our market, and your confidence will be behind the pleasure of eating our meats. The knowledge of cleanliness and a sanitary workshop will add your digestion.

84 N. Main L. SCHWEIN Phone 107

THE CITIZENS
BANK OF ASHLAND

Commercial

S

We are pleased to state that The Citizens Bank of Ashland is identified with commercial progress and has been of considerable help to sound business enterprises.

You are cordially invited to make this your depository.

4% ON SAVINGS DEPOSITS

1915

SAXON

$485.00
HERE

Perry L. Ashcraft, Jr.
DEALER

Phone 152 to arrange demonstration

JUST ARRIVED