

A. F. and A. M. Ashland Lodge No. 23

Special communication of Ashland Lodge No. 23, A. F. & A. M., Wednesday evening, July 28, 1915, for work in the Second degree. Visiting brethren are cordially welcome. Meet at 8 o'clock sharp.

W. E. BLAKE, W. M. W. H. DAY, Secretary.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

William Briggs is making an extensive tour of Oregon.

Fresh honey. Ashland Trading Company.

Get your automobile license and insurance from G. H. Yeo. 18-1f

Harvey Ling of Medford was a visitor in the city Saturday.

J. S. Frye and wife of Grants Pass visited in the city Saturday.

Mrs. Ralph Summers visited over Sunday with friends in Medford.

Ed Binns, a meatman of Medford, visited in the city Friday evening.

Mrs. G. F. Billings and the Misses Scott are camping at Long's cabin.

The Depot Hotel will pay 15 cents, live weight, for large fat hens. 16-4t

County Clerk G. A. Gardner was in the city transacting business Friday.

B. M. and M. F. Martin of Montague were visitors in Ashland Sunday.

L. Walton was a business visitor to Medford the middle of last week.

Jack Cowley and Irwin Bebe motored up from Central Point Friday.

Mrs. J. F. Carson of Butte Falls was a visitor in the city last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Frame were up from Talent Saturday morning.

H. F. Meettser and wife of Clearwater, Fla., were tourist visitors Friday.

Invisible or unseen suspenders in white only 50c at Mitchell & Whittle's. 1t

O. N. Nelson and daughter of Medford climbed Mount Ashland Saturday.

Jimmy Hibsche Forded to Medford Sunday evening with a party of friends.

Long shirts with long arms for the long men. Two grades, 50c and $1. Mitchell & Whittle. 1t

J. S. MacMurray is up from Grants Pass for his regular week-end visit in the city.

John R. Whitman of Klamath Falls attended to business affairs in the city Friday.

Try Kaffee Hag—it is coffee with the caffeine extracted. Ashland Trading Company, phone 122.

Joseph Morcom visited and transacted business in Jacksonville several days last week.

Miss Agnes Storey visited with Mrs. Vinnie Kyle and family in Central Point last week.

The biggest crowds of the season thronged the park and visited the plunge baths yesterday.

Mrs. J. L. Helms has returned to her home in Medford after a visit with friends in the city.

Martin J. Reddy was a visitor from Medford Sunday evening, motoring up with a party of friends.

Hugh A. McKenzie of Oakland, Cal., transacted business and visited friends in the city Saturday.

Hon. John Burke, treasurer of the United States, passed through Ashland Friday on train No. 14.

Clothes tailored to your individual measure by Ed V. Price & Co. are sure to be just right. See Mitchell & Whittle. 1t

Get your automobile license and insurance from G. H. Yeo. 18-1f

E. R. Lawrence, manager of the Lyric Theatre, returned Thursday from Grants Pass, where he spent several days looking after business interests.

Bert Bashnahan left Thursday to join Johnny Finneran at Weed, where the young men have secured employment with the Weed Lumber Company.

Miss Verna McCann, a trained nurse of Grants Pass, who has been attending a case at the Granite City Hospital, returned to her home Friday evening.

Marion J. Miller, a former Ashland boy now living at Los Angeles, is visiting relatives in the city and renewing the acquaintance of old friends.

Tom Wright, recently employed in the big department store of the McCloud Lumber Company, has returned to his home in the Nob Hill district of Ashland.

A divorce case of local interest which was brought before the Circuit court of Jacksonville last week was that of Zepha Caldwell vs. Walter Caldwell.

Among the Medford young men who spent Sunday in Ashland were Frank Ray, Horace Bromley, William Beveridge, Harvey Ling, George Gates and several others.

Paul Williams motorcycled out to the Medford Country Club Saturday and was an interested spectator of the opening round of the southern Oregon tennis championship.

Fred Lockley, pen picture artist for the Portland Oregonian, was in the city last week and made several trips over the park, out to the springs and over to the Lowe ranch.

L. O. Orton of the U. S. Forest Service, with headquarters at Medford, was a visitor in the city Friday.

C. M. Slinger motored to Ashland from Medford Friday evening and spent several hours visiting with friends.

Rev. H. A. Carnahan is expected home today or tomorrow from the Oregon Presbyterian synod at Eugene.

W. B. corsets—the largest selection to choose from. W. B. brassiers are guaranteed to fit. 50c and $1. Ashland Trading Company.

