

In the Social Realm

Hollibaugh-Hurley Wedding.

At 12:30 o'clock Sunday, June 27, 1915, occurred one of the prettiest of the June weddings, in the marriage of Miss Cecelia Ethelyn Hurley and Frederick Hollibaugh at the farm home of the bride's father three miles northwest of this city. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. F. Van Scoy in the presence of only the immediate relatives. The parlor was decorated with green boughs and syringa blossoms. Mrs. Clara Hurley sister-in-law of the bride, played Lohengrin's march while the happy couple took position in a bower of white and green. The bride bearing a bouquet of bride's roses and dressed in white satin covered with trailing veil, and the groom in graceful style bestowing the ring, all added much to the beauty of the ceremony. Following congratulations, a most bounteous dinner was served.

The groom is a native of Pennsylvania, where he received his education. During last year he was one of the civil engineers for the Pacific Highway Construction Company, with headquarters at Medford. He is now in the employ of the Southern Pacific Company and his work will be in northern California. He is a young man of integrity and business sense and is well known in southern Oregon. The bride is a native of Iowa. She is a graduate of the Ashland high school and also of the Southern Oregon State Normal School. She taught in Medford for a short period and then came to the Ashland schools, where she has taught for five years, giving good satisfaction both to the board of directors and to the patrons. So another of Jackson county's successful teachers has gone out of the ranks of the profession. The hosts of friends of this well-matched couple are expressing all kinds of good wishes for them.

On Green Springs.

Jack True left Sunday morning for the road camp on Green Springs mountain, taking with him his wife and the four Walker girls. Sunday afternoon H. L. Sinclair and wife followed him by auto, taking with them Mr. and Mrs. Butler Walker. Some of the boys from the camp had spent the day fishing on Emigrant creek and had brought in 190 fish, which as the piece de resistance of a bountiful dinner lent much to the enjoyment of a most delicious meal. The party report the road up this side, which has been worked by the road crew under Mr. True, to be in excellent shape. Mr. True, whose ability as a mountain road builder is well known to Ashlanders, is getting some heavy licks in on the Green Springs road.

City Federation.

At last Monday's meeting of the City Federation of Women's Club Mrs. Perozzi read a most interesting report of the mothers' convention held in Portland recently and Mrs. Lamkin read a inclusive report of the national convention of the National Federation of Women's Clubs which was also held at Portland. Mrs. D. D. Norris and Mrs. C. B. Wolf sang solos and were encored enthusiastically. Considerable discussion of various civic matters was indulged in. The Federation now numbers five hundred members and is growing to be a most important factor in every development project fostered in Ashland. The organization will maintain a club tent on the Chautauqua grounds during the coming session.

Upper Granite Street Club Closes Season.

The final meeting of the Upper Granite Street Embroidery Club for the season of 1914-1915 was held at the delightfully cozy home of Miss Watson on Strawberry Lane. The principal pastime consisted of the solving of a musical romance. The following officers were elected to serve during the coming year: Mrs. Whittle, president; Mrs. Jordan, vice-president; Mrs. Stahlman, secretary and treasurer. After the dainty refreshments, the members gathered in little groups, rather loath to depart, feeling that two months would seem a long time before the pleasant gatherings were resumed.

Fourth Street Mission.

Tuesday evening, Rev. J. F. Smith; Wednesday, Rev. Farquhar; Thursday evening, Rev. J. N. Blakley, who has just returned from South America, will tell us about that country; Friday evening, Rev. William Ashcraft will speak; Saturday evening, Miss Hathaway will speak; Sunday morning, 10 o'clock, Sunday school; Sunday, 11 a. m., J. A. Emery will speak; Sunday evening, Rev. E. W. Northridge will speak. All evening services begin at 8 o'clock. You are invited to spend an evening at the Fourth Street Mission.—Committee.

Scandinavian Picnic.

The second annual picnic of the Scandinavians of Jackson county was held in the upper park Thursday. Large delegations from all of the valley towns motored up for the occasion. A program of speeches and music was most thoroughly enjoyed, as was also the picnic dinner. The remainder of the afternoon was given over to playing of games and reunion features. This was the first big gathering which has been held at the auto campgrounds. All of the visitors were agreeably surprised by the wonderful improvements which are being made and the campgrounds with its many attractions promises to be by far the most popular picnicking location in the county this summer.

Women of Woodcraft.

Acorn Circle No. 54, Women of Woodcraft, held a regular meeting Saturday evening, June 26, at I. O. O. F. hall, Guardian Neighbor Edyth L. Phipps presiding. Visitors were present. Two candidates for membership by transfer were elected. "Music than can touch beyond all else the soul that loves it much" was discoursed. Ice cream and wafers were served in the banquet hall, and at 11 o'clock all left with the thought a happy evening had been spent which would long be remembered.

