Invites Senator Lane to Visit

Senator Harry Lane and family are en route home from Washington by way of the San Diego and San Francisco expositions and have been invited to stop off in Ashland. The following letter was sent to the senator at San Francisco:

Hon. Harry Lane, San Francisco, Cal.
Dear Senator: C. H. Vaupel informs me that you are in California on your way home to Oregon. On behalf of the citizens of Ashland I wish to extend to you a cordial invitation and welcome to our city. Our citizens would indeed be pleased to meet you, and incidentally I would like to drive you over our new scenic highway in Ashland Creek canyon—just finished—and our latest effort to magnify the scenic beauties of Ashland's surroundings.

Trusting that I will have the pleasure of meeting you, I remain, Respectfully,
O. H. JOHNSON, Mayor.

Died.

Thornton Smith, son of T. F. Smith of Talent, Ore., died at the home of his parents April 12, 1915, after a three weeks' struggle with complications of pneumonia. He was born in Mound City, Kan., May 23, 1892. With the family he came to Ashland in 1900, where he lived until three years ago, when the family moved to Talent. He joined the Methodist church at Talent in 1908. Thornton was a boy of clean and noble character of whom no one could speak aught but good. He became a member of the Talent chapter of the Epworth League a few months previous to the illness from which he never recovered. The deceased leaves a father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Smith, and two brothers, Harold and Forest, of Talent, and one sister, Miss Virginia, of San Jose.