The annual Gold Hill fair will be held this year September 17 and 18, and will be larger and better than last year.

Charles F. Elgin and wife of Salem were tourist visitors who prolonged their stay in Ashland over Saturday night.

W. A. Crouch and wife of Milwaukee spent Saturday in the city, stopping off to break up the trip down the coast.

We are headquarters for the famous Conqueror hats. All colors, shapes and sizes at $3. Mitchell & Whittle. 1t

Grapevine, the hot weather drink. It goes seven times as far as grape juice. Sold by Ashland Trading Company, phone 122.

W. A. Beebe was called to Albany Friday by the serious illness of his mother. Mrs. Beebe will join him there this week.

O. J. Emerson, wife and family were among the tourists who spent Sunday in Ashland. Their home is in Clatskanie, Ore.

H. B. Tronson of Eagle Point reports that a fine crop of Sudan grass has resulted from an experiment with the new forage crop.

Earl Veghte of Klamath Falls motored over Sunday and spent a few hours with relatives here, returning yesterday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Hodgson, daughters Marion and Margaret and son John, started last week on an auto trip to Crescent City.

Burton Wine and Oliver Anderson returned the last of the week from a trip by bicycle to the Josephine Caves by way of Grants Pass.

According to rumor, William Jennings Bryan will speak at Medford next Thursday after a trip to Crater Lake by way of Klamath Falls.

The citizens of Coos county are circulating petitions calling for an election for the purpose of voting $440,000 of bonds for road purposes.

Mrs. M. F. Eggleston and Misses Francis Hamlin and Ruby Palmer spent Sunday in Medford as the guests of Mrs. Burdette Dodge, Jr.

Entomologist W. E. Glendenning and assistant of the government service left last week for an extended trip into the mountains of this district.

Robert Goodyear, a former Ashland boy now located at Berkeley, Cal., is visiting his mother, Mrs. Jennie Goodyear, and other relatives in the city.

J. B. Eaton of Salem spent Friday in Ashland and renewed the acquaintance of old friends besides looking after several business matters in the city.

Get your automobile license and insurance from G. H. Yeo. 18-1f

E. R. Lawrence, manager of the Lyric Theatre, returned Thursday from Grants Pass, where he spent several days looking after business interests.

Bert Bashnahan left Thursday to join Johnny Finneran at Weed, where the young men have secured employment with the Weed Lumber Company.

Miss Verna McCann, a trained nurse of Grants Pass, who has been attending a case at the Granite City Hospital, returned to her home Friday evening.

Marion J. Miller, a former Ashland boy now living at Los Angeles, is visiting relatives in the city and renewing the acquaintance of old friends.

Tom Wright, recently employed in the big department store of the McCloud Lumber Company, has returned to his home in the Nob Hill district of Ashland.

A divorce case of local interest which was brought before the Circuit court of Jacksonville last week was that of Zepha Caldwell vs. Walter Caldwell.

Among the Medford young men who spent Sunday in Ashland were Frank Ray, Horace Bromley, William Beveridge, Harvey Ling, George Gates and several others.

Paul Williams motorcycled out to the Medford Country Club Saturday and was an interested spectator of the opening round of the southern Oregon tennis championship.

Fred Lockley, pen picture artist for the Portland Oregonian, was in the city last week and made several trips over the park, out to the springs and over to the Lowe ranch.

Mrs. Kathryn Murray of Forsyth, Mont., and Mrs. A. Griesener of Pueblo, Colo., spent Friday in the city, stopping over while en route to the San Francisco exposition.

Dr. Lillian Fowler, accompanied by her parents, arrived Friday evening from Eugene and have moved into the Bovin house on Third street. Dr. Fowler will practice in the city.

Carrol Wagner returns today from Eugene, where he has been employed since the close of the 1915 term of the University of Oregon and will spend a ten days' vacation in the city.

The Siskiyou grade was one of the most popular places in the county Sunday. A number of Ashland parties made an all-day trip over to the California line and took dinner along.

The Rev. J. K. Baillie of Phoenix has been named by the state presbytery as one of six Presbyterian ministers in the state to have charge of the extension of foreign mission work.

E. N. Butler of the Plaza confectionery, who has been fighting a combined attack of gripe and rheumatism, is now back on deck minus a few pounds of weight but feeling fit.

Ice cream social. Watch for the Japanese lanterns at 108 First avenue Wednesday night. Refreshments 10c. Everybody invited. 1t

Kenneth Williams of Grants Pass, well known in this city as a ball-player, now with the Cincinnati National league, closed his first week in the big brush with a batting average of .341.