Union Picnic.

Over three hundred ladies, members of the various societies and guilds of the churches of Ashland, together with a number of guests, gathered in the park last Wednesday afternoon. A big picnic lunch served cafeteria style was a most successful feature. The affair was in the nature of a get-together affair and was a success from every standpoint.

Bridge Club.

Mrs. J. M. Wagner entertained the Bridge Club at her Oak street home last Thursday. The husbands of the members were guests for the evening and competed with the ladies. According to report, the ladies were victors by a two to one score. Four tables were filled.

To Roseburg.

A number of local Elks are planning to attend the Elks' home-coming to be put on by the Roseburg Elks on July 8. The Umpqua valley antlered herd is lining up a number of features which should make the affair a most enjoyable one.

Entertain at Dinner.

Mrs. George M. Robison, 110 Laurel street, entertained at dinner Wednesday Mrs. Pearl Smith and daughter, Vail, of Lincoln, Cal.; Mrs. Inez Ferguson of Central Point, Ore.; Mrs. Alice Turner and daughter, Evelyn; Mrs. Fleta Burnett and daughter, Veri, of this city.

Chautauqua Tickets.

Twenty-five cents off regular price of season tickets if bought on or before July 3. Eleven-day session, best program ever offered. Secretary Trefren will be at 81 Oak street each afternoon of this week from 2 to 5. 10-2t

At Central Point.

A number of Ashland young people motored to Central Point last Friday evening and attended the dance which wound up a two days' "trade-at-home" celebration. The Medford band rendered a concert early in the evening.

Leaguers to Mount Wagner.

The Epworth League of the M. E. church is planning a hike to Mount Wagner. The party will leave here Saturday afternoon, spend Sunday at Long's cabin and on Monday journey on to the summit.

F. O. G.

The members of the F. O. G. Club entertained as guests Miss Alice Culver and Miss Mary Welsenburger at a picnic dinner in the upper park, followed by a theatre party, last Friday evening.

Miss Orpha Fox of Sacramento, who has been visiting relatives in Crescent City and Talent, was a guest of Mrs. George M. Robison Friday and Saturday.

Well Attended.

The Saturday night dance at the Natatorium was well attended by one of the largest and jolliest crowds of the summer dancing season.

Pioneers.

Several of the pioneers of the valley attended the pioneers' reunion held in Portland last week and report a most enjoyable time.

Phone news items to the Tidings.

Moose.

The Moose lodge made merry until the wee small hours Monday evening, the occasion being the semi-monthly social evening. A program of an informal nature and a delicious luncheon passed the hours.

Talent Couple Married.

Miss Lottie Hopkins and James Baker were married in the palm room at the Hotel Medford Sunday morning, and will make their home in Talent. Both the young couple live there and are well and widely known.

Ladies' Day.

A number of local ladies took advantage of the ladies' day at the Natatorium and spent a happy afternoon splashing around in the cool water. This special day for the feminine contingent is growing in popularity.

Medford Young Ladies Picnic.

The Young Ladies' Sodality of the Catholic church of Medford enjoyed a picnic at Ashland Sunday. Mrs. O. J. Patton and Mrs. Alex Duff chaperoned the young ladies, who spent a most enjoyable afternoon in the park.

Pastor Goes to Eugene.

Rev. P. K. Hammond was called to Eugene the first of the week to unite in marriage Miss Beatrice Buoy and Leland Cowan of that city, both of whom were members of his flock when he was rector of the Episcopal church of Eugene.

Park Picnics.

Two Medford parties picnicked in the upper park at the camp grounds Wednesday and Dr. Jarvis and the Sanitarium force made up a third party. The many tables and chairs of rustic build which have been placed in the grove at the camp grounds are attracting many picnic parties.

Opera Parties Tonight.

Several local theatre parties are scheduled for tonight when Henry W. Savage's "Sari" will be presented at the Vining theatre. Nowadays a light opera with Savage's name attached scarcely needs recommendation. Reservation of seats were made by several Medford theatre parties and the evening's entertainment promises to take on the appearance of quite a social event.

Fifty-eight jolly picnickers, members of the Fourth Street Mission Sunday school, made merry Saturday at Kingsbury springs. Messrs. J. H. Bogue and L. H. Teeters donated hay-racks and teams and hauled the party to the springs. Both dinner and supper were taken along and between the two games and foot races occupied the afternoon. The only incident which cast a shadow on the fun was the uncomfortable feelings experienced by Mr. Teeters, who visited the soda spring too often. However, words of cheer soon restored him to a normal condition and the fun went on. It is planned to make this picnic an annual event and next year a much larger number will enjoy the day.

Baptist Church Notes.

