

In the Social Realm

Pleasant Hour Club.

The Pleasant Hour Club met at the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. Jiger on Neil creek Thursday, May 13. A genuine old-fashioned picnic was planned, but on account of the inclemency of the weather it was held in the house. Well-filled lunch baskets had not been forgotten and to the contents of these were added a goodly supply of Mrs. Jiger's culinary dainties. The dinner was served a la cafeteria, following which a short business session was held. A most interesting reading, entitled "Poor Jetro," was delivered by Mrs. J. B. Ware in her most inimitable style. The remainder of the day was spent in social converse. Thanks of the club are due to Messrs. Roberts, Carpenter, McClaren, Pierson, Ware and Ball for furnishing transportation for the members and their children. About thirty were present.

Surprise.

A surprise party met at the home of Mr. J. S. and Mrs. Lydia Boyd, on East Main street, for the purpose of celebrating the eighty-second year of their mother and grandmother and great-grandmother's anniversary, bringing full baskets of best eatables. After a time of greeting and joking it was announced that all was ready, and all were seated at the tables. After returning thanks for the blessing, all soon satisfied the inner man, then departed for their respective homes, having enjoyed a good time. Those present were: G. W. Grow and wife, Mrs. John Doster and son, Mrs. Andy Doster and son, J. D. Williams and wife and daughter, and others.

Elks' Dance.

The final of the series of Elks' informal dances which have been held every fortnight during the winter months was enjoyed last Thursday by about forty couples in the Elks' ballroom. This being the final affair, a few extras were indulged in. Punch and wafers were served and an eight-piece orchestra rendered music which was exceptionally good. All of the old favorite pieces were played and enthusiastically received. At the close of one of the most delightful evenings of the winter many regrets were expressed over the fact that the series was at an end.

Pleasant Party.

A pleasant party occurred at the home of Miss Jessie Inlow last Friday evening. Various games were played and enjoyed by all. Refreshments were served. Those invited were: Laura Wenner, Edith Herrin, Zella Heer, Esther Siemsen, Isabel Barron, Marjorie Gillette, Emma Earle, Maxine Crombie, Mildred Dunlap, Gladys Inlow, Robert Herrin, George Scott, Ted Scott, Rilling Schuerman, Domina Provost, Irving Porter, Leslie Heer, Max Camps, Clyde and Dale Young. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Albert Sherard and Mrs. Ed Lucas.

Woodmen to Talent.

About twenty-five Royal Neighbors and Modern Woodmen of America went from Ashland to Talent Thursday evening to take part in initiation when fifteen members were taken into the Talent lodge of the Modern Woodmen. There were also about twenty-five members of the Medford Modern Woodmen present. Eight young men of the Foresters' team of the Central Point Woodmen came down to put on the degree team work. After the close of the meeting the Royal Neighbor ladies of Talent had a fine supper prepared and served to those present, after which dancing was indulged in to a late hour.

Double Wedding.

A double wedding in which a brother and sister who were former residents of Ashland participated took place near Riverside, Cal., on Wednesday, May 12. Miss Veral Hensley became the wife of William Demming Drew of Riverside and Linn Hensley was married to Miss Louise Goodheart. A number of intimate friends were present at the pretty ceremony, which was performed at the Hensley home near Riverside. Both young couples will reside in Riverside.

Birthday Party.

Saturday, May 15, was Johnny Rugers' sixth birthday. A party was given at the Rugers home on Hargadine street to celebrate the event. After games and music the youngsters were served with dainty refreshments by the Misses Pearl and Harriet Ruger. The invited guests were: George Francis Baron, Elber Bush, Auten Bush, Everett McGee, Cecil Christensen, Robley Ellis, Foss Kramer, Freddie Merritt, Sanford Rose, Robert Walters, Mervin Smith and Carl Swendenburg.

German Breakfast.

Miss Kennard entertained her second-year German classes at a characteristic German breakfast during the recitation period at the high school Friday morning. Besides enjoying the dainty German dishes the class will no doubt gain a lasting remembrance from the German names which were learned. Conversation was carried on as far as possible in German.

Rebekahs.

About forty members of Olive Rebekah Lodge No. 28 of Medford responded to the invitation of the Ashland Rebekah lodge to be present at their initiation and banquet Tuesday evening, and assist in the degree team work. The Medford degree team initiated two candidates into the Ashland lodge. After the initiation a short program was given, after which dancing was enjoyed, and at the close of the evening a banquet was served.

Upper Granite Club.

Although the weather was somewhat inclement, the majority of the members of the Upper Granite Street Embroidery Club met at the pleasant home of Mrs. Whittle on Nutley street. The calling committee, to serve the balance of the year, was appointed. It consists of Mesdames Greive, Stevens and Smith. Quite an amount of work was accomplished and a general good time was enjoyed by all.

Dancing Lessons.

Announcement—Open class to be held Wednesday nights, commencing May 19, at the Episcopal parish house, Second near Main street. Instruction on standard ballroom dancing and the latest usable combinations begins promptly at 8 o'clock. All are invited. Single admission 35c, couples 50c. Mrs. Shirley Keene, teacher.

Sunshine Sale.

The Sunshine Society will give a food sale next Saturday, commencing at 9:30, at Simpson's store and the Ashland Trading Company. The proceeds from the sale will be used for the purpose of sending a motherless girl back to her home in Oklahoma. The society invites donations of cooked foods for the sale and asks your patronage.

The Fourth Street Mission solicits your cast-off clothing for needy boys and girls, men and women. We especially need clothes and shoes for boys who come to our Mission Sunday school barefooted and sometimes bareheaded. We will place your gifts where they will do the most good. Leave bundles at 300 East Main street.

The Tidings is on sale at Poley's drug store, 17 East Main street.

Medford Boy Says No Matrimony

The following advertisement placed in a St. Paul matrimonial paper has caused A. F. Alder, a Medford school teacher, considerable embarrassment:

"Attractive, blue eyes, light hair, American, pianist, college education, age 22; fine bearing, exquisite build, athletic, has money. Not ordinary, different from most others, you know. Lady of intelligence desired. City or country life. You will never regret having made this gentleman's acquaintanceship. Here's a chance. Can you win? Address A. F. Alder, Medford, Ore."

According to Alder he did not insert the advertisement and he blames some practical joker. He has received a number of replies, but refuses to make any of them public. "I couldn't get married," said Alder, "even if I wanted to. I couldn't afford it."

Alder graduated from the Medford high school two years ago and was prominent in athletic circles. He is well known in this city.

Salem—By will of William W. Brown, wealthy cattleman from Bend, Willamette University gets $500,000 for boys' industrial school and home for aged ministers.

High School Will Lose Miss Nissley

Miss Maude E. Nissley, assistant principal and head of the English department of Ashland high school, will not apply for the position in Ashland next fall. Miss Nissley expects to leave for Everett, Wash., after school is out and will remain in that city next September, having accepted a position there. Miss Nissley has been a member of the faculty of the high school for two years and her absence will be greatly felt.

L. T. Hodge, professor of the commercial department, expects to take up a position as teacher in The Dalles Business College this summer, but will return to Ashland next fall.

W. A. Freeburg returned Saturday morning on No. 14 from San Francisco, bringing with him his wife, who has been visiting in Los Angeles. Mrs. Freeburg has been in ill health but is considerably improved. Mr. and Mrs. Freeburg visited the fair and are enthusiastic over its beauties. They were on the second train which got through the washout district and arrived in Ashland five hours late.

Multnomah county will employ 2,000 men on permanent highways.

Salem—Drager Fruit Company will build $15,000 plant with capacity to pack 2,500 boxes prunes per day.