J. C. Barnard, pedagogue, has resigned as a director of the Fruit and Produce Association owing to school duties out of town, and N. C. Dozier has been elected to fill the vacancy on the board.

C. E. Haight, who according to the Siskiyou News is a popular tonsorial artist of Yreka, brought his family over last week for a couple of days' visit with friends in Ashland and Medford.

Sport shirts and sport ties for men are the popular things for these hot days. Shirts $1.25 and ties 50c at Mitchell & Whittle's. 1t

J. J. Kenney, wife and family of Astoria were tourist visitors in the city Sunday and spent the afternoon in Ashland canyon. Jack Bey and P. S. Kenney were also members of the same party.

A new drink which is becoming popular throughout the valley is loganberry juice. A new industry is being built up with this new drink which will open up an immense field for the berry raisers.

Miss Vernon Pyland of Springfield, Mo., has been elected teacher in the second grade of the West Side school, filling the position formerly occupied by Miss Silva Brown, now Mrs. George Icehower.

Howard Frame, who suffered a broken jaw and serious cuts about the head in a recent automobile accident, is obliged to undergo an operation. His jaw failed to set straight and it must be broken again.

The Southern Pacific railroad has inaugurated a new convenience for tourists passing over its lines. Lunch boxes are now being sold on trains Nos. 16, 13, 14, 15 and 53, operating between Portland and Oakland, Cal.

Miss Mabel Nickerson of Sacramento arrived the last of the week and will visit with her aunt, Mrs. J. M. Wagner, and other friends and relatives in the city. From here she will go to Klamath Falls for a visit with relatives.

John W. Curry, representing the bureau of the census, department of commerce of the United States government, with headquarters at Washington, was a business visitor for several days in the city the last of the week.

J. M. Wagner returned Friday from Los Angeles, where he attended the Elks convention as a representative of the local lodge. He also visited relatives in San Diego and other California cities and visited the exposition at San Francisco.

Among the distinguished visitors to Crater Lake early in September will be Irvin S. Cobb, magazine writer and humorist. Cobb and party of friends left New York last week on an auto tour of the land, and scenic spots of the Pacific northwest will be visited.

Get your automobile license and insurance from G. H. Yeo. 18-1f

Mrs. Mary Lea of New York city, whose wealth is estimated at $40,000,000, and niece and maid, were among the distinguished visitors to Crater Lake this week. Mrs. Lea is one of the world's richest women. She journeyed by auto to Crater Lake, thence to Klamath Falls.

The thermometer climbed up to 104 in Medford Friday, according to the Mail-Tribune. A cool breeze kept the temperature here below the 100 mark. Travelling men from California say Ashland is a paradise compared to the intense heat of the Sacramento valley cities.

Mrs. William Patterson and daughter Margaret arrived in the city Sunday and will remain for the rest of the summer. They have recently been visiting their son and brother Harold at Portland. Miss Patterson attended the Oregon Agricultural College last term and expects to return in the fall.

We are giving a good liberal reduction on all silk and straw hats. Mitchell & Whittle. 1t

H. L. Kelly of Oregon City, newly appointed master fish warden, spent Friday inspecting the Gold Ray dam fishways and left Saturday to inspect the Ament dam fish ladders. He is on a tour of inspection of the rivers of the state and promises to investigate conditions at the mouth of the Rogue. He was formerly fish culturist at the Elk creek hatchery.

Mr. Reynolds, vice-president of the Postal Telegraph Company, passed through Ashland Sunday evening on train 16 en route to Portland and other northern points on a tour of inspection.

M. A. Walsh, the cattle buyer, has begun suit against the Southern Pacific for damages caused by being shaken up when the engine bumped the caboose in which he was seated, causing him to lurch forward, loosening his teeth. He asks $2,500 for mental and physical anguish, $25 for doctor's bill and $12.50 for hospital fee, a total of $3,037.50.

Albert L. Grutz of Portland is visiting Chester Stevenson for a few days. He has been taken all over Ashland, the park and to the springs, and is becoming more enamored of our city every day. Mr. Grutz is investigating valley conditions for the William McMasters Company of Portland, who are looking for investment propositions.

Salem Journal: Mrs. C. H. Ward of Boise, Idaho, has written to Governor Withycombe in an effort to locate her husband, whom she thinks might be in this state. She states in her letter that she is in the last stages of an incurable disease and is expected to die at any time. She asks him to return home and take care of the property and urges haste as she says she is nearly gone.