Now that the work of Evangelist J. Bruce Evans has been finished the real work of the churches begins. For the revival has only been started. Our special meeting vows are still to be fulfilled. The young converts are yet to be instructed in the ways of the Gospel of God. Every pastor in the city is expecting to see his prayer meetings attended by twice as many people as attended before the coming of Bruce. Church letters will be forthcoming from their hiding places in the bottom of the trunk.

The Baptist pastor is seeking to follow up the good influences of the meeting by conducting classes for young converts on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings of this week and of next. These classes will meet in the auditorium of the church and every young Christian, even if you are already a member of the church, will be welcome to these meetings. Also if you are not a Christian but are interested in the things of God and the human soul, come and get the benefit of the teaching and discussion. The pastor will try to find an answer for all questions.

There will be an important business meeting on Thursday evening. The sermons of next Sunday will both be of an evangelistic nature. Sunday school begins at 9:45. There are classes suitable for every age.

J. G. Adams, former Ashland resident and a famous temperance lecturer, who has taken a large part in putting Oregon on the list of prohibition states, passed through Tuesday in his auto and stopped long enough to renew the acquaintance of old friends. He spoke in Montague Tuesday evening. Mr. Evans is making a trip down the coast in the car which was presented him by the residents of his home town in California and is delivering temperance lectures.

DEPOT DOINGS.

Ashland now has eight passenger trains daily.

No. 16 is being run in one section only since the advent of the new train.

All of the extra firemen are back on the job and business looks good to the railroaders.

Joe Fournier, storekeeper of the Southern Pacific supply car, with headquarters at Sacramento, was in town last week.

Much favorable comment is heard from passengers in regard to the appearance of the depot park. Thousands of roses are now in bloom.

No. 54, the new through train, is now carrying a much heavier traffic than No. 16. Most of the San Francisco to Portland passengers prefer the later train because of the fact that it makes better time.

The Shasta division team lost to the Oakland store at Oakland Sunday of last week by a score of 5 to 3, getting six hits to seven. With a strengthened lineup the northern boys hope to trim up the league leading Oakland Pier team on the local lot Sunday.

O. O. Jennings and wife, who had been at Cleveland, Ohio, the former as a delegate to the convention of the Brotherhood of Engineers, returned home Sunday. In addition to the business part of the trip, they also enjoyed many of the sights to be seen on the journey as far east as Buffalo, N. Y. On their return they visited the exposition at San Francisco. They were absent several weeks.—Roseburg Review. Mr. Jennings' run is between Roseburg and Ashland.

G. A. Culy, machinist, and S. J. Oasin, boiler washer at the roundhouse, left last Friday for the Southern Pacific hospital at San Francisco, where they will undergo treatment for different ailments. L. D. Good is now engaged as general helper and Fred Owen was also recently employed at the roundhouse. Charley Blaker, boilermaker, left Sunday for a three weeks' vacation. A. V. Wendell of Dunsmuir takes his place during his absence.

Mr. and Mrs. G. N. Kingsbury, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McCoy the past week, left for the north Tuesday morning. They are old friends of the McCoy's from Norton, Kan. Early this week Mrs. A. R. Russell and daughter Margaret of Norfolk, Va., arrived for an extended visit with the McCoy's. They are aunt and cousin respectively of Mrs. McCoy.

Tom Copin, a prominent merchant of Hornbrook, was a business visitor in the city Wednesday. Mayor Johnson took him over the park and scenic drive in his auto and converted the Hornbrook into an enthusiastic booster for Ashland as a resort city. Johnson the jeweler for fine watch work. 97-tf

Portland Stock Market.

The receipts for the week ending Thursday, June 24, have been: Cattle 1,067, calves 69, hogs 3,686, sheep 3,082.

Cattle—Cattle market is steady to weak with fair receipts. Ten loads of Mexican steers brought $7. One load of choice Hereford-Shorthorn steers sold at $7.40. In general, quality stuff was conspicuous by its absence. Cows are quoted at $5.75 to $6.25.

Hogs—With a good run of hogs the market opened at $7.85 for top stuff, going down 10c toward end of week. Bulk sales at $7.75.

Sheep—Buyers are still forcing mutton prices down. Receipts of sheep are light with good quality stuff. Choice lambs are quoted at $7.15, ewes at $4.75 and wethers at $5.50.

The Interurban car leaves Medford evenings for Ashland at following hours: Saturday at 11:15 p. m., Sunday at 9:30 p. m. and other evenings at 10:15 p. m. 9-2t

Belmont School
(For Boys)
21 miles south of San Francisco
We think that we give to our boys what thoughtful parents wish. Our graduates enter, on recommendation, institutions that admit on certificate and on examination (see page 24 of our catalogue) to Harvard, the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, and Yale, whose admission requirements are most severe. Read for beautifully illustrated catalogue, which gives not only a very good idea of the spirit and purpose of the school, but of its equipment and its attractive school home. Writing, however, does quite take the place of a visit to the school.
