THE CLASSIFIED ADV.

Important to You at All IS APT TO BE Very Important

You MIGHT overlook the classified ads for a month without missing a really valuable opportunity. And yet on any day of that month there might be printed THE ONE ADVERTISEMENT which you could not afford to miss under any circumstances.

FOR out of the complex world of "offer and quest" there is apt to come, on any day, a clear and unmistakable message for YOU.

AND that message may be more important to you than any that has ever come to you by letter, by telephone, telegraph or messenger.

IT may be a call to higher business opportunities. It may be a chance to buy or to rent property such as you alone can fully appreciate. It may be a business opening that would lead you to the realization of your plans and purposes in life. It may be a chance to buy just what you are looking for or sell something you have no use for.

IT may be that, years ago, you "missed" some particular classified advertisement which would have changed the course of your life, greatly for the better, or made you considerable money.

IT may be that such an advertisement is printed today—or that it will appear some day, within the course of a month or so.

When it DOES appear, FIND IT.

Fish Screen Receives State Approbation

The contribution of a Gold Hill inventor to the protection of fish from the ravages wrought by irrigation ditch intakes has received the official approbation of the state game and fish commission. The Kell fish screen, invented and patented by Charles Kell, a blacksmith of Gold Hill, will now fulfill its mission of preserving the splendid trout fishing of Oregon and other states. At a recent meeting of the commission the successful device was adopted as an officially approved type of fish screen.

Several weeks ago, following the action of the commission, district game warden Sam L. Sandry received instruction to procure a 3 1/2-foot Kell screen and proceed to Hood River, installing the screen at that point as a free object lesson by the state. It was accordingly installed and is now giving most satisfactory service. Orders have been received by Messrs. Kell and Reed of Gold Hill, who are associated in the manufacture of the screen, from various parts of the state.

It is claimed by the inventor, and borne out by the state tests, that the Kell screen is the answer to a demand for some practical method of preventing the passage of fish through irrigation and power ditches without impairing the efficiency of the flow. Every conceivable test was made in attempts to clog the screen under working conditions, but the current ran smoothly on and the obstructions were carried easily over the cylinder.

When the mating urge calls the steelhead and other trout up the smaller streams they run almost blindly and will follow any water course that will give fin room. Many pass to the irrigation and power ditches and are left to rot upon the fields. If successful in spawning under other unavoidable conditions their progeny never reach the main stream or mature. To stop this waste of a valuable food supply and to perpetuate the thrill of "a big one" hooked in swift water the Kell fish screen came into being.

Sees Eruption From Siskiyou

The telegraph operator at Siskiyou reported that Sunday evening he could see smoke arising from Mt. Lassen. This is the second eruption that has been visible from Siskiyou. No reports of a big eruption have come in and no doubt clear atmospheric conditions were responsible for the smoke being visible from the summit.

Local Library Holds Record

The Ashland library holds the distinction of giving out the greatest number of books in ratio to the population than any city in the United States. Besides this, the reading rooms of the library are well patronized and the assembly hall is used almost daily. The library is one of Ashland's best institutions and one of which we may well be proud. Starting with the collection of books which was gathered by the group of public-spirited men and women many years ago, the library has steadily developed into an institution which in its scope and effectiveness is second to none in the state outside of Portland.