If a wheelbarrow runs too long without oil it squeaks. Your watch, poor little thing, also squeaks, though you can not hear it. Take it to Whited, the S. P. watch inspector, and have the "squeak" extracted, the watch cleaned, oiled and adjusted. 18-2t

The stamp mill of the Opp mine near Jacksonville will begin operations next Tuesday with a force of eleven men after years of idleness. Ore enough is ready to keep the mill in operation for three or four months. The gold values run from $5 to $6 per ton. Ten stamps will be operated. The mill is a twenty stamp. The Opp mine is one of the best gold producers in the county.

In 1834 grandfather could guess the time within 15 minutes—sometimes. That might have been near enough then; today, accuracy is demanded. The watch that you guess by these days we will make run correctly, guaranteeing our work. Remember the place, H. L. Whited, S. P. watch inspector, on the Plaza. 18-2t

Winn Crowson has established a camp at Long's cabin and intended spending a couple of weeks in the cool of the mountains with only an occasional visit to town. The continued hot weather has necessitated his almost continual attendance in the ice cream manufacturing department of his popular confectionery, but Winn does not seem to take the interruptions in his vacation much to heart.

New harness shop, new stock, new pads, straps, bridles and collars at Peil's. 85-1f

Howard Frame, who was injured in a recent automobile accident, underwent an operation at the local hospital Saturday, having his jaw, which was broken and failed to set straight, rebroken and patched up so that he will be able to make connections with his upper and lower molars. Howard was about again Saturday evening with a rigging on his jaw to keep it where it belonged but otherwise looking like his former self.

Get your watch repairing done at Johnson's Jewelry Store. 97-1f

Medford Tribune: While swimming in the Natatorium at Ashland Friday night Deputy Sheriff Curley Wilson had a narrow escape from drowning, sinking for the second time before being rescued. Wilson and party of friends were making merry in the tank. His companions prevailed upon him to leap from the springboard. Wilson did, though he could not swim. He became strangled, and in his frantic efforts to keep afloat suffocated himself. At first his friends thought he was joking, but when they realized the seriousness of the situation pulled him out. The alarm bell at the tank was sounded and the life savers responded.

Niagara Silk Gloves, McGee's, Kaiser Leatherette Gloves

JULY CLEAN-UP SPECIALS Better Than Ever Now

Many lots have been re-assorted and greater values put into these lots. Prices continue this week.

Better Waist Values Now $1.75 to $2.00 waists added to.....$1.19 Lot $2.25 to $2.50 waists added to.....$1.49 Lot

Spring Coats---$4.50 and $7.85 One lot $12.50 to $15.00 spring coats.....now $4.50 One lot $15.00 spring coats.....now $7.50

Parasols Re-assorted $1.95 lot.....now includes values from $2.50 to $5.00 Other lots 49c, 85c, $1.19, $1.49, $2.95

First Fall Suits Arrive Small advance showing are now on display. Our stock of suits will be entirely new this fall for we have none left to carry over. These are priced $19.50, $25.00, $30.00

Wide Imported Pongee, 58c Our second shipment of Imported Pongee—delayed in transit—is put into the 58c silk sale. It is a splendid quality, has the width and a low price.

WASH GOODS PRICES LOWERED 9c 12c 19c 29c Lot 12 1/2, 15c gingham, lawns, white goods, and other wash goods, 9c 25c ratine, now 12 1/2c. 1 lot 25c French gingham, printed flaxons, voilies, etc., 12 1/2c. A big lot of 25c to 50c voiles, organdies, crepes, French gingham, white goods, etc., 19c. Printed 40-inch voiles silk, stripe voiles, Bedford cords, etc., values up to 50c.

Blumauer-Frank Drug Company of Portland has started a move to establish drug farms for raising different drug plants. One hundred and forty men are busy laying track on the Willamette Pacific from the bridge north on Coos Bay.

Misses Helen Cook and Marie Brown spent several days the last of the week visiting friends in Medford. Kendall Bros. will start work on their 30-mile timber railroad out of Roseburg soon.

Coffee Poison Removed from the Coffee Kaffee Hag is the name for coffee with 95 per cent of the caffeine removed. You can now use coffee without the injurious after-effects. The Ashland Trading Company now has the Kaffee Hag in stock at 25c a pkg.

THE CITIZENS BANK OF ASHLAND Going to the San Francisco Exposition? It is the greatest fair ever held, and is attracting thousands of visitors. If you go, you will need some of our Travelers' Checks—the safest and most convenient way to carry your money. Used by the most experienced travelers—should be used by YOU. 4% ON SAVINGS DEPOSITS